

October 21, 1957

The Commission on Education met on October 21, 1957 with the following members present: Mr. Angier, Mrs. Aydlett, Mrs. Bookout, Mrs. Chewning, Mrs. Coble, Dr. Holton, Horace Mansfield, Rev. Queen, Rev. Shoaf, Mr. Umstead, Mr. Whitford.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Mr. Queen.

Mr. Whitford moved, Horace Mansfield seconded, that we give the young people our blessing about play for Christmas program. Mr. Whitford suggested that there be a churchwide open house directly after the Christmas program, December 22. Mr. Shoaf will head the committee to work with the young people.

Adult classes will nominate own superintendent of that department.

The members of the Committee on weekday school shall be:

Minister of Education
Superintendent of Sunday School
Chairman of Commission on Education
Superintendent of Children's Division
Superintendent of Nursery and Kindergarten
Lead teachers of kindergarten
Pastor, ex officio.

It was decided that the distribution of funds in various departments is satisfactory as it stands.

The Committee on Library shall consist of the Chairmen of the four Commissions.

Mr. Shoaf moved, Mrs. Bookout seconded, that a recording secretary be selected whose job will be to keep central record system.

It was reported that leadership at 8th grade level is needed.

A movie "It Happened in Ionia" was shown. This film related how one church in Ionia, Michigan approached the problem of lack of teachers to teach.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Dr. Sam Holton, Chairman
Mrs. Tom Coble, Secretary
