Our heavenly Father, the Scriptures command us in every way, day by day, to praise the Lord. This is done truly only when our lives and our words come together. We confess with sorrow that we see too often a gap between the two. As today we are here gathered, we pray that You grant to us right spirits and clean hearts, so that by undivided attention and ever-growing love, word and life come together to the glory of Jesus Christ and to everlasting life for us through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
