

DURHAM MISSION TO SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS, OFFICERS, AND PASTORS

First Baptist Church, Durham.
February 11-13

(Sponsored by the Churches of Durham)

PURPOSE OF THE MISSION

The purpose of the Mission is to inspire and instruct Sunday School teachers, officers, and pastors in their role as evangelists; to show them how to enroll new pupils and how to bring all pupils to definite commitment to Christ as their Saviour and Leader; and to bring them a more vital, personal Christian experience. The further purpose of the Mission is related to the teachers' two-fold Evangelistic task:

1. To bring under the influence of Christian teaching all those not now receiving it.
2. To win to Christ and to membership in His Church all those reached and taught.

SUBJECTS FOR DISCUSSION IN FOUR GROUP MEETINGS, HELD SIMULTANEOUSLY

1. Sunday, 3:00 P.M., "Reaching the Unreached with Christian Teaching."
2. Monday, 7:30 P.M., "Winning to Christ Those We Reach and Teach."
3. Tuesday, 7:30 P.M., "How to Make the Mission Effective and Operative in Our Own Sunday Schools."

Evangelistic Conferences for all Ministers,
Monday and Tuesday, 10:00 -- 12:00

TEAM MEMBERS

I. Dr. Jesse M. Bader, New York City, New York. For the past ten years, Dr. Bader has been Executive Secretary, Department of Evangelism of the Federal Council. Dr. Bader has been working in the field of Evangelism for a number of years. As early as 1920, Dr. Bader became National Secretary of Evangelism for the Disciples of Christ. He organized the World Convention of the Disciples of Christ in 1930 and became the first president of this organization.

Dr. Bader will have charge of the group meetings with pastors, Denominational leaders of Evangelism, and Church School Officers.

II. Dr. James A. Jones, Charlotte, N. C. Dr. Jones has been Pastor of Myers Park Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, for the past five years. Prior to that, he was pastor in Henderson, N. C. He is one of the outstanding ministers of the Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Jones will be the platform speaker. On Monday evening, he will speak on "A Personal Faith for Today." On Tuesday evening, on "The High Calling of Teaching."

III. Dr. Raymond M. Veh, Harrisburg, Pa. Dr. Veh is Editor of the Evangelical Crusader, Harrisburg, Pa., which is the young people's journal of his denomination. He has directed student

First Baptist Church, Newark
February 11-12

(Sponsored by the Churches of Newark)

PURPOSE OF THE MISSION

The purpose of the Mission is to inspire and instruct Sunday School teachers, officers, and pastors in their role as evangelists; to show them how to enroll new pupils and how to bring all pupils to definite commitment to Christ as their Savior and Leader; and to bring them a new vital, personal Christian experience. The further purpose of the Mission is related to the teachers' two-fold evangelistic task:

1. To bring under the influence of Christian teaching all those not now receiving it.

2. To win to Christ and to membership in His Church all those reached and taught.

MINUTE FOR DISCUSSION IN YOUR GROUP MEETINGS, HELD SIMULTANEOUSLY

1. Sunday, 8:00 P.M., "Reaching the Unreached with Christian Teaching."
2. Monday, 7:30 P.M., "Training to Christ: Take We Pardon and Praise."
3. Tuesday, 7:30 P.M., "How to Make the Mission Effective and Creative in Our Own Sunday Schools."

Evangelistic Conferences for all Ministers,
Monday and Tuesday, 10:00 -- 12:00

TEAM MEMBERS

I. Dr. Jesse M. Eaker, New York City, New York. For the past ten years Dr. Eaker has been Executive Secretary, Department of Evangelism of the Federal Council. Dr. Eaker has been working in the field of evangelism for a number of years. As early as 1920, Dr. Eaker became National Secretary of Evangelism for the Division of Christ. He organized the World Convention of the Division of Christ in 1930 and became the first president of the organization.

Dr. Eaker will have charge of the group meetings with pastors. International leaders of Evangelism, and Grand School Officers.

II. Dr. James A. Jones, Hartford, Conn. Dr. Jones has been pastor of First Baptist Church, Hartford, Conn. for the past five years. Prior to that he was pastor in Hartford, W. Va. He is one of the outstanding members of the Evangelical Church.

Dr. Jones will be the platform speaker. On Monday evening he will speak on "A Personal Path for Today." On Tuesday evening on "The High Calling of Teaching."

III. Dr. Raymond E. Voll, Hartford, Conn. Dr. Voll is Editor of the Evangelical Witness, Hartford, Conn., which is the young people's journal of the denomination. He has directed several activities at the University of Illinois, and is director of the Pennsylvania Christian Endeavor Union. He is an author, singer, and a fine worker with youth.

Dr. Veh will be the leader for the teachers, officers, and members of the Youth Division.

- IV. Miss Elsie Miller, Nashville, Tenn. Miss Miller is thoroughly trained in the field of week-day religious education, in religious art, and has been for two years an assistant in the Department of Christian Education of children, the Methodist Church, with headquarters in Nashville, Tennessee. Miss Miller is a graduate of Boston University and was City Director of Religious activities for ten years, under direction of the Council of Churches, Wichita, Kan.

Miss Miller will lead the teachers and officers of the Children's Division.

- V. Dr. S. J. Patterson, Jr., Richmond, Virginia. Dr. Patterson is connected with the Presbyterian Church, U.S. He is an authority in the field of adult work in the Church. He is regarded as one of the most efficient men in the Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Patterson will be the leader of the teachers and officers of the Adult Division.

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION, PLEASE CALL OR WRITE TO ONE OF THE FOLLOWING PERSONS:

Rev. John C. Glenn, General Chairman,
% Duke Memorial Methodist Church, Durham. (Telephone, L-1091)

Rev. Stanley C. Harrell, Chairman of Programs,
President, Durham Council of Churches
1010 W. Markham Ave., Durham. (Telephone, X-3236)

Rev. Jesse H. Lanning, Committee Chairman,
President Durham Ministers Association
1207 Elizabeth Street, Durham. (Telephone, N-5674)

activities of the University of Illinois, and is director of the Lennaxville Christian Endeavor Union. He is an author, singer, and a fine worker with youth.

Dr. Veb will be the leader for the teachers, officers, and members of the Youth Division.

IV. Miss Elaine Miller, Nashville, Tenn. Mrs. Miller is thoroughly trained in the field of work-day religious education, in religious art, and has been for two years an assistant in the Department of Christian Education of the University of Tennessee.
She has also been a member of the Nashville, Tennessee, Miss Miller is a Graduate of Boston University and was the Director of Religious activities for two years, under direction of the Council of Churches, Windsor, Mass.

Miss Miller will lead the teachers and officers of the Children's Division.

V. Dr. A. Patterson, Jr., Richmond, Virginia. Dr. Patterson is connected with the Presbyterian Church, U.S. He is an authority in the field of adult work in the Church. He is regarded as one of the best officials in the Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Patterson will be the leader of the teachers and officers of the Adult Division.

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION, PLEASE CALL OR WRITE TO ONE OF THE FOLLOWING PERSONS:

Rev. John G. Dixon, General Secretary,
2 Park Row, New York City, N.Y. (Telephone, 1-1031)

Rev. Stanley G. Harrell, Chairman of the Board,
Presbyterian Board of Christian Education,
1010 E. Parkman Ave., Durham, N.C. (Telephone, 4-3368)

Rev. Jesse H. Lanning, Secretary,
Presbyterian Board of Christian Education,
1907 Elizabeth Street, Durham, N.C. (Telephone, 4-5024)