

The Duke Memorial Board of Christian Education met on July 26 with the following members present: Mr. Umstead, Mrs. Lee, Miss Lee, Mr. Whitford, Mr. Boddie, and Mrs. Stone.

The church-wide picnic held on July 21 was a success with approximately 125 present. The guests asked that another be held in August, and the Board recommended that this be done.

Mr. Boddie reported that the contract for the heating of the Education Building had been let, and that the work would be done around September 15.

Weektime

The new/Nursery School committee met last week. This committee is composed of Mrs. Lee, chairman, with Mrs. Darkis, Mrs. A. M. Pittman, Miss Johnson, and Mr. Whitford. Mrs. Kraybill is to be the full time teacher for this school. She formerly taught at Willow Run, Michigan. Letters to parents are to be sent out this week.

The Junior Department is to sponsor the program for the fifth Sunday in July opening assembly of the Church School.

The Associate Board of ~~Stewards~~ is working on a directory for the bulletin for the fifth Sunday.

A ~~thank~~ you note for Christian Home was read to the Board, and it was reported that the gift of Christian Home to parents of new babies has met with great success.

Mrs. Scott's resignation from this Board was accepted with regrets, and the secretary was instructed to write her a letter expressing the regrets of the group that she is leaving the city and wishing her much success in her new home.

Mr. Boddie reported on the Junaluska conference which he recently attended.

Mrs. Lee stated that shades are needed for the two nursery rooms on the second floor.

The Young People have just had their Youth Activities Week with an average attendance of 25 per night. Mr. Howard from Chapel Hill was the speaker. Two delegates went to Louisburg.

Attendance is averaging 400-425 per Sunday, according to Mr. Umstead.

An extended session for the Sunday morning church school should be kept in mind. At the present time Mrs. McCarson needs an assistant on Sunday morning.

Miss Johnson is working on the delegate list to go to Junaluska. It was voted to pay the expenses of any delegates who can attend.

Mr. Boddie suggested that letters be sent to some 300-400 people who might work in the church. This might help to gain more workers who are needed.

The Next meeting will be Wednesday, August 23.
