

The Board of Christian Education of Duke Memorial Methodist Church met on February 22 with the following members present: Dr. Seeley, Mr. Boddie, Mr. Brown, Miss Johnson, Mrs. Lee, Mr. Whitford, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Gates, Miss Umberger, Mr. Cranford, and Mrs. Stone.

It was reported that the Board of Stewards had voted to ~~give~~ the offering taken on Laymen's Sunday to Camp Don Lee. Mrs. Gates said that her class had also voted to give $25 to this project.

Three young people and Dr. Bookhout are scheduled to go to the community service workshop this week end.

Mrs. Lee's department received four rugs from the old parsonage and now needs only one to use as a mat.

The nursery school committee reported that a survey is being made to see the extent of the need for the school. Plans are being made to send out letters to parents in the church. Mrs. Helen Whitaker has applied for the job as nursery school director.

Miss Johnson announced that a leadership training school is to be held at St. Paul's on March 27, 28, 29. Three classes are to be taught: the church plans for children, youth at worship taught by Mrs. Davis of Lynchburg, and Christian evangelism taught by Dr. Walton. Mr. Whitford reported that the plan is to divide the expenses for this school proportionally among the churches. It was voted to appoint Miss Johnson and Mr. Whitford as our representatives on the training school committee and to authorize them to appropriate Duke Memorial's part. ~~Approval of the~~ measures which they have already taken was voiced.

All members of the Board agreed to try to get some representatives to go to the Junluska adult convocation on June 24-27. Miss Johnson will also visit some of the class meetings and try to interest various people.

Mr. Whitford presented the following figures to the Board:
