Fair are the meadows, Fairer the woodlands, Robed in flowers of blooming spring; Jesus is fairer, Jesus is purer, He makes our sorrowing spirit sing.
Beautiful Saviour! Lord of the nations! Son of God and Son of Man! Glory and honor, Praise, Adoration, Now and forevermore be Thine!

CHRISTIAN SYMPATHY

The members and ministers of Duke Memorial Church express sincere sympathy to Mrs. J. Marvin Cole, 2204 Wilson Street, in the death of her father.

NEW MEMBERS

We are happy to welcome into the membership of Duke Memorial Church the following new members:

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Allen, 703 South Duke Street, as affiliate members. Mr. Allen is from Burlington, Vermont and Mrs. Allen is from Schenectady, New York.

Mrs. Vernon P. Cannada and Marcia Cannada, 2710 Shenandoah Avenue, from St. Paul Methodist Church, Durham, North Carolina.

Mrs. Harmon L. Smith, 601 East Markham Avenue, from Hillsboro Methodist Church, Hillsboro, North Carolina.

Miss Mary Lee Dennis, 1211 Glendale Avenue, from Calvary Methodist Church, Durham, North Carolina.

HOME DEDICATION

A service of Dedication of the Home was conducted by the minister in the new home of Mr. and Mrs. A Laurance Aydlett, 1715 Kent Street, on Wednesday evening, September 19. A Certificate of Dedication was also presented to the family.

RALLY DAY OFFERING

The plate offering today will go for the support of our Annual Conference program of Leadership Education. Let us give generously for this cause designed to strengthen this important phase of our church's work.

WORLD WIDE COMMUNION SUNDAY

Next Sunday will be observed as World Wide Communion Sunday and we will join with Christian people everywhere in this significant observance. Let us all share in this sacred service and invite others to come with us.

At this service an opportunity will be given in all Methodist Churches for members to present a sacrificial offering for the Fellowship of Suffering and Service to be used by the Methodist Commission on Overseas Relief, the Methodist Commission on Chaplains, and the Methodist Commission on Camp Activities. Plan now to bring your offering for these special services of our church.

WELCOME

At this time of year there are many new people moving into our community. There are new faculty members of the city schools and of Duke University, and Duke University students, also. Others come with other connections. We welcome all to the community, and invite any who will to worship with us at Duke Memorial Church. We welcome all visitors and hope you will use the Visitor's Card in the pew rack to give us helpful information.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR SERVICE

This is a meaningful day in the life of Duke Memorial Church when so many persons stand at the altar of the church and dedicate themselves to loyal and consecrated service to God and His Church. We are grateful for this large number of persons who give themselves so devotedly to such service.

We would remind our congregation, however, that there are always "opportunities for service" for others who might want to find a place in which they might work in the church. It is not possible for the ministers and staff to know the abilities and desires of all our members and we would like for every one who would like to have a place of service to find one. We hope, therefore, that anyone who has such an interest would make that fact known to the ministers or to other church officials.

The Choirs, the Church School, the Youth Fellowships, the Woman's Society, the Visitation Committee, and other phases of church life offer "opportunities for service" to any who would like to share in them.

FAMILY NIGHT

Today at 5:30 in the church a Family Night will be held. This will be an opportunity for the church family to come together in fellowship on this day on which we have emphasized the importance of Christian Education in our lives. Everyone in the church is invited to come and bring their picnic supper and join in the group activities this evening.

As a special feature of our program, parents of all children and youth will be given the opportunity to visit with the teachers for the new church school year. Music awards will be announced. There will be fellowship singing and moments of inspiration. Everyone is urged to come.

YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

The MYFs will not hold their regular meetings tonight.
