THE OFFERTORY ANTHEM

"Turn Back, O Man"

Holst

Turn back O Man, for-swear thy foolish ways. Old now is Earth, and none may count her days, Yet thou, her child, whose head is crowned with flame, Still wilt not hear thine inner God proclaim 'Turn back O Man, for-swear thy foolish ways!' Earth might be fair and all men glad and wise, Age after age their tragic empires rise. Built while they dream, and in that dreaming weep. Would man but wake from out his haunted sleep — Earth might be fair and all men glad and wise. Earth shall be fair, and all her people one, Nor till that hour shall God's whole will be done. Now, even now, once more from earth to sky — Peals forth in joy man's old undaunted cry,
"Earth shall be fair, and all her folk be one!"

SERVICE FOR CHORISTERS

Next Sunday at the morning worship hour we will have a recognition service for the members of our four choirs. All choirs will participate in the service and at its close there will be a short period of recognition and dedication. There are approximately 160 persons now in our choirs and we appreciate the contribution they make to support our worship experiences.

UNITED FUND SUNDAY

Durham's United Fund is the cooperative effort of the community to support the necessary local, state and national philanthropic agencies that provide Durham people with health, family and child care, and recreation and youth services. The 1960 goal to support 34 agencies is $451,326, and every Durham citizen will be asked to give at least an hour's pay per month.

The campaign is now under way and we are sure all our people will want to share in this effort that means so much in the total life of our community.

WELCOME

We at Duke Memorial are happy that so many visitors share in our services from Sunday to Sunday. We want you to feel a cordial welcome here and enter into the worship experience of the hour as if you were truly "one of us".

We would like for our visiting friends to sign a Visitor's Card and to indicate on it any information that would help the minister be of any service. And we invite any who do not have a church home in Durham to speak with the minister about uniting with the church.

YOUTH FELLOWSHIPS

Both the Senior and Junior High MYF groups will join the Family Night group for supper at 5:30 tonight. Following the meal the MYF groups will go to their places for their own programs. The Senior group will continue their series on orientation to college and student life.

JOIN OUR FAMILY PROGRAM TONIGHT!

Our first Family Night program of the year will be conducted tonight at 5:30 in the church basement. The program will include the fellowship of eating together, getting acquainted with the newcomers of the church, fun time, a short film and worship. Bring a covered dish and your friends and join us for real enrichment. Please try to arrive promptly at 5:30 in order that we may begin on time and finish in time for the evening service to follow

IMPROVE YOUR LEADERSHIP

If you have ever been moved to want to serve God and your church, but felt inhibited by lack of confidence in your skill and knowledge, we invite you to join our leadership course which began this morning. The course will be conducted each Sunday morning, 9:45 - 10:45, in the serving room of the kitchen. It is designed to help you develop leadership for the work of our church. The descriptive brochure in the pew racks and vestibule explain the areas of study. We need you in our church work and offer this course for your preparation to do a satisfying and effective job in the place you select to serve.

SINGLE YOUNG ADULTS, STUDENTS:

A NEW PROGRAM FOR YOU!

Yesterday afternoon a group of young newcomers to our community and church joined some of our college and working youth in making a tour of our city and in getting acquainted at a cook-out at Camp Chestnut Ridge. This is another of a series of activities being conducted in our effort to launch a new program for this age group. We now have a planning council set up and plans are being made to enlarge our activities. A regular 9:45 Sunday morning class is currently being conducted by this group. We would like to invite all single young adults in this age range to join us in this program. We also need information about persons who might be interested in these activities. Please contact the church office for further information.
