Most merciful God, as You raised Jesus Christ from the dead, so Your clear intent is to lift each of us from the death of sin into the life of righteousness. How strange it is that we hesitate at accepting so great and precious a gift. Forgive us for our fumbleings and false starts, and for our devotion to ourselves instead of to Your will. In the glow of Easter, grant us the grace to have our minds so fixed on Jesus Christ that in all things, He is pre-eminent. So shall Your will be done in us and Your Kingdom come, through the same Jesus Christ in Whose Name we pray. Amen.
