PREFACE.

IN presenting to the American Public the first number of a contemplated series of Quadrennial Registers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, we believe we have met, in part at least, a long existing want.

It has been painfully obvious to us for some time, that the members of our own, and of sister churches, were laboring under great mistakes with regard to our denominational peculiarities and strength, and that we were destitute of comprehensive and reliable data for the removal of their errors. With the exception of the Almanac, published by the New York Book Concern, (necessarily very limited in its scope,) our Church has hitherto been without any publication exhibiting our statistics, economy, and institutions, in a popular form. The Annual Minutes, it is true, have partially supplied the information desired by ministers, but their peculiarities of arrangement and style, have prevented them from having any thing like a general circulation.

We have not the presumption to suppose that we have presented the Church with a work absolutely free from error. Such a thing were impossible in the very nature of the case. The first issue of a work of this nature must, necessarily, be imperfect. Every thing, however, that toil, liberal expenditure, and care could effect, we have done. Our information, both with regard to our own and other churches, has been obtained from original and authentic sources. It has been our special desire to secure for the work a character for reliability.

Our thanks are due to the Secretaries of various Conferences, Synods, Associations, Benevolent Institutions, and to individuals connected with Colleges, Seminaries, Charitable Funds, &c., for the assistance they have rendered us ; and we respectfully solicit a continuance of their favors if the sale of the present number should warrant a future issue.

HENRY J. FOX,
WM. B. HOYT.

HARTFORD, June, 1852.

DEATH OF BISHOP HEDDING.

The following preamble and resolution were adopted:—

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God, in his infinite wisdom, to remove from among us by death, our senior Bishop, the Rev. Elijah Hedding, who died in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., April 9th, 1852, in the 72d year of his age, and in the 52d of his ministry. Therefore,

Resolved, That this General Conference make this record upon its journal as a token of profound respect for the deceased, as a minister of unblemished reputation, deep theological knowledge, sound experience in the things of God, of childlike simplicity, and holy tempers as a Christian—as an able and impartial administrator of the discipline of the Church, sweetly and delightfully blending together the dignity of the Bishop with the urbanities of the Christian gentleman—and who at last died in peace and holy triumph, with a well-grounded hope of immortality and eternal life. May we follow him as he followed Christ.

CHURCH AT WASHINGTON.

The committee appointed on the memorial from Washington city, in regard to the building of a new house of worship there, reported a series of resolutions, expressing their hearty concurrence in the objects of the memorialists, and pledging the individual exertions of the delegates in the Annual Conferences to aid the measure proposed. Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God deeply to afflict our beloved Bishop Hamline, and whereas, he has been laid aside from active service, hereby, therefore,

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with our beloved superintendent in his afflictions.

Resolved, That, after having fully examined his administration for the last four years, his administration and character be and hereby are approved.

Whereas, Bishop Hamline has tendered his resignation in the following language, to wit :—" And now, I think that the circumstances warrant my declining the office. Eight years ago, I felt that Divine Providence had strangely called me to the office. I now feel that the same Providence permits me to retire. I therefore tender my resignation, and request to be released from my official responsibilities, as soon as the way is prepared by the Episcopal committee." Therefore,

Resolved, That the resignation of Bishop Hamline of his office as a Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America, be and the same hereby is accepted.

Resolved, By the delegates of the several Annual Conferences in General Conference assembled, that the Bishops be and hereby are respectfully requested to convey to Bishop Hamline the acceptance of his resignation as superintendent of the General Conference, accompanied with a communication expressing the profound regret of this body, that the condition of his health has, in his judgment, rendered it proper for him to relinquish his official position; assuring him also of our continued confidence and affection, and that our fervent prayers will be offered to the Throne of Grace, that his health may be restored, and his life prolonged to the Church. OBSERVATIONS ON THE ABOVE TABLE.

1. The English Methodists alone are represented in the above table, though from what is done in Great Britain—the system being nearly the same every where—it may be seen what is done elsewhere.
2. There is no notice taken of the erection or enlargement of chapels, training colleges, or schools, though this is considerable.
3. Many of the calculations are below the actual amount.
4. That, as it is chiefly in the seat rents and monthly collection that the aid of the hearers is felt, we may calculate that at least two-thirds of the $3,621,153 is contributed by the members.
5. This two-thirds of $3,621,150, divided among the members of the English connection, averages $6.22 each, as the amount of their annual givings to carry on the cause of God.
6. If such is the production of the 1,678,500 members and hearers in England, then, on a fair calculation, the 8,031,826 members and hearers throughout the world will, this year, produce the sum of $17,309,632!

THE PROBABLE NUMBER OF MINISTERS AND MEMBERS CONNECTED WITH METHODISM,

FROM ITS COMMENCEMENT TO THE PRESENT TIME.

ASCERTAINED BY TAKING THE STATISTICS OF EACH 30 YEARS, OR GENERATION OF TIME, AND UNITING THEM.

From the rise of Methodism to 1850.	Periods of 30 years.	Number of Preachers.		Number of Members.	Total of Preachers and Members.
		Itinerant.	Local.
First generation of preachers and members .....	A. D.
	1760	220	—	20,000	20,220
	1790	703	5,841	129,199	135,743
	1820	2,178	7,678	588,521	598,377
Fourth (or present) generation of preachers and members .....	1850	10,560	39,091	2,060,926	2,110,577
Total,		13,661	52,810	2,798,646	2,864,917

In considering this table it should be borne in mind that great numbers of preachers and members who joined the various Methodist Churches, but who in the intervals of those periods are not here taken into the account—neither is any reference had to the thousands of hearers who have been converted under Methodist influences, but who never joined the “societies;” nor yet of the tens of thousands who, after having been converted by its varied instrumentalities, joined other Churches.

The ministry of the Methodist Church is more numerous than that of any other Protestant Church in Christendom. There are 49,000 itinerant and local ministers who daily preach the gospel and exercise their pastoral care in nearly all parts of the habitable earth. They preach in 32 different languages:—English, Irish, Welsh, French, Spanish, Swedish, Norwegian, German, Chinese, Singhalese, Tamil, Portuguese, Bangalee, Canarese, Tongan, New Zealand, Yoruba, Feejeean, Namaqua, Accra, Caffre, Bassa, Sesuto, Grebo, Sechuana, and the Dutch, with the Cree, Chippewayan, and two or three more Indian dialects.

Methodism is a great whole. Whatever variety may exist in its agencies, its nature, doctrine, and design is one. United Methodism, with its 8,000,000 of adherents, is now one of the largest, if not actually the largest, Protestant Church in Christendom.

It will be seen from this table that Methodism is actuated by a uniform principle of progression—hence its remarkable expansion. It also exhibits the fact that, with surprising regularity, METHODISM DOUBLES ITSELF IN ABOUT EVERY THIRTEEN YEARS! Should this same ratio of increase (which it has rigorously exhibited for the past 100 years,) be maintained during its second century, its statistics for A. D. 1939, will stand about as follows:—

983,040 Traveling Preachers, and 241,213,952 Members!

Its progress, at the same ratio would in 26 years after, (in 1965—114 years hence,) give it a membership equal in number to the present population of the world!

CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP.

(From the General Rules.)

There is only one condition previously required of those who desire admission into these societies, "a desire to flee from the wrath to come, and to be saved from their sins." But wherever this is really fixed in the soul, it will be shown by its fruits. It is therefore expected of all who continue therein, that they should continue to evidence their desire of salvation,

First, By doing no harm, by avoiding evil of every kind, especially that which is most generally practiced : such as,

The taking of the name of God in vain.

The profaning the day of the Lord, either by doing ordinary work therein, or by buying or selling.

Drunkenness ; buying or selling spiritous liquors ; or drinking them ; unless in cases of extreme necessity.

The buying and selling of men, women, and children, with an intention to enslave them.

Fighting, quarreling, brawling, brother going to law with brother ; returning evil for evil ; or railing for railing ; the using many words in buying or selling.

The buying or selling goods that have not paid the duty.

The giving or taking things on usury, i. e., unlawful interest.

Uncharitable or unprofitable conversation : particularly speaking evil of magistrates or of ministers.

Doing to others as we would not they should do unto us.

Doing what we know is not for the glory of God : as,

The putting on of gold and costly apparel.

The taking such diversions as can not be used in the name of the Lord Jesus.

The singing those songs, or reading those books, which do not tend to the knowledge or love of God.

Softness and needless self-indulgence.

Laying up treasure upon earth.

Borrowing without a probability of paying ; or taking up goods without a probability of paying for them.

It is expected of all who continue in these societies, that they should continue to evidence their desire of salvation,

Secondly, By doing good, by being in every kind merciful after their power, as they have opportunity, doing good of every possible sort, and, as far as possible, to all men.

To their bodies, of the ability which God giveth, by giving food to the hungry, by clothing the naked, by visiting or helping them that are sick, or in prison.

To their souls, by instructing, reproofing, or exhorting all we have any intercourse with ; trampling under foot that enthusiastic doctrine, that "we are not to do good unless our hearts be free to it."

By doing good, especially to them that are of the household of faith, or groaning so to be ; employing them preferably to others, buying one of another, helping each other in business ; and so much the more because the world will love its own, and them only.

By all possible diligence and frugality, that the Gospel be not blamed.

By running with patience the race which is set before them, denying themselves, and taking up their cross daily ; submitting to bear the reproach of Christ, to be as the filth and offscouring of the world; and looking that men should say all manner of evil of them falsely for the Lord's sake.

It is expected of all who desire to continue in these societies, that they should continue to evidence their desire of salvation,

Thirdly, By attending upon all the ordinances of God: such are,

The public worship of God:

The ministry of the word, either read or expounded:

The supper of the Lord: Family and private prayer:

Searching the Scriptures, and Fasting or abstinence.

ADMISSION INTO THE CHURCH.

Ques. 1. How shall we prevent improper persons from insinuating themselves into the Church?

Ans. 1. Let none be received into the Church until they are recommended by a leader with whom they have met at least six months on trial, and have been baptized; and shall on examination by the minister in charge, before the Church, give satisfactory assurances both of the correctness of their faith, and their willingness to observe and keep the rules of the Church. Nevertheless, if a member in good standing in any other orthodox Church shall desire to unite with us, such applicant may, by giving satisfactory answers to the usual inquiries, be received at once into full fellowship.

2. Let none be admitted on trial, except they are well recommended by one you know, or until they have met twice or thrice in class.

3. Read the rules to them the first time they meet.

BRINGING TO TRIAL, FINDING GUILTY, AND REPROVING, SUSPENDING, OR EXCLUDING DISORDERLY PERSONS FROM SOCIETY AND CHURCH PRIVILEGES.

Ques. 1. How shall an accused member be brought to trial?

Ans. 1. Before the society of which he is a member, or a select number of them, in the presence of a bishop, elder, deacon, or preacher, in the following manner:—Let the accused and accuser be brought face to face; but if this can not be done, let the next best evidence be procured. If the accused person be found guilty by the decision of a majority of the members before whom he is brought to trial, and the crime be such as is expressly forbidden by the word of God, sufficient to exclude a person from the kingdom of grace and glory, let the minister or preacher who has the charge of the circuit expel him. If the accused person evade a trial, by absenting himself, after sufficient notice given him, and the circumstances of the accusation afford strong presumption of guilt, let him be esteemed as guilty, and be accordingly excluded. Witnesses from without shall not be rejected.

2. But in cases of neglect of duties of any kind, imprudent conduct, indulging sinful tempers, or words, the buying, selling, or using intoxicating liquors as a beverage, or disobedience to the order and discipline of the Church: First, let private reproof be given by a preacher or leader; and if there be an acknowledgment of the fault, and proper humiliation, the person may be borne with. On a second offense, the preacher or leader may take one or two faithful friends. On a third offense, let the case be brought before the society, or a select number, and if there be no sign of real humiliation, the offender must be cut off.

3. If a member of our Church shall be clearly convicted of endeavoring to sow dissensions in any of our societies, by inveighing against either our doctrines or discipline, such person so offending shall be first reprov'd by the senior minister or preacher of his circuit, and if he persist in such pernicious practices, he shall be expelled from the Church.

4. Nevertheless, if in any of the above-mentioned cases the minister or preacher differ in judgment from the majority of the society, or the select number, concerning the innocence or guilt of the accused person, the trial, in such case, may be referred by the minister or preacher to the ensuing Quarterly Meeting Conference.

5. If there be a murmur or complaint from any excluded person, in any of the above-mentioned instances, that justice has not been done, he shall be allowed an appeal to the next Quarterly Meeting Conference: except such as absent themselves from trial, after sufficient notice is given them: and the majority of the traveling and local preachers, exhorters, stewards, and leaders present, shall finally determine the case.

After such forms of trial and expulsion, such persons shall have no privileges of society or of sacraments in our Church, without contrition, confession, and satisfactory reformation.

The first, requiring every member within twelve months after notice being given by the assistant, to emancipate all slaves in their possession under the age of forty-five, either immediately, or within certain periods. The second, requiring the assistant to keep a record of all slaves owned by his members ; their names and ages ; and the date of any instrument executed for their manumission, which list was to be handed down to his successor. The third, giving permission to all those who would not comply with these new terms of communion to withdraw, and providing that non-compliance should be followed with expulsion. The fourth, excluding from the supper of the Lord all who thus withdrew. The fifth, requiring all who held slaves, to comply with these rules before partaking of the communion. In a note, those members were exempted from the operation of these rules, who might be living in States where the laws would not admit of emancipation. In the same note, the brethren in Virginia, were allowed two years for consideration after the giving of the notice.

It was agreed, also, that all who bought, sold, or gave away slaves, unless it was for the purpose of freeing them, should be expelled.

It was agreed that no slaveholder should be admitted into the Church, until the preacher had spoken freely and faithfully with him on the subject of slavery ; also, that every member selling a slave should be excluded ; also, that the Quarterly Meeting should determine, in case a member bought a slave, the number of years required for said slave to work out the price of his purchase ; also, that upon such determination, the purchaser should be required to execute an instrument for his manumission at the expiration of such term ; also, that in case of refusal, the member should be excluded. It was provided that in the case of a female slave, the instrument should secure not only her emancipation, but the freedom of all her male children at the age of twenty-five, and the female at the age of twenty-one, if the member did not see fit to fix the date of their manumission earlier.

1800. The Conference agreed that any traveling preacher who became an owner of slaves, and failed to emancipate them, should forfeit his ministerial standing. Also, that the Annual Conferences urge, by petition and otherwise, the various State legislatures to enact laws for the gradual extinction of slavery.

The members in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and Tennessee, exempted from the operation of the rules respecting slavery.

1848. The resolution referred to above was recinded.

RULE RESPECTING INTOXICATING LIQUORS.

1743. Mr. Wesley's original rule: "Drunkenness, buying, or selling spirituous liquors, or drinking them, unless in cases of extreme necessity."

1784. The preachers enjoined not to touch drams, or spirituous liquors, unless it should be medicinally, and to enforce vigorously the rule on the subject.

1820. The following was added to the discipline on this subject: "No preacher among us shall distill or retail spirituous liquors, without forfeiting his official standing."

1840. The section, "of the sale and use of spirituous liquors," omitted from the discipline entirely.

METHODIST GENERAL BIBLICAL INSTITUTE, CONCORD, N. H.

As early as the year 1838, a call was made on the friends of ministerial education in the Methodist Episcopal Church, to meet at Boston, in convention, to consider the subject of establishing an institution for this purpose. A theological institution was resolved upon, and its location for the time being was fixed at Newburg, Vt.

The first professors chosen, were Rev. O. C. Baker, A. M. and Rev. Wm. M. Willett, A. M., who entered upon their duties in 1843. In the spring of 1845, Rev. John Dempster was called to instruct in theology. In 1846, he was made agent to secure an endowment. Inasmuch as the Newburg charter did not admit the trustees of the Conferences to act, it was resolved to remove the institution to Concord, N. H., where an excellent building was offered for its accommodation.

Accordingly, in April, 1847, the institution was reorganized and recommenced at Concord, under the title of the "Methodist General Biblical Institute."

Rev. John Dempster, D. D., Rev. Osmer C. Baker, A. M., and Rev. Charles C. Adams, A. M., were chosen professors. Prof. Adams resigned his office in the latter part of 1848, and Rev. Stephen M. Vail, A. M., was chosen in his place.

The school was reopened with 7 students; and before the end of the year, the number increased to 30: the second year to 40; the third year to 48; the fourth year to 50; and at the present time, April, 1852, the whole number is 58.

The endowment and real estate of the institution, is now estimated at $40,000. The buildings will accommodate about 50 students, affording, also, three large lecture rooms, a chapel, and the rooms needful for the boarding association. The school is patronized by eight Annual Conferences, viz.: Maine, East Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, New England, Providence, Troy, and Black River Conferences. These Conferences have an equal voice in the management of the institution through five trustees appointed from their respective bounds. The following is the rule for admission:—

"Applicants for admission to the seminary, who belong to the Methodist Episcopal Church, must present a written recommendation from a Quarterly or Annual Conference of said Church. Applicants belonging to other churches, must present satisfactory written recommendations from clergymen of their denominations."

METHODIST BOOK CONCERN.

PRESENT LOCATION, 200 MULBERRY STREET, NEW YORK.

Agents.—Thomas Carlton and Zebulon Phillips.

This now gigantic establishment was, in its commencement, exceedingly small. Its history begins in 1789, with the appointment of John Dickens as book steward. He was the first agent and editor. The business was carried on in Philadelphia, where Bro. Dickens was then stationed. The first book published was Mr. Wesley's edition of "Thomas a Kempis." Its capital was $600, loaned by the agent. In 1797 a book committee was appointed, to whom were submitted all works intended for publication. In 1798 John Dickens died. In 1799 he was succeeded by Ezekiel Cooper. In 1808, the end of Bro. Cooper's term, the capital stock had increased to about $45,000. In 1808, the General Conference appointed John Wilson, principal, and Daniel Hitt, assistant editor. After the death of John Wilson, which occurred in 1810, Daniel Hitt carried on the business alone until 1812, when Thomas Ware was made assistant editor and steward.

In 1816 Joshua Soule and Thomas Mason were made agents. In 1820 Nathan Bangs was elected agent, and Thomas Mason re-elected assistant agent. In 1822 the basement of the Wesleyan Seminary, Crosby street, was fitted up as a bindery. The General Conference of 1824, elected John Emory as assistant book agent, in the place of Thomas Mason. This year the Wesleyan Seminary was bought and fitted up as a printing-office. On the 9th of September, 1826, the first number of the "Christian Advocate" was issued, under the editorial direction of the senior agent and Mr. Badger. In 1820 the General Conference authorized the establishment of a branch concern at Cincinnati, of which Martin Ruter was appointed agent. At the General Conference of 1828, John Emory and Beverley Waugh were appointed agents. Its premises in Crosby street being too confined for the increasing business of the concern, the five lots on which the "Book Concern" now stands were purchased. As Dr. Emory was made bishop in 1832, Beverley Waugh was appointed the principal agent, and T. Mason assistant. In 1833, the new buildings in Mulberry street were finished, and the entire establishment removed there. A very little time after, however, the whole was consumed by fire. In a few hours the Church lost not less than $250,000. This disastrous event occurred in February, 1836. To repair this loss, $88,346 was contributed by the Church at large, and $25,000 realized from insurances.

In 1836 Beverley Waugh was elected bishop, and Thomas Mason appointed in his place, with George Lane for an assistant. This year the General Conference approved a plan for the new buildings, which were soon after finished. In 1840, C. B. Tippet was elected assistant book agent; and in 1844, his term having expired, L. Scott was appointed in his place.

The magnitude and importance of this great institution may be inferred from the following tables, which we have prepared with great care from the books of the Concern.

CHARTERED FUND OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH,
IN THE UNITED STATES.

This fund was commenced in the year 1796.

9 Trustees.—Sumuel Ashmead, President; John F. Walker, Secretary; James J. Boswell, Treasurer; Samuel Neall, John Riehl, Thomas Wilmer, Solomon Townsend, John Whiteman, and William P. Hacker.

The original trustees were John Dickins, Thomas Haskins, Jacob Baker, Henry Manly, Burton Wallace, Josiah Lusby, Hugh Smith, Caleb North, and Cornelius Comegys. The united subscription of these trustees amounted in the aggregate to $2,300. This sum formed the nucleus of a fund which, by donations and legacies, subsequently made and devised, amounts at this time, 1852, to about $40,000.

The first meeting of the board was held at the house of Col. North, on the 30th of January, 1797.

The first investment made by this corporation is dated July 6, 1797, viz.:—

1 share, Bank U. S., . . . . . $456 00 | 4 shares, Bank of Pennsylvania, $1,924 80

ARTICLES VI., VII., AND VIII. OF THE CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE VI.

It is provided and declared, that the annual rents, interest, and income of the estate, real and personal, which now does, or at any time hereafter may belong to the said corporation and their successors, shall by them be held subject to the exclusive order and control of the itinerant ministers and preachers of the Methodist Church in the United States of America, in their General Conference (from time to time) assembled. And the said ministers and preachers thus assembled, are hereby vested with full powers to appropriate and point out the mode of applying the same, to the objects, under the limitations and for the uses and purposes herein mentioned and expressly declared.

ARTICLE VII.

It is provided and declared, that the object and design of the fund hereby intended to be established, is expressly for the purposes of relieving the distresses, and supplying the deficiencies of the itinerant and superannuated, or worn-out ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America, who remain in connection with, and continue subject to the order and control of, the General Conference; as also for the relief of the wives and children, widows and orphans, of such ministers and preachers, and for no other use, intent, or purpose whatever.

ARTICLE VIII.

It is provided and declared, that no sum exceeding sixty-four dollars shall, in any one year, be appropriated and applied to the use of an itinerant, superannuated, or worn-out single minister or preacher; also, that no sum exceeding one hundred and twenty-eight dollars, in any one year, shall be applied to the use of an itinerant, superannuated, or worn-out married minister or preacher; and that no sum exceeding sixty-four dollars, in any one year, shall be applied to the use of each widow of such ministers and preachers as are herein before mentioned and described; and also that no sum exceeding sixteen dollars shall be applied, in any one year, to the use of each child or orphan of such ministers and preachers as are herein before particularly mentioned and described.

The first legacy received was $212 10, from Rev. James King, of Virginia. In 1798 the preacher's fund, amounting to $621 33, was added to the capital stock. First draft on the treasurer was drawn by Bishop Asbury, April 10, 1798, in favor of Virginia Conference, for $80. In 1799, the capital stock amounted to $9,908 17. In January, 1803, John Hancock bequeathed to this fund $4,000. In 1804, the capital stock was $13,688 46. In 1808, the capital stock amounted to $19,374, and the dividend to each of seven Annual Conferences was $150 each. In 1812, the capital stock was depreciated $763 13.

The income for 1848 was...	$2,326 75		The income for 1850 was...	$2,765 95
" " " 1849 " ...	2,523 20		" " " 1851 " ...	4,125 36

For the first two years, as above stated, the trustees declared a dividend of $65 to each of the 29 Annual Conferences, and for the next year $90, and the last year $120. The present amount of invested funds is $41,635 29.

CENTENARY FUND.

During the centenary year of Methodism, collections for various benevolent purposes were taken to a very large amount, under the direction of the Annual Conferences, and subject to their control. The sums collected were variously applied. In some of the Conferences a fund was formed, the proceeds of which were to be distributed among a specified class of the claimants.

PREACHER'S AID SOCIETIES

Have been formed in many of the Annual Conferences, subject to such regulations as they respectively choose to adopt. The following articles from the constitution of the one existing in the Baltimore Conference, will sufficiently indicate their design.

ARTICLE II.

Any person may become a member of this society, by the payment of two dollars or upward, and signing the constitution, and while they continue members shall pay the sum of two dollars, on or before the day appointed for holding the annual meeting in each and every year. Any person contributing twenty dollars shall be considered a member for life.

ARTICLE VII.

The funds of this society, after deducting incidental expenses, shall be appropriated as follows, to wit:—All moneys which may arise from life subscriptions, donations of five dollars and upward, and legacies, together with any surplus which may remain from the annual collections, after the appropriations hereinafter provided for, have been made by the board, shall be invested in such manner as the board may direct—and the interest thereon arising, be available to the common objects of the society. Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed, or so understood, as to authorize the investment of any donation made, or legacy given to the institution in any other funds or mode than that which may be prescribed, or directed by the donor or deviser.

ARTICLE VIII.

No person shall be relieved from the funds of this society but itinerant ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, their wives, widows, or children. And no such minister, his wife, widow, or child shall be so relieved, unless he shall have been a member of the traveling connection for twelve years ; and shall have been a member of the Baltimore Annual Conference, the seven years last preceding his application, or which may have preceded his death, unless by an unanimous vote of the board ; provided, always, nevertheless, that any itinerant minister of the Baltimore Annual Conference who may hereafter be transferred, according to the rules and discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Conference, in the United States, to any Conference or Conferences, and who may have been a member of the traveling connection for twelve years, and continuing therein—shall be entitled, as also shall his wife, widow, child, or children, be entitled to the same relief, as if such minister had continued to be a member of the Baltimore Annual Conference.

This Baltimore Conference Society was incorporated February, 1827, and has an aggregate fund of $48,069 93. It appropriated during the last year to beneficiaries $1,750, and to educational purposes $910. Total, $2,660.

PART III.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH.

THE origin of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, is thus stated in the edition of the Discipline, published by John Early, at Richmond, Va., 1850 :—

In the judgment of the delegates of the several Annual Conferences in the slave-holding States, the continued agitation of the subject of slavery and abolition in a portion of the Church, the frequent action on that subject in the General Conference, and especially the proceedings of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of 1844, in the case of the Rev. James O. Andrew, D. D., one of the bishops, who had become connected with slavery by marriage, produced a state of things in the south, which rendered a continuance of the jurisdiction of that General Conference over the Conferences aforesaid, inconsistent with the success of the ministry in their proper calling. This conviction they declared in solemn form to the General Conference, accompanied with a protest against the action referred to, assured that public opinion in the slave-holding States would demand, and that a due regard to the vital interests of Christ's kingdom would justify, a separate and independent organization. The developments of a few months vindicated their anticipations. The Church in the south and south-west, in her primary assemblies, her Quarterly and Annual Conferences, with a unanimity unparalleled in ecclesiastical history, approved the course of their delegates, and declared her conviction that a separate jurisdiction was necessary to her existence and prosperity. The General Conference of 1844, having adopted a "Plan of Separation," provided for the erection of the Annual Conferences in the slave-holding States into a separate ecclesiastical connection, under the jurisdiction of a Southern General Conference; the delegates of the aforementioned Conferences, in a published address, recommended that a convention of delegates from the said Conferences, duly instructed as to the wishes of the ministry and laity, should assemble at Louisville, Ky., on the 1st day of May, 1845.

The convention met, delegates having been formally appointed in pursuance of this recommendation, and after a full and minute representation of all the facts in the premises, acting under the provisional "Plan of Separation," declared, by solemn resolution, the jurisdiction hitherto exercised by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church over the Conferences in the slave-holding States entirely dissolved, and erected the said Annual Conferences into a separate ecclesiastical connection, under the style and title of "The Methodist Episcopal Church, South," the first General Conference of which was held in the town of Petersburg, Virginia, on the first day of May, 1846.

The doctrines and discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, are precisely similar to those of the larger body from which they have separated.

They retain in their discipline the section entitled "Of Slavery," but have appended to it the following note :—

"N. B. This section was inserted by a majority of votes when the Methodist Episcopal Church embraced the whole country; and, as the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, still embraces a wide extent of country, with various views and conflicting interests, it is not removed, though it has long since become inoperative, and ceased, by common consent, to set forth a practical rule or principle."

It stands on a piece of land, about six acres in extent, laid out as play and pleasure grounds. The business of the establishment is conducted under the superintendence of the Governor, assisted by eighteen masters.

In 1844, it was constituted, by Her Majesty's warrant, a College of the University of London, and empowered to issue certificates to candidates for examination for the respective degrees of Bachelor of Arts, and Master of Arts; Bachelor of Laws, and Doctor of Laws.

The course laid down in the university calendar is regularly pursued by the students from year to year.

The advantages conferred by Her Majesty's warrant are,—

I. The opening of all the valuable prizes and honors of the University to the competition of the Students.

II. The privilege of obtaining a learned degree without the necessity of a continued residence in Oxford, Cambridge, or London; as the students will continue to reside and pursue their studies at Wesley College, with the exception of a few days spent in London at each of the examinations.

The President of the Conference is President of this Institution. In 1846 it was also made, by Royal Charter, one of the Colleges of the University of London, and degrees in Arts and Laws are open to all its students qualifying for the same.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CONNECTION, UNITED STATES.

This denomination originated in the withdrawal of a small number of ministers and laymen from the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States. Their objections to that communion were, as they stated—that the Methodist Episcopal Church was a slave-holding and slavery defending Church.

A convention of ministers and laymen met in Utica, N. Y., May 31, 1843. At this convention the Wesleyan Connection was organized. The articles of faith agreed upon were the same as those that distinguish the Methodists in Europe and America. An itinerant system was adopted in respect to the ministry. But the classification of the Christian ministry, as bishops, elders, and deacons, was rejected.

STATISTICS.

Pastors, 400; members, 21,000; comprised in ten yearly Conferences. There are also 300 licentiates or unstationed preachers. They have a book concern and periodical publication, whose gross value is $25,000, or estimated above its liabilities to stockholders and others, at the nett sum of $8,000. Their weekly paper, the "True Wesleyan," has 4,500 subscribers, and the semi-monthly paper, the "Juvenile Wesleyan," has 3,500 subscribers.

METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH, UNITED STATES.

This Church was organized in the city of Baltimore, on the 2d day of November, 1830.

The doctrines are the same as those held by the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The constitution and discipline is based upon an equal representation of ministers and laymen in the legislative and judicial departments of the Church. There are, in the United States, 31 Annual Conferences, divided into 72 stations, 368 circuits, and 90 home missions. There are 807 itinerant ministers and preachers, and 742 unstationed ministers and preachers, with a membership of 65,008. There are 841 meeting-houses of worship, with 75 parsonages, all valued at $638,620. The Church has two weekly papers exclusively devoted to its interests, (the "Methodist Protestant," printed at Baltimore, Md., and edited by E. Y. Reese, and the "Western Recorder," published at Putnam, Muskingum county, Ohio, by A. H. Bassett,) and two others partly so. There is a book concern in operation, the amount of the capital of which we are not at present informed.

There is, in connection with the Church, a foreign missionary society, which supports one missionary in Oregon, and will, as soon as a suitable man can be obtained, establish one in China. There is under the patronage of the General Conference, one college situated at Union Town, Pa., in successful operation; another under the patronage of the Ohio Annual Conference, at Cambridge, Ohio. Two seminaries; one at Whitstown, Vt., and one at Moscow, Ohio.

REFORMED METHODIST CHURCH.

The secession in which this body originated, took place in the towns of Readsborough and Whitingham, Vt., Jan. 1814. Their form of church government is congregational, and their doctrine those of the Methodist churches generally.

In 1850 there were 50 ministers, and 25 licensed preachers in the connection. The number of members has never been published.

At present they do not probably number more than two-thirds as many as formerly.

UNITED BRETHREN IN CHRIST, OR GERMAN METHODISTS.

This denomination is distinguished from the Old Moravian Church, by the phrase "in Christ." Its founder was William Otterburn, (the same who assisted in the ordination of Bishop Asbury,) a distinguished German divine. Their first Conference was held at Baltimore in 1789.

In doctrine and discipline they resemble the Methodist Church.

STATISTICS.

Conferences, 9 ; bishops, 4 ; ministers, 250 ; churches, 1,800 ; members, 67,000.

ALBRIGHTS, OR EVANGELICAL ASSOCIATION.

(GERMAN METHODISTS.)

This denomination took its rise about the year 1800. It took its name from Jacob Albright, its founder. Their doctrines and ecclesiastical regulations differ but little from those of the larger bodies of Methodists. They number about 20,000 members.

STILLWELLITES.

(CONGREGATIONAL METHODISTS.)

This society was first composed of seceders from the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1820, Rev. Wm. Stillwell, with some three hundred members, thinking themselves aggrieved by certain Conference resolutions, formally withdrew and organized a Church. Their numbers, though slightly increased for a time, began on the formation of the Protestant Methodist Church, rapidly to decline, a large proportion of the society uniting with that body. Mr. Stillwell died in 1851, and the society is now very much diminished. They do not number over 200.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

IN THE UNITED STATES.

GENERAL STATISTICS.

Churches, .....	1,411	Male religious institutions, .....	49

Clergymen, .....	1,242	Female academies, .....	100
Clergymen in other employments, .....	179	Charitable institutions, .....	113
Ecclesiastical institutions, .....	34	Catholic population, about ...	1,600,000
Clerical students, .....	421

There are 6 archbishops, 26 bishops, 1,385 priests, 1,411 churches, and 34 dioceses and 2 apostolic vicariates. One archbishop and 27 priests have died, and one bishop has been translated to another See ; whence it appears that during the past year there was an accession of 1 archbishop, 1 bishop, and 114 priests. The figures in the above table, under the head of Catholic population, were obtained from official, and consequently the most reliable sources. If we suppose the Catholic population in the diocese of St. Louis to be 90,000, Boston 250,000, Galveston 35,000, St. Paul's 2,500, Indian Territory 2,500, the total number of Catholics in the United States will be 1,980,000.

ASSOCIATION OF THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH.

The institution for the Propagation of the Faith, has for its object to assist, by prayers and alms, the Catholic missionaries who are charged to preach the gospel to foreign nations. The prayers are a Pater and Ave every day. The subscription is a half-penny, or nearly a cent a week. One member receives the subscriptions of ten members, the amount of which he hands over to another who receives ten such collections, or one hundred subscriptions. Two committees, one in Paris and the other at Lyons, administer the affairs of the institution, and distribute the funds. An account of the receipts and disbursements is published annually in the Annals of the Propagation of the Faith. This publication appears every two months, containing a variety of missionary intelligence, especially the letters of missionaries from different parts of the world. About 180,000 copies of this work are struck off; 100,000 in French, 18,200 in German, 20,000 in English, 1,100 in Spanish, 4,500 in Flemish, 30,000 in Italian, 2,000 in Dutch, 2,500 in Portuguese, 500 in Polish. The Sovereign Pontiffs have conferred upon the institution many spiritual favors.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

THERE being no minister in New England who had been baptized by immersion, Roger Williams received the rite at the hands of Ezekiel Holliman, an ordained minister of the English Episcopal Church, in March, 1639, and immediately afterward administered the rite to ten others. This may be regarded as the formation of the Baptist Church in the United States.

CAMPBELLITES, OR DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

The formation of this society dates from September, 1810. It was organized at Brush Run, Washington Co., Pa., by T. Campbell, a secessionist from the Irish Presbyterian Church, and his son, Alexander Campbell, avowedly for the purpose of effecting a union of the pious of all parties. They regard immersion as a re-mitting ordinance through which the penitent obtains an assurance of pardon. They practice open and weekly communion. They set apart the first day of the week for worship, but do not regard it as a Sabbath. In interpreting the Scriptures they confine themselves to its literal import, and profess to hold all the doctrines of the reformation.

SEVENTH-DAY BAPTISTS.

The peculiar views of this denomination were introduced into the United States by Mr. Stephen Mumford, who came from England in 1665, and settled in Newport, Rhode Island. The first Church was formed in 1681. They differ from other Baptists in refusing to admit that the Sabbath was changed by divine appointment from the seventh day to the first. The congregational form of Church government has been adopted by the body.

STATISTICS.

There are 67 Seventh-day Baptist Churches in the United States, as follows: Rhode Island, 8; Connecticut, 2; New York, 36; Pennsylvania, 4; Virginia, 4; Ohio, 5; Wisconsin, 5; Illinois, 1; Indiana, 1; Iowa, 1; ministers, 61; licentiates, 16. The number of communicants is 6,351.

The following benevolent institutions are under the patronage of the denomination: Seventh-day Baptist Missionary Society, American Sabbath Tract Society, and Seventh-day Baptist Publishing Society.

A yearly meeting of the Seventh-day Baptists in America was established at a very early period, and from it originated the Seventh-day Baptist General Conference—a body which held its meetings annually from 1805 to 1846, when it was agreed that the meetings should henceforth be held triennially. The next meeting of the Conference is to be held at Plainfield, N. J., commencing September 9, 1852.

The Seventh-day Baptist denomination was divided into associations in 1835. There are now six associations, each holding its annual meeting. The Eastern Association embraces the churches in Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Jersey, and that part of New York lying east of the Hudson river; its next meeting will be held at Waterford, Ct., on the 20th day of May, 1852. The Central Association embraces those churches in New York lying between the Hudson river and the small lakes; its next meeting will be held at Verona, Oneida Co., N. Y., on the 8th day of June, 1852. The Western association includes the churches in Western New York and Pennsylvania; its next meeting will be held at Genesee, Alleghany Co., N. Y., on the 24th day of June, 1852. The South-Western association embraces the churches in Virginia, and meets September 2d, 1852, at Lost Creek, Harrison Co., Va. The Ohio association includes all the churches in Ohio, and meets at Jackson, Shelby Co., O., October 7th, 1852. The North-Western Association is composed of the churches in Illinois and Wisconsin, and meets at Albion, Dane Co., Wisconsin, September 29th, 1852.

The Seventh-day Baptists have two Literary Institutions, designed to furnish the means of securing a thorough education. One of them, called the De Ruyter Institute, is located at De Ruyter, Madison Co., N. Y., and was founded in 1837, at an expense of between twenty and thirty thousand dollars. The other is located at Alfred, Alleghany Co., N. Y., and called the Alfred Academy and Teachers' Seminary. They have also several smaller academies, one of which is located at Shiloh, Cumberland Co., N. J., and another at Milton, Rock Co., Wisconsin.

GERMAN SEVENTH-DAY BAPTISTS.

This Church was first formed by Conrad Beissel, a native of Germany, who in 1725 seceded from the Dunkers, and retired secretly to a cell on the banks of the Cocalico, Pa. On being discovered by his followers, they settled in solitary cottages around his cell, and adopted his views of the Sabbath. In 1732 they abandoned their solitary mode of living and established a monastic society, and assumed the habit of the Capuchins. Their first buildings were called Ephrata. In 1777 they began to decline, and now only two small branch societies remain. They number 400 members and have 4 ministers.

GERMAN BAPTISTS, OR DUNKERS.

This denomination was formed by the German Baptists who emigrated to this country between the years 1718 and 1730. Though commonly called Dunkers, the name assumed by themselves, and by which they desire to be known, is "Brethren." They hold many views in common with the Quakers, and maintain in their teaching the doctrines of general redemption. As they keep no statistics, it is impossible to give any accurate account of their number. They do not probably exceed 8,000. They have 250 ministers.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCHES.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, (OLD SCHOOL.)

THIS body of Christians had its origin with those churches in Germany, Switzerland, France, and Holland, which were organized at the reformation on the platform of the purity of the ministry. The doctrines of the Church are strictly Calvinistic. In the government of the Church the ministry associate with themselves a body of laymen called ruling elders. The courts of the Church include consistories, classes, and synodical assemblies. The first presbytery of this Church was formed in Philadelphia in 1706; the first synod in 1717; first general assembly in 1789.

ASSOCIATE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

A branch of the Church of Scotland, holding the doctrines of the reformation as set forth in the standard of the Westminster Assembly. The first Presbytery in the United States was formed by Messrs. Gellatly and Arnot, in November, 1754, under the name of the Associate Presbytery of Pennsylvania.

This society is confined chiefly to the Middle and Western States. There are a few small congregations, however, in the State of Vermont and in Canada.

The judicatories of this Church consist of a Synod, which is composed of all the ministers and one ruling elder from each congregation, and meets annually; and 16 Presbyteries which meet as often as circumstances require.

STATISTICS.

Synods, 1; presbyteries, 16; ministers, 120; congregations, 214; communicants, 18,000.

The theological seminary connected with this Church is situated at Cannonsburg, Pa., and has two professorships—one of didactic theology and the other of Church history, pastoral theology, and biblical literature. There is but one term each year—from the first Monday in November to the last of March. Four terms are necessary to the completion of a course. The text-book in didactic theology is "JOHANNIS MARKII CHRISTIANÆ THEOLOGIÆ MEDULLA."

ASSOCIATE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

A branch of the Church of Scotland. Introduced into the United States by the Burgher congregation which emigrated in 1764, under the pastoral charge of the Rev. Mr. Clark. The doctrines of the Church are the same as the Associate Presbyterian Church. The first Synod was constituted in 1782, in Philadelphia.

STATISTICS.

Synods, 4; presbyteries, 20; ministers, 219; congregations, 332; communicants, 26,340.

REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

This branch of the great Presbyterian body traces its origin to the reformed Church of Scotland, which grew out of the labors of John Knox, about 1560. Their first Church organization in the United States bears date from 1743. The first Presbytery was formed in 1798. The first Synod in 1808. The doctrinal standards of the Church are the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms, and her Declaration and Testimony, published in 1843.

STATISTICS.

Synods, 2; presbyteries, 7; ministers, 80; churches, 100; communicants, 12,000.

CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIANS.

This denomination appears to have been formed by the Rev. Messrs. Finis Ewing, Samuel King, and Samuel McAllen, in February, 1810, who at that time separated from the Presbyterian Church. The ground of separation seems to have been a difference of view with regard to the doctrine of predestination, and also with regard to the licensing and ordaining of ministers. The lowest judicature of the Church is a congregational session, the next a presbytery—then a synod, and then a general assembly, which is the highest. The first session of the General Assembly was held at Princeton, Ky., May, 1829.

STATISTICS.

General Assembly, 1; synods, 12; presbyteries, 45; ministers, 350; churches, 480; members, 50,000.

CONGREGATIONALIST.

THE organization of the first Congregational Church in England, is usually ascribed to Robert Browne, in 1583. John Robinson, however, seems to have been the father of modern congregationalism. He was born in the year 1575. In 1592-3, the "Exile Aet" for the punishment of persons refusing to attend Church was passed by the British Parliament. In 1592-4 the seperatists retired to Holland, where in 1598 they published their Confession of Faith. James insisting upon conformity, in 1608 Robinson and Brewster escaped to Holland. In 1620 Robinson sailed for America, where he arrived on the 25th of December. The Congregational Church planted by the Puritans at Plymouth, was the first Church organized in New England. In 1648, the Congregational Churches adopted, as a doctrinal basis, the Westminster Confession of Faith. In 1681, a Synod convened at Boston approved a Confession of Faith which had been adopted by the English Congregational Churches in 1658, and which is to this day regarded as a correct exposition of congregationalism. In 1708 the churches of Connecticut adopted what is known as the Saybrook Platform.

GERMAN REFORMED CHURCH.

(For Dutch Reformed Church, see page 264.)

THIS Church comprises that portion of the family of reformed churches who speak the German language, and their descendants, and as such is distinguished from the Dutch Reformed, &c. The founder of the Church was ULRIC ZWINGLI, a native of Switzerland, who was born in 1484. Its doctrinal system is contained in the Heidelberg Catechism. The government of the Church is Presbyterian. Its Church courts consist of consistories, classes, synods, and a general convention. The Church in the United States is divided into two friendly bodies.

STATISTICS.

Ministers, 260 ; churches, 600 ; members, 70,000.

EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH.

THIS Church had its origin with the Diet of Augsburg, in the year 1555. It was established in America by the Dutch emigrants who settled in New York, (then New Amsterdam,) in 1621. The government and discipline of the Church is essentially Presbyterian. The doctrinal standard is the Augsburg Confession.

STATISTICS.

Synod, 1 ; churches, 30 ; members, 5,000.

MORAVIANS, OR UNITED BRETHREN'S CHURCH.

The founders of this Church were Bohemians and Moravians, who, being persecuted for their non-conformity, founded a colony on the estate of Count Zinzendorf in Upper Lusatia, in the year 1722. In consequence of the success of their missions, to the interests of which they are specially devoted, they have succeeded in establishing congregations and communities in Germany, England, Holland, America, &c. The government of the Church is a limited episcopacy. Their principal missions are to the negroes in the West India Islands, the Esquimaux in Greenland and Labrador, the Hottentots and Caffres at the Cape of Good Hope, and to the Indians of North America.

STATISTICS.

Bishop, 1 ; ministers, 27 ; congregations, 22 ; members, about 3,000.

QUAKERS, OR FRIENDS.

THIS religious society arose in England about the middle of the seventeenth century. George Fox, its founder, was born at Drayton, Leicestershire, in the year 1624. About the year 1655, several of this denomination emigrated to America, and landed at Boston. They suffered greatly from persecution ; various punishments were inflicted upon them ; and, finally, four of them were put to death by the gallows. In 1682, a large number of this body, under the patronage of Wm. Penn, left England and founded the flourishing colony of Pennsylvania.

STATISTICS.

Yearly meetings, 8. New England, held at Newport, Rhode Island. New York, held in that city. Pennsylvania and New Jersey, held in Philadelphia. Maryland, held in Baltimore. Virginia, held at Cetter Creek and Simmertown alternately. North Carolina, held at New Garden. Ohio, held at Mount Pleasant, and Indiana, held at Richmond, Wayne Co. Number of members about 3,000.

HICKSITES.

This body seceded from the Friends in the year 1827, in consequence of the efforts made to prevent Elias Hicks from promulgating his views respecting the miraculous conception, divinity, and atonement of the Lord Jesus Christ. These doctrines he denied, as he also did the authenticity and divine authority of the Holy Scriptures. They number about 200 congregations, and 2,000 members.

SHAKERS.

At the beginning of the year 1780, this society consisted of but about 10 or 12 persons, who all came from England. The largest body at present is at New Lebanon, situated about  $2\frac{1}{2}$  miles south of Lebanon Springs, in the county of Columbia, State of New York, about 25 miles south-east from Albany, and contains at present between 5 and 600 persons, including old and young, male and female. There is also one at Watervliet, about 7 miles north-west from the city of Albany, in the same State; this was established soon after the Church at New Lebanon, and now contains upward of 200 members. One at Hancock, in the county of Berkshire, and State of Massachusetts; this is situated about 3 miles south-east from New Lebanon, and 5 miles from Pittsfield, and contains about 500 members. One at Tyringham, about 16 miles south from Hancock, in the same county, which contains about 100 members. One at Enfield, county of Hartford, in the State of Connecticut, about 5 miles east from the Connecticut river, and about 18 miles north-easterly from Hartford, which contains about 200 members. One at Harvard, in the county of Worcester, and State of Massachusetts, about 30 miles north-easterly from Boston, which contains about 200 members. One at Shirley, county of Middlesex, in the same State, about 7 miles west from Harvard, which contains about 150 members. One at Canterbury, in the county of Rockingham, in the State of New Hampshire, about 12 miles north by east from Concord, which contains upward of 200 members. One at Enfield, county of Grafton, in the same State, about 12 miles north-east from Dartmouth College, which contains upward of 200 members. One at Alfred, county of York, about 30 miles south-westerly from Portland, in the State of Maine, which contains about 200 members. One at New Gloucester, county of Cumberland, about 25 miles north-west from Portland, same State, which contains about 150 members. These were all the societies formed prior to the year 1805.

There are at present, also, two societies in the State of Ohio; one at Union Village, in the county of Warren, about 4 miles west from the village of Lebanon, and 30 miles north by east from Cincinnati. This is the oldest and largest society in the Western States, and contains nearly 600 members. The other is at Watervliet, on Beaver Creek, in the county of Montgomery, about 22 miles north from Union Village, and 6 miles south-east from Dayton, which contains about 100 members. There are also two in Kentucky, one at Pleasant Hill, in Mercer county, about 7 miles easterly from Harrodsburg, and 21 south-easterly from Lexington, which contains about 4 and 500 members. The other is at South Union Jasper Springs, in Logan county, about 15 miles north-easterly from Russellville, and contains between 3 and 400 members. The fifth and last is at West Union, Knox county, in the State of Indiana; it is situated on Busseran Creek, near its confluence with the Wabash, about 16 miles above Vincennes, and contains upward of 200 members.

There are also numbers in various parts of the United States who have embraced the faith of the society, but whose circumstances have not, as yet, admitted of their being gathered into a regular body.

The numbers of believers contained in all the societies, both in the Eastern and Western States, exceeds 4,000. Two-thirds, at least, of this number have been added since the commencement of the present century.

DUTCH REFORMED CHURCH.

This is the oldest Church in the United States under a Presbyterian form of Church government. It is a branch of the National Church of Holland. Its first ministers were brought to this country by the Dutch West India company. Up to the year 1737, the Church was under the control of the synod of North Holland; in that year, however, some of the most prominent ministers of the Church a seceded, and thus cut themselves loose from the parent classis. This Church has adopted in its creed the confession of faith, revised in the national synod of the Council of Dort, in the years 1818-19, which consists of thirty-seven articles. These articles are precisely the same as those adopted by the Protestant Episcopal Church, with the exception of the one which relates to diocesan bishops, which they reject, believing that every presbyter is a bishop. The form of government is congregational. The primary court of the Church is the consistory, which consists of bishops, elders, and deacons. The next court is the classis, which is composed of a minister and elder from each Church. The next is the particular synod, which consists of two ministers and two elders from each classis. The highest court, and from which there is no appeal, is the general synod. It is composed of three ministers and three elders from each classis throughout the entire Church.

OFFICERS AND STATISTICS.

Assessor.—Rev. Runsford Wells.

UNITARIANS.

This body dates its origin in New England, back to the middle of the last century. The society worshipping at King's Chapel, Boston, was the first to exclude trinitarian sentiments. In the year 1815, there commenced in New England what has been called the unitarian controversy. In this controversy Drs. Channing and Worcester took a prominent part, and it finally terminated in the separation of the congregationalists into two distinct bodies, the Orthodox and Unitarian. The first Unitarian Association was held in Boston, 1825.

CHRISTIANS, (UNITARIAN BAPTISTS.)

This denomination originated between the years 1793 and 1801, in secessions from the Methodist, Baptist, and Presbyterian Churches. They reject the doctrine of the trinity, and refuse all creeds. Their views of baptism are in accordance with those held by the baptists generally. Each Church is an independent body, governing itself, and transacting its own affairs.

They have now spread into all the States and into Canada ; and are found in England. In New England they number 227 churches, over 200 ministers, and 10,896 communicants. And in the United States and Canada, they number 1,500 churches, over 1,500 ministers, and 325,000 communicants.

RESTORATIONISTS, OR UNIVERSALISTS.

This name is taken by those who believe that all men will ultimately be made happy. This doctrine was first preached in this country by Murray and Winchester in 1775, and was afterward advocated by Drs. Chauncey Rush and Smith. The first universalist society was organized at Gloucester, Mass., in 1779.

SWEDENBORGIANS, OR NEW JERUSALEM CHURCH.

This body owes its origin to Emanuel Swedenborg, and professes to have received a new dispensation of doctrinal truth. It first assumed to be a Church in England, in the year 1783. Its doctrines were introduced into the United States by a Mr. Glen, in the year 1784. The clergy are divided into three classes ; ministers, pastors, and ordaining ministers. They use a liturgy in public worship, and profess to be connected, in some way, with the Church of England. They have 42 churches, 30 ministers, and about 3,000 members.

JEWS.

The Jews first settled in this country about the year 1660, when New Amsterdam was under the Dutch government. They were mostly Spaniards and Portuguese, who fled first to Holland, then to America, to escape from the bloody inquisition. They are now found in all the States. Each congregation is independent of any other ecclesiastical authority. It elects its own minister, who is inducted into his office without any formal ordination, and retains it at the will of the majority.

Synagogues, about 20 ; numbering not less than 8,400 members.

CHURCH OF GOD.

This society originated with the Rev. John Winebrenner, of Harrisburg, Pa., in the year 1820, who separated himself from the German Reformed Church, on account of the opposition of some of its members to his views of revivals. The confession of faith adopted does not differ from that of evangelical Christians generally, except that it insists upon the literal washing of the feet of the saints as an ordinance obligatory upon all Christians. Each Church is formed avowedly upon the principles of a free and independent republic.

Within the last 25 years, the Church has extended her boundaries from Pennsylvania into Maryland, Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, and Iowa.

She has now six annual elderships, (or conferences,) composed of the teaching and ruling elders of the various churches in the bounds of each eldership.

She has also a general eldership, which meets triennially, composed of delegates from the several annual elderships.

In the several elderships, the number of preachers, churches, members, and preaching places, are about as follows :

Elderships.	Speakers.	Clerks.
East Pennsylvania,.....	Wm. McFadden,....	G. U. Harn and J. Halfleigh.

MORMONS, OR LATTER DAY SAINTS.

The founder of this strange community was Joseph Smith, who was born in Sharon, Vt., December 23, 1805. He professed to have received many visits from the angels of God. He affirmed that on the 22d of September, 1827, the angel of the Lord delivered into his hands a new revelation, written on plates of gold. The so-called "Church of Jesus Christ, or Latter-day Saints," was organized in the town of Manchester, Ontario county, New York. In 1839, after expulsion from various places, they commenced a city in Hancock county, Ill., to which they gave the name of Nauvoo. Here they erected an immense building, which they dignified with the name of "The temple of God." They afterward left Nauvoo and settled in Utah, near the great salt lake. They have sent missionaries into every part of Europe and America, and have succeeded in gathering together a large community.

Their doctrines, if they may be dignified by such a name, are a mixture of fanaticism and licentiousness. Their government is socialistic.

We give the following statistics on the authority of the representative in Congress from Utah.

There are about 14,000 Mormons in the territory of Utah; 10 or 12,000 in Iowa, two-thirds of whom will probably remove to Utah the coming season; there are, also, several thousands at St. Louis, Mo., and a few thousands in other parts of the Union.

In England, there are 40 or 50,000; in Wales, there are 7 or 8,000; and in other parts of European countries, they are to be found in considerable numbers.

The Mormons of Utah have purchased a tract of country in California, 16 square leagues in extent, called St. Bernardino, at a cost of $73,500, on which they have paid $25,000.

SECOND ADVENT BELIEVERS, (MILLERITES.)

This body is divided on various points of doctrine. The following, however, are held in common. The speedy advent of the Messiah. The literal resurrection of the dead at his appearance. The renewal of the earth as an eternal home for the saints. A majority believe in the unconscious state of all the dead until the resurrection; also, that after the general judgment the wicked will die a second death, and be forever as though they had not been.

They have 3 weekly and 1 semi-weekly papers, with a united circulation of over 9,000. Preachers, about 100. They claim to number from 15,000 to 20,000 believers in the United States.

MENNONITES.

This sect takes its name from Menno Simon, who was born in Friesland, 1495. Though originally a catholic priest, he subsequently counseled with Luther and other reformers, and formed many reformed communities in various parts of Europe. In 1683, the Mennonites being persecuted in Europe, a number fled into America, and, at the invitation of William Penn, settled in and about Germantown, Pa. Their articles of faith have been translated and published in the English language. They hold the leading truths of the gospel, and live in great simplicity. Their number are supposed not to exceed 25,000. They have 240 ministers and 400 congregations.

OMISH, OR AMISH CHURCH.

This society is a branch of the Mennonite community, and hold the peculiar doctrines of that body in a milder form. They take their name from Jacob Amen, though they disavow his being their founder. They profess to adhere rigidly to the confession of faith adopted at Dortrecht in 1632.

Their number have been computed by themselves at 120,000.

SCHWENKFELDERS.

This body takes its name from Casper Schwenkfeld von Ossing, who was born in Lower Silesia, 1490. The descendents of the followers of this man emigrated to this country in 1734. They settled in Montgomery, Berks, Bucks, Lehigh counties, Penn., where their grandchildren now reside. They hold the leading truths of the gospel, and live in great purity and temperance.

They have 5 churches and about 800 members.

PROGRESS OF RACES.

INCREASE PER CENT. OF EACH CLASS OF INHABITANTS IN THE UNITED STATES FOR SIXTY YEARS.

CLASSES.	1790 to 1800.	1800 to 1810.	1810 to 1820.	1820 to 1830.	1830 to 1840.	1840 to 1850.

Slaves, .....	27.9	33.4	29.1	30.61	23.8	28.58
Total colored,.....	32.2	37.6	28.58	31.44	23.4	26.22
Total population,.....	35.01	36.45	33.12	33.48	32.6	36.25

The census had been taken previously to 1830 on the 1st of August; the enumeration began that year on the 1st of June, two months earlier, so that the interval between the fourth and fifth censuses was two months less than ten years, which time allowed for would bring the total increase up to the rate of 34.36 per cent.

The table given below shows the increase from 1790 to 1850, without reference to intervening periods.

NUMBER OF	1790.	1850.	Absolute increase in sixty years.	Increase per cent. in sixty years.
Whites, .....	3,172,464	19,638,019	16,457,555	527.97
Free colored, .....	59,466	428,637	369,171	617.44
Slaves, .....	697,897	3,184,262	2,486,365	350.13
Total free colored and slaves,.....	757,363	3,612,899	2,855,536	377.00
Total population, .....	3,929,827	23,246,301	19,316,444	491.52

Sixty years since, the proportion between the whites and blacks, bond and free, was 4.2 to 1. In 1850, it was 5.26 to 1, and the ratio in favor of the former race is increasing. Had the blacks increased as fast as the whites during these sixty years, their number, on the first of June, would have been 4,657,239; so that, in comparison with the whites, they have lost, in this period, 1,035,340.

This disparity is much more than accounted for by European emigration to the United States.

SYNOPSIS OF THE BUSINESS OF THE SESSION.

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY.

BOOK DEPOSITORY AT WASHINGTON.

Resolved, That the agents at New York be authorized to establish a depository of books at Washington at their discretion.

BOOK CONCERN.

The following resolutions were adopted :—

Resolved, That the purchase of the lot on Mott street, and the erection of a building thereon, for the better accommodation of the business of the Concern, are hereby approved by the General Conference.

Resolved, That permission is hereby granted to the book agents at New York to dispose of the four houses on Crosby street whenever an advantageous opportunity may offer, and with the advice of the book committee erect other houses on a part of the lots belonging to the Book Concern on Mulberry street.

Resolved, That the large increase of sales and profits the last four years over the four years preceding is highly gratifying, and affords ample proof of the ability with which the Concern has been conducted, and grounds on which to rest the expectation that the views expressed by the agents will be realized at no distant day, and the sales amount to $250,000, annually.

Resolved, That the propriety and expediency of further reducing the price of the books of the general catalogue be referred to the judgment and discretion of the book agents; and that they be, and hereby are, instructed to review the list of prices, and to reduce the price of such book or books as they shall think may be safely reduced.

Resolved, That with a view to extend the circulation of the Christian Apologist, published at Cincinnati among the Germans, the editors of our periodicals are requested to notice it favorably, from time to time, and urge upon our ministry and membership to use such means as may tend to promote that end; and that our traveling preachers, also, are requested, wherever they find German people in their respective charges, or fields of labor, to order from the agents at Cincinnati specimen numbers of the paper to be shown to them, which the agents are hereby directed to furnish without charge.

Resolved, That there shall be a publishing committee for the North Western Christian Advocate, consisting of one member from each of the following Conferences, to be selected by the Conferences respectively, to wit: Rock River, Michigan, Northwestern Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, and Wisconsin, whose duty shall be similar to that of the book committee at New York and Cincinnati, so far as it may be applicable to the establishment.

Resolved, That a committee of one from the Illinois, one from the Southern Illinois, one from the Iowa, one from the Arkansas, and one from the Missouri Conference, to be selected by the Conferences respectively, be appointed to superintend the publication of the paper, authorized to be published at St. Louis, Missouri, and that on the nomination of said committee and recommendation of the Missouri Conference, the presiding bishop be requested to appoint an editor for said paper when the book agents at Cincinnati shall have determined on its publication, and that the duties of said committee shall be similar to those of the publishing committee at Chicago.

Resolved, That there shall be a publishing committee, consisting of four members, to be selected by the California, and one for the Oregon Annual Conference, whose duties shall be similar to the book committees at New York and Cincinnati, so far as they may be applicable to the establishment.

Resolved, By the General Conference, that we are highly gratified with the enlarged circulation of the Christian Advocate and Journal during the past four years; and also, that we regard with pleasure the estimation in which the Quarterly Review is held by its patrons, and hereby express our strong hope that its future circulation may be commensurate with its merits.

Resolved, That the character and usefulness of the Sunday School Advocate, and Missionary Advocate, respectively, are such as to entitle them to the continued confidence and support of the whole Church.

TRACT SOCIETY.

The following report and resolutions were adopted :—

Whereas, The bishops, in their address, have submitted to the General Conference the propriety of a new tract organization, that may awaken a livelier interest and give more activity to our operations in this department:

And whereas, Several Annual Conferences have passed resolutions expressing a similar desire; and whereas, the same is asked for at length in a memorial of the editor of tracts, your committee, after due consideration, recommend the organization of a Tract Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with the following Constitution :—

ART. 1. This association shall be denominated the Tract Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

ART. 2. Its object shall be to diffuse religious knowledge, by the circulation of the publications of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the English and other languages, in our own and foreign countries.

ART. 3. Any person paying to this society one dollar per year, shall be a member of the same; and the payment of ten dollars at one time, shall constitute a member for life; and the payment of fifty dollars at one time, shall constitute a director for life.

ART. 4. Persons constituted life members by the payment of ten dollars, not designated for any special object, shall be entitled to receive tracts to the value of fifty cents each year, and life directors, to the value of one dollar each year. Or, if they prefer, they may receive tracts at any one time to the amount of half the sum paid. All members and directors are also entitled to vote at the annual meetings of the society.

ART. 5. The annual meetings of the society shall be held during the second or third week of December. A public anniversary shall also be held each year, at such time and place as the board of managers shall determine.

ART. 6. The bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church shall be presidents of this society in the order of their seniority. A vice-president may be appointed by each Annual Conference. There shall be appointed by the General Conference a financial secretary for this society, who shall be the editor of the tracts. The other officers of this society shall be a recording secretary, a treasurer, and two elected vice-presidents, who shall severally be appointed by the board of managers.

ART. 7. The funds of this society shall be expended, under the direction of the board of managers, in payment of the necessary expenses of the institution, and in the promotion of its general objects. In all cases of gratuitous aid, books and tracts shall be given instead of money, unless the latter is strictly necessary to the accomplishment of a constitutional object.

ART. 8. The board of managers shall have power to enact their own by-laws; to fill vacancies in the board, occurring during the year; to appoint honorary members; to provide for the translation and publication of tracts; to print and circulate appeals to the Church, in behalf of the benevolent objects of the society; to raise and disburse funds for those objects; and to establish committees of finance and appropriations whenever necessary.

ART. 9. Each Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church may form a Conference Tract Society auxiliary to this, with power to adopt such measures as in the judgment of said Conference are best calculated to promote the objects of this association, and to form sub-auxiliaries in its several circuits and stations. The presidents of the Conference auxiliary shall be vice-presidents of this society.

ART. 10. This Constitution can not be altered except by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, on the recommendation of the society at a meeting called for that purpose after, at least, one month's public notice, or by the society, on the recommendation of the General Conference.

In conformity with the provisions and spirit of the foregoing Constitution, your committee submit the following resolutions:—

Resolved, That there shall be at New York an editor of the Monthly Magazine and Tracts, who shall also be the Corresponding Secretary of our Tract Society.

Resolved, That the editor of tracts shall have charge of the publication of tracts in our own and foreign languages.

Resolved, That, as Financial Secretary of the Tract Society, it shall be his duty to raise funds in behalf of the society, to promote the formation of Conference and other auxiliaries, and to co-operate with the auxiliary societies, and to make all proper efforts for the general diffusion of religious reading.

Resolved, That we recommend our people every where to form Tract Societies auxiliary to the Tract Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Resolved, That it is recommended to preachers in charge to make annually, in their several congregations, collections in behalf of the Tract Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

We recommend renewed and more energetic attention to the work of catechising the young, and that as a means of securing it, we enlarge answer 3, Chapter 4, Part 1, of the Discipline, by adding the following words:—

“Let the preachers also publicly catechise the children in the Sunday-school and at special meetings appointed for that purpose. It shall also be the duty of each preacher, in connection with reporting the Sabbath-school statistics at each Quarterly Conference, to state to what extent he has publicly or privately catechised the children of his charge.”

Resolved, That the Discipline, Part 3, Chapter 3, paragraph 5, page 174, be amended so as to read thus, beginning on the second line from the top: “Out of the moneys so collected and brought to the respective Annual Conferences, let the various allowances agreed upon in the second section be made up; but each Annual Conference shall have full power to determine by a vote of two-thirds of all its members present and voting, who among the superannuated and supernumerary preachers, and the widows and orphans of deceased preachers, belonging to the Conference, shall be claimants on the funds of said Conference, and what amount each claimant shall receive from year to year.”

TEMPERANCE.

Resolved, That the use of intoxicating liquors, to any extent, as a beverage, is to be deeply deplored and deprecated, as tending to the forming and maturing of pernicious habits, and leading, by natural consequences to diversified crime, wide-spread misery, and the final ruin of vast multitudes for whom Christ has died.

Resolved, That we rejoice greatly in the manifestations of public sentiment upon this subject, and especially that God is putting it into the hearts of civil rulers to interpose the authority of the State for the protection of society against what we hold to be an enormous social wrong—the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks.

Resolved, That the encouraging aspects of this great cause presents no just occasion for relaxation of effort on the part of its friends, but, on the contrary, call upon us to renew our diligence, in the use of all proper means to spread and consummate those plans so obviously traceable to a propitious Providence, and so richly fraught with the blessings of peace and good will to men.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

REV. NATHAN BANGS, D. D.

I have read the book entitled "Riches of Grace," with deep interest, and think it admirably calculated to promote the experience and practice of Christian holiness. It may be relied upon as authentic, because the narratives therein recorded are no fanciful sketches, but are drawn from real life, the witnesses giving their own account of what they have "felt and seen" of the workings of the Holy Spirit. I therefore heartily recommend it to all who wish a correct and scriptural view of the work of grace upon the human heart.

N. BANGS.

New York, Jan. 21, 1852.

---

REV. J. S. MITCHELL, D. D.

Pastor of M. E. Church, Norfolk street, N. York.

This is indeed a remarkable book. * * * Sixty-two witnesses of various denominations of Christians, all breathing the same spirit—love, perfect love. * * * Most of these witnesses are still living, and can testify—yea, are testifying—to the same momentous truths; others are fallen asleep, bearing their last testimony in their dying words. This book can not be read without profit.

---

MRS. DR. PALMER,

Author of "Way of Holiness," "Faith and its Effects," &c.

"The Riches of Grace" contains the testimony of sixty-two accredited witnesses of perfect love. Such is the pious influence of these witnesses, that the mention of their names, if expedient, would inspire the religious public with unlimited confidence.

These experiences are eminently calculated to set forth holiness as a doctrine of the Bible, and not merely the doctrine of a sect, the testimonies being from persons of various denominations. No truly enlightened believer can read this volume without feeling that it is one which commends itself to Christians of every name.

PHOEBE PALMER.

REV. MOSES HILL,

Pastor of First M. E. Church, Hartford, Conn.

Like as history teaches philosophy by examples, the "Riches of Grace" teaches Christian holiness by the testimony of unimpeachable witnesses. * * * The moral integrity of all these witnesses is such, that the positive testimony of any two of them would be sufficient to establish any fact in a court of justice. They have no personal interest in the issue of the case; they are not swayed by the peculiarities of a sect, but are from different religious denominations, and many of them are possessed of highly cultivated minds, and all of them eminently qualified to testify. They not only announce the fact of having actually attained the blessing of Christian holiness, but give us the interesting details of the process by which they attained it; and though differently educated, and surrounded by different classes of circumstances and influences, there is a surprising agreement in these details. I have read the book with great interest and profit, and earnestly recommend it to others.

CHURCH BELLS---CHURCH ORGANS.

THE subscriber is the proprietor of the oldest established BELL FOUNDRY in America, and from long experience, and great pains taken to improve and obtain the most satisfactory results, he is warranted in recommending his BELLS to the public, as equal to anything of the kind yet produced,—having received two Gold and four Silver Medals at the different Fairs, at Boston, New York and other places. Also, has cast over 3,000 CHURCH BELLS, which is the best reference that can be given for the community to continue to patronize him. BELLS hung with Cast Iron Yokes, and Cast Iron Frames ; Springs attached to the tongue, whereby the sound is prolonged and the vibrations made clear.

(Of the firm of Holbrook & Ware.)

Having built and put up over one hundred CHURCH ORGANS. Residing about twenty miles from Boston, where they have no rent to pay, and labor being less than can be obtained in the city, they can build ORGANS lower than can be obtained in Boston, New York, or elsewhere. Societies wanting ORGANS are respectfully invited to call and see their work. All the modern improvements will be found in their ORGANS. ## BORDENTOWN FEMALE INSTITUTE,

BORDENTOWN, N. J.

Rev. JOHN H. BRAKELEY, A. M., Principal.

---

THIS Institution for the Education of Young Ladies, is beautifully situated on the banks of the Delaware River, near the grounds of the late Joseph Bonaparte, and commanding the same magnificent view of the river and surrounding country. The railroad constituting the great thoroughfare between the North and South passes through the place, thus rendering it accessible at all seasons of the year.

The branches taught embrace all comprised in a thorough education, including Common and Higher English, the Natural Sciences, Latin, Greek, French, Italian, Drawing, Painting, and Music on the Piano and Guitar.

The charges vary from $65 to $90 per session of five months. The latter sum is the maximum charge for any or all the branches, including all necessary expenses except for books and stationery.

The year is divided into two sessions of five months each. The summer session commences May 1st, and the winter, November 1st. For Catalogues containing particulars, address the Principal.

BORDENTOWN, N. J., April 12th, 1852.

CHURCH BELLS.

CHURCH, FACTORY, STEAMBOAT and LOCOMOTIVE BELLS, constantly on hand, and PEALS or CHIMES OF BELLS (of any number) cast to order. Improved CAST-IRON YOKES, with movable arms, are attached to these BELLS, so that they may be adjusted to ring easily and properly, and SPRINGS also, which prevent the clapper from resting on the BELL; thereby prolonging its sound. HANGINGS complete, (including Yoke, Frame and Wheel,) furnished if desired.

An experience of thirty years in this business by their late father, enabled him to ascertain the best form for BELLS, the combination of metals, and degree of heat requisite for securing in them the greatest solidity, strength, and most melodious tones; which improvements, together with his very extensive assortment of patterns, are now held by the subscribers, who have grown up in the business, and who will use every endeavor to sustain the reputation which the establishment has heretofore enjoyed both in this and foreign countries; the BELLS from which have repeatedly received the highest awards of the New York State Agricultural Society and American Institute; and at which were completed CHIMES and heavy ALARM BELLS for different parts of the Union and Canada.

Mathematical Instruments will still be manufactured by the subscribers, of which they will have constantly on hand an assortment of TRANSIT INSTRUMENTS, LEVELS, SURVEYORS' COMPASSES, (plain, nonious and improved,) &c. Also, BRASS or COMPOSITION CASTINGS of any size cast to order.

WISE'S YOUNG MAN'S AND YOUNG LADY'S COUNSELORS.

THE fact that FOURTEEN THOUSAND copies of these books have been published in little more than a year, shows that the popular verdict agrees with the opinions of Editors as seen in the following notices.

“The style of the YOUNG LADY'S COUNSELOR is flowing like the limpid, transparent brook over its pebbly bed, diffusing health and pleasure wherever it goes. For its object it is one of the best works we have ever seen.”—Northern Christian Advocate.

“We deem the YOUNG LADY'S COUNSELOR THE BEST BOOK FOR YOUNG WOMEN, NEXT TO THE BIBLE, we have ever read.”—Adv. and Fam. Guard.

“This is a superior book.”—Puritan Recorder.

“One of the most readable, sprightly and attractive of books for young men.”—Daily Evening Traveler.

“We know not of any similar work which is more happily adapted for the object for which it is designed.”—Boston Mercantile Journal.

IS YOUR LIFE INSURED?

LORD LYNTHURST, High Chancellor of England, in one of his discussions pronounced from the highest judicial bench in the world, said, "a Policy of Life Insurance is always an evidence of prudent forethought; and no man with a family dependent upon his labors or existence, is free from reproach if his life is not insured."

THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF HARTFORD, CONN.,

Was organized in 1846, upon a strictly mutual plan; is now the largest institution of the kind in the United States. Its receipts during the last year, were over seven hundred thousand dollars. Its accumulated assets exceed

One Million of Dollars.

This Company issue Policies to meet all the contingencies of life, which can be properly provided for by insurance, and which are detailed at length in the Prospectus of the Company, which may be had of their Agents. The following are some of the cases, to which life insurance is applicable.

By Husbands and Fathers, to make provision after their death for their widows and children.

By the young, to make provision for themselves in their declining years.

By parents, to provide endowments for their children.

By creditors, to compensate the loss which the death of their debtors might occasion.

By the borrower, to secure in case of death, means to repay the loan.

By the holder of a lease, dependent on a life or lives.

By expectants of property in reversion, to insure a portion of it against the contingency of life, &c.

The benefits and advantages to policy holders accruing from the contributions of a large association of mutual insurers, are eminently enjoyed by those insured in this institution, in which the expenses of management have been reduced to a point never before attained by a similar institution. To which may be added the security acquired against the fluctuations of mortality, so hazardous to institutions of limited numbers.

Each person insured in this Company, becomes a member, and is entitled to his proportion of the surplus or earnings, without being personally liable beyond the annual premium for the continuance of his policy. The dividends are declared ANNUALLY; and redeemed as the funds of the Company will justify. Two dividends have been paid, and that of 1849, is now (1852) being paid during the current year.

Predicated upon a system of mutual security and mutual benefits, each member receives all the advantages which can be derived from an insurance, at the lowest rates, being the actual cost.

Agents, to whom application can be made, and from whom information may be derived, are located in all the principal towns of the New England and Western States.
