VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

"Marketplace 29 A.D."

Last week, June 23-26, Vacation Bible School took place at Duke Memorial with many participants enjoying crafts, storytelling, learning together and sharing refreshments. Appreciation is extended to everyone who helped make Vacation Bible School a great week. The planning committee for VBS of Linda Wilson, Para Drake, Debra Fedyshun, Linda Parrish, Caroline Sasser, and Dotty Ritchie created an experience that children, as well as the adults who participated in the event, will remember for many years to come.

Specific appreciation is given to those persons who helped in leadership for Vacation Bible School:

Nursery Worker: Ellen Sewell

Leaders of "Tribes" for the children: Caroline Sasser, Karen Carr,
Mary Canada, Dotty Ritchie, Lisa Coble

Youth Helpers: Caroline Ritchie, Laura Ritchie, Angela Justice,
Kristen Stallings, Kelly Eggleston, Sara Justice,
Melissa Sellers, Allison Jones

Crafters: Omar and Helen Fink, Hilda Coble,
Todd Warren, Sandy Graham,
Donna Elium

Refreshments and Newspaper Publicity: Para Drake

Special Helpers: Josephine Wilson, Tom Hargitt, Tom Coble, Suzanne Schuett, James Cohan, III, Chris Hamlet and the Boy Scouts (for the tents)
and the Museum of Life and Science (for the animals)

Storytellers: Rick Commander
Rod Mullen
Ellen Metcalf

A special thanks is given to this year's Vacation Bible School director, Linda Wilson, for her creativity, organization and enthusiasm for this unique event recreating the times of Christ. Thanks again for everyone who helped with VBS, it was terrific!

The Moment of Fellowship*The Collect (In unison)

Eternal God, you have built your church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord and redeemer. Amen.

The Responsive Reading of the Psalms

Psalm 44:1-8

All: We have heard, O God with our ears, our ancestors related to us,

Leader: How you did such deeds in their days, in days now past, with your own hand. You disposed nations to transplant our ancestors; you drove people like sheep and sent them away. For not by the sword did we gain this land; our strong arms did not save us.

People: It was your right hand and mighty arm; the light of your face was their sign of your favor.

All: You are still my king, my God; command the salvation of Jacob's descendants!

Leader: With you, we are rams who smash our oppressors. Knowing you we trample those who confront us.

People: For I do not trust in my bow; it is not my sword that will save me.

Leader: It is you who must save me from my oppressors and put to shame those who hate us.

All: Then we could praise you all day long; and celebrate your name forever.The Gloria PatriThe Affirmation of Faith

The Anthem

O How Amiable

R. Vaughan Williams

Text: O how amiable are Thy dwellings, Thou Lord of hosts! My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God. Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house, and the swallow a nest whereshe may lay her young, even Thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in Thy house; they will be alway praising Thee. The glorious majesty of the Lord our God be upon us. Prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper Thou our handywork. O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.

CONFERENCE SUMMER SCHOOL August 1-3, 3-6, 1986 Methodist College, Fayetteville.

This year's conference Summer School is entitled "Values and Technology in Tension." This theme is carried forth through the classes offered in the following list: Crossroads in Southern Asia, Suffering and the Christian Community of Faith, Technology in Tension with Human Values, United Methodist Women: Basic Course on Mission and Financial Interpretation, Peace and Justice: Christian Perspectives on Shalom in Human Life, Lay Evangelism Visitation, Genesis: God's Purposes for the Creation, Christian Ethics: Values to Shape the Technological Revolution, Christian Parenting: Family Influences that Mold Character, Celebrate Marriage: A Marriage Enrichment Experience, Teaching Faith and Values in the Sunday School, Teaching Children in a Variety of Contexts, and United Methodist Men: Spiritual Journey for Men.

There are two sessions for Conference Summer School, August 1-3 and 3-6. You are encouraged to attend one of these sessions and choose a course or two to attend. If you are interested or want more information about Conference Summer School, please see Ellen Metcalf or the overall dean for Conference Summer School, a member of Duke Memorial, Dr. Ed Hammond. Congratulations Ed!

PERSONAL COMPUTER FUND REPORT AND ADDITIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS REQUEST:

Following an appeal to individuals of the Administrative Board and the Committee on Finance and a "Bulletin" appeal to the entire congregation the fund had received $2030 as of Sunday, June 15. This is an excellent start toward the goal of $6000 to $7000 needed for the entire PC System. For those who have already contributed you are to be thanked for your early response. For those who have not yet responded and who can help in this effort please send your contribution to Carolyn Watson, our Financial Secretary at the Church Office, or place your contribution in the collection plate next Sunday or a future Sunday. Any contribution needs to be clearly identified by "For PC". We hope to receive the required funds by the middle or end of July so that the system can be installed and underway by early September. Contributions made in the near future will help assure the success of this project and the proposed schedule.
