THE PRAYER AND CHORAL RESPONSE

THE ANTHEM "O Make Our Hearts to Blossom" Adult Choir Clokey

O make our hearts to blossom, Lord, For they are thine to save. Thou risest with thy flaming sword From darkness and the grave! Almighty victor, on thy face The smile of peace, the pledge of grace, And, under thine abiding wings, How fair the fadeless blossom springs. O make our hearts to blossom, Lord, For they are thine to save.

THE RESPONSIVE READING "Universal Praise" Page 597

THE SCRIPTURE READING Isaiah 55: 6-13

THE OFFERTORY ANTHEMS "A Child's Thanksgiving" Brynon
Primary and Junior Choirs

When the distant silv'ry chime, Rings us in the Christmas time, Then I greet the Baby King, Hymns of adoration sing. When the Easter bells ring clear, Telling folk from far and near, That it is the Day of Days, Then I sing glad songs of praise. Each new season speaks to me, Of some gift, so rich and free: So must I my best thanks give, Just as long as I shall live.

"Thanks Be to Thee" Handel
Youth and Adult Choirs

Thanks be to Thee, Thy holy name be ever blest. Glory, honor and praise be Thine! Praise, adoration we sing unto Thee. Thy loving kindness doth forever prevail. Tenderly guiding all those who come unto Thee. Thou art the King o'er land and sea. Praise, adoration, we sing unto Thee!

APPRECIATION

As a part of the worship service this morning we are having a service of recognition and dedication for those who make up the four choirs in the ministry of music for our church. We are indebted to Mrs. Charles Sullivan, Choir Director, Mrs. S. J. Angier, Organist, and all members of the Primary, Junior, Youth and Adult Choirs for their devoted ministry in this important part of our worship life. We are happy that we can make this a day of special tribute to them, even though we are mindful every Sunday of what they mean to us in their contribution to our worship experiences.

INVITATION

We were happy last Sunday to welcome a large number of new members into the membership of Duke Memorial. Sunday after next there will be others uniting with us. If there are those who are considering this important relationship, the minister would be very happy to talk with them about it. You may use the Visitor's Card in the pew rack to indicate such interest or you may call the church office (4-1091)

ROOMS NEEDED FOR CHRISTIAN CONVOCATION

The Christian Convocation and North Carolina Pastors' School are being held jointly at Duke University, October 24-26, 1960. Rooms are needed in the community to take care of the ministers who will be attending. If anyone has a room or rooms that can be rented for the two nights, October 24 and 25, at $2 per person each night (no meals involved), please notify the church office in order that we may give the names to the one in charge of the registration for these meetings.

FROM BUTTONS TO BOWS WE NEED YOUR CLOTHES

The Senior MYF is holding a rummage sale November 5. We need contributions from everyone in the church. Please keep us in mind when you do your fall cleaning. Call the church office or Miss Patty Bradsher, or leave your contributions in boxes in the hall outside Mr. Bradshaw's office. Proceeds will go toward making a needy family happy at Christmas. Remember — Your junk might be someone else's joy!

A STUDY SERIES ON CHRISTIANITY AND POLITICS

Our Homebuilder's class, formerly named the Couples Class, is continuing a study series on Christianity and Politics with some emphasis on exploring the issues in the current election campaign. Dr. Thomas Langford is leading the study of Christian norms for political life. This interesting and vigorous group of young married couples is eager to welcome newcomers to their group. They meet each Sunday morning at 9:45 in the old scout room of the church basement.

ORGAN RECITAL

Duke University is presenting E. Power Biggs in a Guest Organ Recital in Duke Chapel this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.
