YOU ARE INVITED!!

Every one in the Duke Memorial Church family is invited for luncheon next Sunday, 20 November, following the morning worship service. This is a Church Family Fellowship meal as part of our Thanksgiving season. The Commission on Missions is the sponsoring group; the "taste test" resulted in the day's menu. Your meal will be good to your taste; it will satisfy your hunger; it will be good for your body; it will be a demonstration step toward a simpler life style; and it will cost the enormous price of fifty cents per person. This is not a "starvation" meal. Members of the Commission believe that all of our family will be astonished at what can be done in simpler living and in food conservation.

In this time of global food shortage (despite temporary overproduction in the United States), is it not appropriate that we learn what we should and should not eat, in order to make food resources available for hungry people - and improve our own health in the process? Primarily because of consumption of grain-fed meat, the average North American uses five times as much grain yearly as a fortunate person living in an area of the world designated as "poor". The unfortunate there simply starve.

The children of our church have been studying world hunger. Some of their hand work will be on display at the luncheon. Also there will be recipes for other satisfying 50¢ meals as well as the More with Less Cookbook. This book is a mine of information about simple, healthier living. Many of these meals are also less demanding on the one doing the cooking than some of our present practices!

Two brief presentations (ten minutes or less) will be made as part of the meal. One dealing with poverty and hunger right here in Durham, is to be given by Mrs. Betty Kelly of the Durham County Department of Social Services. The other, about the happy and beneficial outcome of a simpler life style in terms of nutrition and food consumption, will be given by Barbara Metzler of our own congregation. Barbara is responsible for food production and preparation on the Duke West Campus.

You are invited! This is timely, challenging, and a blessedly wonderful way to open our Thanksgiving celebration. Please join us. Tickets will be on sale 13 November following the morning service, from the church office and in adult classes.

Commission on Missions, Elizabeth Bookhout, chairman

A SPECIAL TIME OF THE YEAR:

The frost is on the pumpkin, the nights are getting chilly and we all know what that means. ...Fall Festival and Bazaar time is here once again. This year the event is scheduled for the Fellowship Hall and Education Annex for November 16 at 9 a. m. until 8:30 p. m. A great celebration is being planned for this year with handmade woodwork, crafts, needlework, handmade purses and plants in plentiful supply.

There are also some new areas such as "Elegant Extras" and "Geegaws and Gincracky"..... yep you heard right, "Geegaws and Gincracky", and of course we will have a lot of rich and fattening baked goods as we have in past years.

The Christmas Room is going to be very special this year, with some holiday centerpieces and unique Christmas ornaments and specialties that will go fast....first come, first serve. Those "lip smackin" jellies and preserves are going to once again be available and there will be a soup and sandwich luncheon from 11 till 2 and a spaghetti supper (compliments of the MYF) from 6 till 7.

This is a special time for our church each year. The members of the United Methodist Women's organization have put in a lot of work to make this a special celebration for our entire church family. The money is needed and goes each year to worthy and charitable causes. Come be a part of this happy time...and bring your pocketbooks and wallets.

OUR THANKSGIVING SERVICE will be held on Thanksgiving morning, 24 November, at 10 a. m. Mr. Wallace will be the preacher. The offering will be Duke Memorial's annual gift to the work of "Meals on Wheels" in Durham. This service to our infirm and elderly citizens merits our support and has always received it in good measure.

ORGAN RECITAL: Debra Reilly, 8:15 p. m. Friday, November 18 in Duke Chapel. This congregation is cordially invited to attend.

OUR CHARGE CONFERENCE, under the leadership of our District Superintendent, H. Langill Watson, will convene in the Lillie Duke Classroom, Tuesday, 15 November, at 8:15 p. m. A brief meeting of the Administrative Board at 7:45 will precede the Charge Conference. The Charge Conference is our annual meeting with our superintendent through whom goes the connectional link of Duke Memorial with the Methodist Church everywhere. Some of the matters are routine and others will be exceptional. Recommendation of Don Settle for Candidacy for Ordained Ministry is an important matter of business. This is an open meeting to which all church members are invited.

"GOOD NEWS, NORTH CAROLINA" will be part of our morning worship on Sunday, 20 November.

NEW ARRIVAL: Borned to James Howard and Anne Hurst Howard baby girl, Kelly Garfield Howard, on October 27, 1977 in Wake Forest. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Howard. Congratulations and best wishes to this fine family.

SYMPATHY: The pastors and congregation of Duke Memorial express their love and sympathy to Mrs. Lonie Long because of the death of her sister, Mrs. Mattie Webster Durham, on Thursday, November 3, 1977.

THE SANCTUARY CHOIR: We invite you to join our study of the music of great and lesser known composers; men whose spiritual experiences moved them to write their heartsongs, that others might share their heights of praise and adoration of God. The glory of the Christian faith takes on new intensity for the singer and the listener when expressed in song. This itself is the gift of God. If you haven't thought about coming into the choir before, now is the time! You may be the person we're looking for, and we assure you that your faith will be enriched with this experience. Rehearsals - Thursdays, 7:30 p. m.
