

January 15, 1935.

The superintendent called the meeting to order, and without the reading of the minutes, several matters of important business were taken up.

The first matter was one concerning the drive on membership now under way in the adult department. There was felt to be a need for some such work throughout the church and church school, and the Board decided to ask the various departments and the Woman's Missionary Society to try to work out some way of keeping in touch with their present and past membership and of contacting new people in the community for affiliation with our work. The Woman's Missionary Society, in particular, was to have a committee responsible for looking up new families in the community and attempting to make them feel welcome and at-home in the community, whether or not ^{they came} into our church.

Mr. Holton then asked for definite arrangements for a Workers' Council supper. It was decided to have the supper on Tuesday night, January 29, at 6:30 P.M., preceded by a meeting of this Board at 5:45. Mrs. Ormond agreed to have her circle serve the supper, under the usual agreement.

Mrs. Ormond then asked about the set-up of the children's work for missionary education, and Reba Cousins, as the representative of the Missionary Society for this purpose, was asked to find out about it and see that the work was gotten under way as soon as possible. It was decided to ask Mrs. A.M. Gates to present the details of the plan at the Workers' Council supper meeting.

The question of the Workers' Library was then brought up again, and it was decided to present this also at the Workers' Council and try to enlist their co-operation in getting it started.

The superintendent of the Young People's Division was again considered but there seemed to be no proper person available. All members of the Board were asked particularly to keep this in mind and try to help the superintendent to get someone for the place.

The meeting was then dismissed with a prayer by the pastor.

The following members were present: Mr. Smith, Pfof. Holton, Mrs. Ormond, Mrs. Allison, and Reba Cousins.

