

August 19, 1967

The Commission on Education met August 19, 1957 with the following members present: Mr. Shoaf, Mr. Whitford, Prof. Wilson, Mr. Umstead, Mr. Chewning, Mrs. Bookout, Mrs. Aydlett, Miss Johnson, Miss Glass, Mrs. Coble.

In the absence of the Chairman, Miss Johnson, Vice-Chairman, presided.

The Meeting was opened with prayer by Prof. Wilson.

It was announced that Lillie Duke, Anchor, and Young Adult Classes have increased their contributions to budget. A letter from the Young Adult Class was read. Mr. Whitford moved, Mrs. Bookout seconded, that a letter to Young Adult Class be sent conveying thanks for cooperation.

Mr. Queen, Mr. Shoaf, and Mr. Whitford will encourage classes to select additional members for Commission on Education.

Mrs. Bookout moved, Whitford seconded that 38 Bibles be purchased for primary boys and girls being promoted to junior department. Approved.

Mrs. Bookout reported on Vacation Bible School (a copy of report is on file in secretary's records). Mr. Whitford moved that the Commission accept the report with gratitude. Approved.

No reports from Youth Division except those of various people who felt that this division is a very active group.

Mrs. Bookout moved, Mr. Whitford seconded, that the chair appoint a committee to plan Promotion and Rally Day - last Sunday in September - and that this committee also work out activities for Christian Education Week and World Communion Sunday. Approved. Committee appointed: Mrs. Bookout, Mr. Allen, Mrs. Aydlett, Mr. Whitford.

Regarding staff of Sunday School, Mr. Whitford moved, Mrs. Bookout seconded, that letters be sent to teachers thanking them and asking if they will serve another year. These letters to be signed by division superintendents and Minister of Education. Approved.

It was the opinion of the commission that a leadership training committee be appointed to serve in recruiting and training workers in the church school and that this committee be a standing one. Chair appointed the following: Sam Holton, Laurel Glass, Mr. Chewning, John Perian, Mrs. Spencer Ervin. Superintendents, - ec - J. C. Ervin

Mr. Whitford moved, Mr. Shoaf seconded, that money for postage be given to Mrs. Sam Holton (member of Home Visitation Committee) for letters to be sent to mothers. Approved.

Mr. Chewning moved that the meeting be adjourned.

Mr. Shoaf dismissed the meeting with prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Elizabeth Johnson, Vice-Chairman
Mrs. Tom Coble, Secretary
