THE ANTHEM "O'er Death No Man Could Prevail" Bach

O'er death no man could prevail, if mortal e'er came near him, thro' guilt all our strength would fail, our sinful hearts did fear him. Therefore, death did gain the day, and lead in triumph us away, henceforth to dwell with him imprison'd. Hallelujah!

THE OFFERTORY ANTHEM "Go to Dark Gethsemane" Noble

Go to dark Gethsemane, ye that feel the tempter's pow'r; your Redeemer's conflict see, watch with Him one bitter hour, turn not from His griefs away, learn of Jesus Christ to pray. Follow to the judgement hall; view the Lord of life arraigned; oh the wormwood and the gall! Oh the pangs His soul sustained! Shun not suff'ring, shame, or loss, learn of Him to bear the Cross. Calvary's mournful mountain climb; there, adoring at His feet, mark the miracle of time, God's own sacrifice complete, "It is finished!" hear Him cry; learn of Jesus Christ to die. A-men.

OUR CRUSADE

May 16, 1962

HER PART

"I have never had an opportunity to take part in a financial crusade in my church. This Crusade is going to be the most wonderful thing that has ever happened in our church. It is going to bring members of Duke Memorial together in a way they have never experienced before.

"By accepting the job that is to be done each one of us is going to put our entire selves, shoulder to shoulder, into the project with our fellow members. Having borne a burden together, people always experience a closer relationship with God and come out stronger—spiritually and physically.

"To me this is going to be a privilege—to Help Build a House for God. I can do more than just a part (my part) through prayer and faith and very little sacrifice. But it is my desire to sacrifice because what I have today HE has made it possible for me to have—not just material things, but my faith—my health—my family—my job—and, last but not least—my church.

"God, please grant that I can personally see the job well done to its completion."

(Excerpts from a member's letter to the pastor)
