ALTAR FLOWERS

The beautiful flowers on the altar today are given by Mr. Edwin Y. Bass, Richmond, Virginia, in memory of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Bass.

NEW MEMBERS

We are happy to welcome into the membership of Duke Memorial Church the following, who united with us at the morning service last Sunday:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Howell, 2001 Dartmouth Drive, from First Methodist Church, Salisbury, North Carolina

Mrs. R. E. Prince, 2039 Englewood Avenue, from Chestnut Avenue Methodist Church, Newport News, Virginia

Mrs. William Randolph, 105 West Maynard Avenue, from Calvary Methodist Church, Nashville, Tennessee

Mr. and Mrs. J. Charles Smith, 3208 Ridge Road, from Greene Memorial Methodist Church, Roanoke, Virginia

CHRISTIAN SYMPATHY

The members and ministers of Duke Memorial Church express sincere sympathy to Mr. R. H. Pate, Roanoke, Virginia, in the death of his brother; to Mr. T. T. Hodges, 2001 University Drive, in the death of his sister; to Mr. J. T. Reynolds, 1801 Morehead Avenue, in the death of his mother; and to Miss Rhoda Fitzpatrick, 809 Parker Street, in the death of her sister.

CHURCH CONFERENCE

Following the service this morning there will be a Church Conference to hear and act upon the report of our Building Committee. The Conference will take only a short time and we hope every member can and will remain for it. All visitors are invited to stay for the Conference.

OFFICIAL BOARD—QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

The District Superintendent has called a special session of the Quarterly Conference to meet in our church on Monday evening, November 5, at 7:30 p.m. The Quarterly Conferences of thirteen other churches will be meeting with us. All groups will meet together in the sanctuary for the opening period and will then move to separate rooms for the individual conferences. This meeting will serve as our regular Board meeting for the month.

This meeting is called to consider the matter of the Quota allotted to Duke Memorial Church in the College Development Crusade. It is a very important meeting and we hope all Board members will attend.

THE UPPER ROOM

The November-December issue of THE UPPER ROOM is now available from the literature racks in the vestibule.
