The Prayer of Confession (In unison)

Most merciful Father, we are called to be Your people. When we think of how little we have done in the work of Your Kingdom, we confess that the possible which You have placed before us has not become reality in us. For things done and for things undone, for privileges neglected and for missed opportunities, we pray for Your forgiveness. Quicken our hearts by the work of Your Holy Spirit that we may see things as they are and most particularly, see ourselves as You see us. Then, O Lord, renew in us the vision of what You mean us to be and move us in that direction, according to Your will and Your love which are ours through Jesus Christ in Whose Name we pray. Amen.
