Conference Summer School. . . what is it and why is it? The North Carolina Conference offers a unique experience in a composite school which includes not only the three studies sponsored by the United Methodist Women but other study courses sponsored by other conference boards as well.

You may attend one of two sessions at Methodist College in Fayetteville: the weekend session from Friday afternoon, August 1, through Sunday noon, August 3, or the week session from Sunday afternoon, August 3, through Wednesday noon, August 6.

Quality instructors include Dr. Bernice Johnson, a professor at NCCU teaching Crossroads in Southern Asia (India, SriLanka, Nepal, Pakistan, and Bangladesh); Dr. Paul Mickey of the Duke Divinity School teaching Counseling with Those in Crisis; and Ernie Wendel, Durham District Lay Leader, teaching A Spiritual Journey for Men.

Other courses include Suffering and the Christian Community of Faith, a timely and pertinent Technology in Tension with Human Values; Peace and Justice; Lay Evangelism Visitation; Genesis; Christian Parenting; UMW Basic Course; and a Marriage Enrichment Experience.

The school provides two open forums on Values and Technology and Peace and Justice to discuss current problems and issues. On Wednesday Ed Hammond brings together the themes of the school and discusses how they might influence the future. Conference Summer School offers fun, fellowship, drama, and music. Dormitory rooms are provided at Methodist College.

Register now! Forms may be obtained from the church office.

SUNDAY SCHOOL COOKBOOK

Would you like to have a recipe for Vampire Punch or Great Spinach Dish or Tuna Souffle? The Childrens' Elementary 3rd and 4th grade class is now offering these and many more recipes in a cookbook entitled SUNDAY SCHOOL COOKBOOK. The class is taught by Jean Bagley, Metta Metcalf, and Carolyn Browning. These teachers have collected recipes from children in their class since 1978. You might be surprised at the number of good recipes found in the cookbook. You might also be surprised that your child or one of your relatives or you have contributed a recipe. Please contact the teachers of the 3rd and 4th grade class if you would like a copy of SUNDAY SCHOOL COOKBOOK. A $5.00 donation is the suggested price of the cookbook with all the proceeds going to the Sunday School of Duke Memorial.

COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES RETREAT JULY 25 - 26

If you have any suggestions for planning in 1987 for Duke Memorial, please contact a COM member before July 25. The COM Retreat at Avila will focus on the goals Duke Memorial would like to have for the year ahead as well as look at long range goals the church might have.

THANKS TO:

Shirley Warren and Laura Lockamy for keeping the Nursery June 29.

NEW LIBRARY ADDITIONS:

Edward R. Murrow, his life and times, was given by the H.E. Spence Bible Class in memory of H. Clyde Taylor.

Outdoor Drama by Mary Nordstrom is given in honor of Rubye Haywood.

LIBRARY NOTES: According to our records some forty-five (45) books are overdue. A list of these books and persons having them is posted in the Library and on the Bulletin Board outside Church Office. We will greatly appreciate your cooperation. —(Library Staff)

THE DUKE MEMORIAL UMW Ways and Means Committee plans to have a booth at the Arts and Crafts Fair in downtown Durham September 20-21. Please plan to contribute items for sale: aprons, pillows, baked goods and candies, jams and jellies, baby things, Christmas items. Please call Lois Funderburk (489-5810) or Betty Craig (489-0666) for further information.

FOOD PANTRY SUNDAY: The Durham Mission Society looks forward to our continued support on the second Sunday of each month. Please bring your contributions of rice and small jars of peanut butter to the altar rail before the service or during the final hymn on July 13. Other canned goods are welcome also. Money donations may be made by writing "Food Pantry" on your offering envelope.

WE WELCOME OUR VISITORS: Please register your attendance and introduce yourself to the persons around you. If you are not a member of this church, we invite you to join us by profession of faith or through the transfer of your membership. Please check the registration pad or speak to one of the pastors if you wish to become a member of Duke Memorial.

CONGRATULATIONS AND BEST WISHES to Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan V. Hoyle whose Golden Wedding Anniversary was July 10, 1986.

---

OUR KNOWN HOSPITAL SICK
to be remembered in your prayers:
DCGH: Edith Toms, 5103
Catherine Husted, 7210

THE UPPER ROOMS for July and August are available in the narthex of the church. Please get yours today.

ALTAR FLOWERS are needed for the following Sundays: July 27; August 17, 24, 31; September 14, 21, 28, November 2, 9, 16. If you would like to put flowers in our sanctuary on one of these Sundays, please write the Sunday you prefer on the Registration Pad (pew) or call the Church Office, 683-3467. Since flowers are so expensive and two arrangements are required, two families may want to get together for a given Sunday. This entails using the same florist. The Church Secretary will help you make arrangements.

SYMPATHY: The pastors and congregation express their love and concern to William Roland and Joy Lovette Davies because of the sudden death of their two weeks old daughter, Christina Katharine Davies, on July 4 in Rumson, N.J. Our sympathy also goes to Mrs. Grace Lovette, grandmother.
