

CHURCH WORLD SERVICE DISASTER BLANKETS

Refugees, Homeless. These words describe reality for more than 14 million men, women and children in our world. The causes are many -- war, disaster, civil strife. The results are tragically the same -- people moving, running almost empty handed. For thousands of refugees and disaster victims a Church World Service blanket provides not only warmth but shelter -- a tent or roof between a family and bad weather; a bed on otherwise bare ground or floor; a partition for privacy in a crowded refugee camp; or a tote in which to carry a few salvaged belongings.

Each year CWS ships more than 300,000 blankets. In 1981 blankets were sent to 29 countries, most recently Poland and Lebanon. They are special wool-blend blankets that CWS can buy from the manufacturer for only $5.00 each.

If you've ever listened to the news of the terrible plight of these people with anguish in your heart and wished there were something you could do to help, something that would make a difference and let them know somebody cares, perhaps you would like to respond with a gift of money to help provide blankets. MAKE YOUR CHECK TO DUKE MEMORIAL CHURCH AND LABEL IT FOR CWS BLANKETS. Or take an offering in your Sunday School Class or Circle. Our contributions will be sent to CWS by September 30, 1982.

LET'S COMMUNICATE:

Ring The Bells for Bethany

On Sunday, September 12, 1982 we at Duke Memorial Methodist Church will celebrate "Bells for Bethany", an historical 1886 spirit of an enthusiastic Sunday School congregation. The day begins with exciting Sunday School class events throughout the church, onto our special morning Worship Service, and ending with a spectacular luncheon in Whitford Hall honoring our outstanding Sunday School teachers, along with other "surprises".

Plan to join hands in the coming events of this glorious worship celebration Sunday with your period costumes and spiritual enthusiasm as we revive our forefathers hopes and dreams for the continued growth of our Sunday School and our church.

MEMORIAL GIFT TO LIBRARY

The family of A. LeRoy Cox have given a magnificent book entitled World-Famous Paintings, edited by Rockwell Kent in Mr. Cox's memory. We are very grateful for this worthy addition to our Library.

CALLING FOR PROSPECTIVE ACOLYTES: Training sessions for prospective acolytes will be held in the Sanctuary on Sunday, September 19, and Sunday, September 26, from 4 - 5 p. m. If you are in 5th - 10th grades and don't have a moustache, come to these sessions and learn how you can enrich your life and serve your Church in a very important way.

OUR KNOWN HOSPITAL SICK to be remembered in your prayers. If you know of anyone else please call the church office.

DCGH: George Lindsay 4121

DUKE NORTH: Julian Marshall CIC 7207

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN will meet on Monday, September 13, at 11:00 a. m. in the Bradshaw Room. Circles 1, 2 and 3 will meet at 10:00. Frances Harvey will have the meditation. Guest speaker will be Reverend Nathan R. Byrd, Director of Public Relations and Development of the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. A group of men from the Home will sing.

Circle 1, Martha Brown and Annie John Williams, co-chairmen, will serve the lunch. All women of the church are invited.

BEGINNING OF WORSHIP: In order to facilitate a more consistent beginning to worship the service will start for a while with the acolytes, choir, and ministers processing. The Call to Worship will be led from the back of the Sanctuary. This should allow all of us to begin worship without interruptions. An additional advantage may be the choir leading us in the singing of the hymns. Our goal is to have everyone involved in a meaningful worship experience.

JUNIOR AND CAROL CHOIRS RESUME: On Sunday, September 19, the Junior and Carol Choirs will have a "Welcome to Choir" Party and rehearsal from 5:00 to 5:45 in the Choir Room (Sanctuary Building). The Carol Choir includes boys and girls age 5 (Kindergarten) through second grade. They sing in church three times during the year, and learn about shout music and the church through simple songs, musical games and dancing. The Junior Choir consists of boys and girls in the third through the sixth grades. They sing in church once a month. If you know of a child who might be interested, please call Jane Lynch (489-8588 - home, or 688-1901 - church office) to inquire.
