

DUKE MEMORIAL MESSENGER

VOLUME XIII

OCTOBER 22, 1978

NUMBER 41

WHERE ARE YOU?

Ruth Phelps is involved in every good thing in the life of our congregation. A few days ago, she gave us this little article with permission to use it when we needed it. As we are working to complete our Every Member Commitment, I sense that it is timely and valuable. As you read it, substitute "church" for "school". In it, where are you?

"COOPXRATION"

"Xvxn though my typxwritxr is an old modxl, it works quitx wxll xxxcpt for onx of thx kxys. I havx many timxs wishxd that it workxd prfxctly. It is trux that thxrx arx forty-onx kxys that function wxll xnough, but just onx kxy not working makxs thx diffxrxncx.

"Somxtimxs it sxxms to mx that schools arx somxwhat likx my typxwritxr - not all thx kxy pxoplx arx working proprly. As onx of thxm, you may say to yoursxlf, "Wxll, I am only onx pxrson, I don't makx or brxak thx school." But it doxs makx a big diffxrxncx, bxcausx a school, to bx xffxctivx, nxxds thx activx participation of xvxy pxrson.

"So thx nxxt timx you think you arx only onx pxrson and that your xfforts arx not nxxdxd vxry much, rxmxbxr my typxwritxr and say to yoursxlf,

"I am thx kxy pxrson in thx school and I am nxxdxd vxry much."

"This is what happxns to thx wholx school, and multiply this by many timxs - thx wholx thing just doxsn't makx sxnsx!"

Don't be a broken key -- be a usable one

"I'll Quit Tomorrow"

Members of the Duke Memorial congregation are invited to a showing of the film, "I'll Quit Tomorrow" at Trinity United Methodist Church, October 18, at 7:30 p. m.

The film deals with Alcoholism, what it is, how it manifests itself; and teaches us how to be effectively involved in the dynamics of treatment and recovery.

The storyline of the film tells of what happened to Steve Miller and his family as he develops the illness of alcoholism, describing how it progressed in his family and work life. It also describes the behavior of the significant persons around Steve and gives help in effective intervention by family and employers.

NURSERY CARPET

Our toddlers are now toddling around on a new wall-to-wall carpet that has been installed recently in the Crib and Toddler Nursery. Mary Vickers, Debbie Driver, and Margaret McCotter are our most faithful and wonderful nursery workers, and they have called to say how appreciative they are for this new addition to their room. Their thanks and ours appropriately goes to Circle 6 for financing the project and to Polly Mixon for doing all the legwork - contacting, selecting, ordering, etc. (Thanks also to Kay Herman, who worked so hard to upgrade our nursery facilities before she moved and whose idea it was to get the carpet in the first place.

The next step in improving the environment of infants and toddlers is painting, both the room and furniture. Any volunteers?
