Most merciful God, we thank You that You call us to involvement where life is hard and choices are difficult. Grant us grace to give ourselves to all in need. Forgive us for the times when we have in haste, or in carelessness, turned away from the good we could have done. Forgive us for having been more involved with our own comfort and ease than with the survival and meaningful life for those about us. Forgive us, Lord, so that by Your grace we may do much better in putting into discipleship and disciplined living all to which Jesus calls us. Grant us these and all other needful blessings through Jesus, whom we rejoice to acknowledge as Saviour and Lord. Amen.
