UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

A new circle of United Methodist Women is being formed to meet the needs of women under 35. Ann Wilson will lead an initial planning session at the home of Linda Wilson, 302 Watts Street, on Monday, October 29 at 7:30 p.m. At this session, possible meeting times and days will be discussed as well as interest areas and needs to be met. Please come for dessert and coffee and help us take this exciting step in the life of UMW.

Are there other age or interest groups who are not currently included in United Methodist Women. We would be happy to begin other new circles, organized around specific interest or age groups. Please contact Linda Wilson (682-6923) or Nancy Stark (490-0062) if you are aware of such a group.

TOOTH FAIRY TALES

Do you have a story about an encounter with the Tooth Fairy? Has someone in your family had a sad or funny or touching experience with this magical lady? Has a child that you know said something amusing or enlightening about her? UMW Ways and Means Chair Betty Craig says that EVERYBODY has a Tooth Fairy story. She is compiling a collection of such stories and would like your contribution. The compilation will be printed and published as a UMW fundraiser. If you have a story, anecdote or quote to contribute, please call Linda Wilson (682-6923) or Betty Craig (489-0666) or put your story in the UMW box in the church office.

METHODISM CLASS BEGINS
OCTOBER 10TH

Beginning Sunday, October 10, a class on United Methodist history, theology, and doctrine will be taught for all interested persons. This class is particularly designed to be catechetical
for persons new to United Methodism.
However, it is open to everyone, and certainly every Methodist of longer standing might find it renewing and enlightening. The class will be held on Sunday mornings during the Sunday School hour (9:45 - 10:40 a.m.) and will be held in Whitford Hall. This class will be co-taught by the pastor, Dr. Mark W.
Wethington, and his father, Dr. L. Elbert Wethington. Just show up for the first class on October 10th. We will meet for about 10 weeks.
