

ANTHEM

"May the Peace of the Lord"

Douglas Wagner

May the peace of the Lord go always with you; may the light of his love shine bright.
May the peace of the Lord glow warm within you, and go with you, from this place.
And the peace of the Lord goes on and on. Take the peace of the Lord and give it freely to the young, to the rich and poor.
Take the peace of the Lord and give it freely, and it will come back to you.

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

*LITANY OF RESPONSE

- #1: THE CHURCH IS WARM AND THE PEWS GIVE US REST, BUT IT IS NOT COMFORTABLE TO BE HERE.
- #2: TO BE PRESENT IN THIS PLACE IS TO DEDICATE OUR DAYS
TO CONTINUAL VIGILANCE.
- #1: OUR EVERYDAY WORLD PROVIDES DIVISIONS THAT ARE COMMON AND STAND
TO US. EARLY IN LIFE, WE LEARNED THESE CLEAR SEPARATIONS.
- #2: BUT ALL SEPARATIONS BREED INEQUALITY, IN WHICH GOD'S JUSTICE CANNOT LIVE.
- #1: IN OUR ACQUIESCENCE, WE LOSE THE CHANCE TO RECEIVE
THE GIFTS OF DIVERSITY. WE MISS THE ENRICHMENT OFFERED BY OTHERS' DIFFERENCES.
- #2: FROM OF OLD, EVEN TO THE PRESENT TIME, WE HAVE HEARD
THE PROPHETS' VOICES. WE ARE INDICTED BY THEIR WORDS.
- ALL: MAY GOD MAKE US BRAVE. MAY GOD MAKE US BOLD. IN THE STRENGTH OF UNITY,
WE FORGE AHEAD. MAY THE SPIRIT OF GOD BE UPON US AND FILL US WITH VISIONS OF PEACE.

Human Relations Day

A dramatic mural outside a community center in Providence, R. I., vividly depicts members of different races working together to repair their broken world. Grim scenes of violence and drug abuse blend into visions of people escaping despair and dismantling the walls that block them from a brighter future.

Direct Action for Rights and Equality (DARE), a local community organization, recruited 40 volunteers, mostly youths, to design and paint the mural. They began the five month project by exploring their different cultures and concerns through dialogues and visits to a library and museum. The striking result is a harsh view of their world, but a hopeful vision of the future.

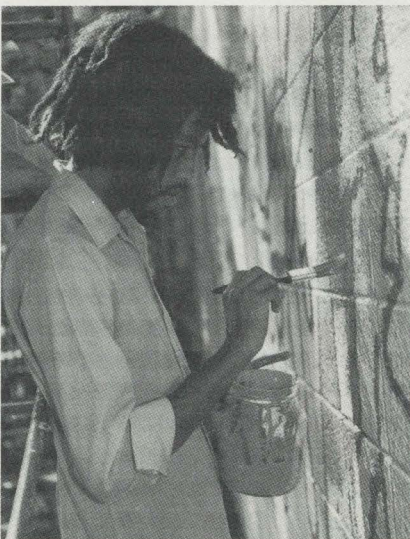

That vision is becoming a reality for many long-neglected, low-income residents of Providence, thanks to community improvements and a new sense of power gained through DARE. Since 1986, the organization's interracial members have conducted surveys, organized protests and media events, forged coalitions and negotiated for changes. Among their gains are:

improved sanitation and food quality at a local supermarket, better pay for state-funded child care providers, new playgrounds, more parental involvement and bilingual education in public schools, and a reduction in proposed state budget cuts for human services.

The Human Relations Day offering funds United Methodist Voluntary Services, which helps DARE and 23 other grass roots organizations empower communities for social change. The offering also funds similar work among ethnic minority churches through the Community Developers Program, and supports local church efforts to link caring mentors with teenagers in trouble through the Youth Offender Rehabilitation Program.

On Human Relations Day, we celebrate and support the vision of justice, dignity and cooperation that members of DARE have so richly illustrated. You can help them and many others realize that vision.

Please give generously.
