

MINUTES OF A REGULAR MEETING
OF THE COMMISSION ON STEWARDSHIP
AND FINANCE - DUKE MEMORIAL CHURCH

March 28, 1962

A regular meeting of the Commission on Stewardship and Finance was held in the Dining Room of the Church at 6:00 o'clock P. M. on Wednesday, March 28, 1962, with Chairman, Tom White, presiding.

Members present were:

Reverend Mr. Bishop	Dr. John Glasson
Mrs A. H. Borland	Tom Goad
Reverend Mr. Bradshaw	C. J. Jones
E. C. Brooks, Jr	Mrs Arthur Kale
Charles Chewning	J. A. McLean
J. H. Coman	Marshall Spears
John Dozier	R. W. White
Tom White

The meeting was opened with prayer by Reverend Mr. Bishop. There followed a discussion of a tentative budget for the year 1962-63. There was no suggested change in the music budget, while an increase of only $3.00 was added to the church school budget. The Music and Education Committees, however, requested through the Reverend Mr. Bishop that a repair of the various pianos of the church be considered. It was estimated by reliable sources that six of the church's pianos are not of sufficient value to warrant repair, while the remainder of them could be put in good condition for $650.00. Since pianos of the type mentioned have a value of approximately $2200.00, Mr. Jones stated that they should be repaired and that there was a sufficient sum in the budget to take care of the expenditure. It was therefore, ordered that the proper committee of the church take care of the matter.

With further reference to the items which make up next years budget, the Committee recommended that the pastor receive an increase in salary to $9600.00, the associate's salary increased to $5500.00, and that Mr. Holsinger continue in his present capacity at $2400.00 per year. Mr. Jones was authorized to bring the tentative budget to the Official Board at its regular meeting to be held on April 3, 1962 for final approval.

Mr. Dozier and Mr. Goad spoke enthusiastically concerning the work of their committee. It was suggested by them that all those having official connection with the church talk to other members of the church in an effort to prepare them for the intensive cultivation that will begin at once.

The review was conducted with a view to determining the status of the Commission on the Status of Women, which was established in 1951. It was found that the Commission was not functioning as intended and that its activities were limited to a few meetings and reports. The Commission was not able to carry out its duties and its work was not of a high quality. It was recommended that the Commission be reorganized and that its activities be expanded to include a wider range of subjects and that it be given more authority and resources.

The Commission was reorganized and its activities were expanded to include a wider range of subjects and that it be given more authority and resources. The Commission was given the authority to conduct investigations and to make recommendations to the President and the Congress. It was also given the authority to hold public hearings and to receive testimony from interested parties. The Commission was also given the authority to conduct research and to publish reports on its findings.
