WHAT'S YOUR "I.Q."?

Here's an I.Q. test for you. But instead of "I.Q." standing for "Intelligence Quotient," it stands for "Invitation Quotient." Take the test and see how well you do.

1. Have you spoken to anyone since worship on Sunday to share what Christ and His Church mean to you?

2. Do you often speak to those who have been absent to express your concern for them?

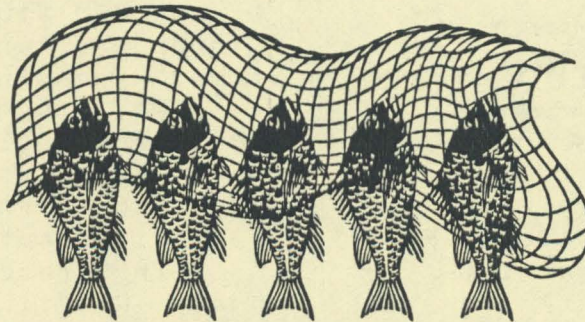

3. Have you invited a newcomer to come with you to church in the past month?

4. Have you invited anyone who doesn't attend Sunday School of Church to visit yours with you?

5. Have you spoken to someone you did not know who was at church and given your personal word of greeting and welcome?

6. Have you taken time to greet those who sit next to you before or after worship services?

Now that you've taken the test, how well did you do? If you got six "YES" answers, your I.Q. is terrific! Two or less "YES" answers puts you in the category of "cold fish." Seriously, there are people all around you every day who are waiting for someone to care enough about them to offer a warm, genuine invitation to their church. Why not try to increase your I.Q. this week?

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

Something Wonderful
Is about to Happen!

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL is coming July 9-13 for children ages 2-6! We will be meeting in the Weekday School rooms downstairs from 8:30-12:00 noon each day. We expect to have lots of fun activities indoors and outdoors and learn about the lives of people in the Bible. Please register your children for Bible School by sending your registration form to Mary Lee Bailey by June 22.

Children are encouraged to bring friends, but please register friends also. At this time we need one more teacher, as well as others to help with refreshments, outdoor games, and short worship services. Teenagers are welcome helpers.

IT'S NOT TOO LATE to sign your children up for MUSIC AND DRAMA CAMP. If you've misplaced your application, there are lots more in the Church Office or call Ann Stallings (683-3467) and she'll mail you one. We will have music, drama, Bible stories, games and art. Our musical is "Oh, Johah!"

*All

MUSICAL "Oh, Jonah!" on Friday,
July 13, at 7:30 p.m. in Whitford

CHILDREN'S WORSHIP

Sunday, July 15, will be CHILDREN'S SUNDAY at Duke Memorial. Rev. Carson has asked children to participate in the worship service by reading scripture and singing. Music and Drama Camp and Vacation Bible School children will sing. The sermon will be especially for children (and all God's children). Children are very important to Jesus and they are special in our church.

Day Camp

will be Tuesday, Aug. 14 to Friday, Aug. 17, for rising 3rd-7th graders. Contact Ann Stallings to enroll your children.

You have made possible the first new building at Camp Don Lee in years, enabled by "Spirit For Tomorrow" giving. A 73'x 34' Camp Don Lee Bathhouse was started early in March. This will be completed in time for summer campers, Sunday, June 17. This is a solar-passive facility. As soon as additional capital funds are available, four new female cabins are scheduled.

YOUR MINISTRY OF PLANNING A CHRISTIAN FUNERAL

Larry Brasher recently spoke to the United Methodist Women about the responsibility and privilege each of us has of planning funeral services -- for loved ones and for ourselves. Planning your own funeral or memorial service can be an effective witness to the faith that has guided your life.

Andy Langford's booklet, Your Ministry of Planning a Christian Funeral, can serve as an excellent guide in your planning. Copies ARE NEW AVAILABLE at the Church Office for $2.50.
