

February 7, 1944.

The Board of Christian Education of Duke Memorial Church held its regular meeting on the evening of Monday, February 7, at 7:30 in the Church Parlor.

In the absence of the chairman, Professor R. N. Wilson, vice-chairman, presided and opened the meeting with prayer.

The report of the general superintendent for the month of January was presented by Mr. Allen, as follows: Average attendance, 314; average enrollment, 625; average collection, $101.81; and visitors for the past two months, 160. This showed a slight increase over the superintendent's report for the same period in 1943. The treasurer's reports for December and January were presented and approved by the Board.

Mr. Stewart reported that painting was being done in the Primary Department. He also asked for suggestions as to possible teachers in that department.

Professor Wilson did not make a report on the Boy Scouts work. Instead he said that at the next meeting of the Board he would present a full report in order that a decision might be reached as to whether the Scout work should be continued for another year. The chief difficulty in carrying out such a program, Professor Wilson pointed out, was the lack of adult leadership.

Dr. Glenn called the attention of the Board to the dinner meeting to be held at the church on Wednesday, March 1, at which time "The Church After the War," by Bishop McConnell, would be studied. He urged as many as possible to attend.

At the suggestion of Professor Wilson, Miss Duffey was requested to discuss with Mr. George Harper the matter of the Young People's problems with a view to improving their entire program of activities, as well as to
