THE PRAYER AND CHORAL RESPONSE

SOLO "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings"

Liddle

Mrs. Frances Stephenson Snipes

How lovely are Thy dwellings, O Lord of Hosts! My soul longeth, yea, fainteth, for the courts of the Lord: My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God. Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house, and the swallow a nest, where she may lay her young, even Thine altars, O Lord of Hosts, my King and my God.

O Lord God of Hosts, hear my prayer. I would rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness. . . For a day in Thy courts is better than a thousand. How lovely are Thy dwellings, O Lord of Hosts! My soul longeth yea fainteth, for the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh cry out for the living God, yea the sparrow hath found her a house, and the swallow a nest, where she may lay her young, even Thine altars, O Lord of Hosts, my King and my God.

T Tertius Noble

Souls of the righteous in the hand of God, Nor hurt nor torment Cometh them anigh, O holy hope of immortality. Souls of the righteous in the hand of God.

Souls of the righteous in the hand of God To eyes of men unwise they seem to die, They are at peace, They are at peace. O fairest liberty, O fairest liberty, Souls of the righteous in the hand of God.

On earth as children chasten'd by Love's rod, as gold in furnace tried, so now on high they shine like stars, A golden galaxy Souls of the righteous in the hand of God

Before the ending of the day, Creator of the world, we pray That with thy wonted favor Thou Wouldst be our guard and keeper now.

From all ill dreams defend our eyes, From nightly fears and fantasies;
Tread under foot our ghostly foe, That free from sin ourselves may know

Who, with the Holy Ghost and Thee, Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.
