

DUKE MEMORIAL MESSENGER

VOLUME XVI

AUGUST 15, 1982

NUMBER 33

GETTING TO KNOW YOU: The Faggart's are back from vacation. We had fun. We relaxed. We worked. Now we are back rested, and ready to give you our undivided attention.

We want to know you! In order to accomplish this desire we request that any of you who would help by inviting three or more families to your home for a couple hours would do just that and invite your ministers. If we had 30 or 40 of you to respond we could meet many of our people in a very short time. We would like to give Tuesday and Thursday evenings to this project for the next few months. Other days may be available as the schedule permits. If you will help please call the Church office as soon as possible.

FAGGART'S PLEASANTLY SURPRISED! We left for vacation knowing that the parsonage committee was going to have the shrubs trimmed, some painting done on the inside and a general clean up at the parsonage. We were overwhelmed when we returned home to discover the parsonage painted, completely redecorated, new carpets, new curtains, furniture covered, bedrooms painted, and floors redone. What a beautiful home! Thanks to the parsonage committee in general and Ran and Shirley Few, Ken Howard, Caroline Thomas, Edith Toms, Caroline Sasser, and Dottie Ritchie in particular. We can truthfully say . . . "We have never lived in a more beautiful home." Thanks! Thanks so much.

TOM LATIMER FINISHES SUMMER ASSIGNMENT. We have been blessed in the past several months to have Tom Latimer on our staff. His pleasant wit, analytical mind, and positive contributions to worship and church programs have endeared him to us all. We are sorry he is leaving. We wish for him the very best, and God's richest blessings. Thanks Tom for all you have done.

-- T. M. Faggart

THANK YOU! Let me take this chance to thank everyone at Duke Memorial for the opportunity to minister and learn. This summer I have found no closed doors here as I have attended meetings, fellowship times, and worship. You have taken an interest in my life and career and have graciously allowed me a place in your church life. Your support and love has helped shape my understanding of the church as an instrument of God's Kingdom. I rejoice that divinity students (or anyone) can have such an experience at Duke Memorial!

Gratefully,

Tom Latimer
