TEN RULES FOR WORSHIP

1. Worship begins as I close the door to my home. On my way, I pray for my church, for the minister, and for those who worship far and near.
2. Before I enter the house of God, I pause a moment that I may cast off and leave outside all things and thoughts unbecoming a child of my Heavenly Father: hates, grudges, fretting, world cares, and sinful thoughts.
3. The moment I enter the door of this sacred house, I cease all conversation. I come in silence, for great things arise out of quietness and minister to me and to those about me.
4. As soon as I am seated, I bow my head in prayer. I pray for others as well as for myself. I pray for my Church and its great cause. I ask God to be near me now.
5. I join in the singing of hymns and bow my head during the amen. I think about the words of the sermon and let their meaning and spirit go down to the roots of my soul.
6. As I lay my offering on the plate, I say a prayer of thanks for my money and ask God's blessing on its use here and in the uttermost parts of the earth.
7. Throughout the service I think of God objectively — as power, peace, strength, love. He is all I need for life as it should be.
8. I listen as the minister preaches from God's Word, and I seek to apply his message to my life. I pray for him as he preaches.
9. When the service has ended, in Christian friendliness I speak to those whom I know and also to those who are strangers to me.
10. As I pass through the outer portals, I dedicate my life to walk this week the high road with Christ.
