Our Father, we are here this morning because by Your Spirit, You have called us together. How wonderful it would be if we could honestly say that always when You call, we respond. The facts of life are otherwise. So now we must confess our sins, our failures, our faults, our frequent unwillingness to respond to Your call. Create in us clean spirits and loving hearts, that with unreserved devotion and faithfulness, we may serve You in joy and obedience all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
