THE OFFERTORY ANTHEM "Hark! Hark, My Soul!" Harry Rowe Shelley

Alto Soloist: Mrs. Newton Vickers

Soprano Soloist: Mrs. Joseph McCracken

Hark! Hark, my soul; Angelic songs are swelling O'er earth's green fields And ocean's wave-beat shore: How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling, Of that new life when sin shall be no more! Angels of Jesus, Angels of light, Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night.

Onward we go, for still we hear them singing, Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come; And through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing, The music of the Gospel leads us home. Angels of Jesus, Angels of light, Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night.

Far, far away like bells at evening pealing, The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea, And laden souls by thousands meekly stealing, Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to Thee. Angels of Jesus, Angels of light, Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night.

Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary, The day must dawn and darksome night be past; All journeys end in welcome to the weary, And heav'n, the heart's true home, will come at last. Angels of Jesus, Angels of light, Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night.

Angels, sing on! Your faithful watches keeping; Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above; Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping, And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.

Angels of Jesus, Angels of light, Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night.

THE PRAYER AND CHORAL RESPONSE

THE SCRIPTURE READING Matthew 19:16-30

THE OFFERTORY ANTHEM "Shadows of the Evening Hours" Henry Hiles

The shadows of the evening hours Fall from the darkening sky:
Upon the fragrance of the flowers The dews of evening lie:
Before Thy throne, O Lord of heaven, We kneel at close of day;
Look on Thy children from on high, And hear us while we pray.

Slowly the rays of daylight fade: So fade within our heart
The hopes in earthly love and joy. That one by one depart.
Slowly the bright stars, one by one, Within the heavens shine:
Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes in heav'n, And trust in things divine.

Let peace, O Lord, Thy peace, O God, Upon our souls descend;
From midnight fears and perils, Thou our trembling hearts defend.
Give us a respite from our toil, Calm and subdue our woes;
Through the long day we labor, Lord, O give us now repose.

JOIN US FOR FAMILY NIGHT!

Another of our Family Night programs will be conducted next Sunday night, October 25, at 5:30 in the church basement. The emphasis will be on fellowship and making our new church members welcome and acquainted. Each of the persons or families who have joined our church during the summer and fall will be escorted by a member of the Official Board and presented to us during the program. We would like for as many of our congregation as possible to attend and give them a warm welcome. Please note the change in time—we will begin promptly at 5:30. This will enable us to be completed by 7:30 for the evening worship service.
