

Durham, N. C.

October 27, 1944.

Miss Jane B. Wilson,
133 S. Broad Street,
Winston-Salem, N. C.

Dear Jane:

This is a somewhat belated note of appreciation, written for the Board of Christian Education of Duke Memorial Church. At the last meeting of the Board I was requested, by the chairman and the members present, to write and thank you for the excellent work which you carried on in the Intermediate Department of the Church School and to tell you that very reluctantly your resignation had been accepted.

With best wishes for your happiness in your new work, I am

Sincerely yours,

Charlotte Corbin, Secretary.

October 22, 1944

Miss Anna W. Wilson, 123 S. Main Street,
St. Louis, Mo., U.S.A.

Dear Anna:

This is a most interesting letter which I received from the Board of Directors of the American Hospital Association. At the last meeting of the Board I was informed by the secretary that the meeting was held in the Hotel and the officials were all carried on to the International Convention of the French School and I felt very sorry to miss your meeting and had been absent.

With best wishes for your success in your new work, I am

Sincerely yours,

Charles E. Smith, Secretary.