WHO'S WHO IN SUNDAY SCHOOL

(Our Teachers and Workers!!!)

There are 41 of them! Can you find and circle the last names of our Sunday School teachers in this puzzle? They are positioned vertically, horizontally, and diagonally. They may even be spelled backward. Keep this until next week to check yourself - we'll list them all for you then.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST - OCTOBER 23

The Senior Highs are getting their griddles hot in preparation for cooking golden, delicious pancakes for you Sunday morning! They will be serving from 8:15-9:30 in the Fellowship Hall. If you didn't buy a ticket this past Sunday, never fear, you can still make a reservation by calling the church office. Adult cost will be $1.50 and the cost for children will be $1.00.

APPRECIATION on the part of all of us is expressed to Tom Coble, Ed Hammond, Paul Lancaster, Mary Whanger, Pat and Bill Coman for their leadership in Laity Day, 9 October. Their witness shared with all of us is a blessing to each one of us.

BUSY BUSY BUSY is the word for the church calendar in November and December. Groups planning meetings involving use of the facilities of the church, and particularly the Fellowship Hall and the services of our hostess Eva Martin, are asked to schedule immediately with the office and Mrs. Martin to avoid disappointment by reason of conflicts in schedule. Thank you.

SYMPATHY: The pastors and congregation express their love and sympathy to the family of Wayne B. Leftwich because of his recent death.

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME will end Sunday morning, 30 October, at 2:00. This means that clocks should be turned back one hour Saturday evening, i.e., if the clock shows 10:00, re-set it to 9:00. This gives back to us the hour of sleep which we gave up last April. Enjoy it and be early for Sunday School!

VISITING PREACHERS:
30 October: Reformation Sunday
The Reverend Helen Steiner Smith
Dorsey Emmanuel UMC, Baltimore, Maryland

6 November:
Dr. Arthur Kale of our own congregation
