HISTORICAL STATEMENT

The North Carolina Conference was set off from the Virginia Conference in May, 1836, and in 1850, and again in 1870, North Carolina territory in the South Carolina Conference was transferred to this Conference. In 1890 North Carolina territory in the Holston Conference and in the Virginia Conference, except that beyond the Chowan River, was transferred to the North Carolina Conference, and the Conference was divided into the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences. In 1894 the remaining North Carolina territory in the Virginia Conference was transferred to the North Carolina Conference.

The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church was composed of the North Carolina Conference of the former M. E. Church, South, and parts of the North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church and the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church. The former Methodist Episcopal Church gave to the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church 9 preachers, 11 charges and 1,837 members; the former Methodist Protestant Church 23 preachers, 20 charges and 9,152 members; the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 273 preachers, 226 charges and 132,735 members.

Rules of Order and Procedure for the North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church

I. RULES OF ORDER

1. Robert's Rules of Order shall apply to any situation not covered by these Rules.
2. No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a breach of order, a misrepresentation, to direct the attention of the Conference to the fact that time has arrived for a special order, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.
3. No member shall speak a second time on the same question if any member who has not yet spoken desires the floor, nor more than twice on the same subject under the same motion, nor longer than ten minutes unless his time shall be extended by the Conference, except as provided in Rule 4.
4. When the report of a committee is under consideration and when all have spoken who desire to do so, or when (and after) the previous question has been ordered, the chairman and/or duly authorized member or members presenting the committee's report (and the minority report if there be one) shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken.
5. A member claiming the floor at any time for what he believes is a very urgent question of high privilege, shall be allowed to indicate briefly the nature of the question, and if it be adjudged by the chair to be such, he may proceed at his pleasure, or until the chairman judges he has exhausted his privilege.
6. Voting shall be by a show of hands unless otherwise ordered by the Conference. A "yea" and "nay" vote, if taken, shall be by written ballot, which result will be published in the Conference Journal. A count vote may be ordered on call of any member supported by one-fifth of the members present and voting, in which case the delegates shall rise from their seats and stand while they are counted.

ORREN W. DOWD

Orren W. Dowd: a Christian gentleman, a devoted husband, a good minister of Jesus Christ and a diligent and faithful pastor. This epitomizes the good and useful life he lived from the date of his birth, October 28, 1875 to the moment of his death, Sunday, October 30, 1955; having attained the ripe age of eighty years. During his whole life it was his custom to attend church and worship God. On this last Sunday in October he did not go to church, but to heaven instead. This was as real a part of his plan and expectation as was going to church. However, he had no nostalgic longing for that other world. He loved and enjoyed life in this world, living in his own lovely home at 2107 Fairview Road, Raleigh, N. C. for the past ten years.

Much of fine and noble living filled the eighty years of O. W. Dowd's life. He got a good start by being born and reared in the devout Christian home of John A. and Othelia Dowd at Goldston, N. C. Orren was one of ten children.

His father being a strong Baptist and his mother a devout Methodist, he got the benefits of their doctrinal beliefs and discussions. In consequence, a brother became a Baptist minister while Orren became a Methodist. In his youth he received a double portion of the sacrament of baptism: immersion according to the Baptist practice and sprinkling according to the Methodist way. He humorously remarked sometimes that he was safe on that score.

Brother Dowd experienced conversion at the age of sixteen, and soon thereafter felt the irresistible call to the Christian ministry. This he realized would require educational preparation which, in that day of very meager school advantages, seemed out of reach. But he attended the short public schools each year, and later, some of the academies then extant in North Carolina. In the years of his early manhood he went to Douglas, Georgia, and taught in the common school. Here it was that he made his definite commitment to the Christian ministry. From thence he entered the University of North Carolina; later transferring to Trinity College. Still again he transferred to Vanderbilt University where he graduated in 1906, and did advanced studies in theology.

Throughout his ministry, O. W. Dowd had a missionary passion. He went to the western frontier of Montana to begin his ministry. He was admitted on trial at Deer Creek Lodge in 1906 and spent the first three years of his ministerial life in Montana; then returned to his native state and became a member of the North Carolina Conference.

He served well the following charges: Deer Lodge, Montana, Bladen Charge, Troy, St. John-Gibson, Roxboro—Long Memorial, Morehead City—First Church, Wilmington—Fifth Avenue, Franklinton, Louisburg, Hamlet, Elizabeth City District, Goldsboro—St. Paul, Oxford, Dunn, Raleigh—Jenkins Memorial. In all his pastorates he emphasized the missionary responsibility of the church. During the years of his retirement from 1947 until his death he was, by special appointment of the Bishop, Missionary Secretary of the Raleigh city Board of Missions and Church Extension.

Brother Dowd loved his home which was always rich in warm hospitality. Many were the friends who loved to visit him and his lovely wife. He was twice married; first to Mollie Wile of Helena, Montana, June 1908. She died in 1918 while he was pastor at Roxboro. On June 9, 1921, he was married to Virginia Calloway of Elkin, N. C., who survives him, and who was during all the years of their happy married life a faithful and gracious helpmeet.

Funeral services were conducted by the Reverends R. Grady Dawson, W. Stanley Potter and W. A. Cade in Hayes Barton Methodist Church, Raleigh, on Tuesday, November 1, 1955. Interment was in the family burying plot at Roxboro, N. C.

So lived our brother and friend for eighty years. It was a great privilege and blessing to have known, loved, and worked with this good man. He loved to quote these words of Whittier as an expression of his faith and hope:

"I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care."

HARRY CLEVELAND SMITH

1886-1956

Dr. Harry Cleveland Smith was born at High Shoals, Cleveland County, N. C., on March 26, 1886. He was educated at Rutherford College and Duke University, the latter institution conferring on him the Degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1941. He was married to Miss Carolyn Olson on June 7, 1910. Dr. Smith was admitted On Trial into the North Carolina Conference, in session at Fayetteville, December 1912, and served with distinction in the pastorate, or as District Superintendent, for nearly forty-four years.

Following a brief illness, he died in Raleigh on March 5, 1956. The funeral service was conducted at Hayes Barton Methodist Church, of which he was pastor, at eleven o'clock, March 8, 1956, by the Reverend R. G. Dawson, superintendent of the Raleigh District; the Reverend W. A. Cade, retired; and the Reverend W. L. Clegg, superintendent of the Durham District. Dr. Smith is survived by his wife, Mrs. Carolyn Olson Smith; three daughters: Mrs. W. B. Bodie, Mrs. Jack Cooke, and Mrs. B. W. Lanier; and one sister, Miss Bessie Smith.

Georgia Harkness once said that, instead of giving a definition of religion, "I would like for you to think of the most genuinely religious person you ever knew, preferably not some saint of history, but one you knew in flesh who seems to be unmistakably religious."

Dr. Harry C. Smith was the sort of person that one could accept as a definition of a Religious Personality. His life was characterized by spiritual vitality and depth; he thought of others before himself; he was interested in helping others achieve their best but with a tact that drew the line at meddlesomeness; he accepted responsibility for work that was worth doing and carried it through in spite of difficulty; he met the great crises and the petty annoyances of life with courage, calm, and a sense of direction. He was never bored with himself or with the world. He had a host of friends, for his own friendliness won them to him.

Harry Smith was not born with a silver spoon in his mouth. He came from an able but not affluent family from the foot-hills of the Blue Ridge in our state. There is no doubt in my mind that he reflected much of the sturdy, quiet strength of the hills that he roamed as a boy. He knew how to be patient and how to take the long view. He got his education the hard way—and it meant more to him.

One can safely say that in our generation there has not been a more dearly beloved man in our North Carolina Conference than Harry Smith. He was a preacher's minister. His fellow ministers naturally turned to him for guidance and encouragement. How many of you have done as I have—when the walls seemed to be tumbling and it was but a short step from anguished grief to utter despair—you went to Harry Smith and Harry Smith came to you, and this quiet, strong man of God was used by his Heavenly Father to restore your faith and courage?

Harry Smith had so many friends because he was a friend. He reflected perfectly the observation made by Francis Bacon, "this communicating of a man's self to his friend" works two contrary effects: for it redoubleth joys and cutteth grieves in halves. For there is no man that imparteth his joys to his friend, but that he joyeth the more, and no man imparteth his griefs, but that he grieveth less."

The most of us have known Harry Smith as the pastor of large churches and as a district superintendent, but he never forgot his humble beginnings. I have heard him speak often with affection about his experiences and friends on the Pelham Circuit and the Old Durham Circuit, as indeed he did of the more prominent appointments that he served. He came early into places of leadership and great responsibility because it was recognized that he possessed those "gifts and graces" that qualified him for them.

As a pastor he was a true shepherd of his flock. The word shepherd would come as near describing him as any other. He loved his flock. He knew them, he led them—and there was spontaneous and confident response to his love and leadership. No more devoted pastor ever served in the North Carolina Conference. His was not a "flash in the pan" type of popularity, but it grew out of something deep and abiding which stood the test of years. Upon two occasions he served the same appointment that he had previously served—a tribute to the trust and confidence placed in him.

Harry Smith was a wise and good district superintendent. He was especially solicitous and helpful to the younger preachers in his district. Laymen found it easy to talk with him. But I must say that the work of a district superintendent was not easy for him. I spent six years with him in the cabinet of our conference. I never knew him to take any man's appointment lightly. It weighed upon him. He could not dismiss a difficult and disappointing situation by simply saying that he had done his best. Other people's hurts became his hurts and he carried them in his heart. The bishops with whom he worked in the cabinet and all of his associates depended much upon his advice and counsel because all knew that all he said and did was motivated by only two considerations: the men and the church he loved.

Harry Smith was powerful in the pulpit as well as a pastor, but his power was not the mere result of eloquence or of phrases aptly turned. In fact, he did not seek thus to preach. His power as a preacher was rooted in his love for his people blended effectively and beautifully with a deep sense of God's purpose, plus the fact that all his life he was a student. The best books were always on his desk. He liked to prepare sermons. On several occasions he remarked to me, "I can't preach an old sermon." By that he meant that for him his messages had to be revelant and applicable to the hopes and fears and needs of his particular congregation. His sermons were inspiring because they were appropriate and they struck home to those who heard him because they knew that the life and the sermon were one.

In his home life Harry Smith was all that he was in his ministerial life, plus the intimate and tender ties that bind husband and wife and father and child together. He never ceased to be grateful for the inspiration and loving support of his gracious and beloved wife. He was proud, and justly so, of his family. Over the years I had the pleasure of making a number of long trips with him, some of them extended in time. He always looked forward to getting home with eagerness, and the tender and considerate way in which he always referred to his wife and children was a spiritual blessing in itself. After his children were grown and had established homes of their own, he looked forward to their visits with him and his visits to them with a refreshing buoyancy.

You, his grieving kin and friends, know as well as I that the real significance of a good and great life cannot be expressed in the language of men. It is only expressed in its influence on the living of others. Wife and child, fellow minister and parishioner will never be filled with gratitude as we recall his devotion, his fidelity, and the clean, spirit-filled life that he lived.

On the day of his funeral a radio commentator who knew Dr. Smith intimately said: "Next Sunday the pulpit of Hayes Barton Methodist Church will be filled by another, but Dr. Harry Smith will be there, too. He will be there in the hearts and lives of those who are made better and for whom life is more meaningful."—So will he also be at Duke Memorial, Durham, and at Pelham; at Trinity, Wilmington, and at Pleasant Green, at Carr and at Fletchers, at McMannens and at Bethany, and when our Annual Conference meets he will be there in our hearts and affections.

And so, Brother Harry, it is NOT farewell, but HAIL!

W. L. CLEGG

WILLIAM ALEXANDER PARSONS

1872-1956

William Alexander Parsons, born in Montgomery County, October 7, 1872, seemed destined to become another one of God's great personalities. He was the son of John A. and Sarah Parsons. He received his early education at a boarding school in Troy, and upon completing high school, William Parsons attended a Methodist school at Athens, Tennessee, where he received a Bachelor of Arts Degree. Later, he studied at the Chattanooga Seminary and was awarded his Bachelor of Divinity Degree.

Upon completion of his formal education he then began his useful service in the field of teaching. He was received into the Georgia Conference in 1889, and became principal of the Epworth Seminary at Epworth, Georgia. Later he became principal of Union Hill Seminary at Union Hill, Georgia, making teaching his profession for a total of twelve years. Due to the illness of his mother he returned to North Carolina and became pastor of the Troy Circuit and served that work for one year. Then he became district superintendent of the Statesville District in the Blue Ridge and Atlantic Conference and served six years. After being district superintendent, he became pastor of the Boulevard Methodist Church in Statesville. Other charges served were: Kings Mountain, Pinebluff, and Glendon. He gave forty-seven years of faithful service to the church and served five years as a Retired Supply. He had the honor of attending fifty-four consecutive sessions of the Annual Conference. In his years of service he had the distinction of being elected as a delegate to three General Conferences.

The inspiring ministry of Dr. Parsons was influenced and strengthened by his wife, the former Maggie Willingham of Clarkson, Mississippi. They were united in marriage in 1901. In the home there was love and devotion to each other which radiated into the life of the community. He was a true example of Christian love and brotherhood—what he received he gave first to others and then to himself. Dr. Parsons constantly exemplified the teachings of our Master in his daily living. Through his generosity and humility he became a servant to humanity and a blessing to the Kingdom of God. These words best describe our beloved Dr. Parsons.

"Christ's Love, and His Apostles twelve,
He taught, but first he followed it himself."

On Sunday, March 7, 1956, his funeral was held at the Pinebluff Methodist Church. His body was placed in the Pinebluff Cemetery. Several hundred friends came to show respect to their Christian brother who had made life a greater blessing for them.

'When earth's last picture is painted, and the tubes are twisted and dried,
When the oldest colors have faded, and the youngest critic has died,
We shall rest, and, faith, we shall need it—lie down for an eon or two Till the Master of all good workmen shall set us to work anew!
And only the Master shall praise us, and only the Master shall blame;
And no one shall work for money, and no one shall work for fame,
But each for the joy of the working, and each in his separate star, Shall draw the things as he sees it for the God of things as they are.'

—Kipling

JAMES W. HAMILTON

JAMES MARVIN JOLLIFF

James Marvin Jolliff was born September 23, 1879, in Belvedere township, Perquimans County. He was the son of John R. and Mary Eliza Jolliff who were devout and loyal Christians, and who faithfully observed family devotions, and served the church and the community faithfully and effectively. From his parents, brother Jolliff inherited a firm faith and fine spiritual background. He joined the Bethany Methodist church in Perquimans County when he was only eight years old.

He was very happily married December 26, 1906, to his childhood sweetheart, Mary A. White. To this blessed union were born ten children. One paid the last full measure in World War II. His devoted wife and the following children survive and mourn his passing: Wilton M., Manteo; Ima (Mrs. L. D. Hassell), Manteo; Carroll, Raleigh; Dorris (Mrs. W. T. French), Port Leyantey, North Africa; Thurston, Fort Ord, California; Palmer, Morehead City; Margaret (Mrs. A. F. Wetherington), Hampton, Va.; and twenty grandchildren.

He was licensed to preach December 3, 1908, and was admitted into the North Carolina Conference November 1925. He went home to glory May 13, and his funeral was conducted from Gatesville Methodist Church May 14 by the pastor, the Rev. Henry Bizzell, and the Rev. B. B. Slaughter, his former district superintendent. His body was tenderly laid to rest in the family burial ground in Perquimans County.

Brother Jolliff served the following charges: Columbia, 1920-21; Hatteras and Manteo, 1921-29; South Mills, 1929-33; Stonewall, 1933-35; Gatesville, 1935-44; Newport, 1944-51. He retired at the conference in Wilmington, 1951, but served Gatesville again till June 1952. From 1952-54 he served Harrellsville and Winton Churches. After his retirement he made his home in Gatesville where he had served more than nine and a half years.

Brother Jolliff loved and enjoyed his home life. His home was full of joy and was a place of peace, a pleasant place to visit. He had a wholesome and divine sense of humor and was good company. It was the writer's good fortune to be associated with him as his district superintendent for twelve years, six in the Elizabeth City district and six in the New Bern district; and therefore had an opportunity to observe his life and work. He preached a positive gospel, a warm-hearted gospel. He felt it was his duty and privilege to feed and lead the flock. He sought to lead his flock in green pastures and where the still, refreshing waters flow. He ministered to rich and poor, the learned and illiterate, the saint and the sinner with equal interest and understanding, sympathy and love. He looked well after the sick, the shut-ins and those in distress, and was much sought by those in trouble or bereavement. He was an inspiration to all with whom he came in contact.

"O blessed is that man of whom some soul can say,
He was an inspiration along life's toilsome way,
A well of sparkling water, a fountain flowing free,
Forever like his Master in tenderest sympathy."

It can be truly said of brother Jolliff that he was a "good minister of Jesus Christ," a workman who had no cause to be ashamed of his work, rightly dividing the Word of truth. He had a passion for the lost and always sought to lead them safe into the Good Shepherd's fold. He was an attentive and devoted husband and an understanding and sympathetic father, a good neighbor, a good citizen, and a good friend to all who came his way.

In the home-going of brother Jolliff, the writer feels he has lost a good friend, and his feeling can be expressed in the words of James Whitcomb Riley:

"I cannot say and I will not say
That he is dead! He is just away.
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an Unknown Land,
And left us dreaming here how very fair
It needs must be since he lingers there.
And you—O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and the glad return—
Think of him as faring on as dear
In the love of There as in the love of here;
Think of him still as the same, I say,
He is not dead! He is just away."

Ethelbert L. Hill was born February 27, 1877, in Newport, North Carolina, the son of Michael Arendel Hill and Henrietta Sanders Hill. Most of his early life was lived in Beaufort, N. C. Here he attended high school, and then went to the University of North Carolina. Later, he took his seminary work at Duke University.

About the age of thirty-three he became seriously ill with arthritis and for many months he lingered between life and death. Many long months of suffering were spent in his uncle's home, Dr. Sanders of Bogue, N. C. Long before he was well he began to attend Dr. Sanders' home church, Bethlehem, and soon was an active member. Here he accepted Christ as his saviour and here he received his call to the ministry. He was admitted to the North Carolina Conference at Washington, N. C., 1914. Our Heavenly Father calls His children in many ways, and suffering seems to be the most effective.

Brother Hill, Bert to me, was married by me to Miss Calla Bell of Bogue, N. C., December 21, 1913. To this union was born seven children: Ethelbert Byron Hill, Mrs. Lester White, Eric Wilson Hill, Mrs. Thomas Humphrey, Lt. Earl Lynox Hill, Mrs. John Denison, and Thomas Leland Hill, who died in infancy. Lt. Hill lost his life in the second World War after many successful flights for his country.

Following his retirement in November 1945 he and Mrs. Hill moved to Mount Olive to spend the evening hours in their little home. Here, he rendered such service as he was able to give to his Lord and to his Church. During these years he gladly responded to the calls to preach and teach. His health had been declining for several years and finally he slipped away, May 19, 1956.

Bert served the following pastorates: Seven Springs, Cape Hatteras, Rockingham Circuit, Roper, Glendon, Roseboro, Atlantic, Dover, Stonewall, Helena, Lumberton Circuit and Hallsboro.

He awaits our coming.

"Jesus, thou Prince of life,
Thy chosen cannot die!
Like thee, they conquer in the strife,
To reign with thee on high."

MRS. J. H. BUFFALOE

1874-1955

Mrs. Mattie Buffaloe, born near Garner, N. C., 82 years ago, passed from earth into eternity July 2, 1955, in the home of her son, James, at Marston, N. C.

Mrs. Buffaloe was the widow of the late Rev. James H. Buffaloe, a faithful and highly appreciated minister of the North Carolina Conference. For 41 years they were co-laborers in the kingdom of God. Her chief aim, so far as her husband was concerned, was to keep the home and the family, so that neither would ever hinder him from answering every call of duty that came. The weight of the work of the kingdom of God was on her shoulders as much as it was on his. She was a true helpmate.

For the past 13 years, most of which time was spent in the home of her son James, she experienced poor health. During these years her son's wife was a real daughter to her, caring for her as tenderly and as lovingly as anyone could have done.

In the afternoon of July 4 her body was laid to rest in New Bethel cemetery, near Garner, where her husband's body also rests.

She left three children: James Henry, Marston, N. C., Mrs. E. J. Alpine of New York, and William of Atlanta, Ga., and six grandchildren.

Mrs. Buffaloe was a Christian mother and home-maker. Her home was a happy place for each inmate, and for all who entered. Her life told the story of one saved by grace. She has earned her rest from the labors of this world. "Well done, thou good and faithful servant . . . enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

MRS. J. L. MIDGETTE

Mrs. Loudisa Hooper Midgette, widow of the Reverend J. L. Midgette, died at the home of her son, Linville, in Cary, North Carolina, July 17, 1955. Although she had been sick and confined to her bed for some time, her death came as a surprise to her loved ones and many friends, for she had made improvement and was able to be up some. The funeral was conducted in Cary Methodist Church July 19, by the Reverend B. L. Davidson, her pastor, assisted by the Reverends B. O. Merritt, B. F. Boone, and H. B. Baum. Her body was laid to rest beside that of her husband in the cemetery at Norlina, North Carolina.

Mrs. Midgette, the daughter of Rowan and Jane Robinson Hooper, was born at Salvo, Dare County, North Carolina, May 5, 1887. In 1906 she was married to J. L. Midgette. Some years later Mr. Midgette felt the call to the Christian ministry, and with him she answered the call and accepted the challenge to serve God in the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church. Together they labored for a number of years, serving the following charges: Avon; Hemp (Robbins); Newton Grove; Center Hill; Halifax; Norlina; Fuquay Springs; Cary.

They were indeed, "Workers together" for the Lord. Because of his weak eyes, she read much for her husband and thereby helped him in his studies. Together they carried on the program of the Church. Together they visited, giving spiritual guidance and comfort to the people of their parish. Together they worked with the youth, one of whom was the writer. To me she was a spiritual mother throughout the years. Her unconscious influence and good advice meant much in causing me to enter the Christian ministry and have been a constant source of inspiration and encouragement to me. Their time together was far too short, for the earthly union was broken on May 4, 1935, when Mr. Midgette answered the "one clear call" to join "that yonder sacred throng." But Mrs. Midgette did not cease from labors for the Lord. She continued to serve in her local church, and her conference, being active in the Woman's Society of Christian Service and other work as long as her health would permit.

She was a woman of great faith and deep conviction. She gave of her best to the Master: in the simple faith of her childhood, in the strength of her youth, in the vigor and wisdom of her womanhood. She also gave herself in devoted love as a Christian mother and a faithful wife. Truly, she gave God all her life. Her testimony was that she could not remember when she became a Christian, for she had always loved Christ as her friend and Saviour. She was quiet and unassuming; yet she was an effective worker, being held in high esteem by those with whom she worked. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

Mrs. Julia Smith Johnson was born in Wayne County near Goldsboro, North Carolina, June 19, 1868, in the country home of her parents Needham Jacob Smith and Sara Peele Smith.

During childhood, and as a young woman, she attended Sunday school and church at Mt. Carmel, just a few miles away, where the parents and other relatives had worshipped for many years. Later, she attended school at Henderson Female College in Henderson, North Carolina. Mr. J. M. Rhodes was president of the College, which a few years later was moved to Littleton, North Carolina, and became Little Female College, then Littleton College.

Returning from school she became a teacher in one of the county schools near Pikeville, but "The Man" in her life persuaded her that her talents could be used to a much better advantage as a minister's wife, so on January 1, 1889, she became the wife of James Gabriel Johnson, who was also reared in the section of Wayne County where she grew up.

Now she was a Methodist preacher's wife! The Annual Conference had just convened and his appointment was Marion, North Carolina. That was a long way from home in those days, and they had not been so near the mountains before, so moving to Marion was quite a venture.

The next conference returned him to eastern Carolina where they lived, worked, and ministered for many years.

The Annual Conferences were always held in December, the coldest month of all in those years. Since they were moving anyway it seemed wise, and good, to return to her parents' home for the birth of their first child who was born December 21, and named Clement Moorman. Four years later a daughter, Julia Gladys, was born in Clinton, North Carolina.

The horse and buggy days were not easy for the circuit preacher, and certainly not for the wife and small children, so she remained at home most of the time serving as a good mother, a good neighbor, Sunday school teacher and certainly an active worker in the Ladies' Aid Society.

Her whole life was mostly that way—quiet, unassuming, reserved, nothing spectacular, or anything about which anyone would write a book, but always a devoted wife, mother, friend and loyal to her church.

Parsonage living was not easy either, but the cupboard was never bare and because of her talent and ability to sew, the family was usually nicely dressed. However, because of the many advantages of parsonage living, knowing that she had a definite part in building God's kingdom on earth, and the many friends during those years, she was patient, uncomplaining and happy.

Then at times sadness came into the home. The sudden death of her father, then the mother, and some years later the brother, Rufus Jackson Smith, and a sister, Mrs. Nora Johnson, both of Goldsboro.

Two sisters are still living in Goldsboro, Mrs. Molly Thompson and Mrs. Mattie Sammons. A brother, Hal L. Smith, lives in Philadelphia, Pa.

The son, Clement M. Johnson, is a resident of Morehead City, North Carolina.

Years passed and there were grandchildren to love and help care for, so they settled down near the daughter and her family, (Mrs. Roy Sutherland) in Laurinburg, N. C. The preacher husband had retired from regular active service and they had a little home close by which they called, "The Play House." They lived happily there for about six years, then on January 8, 1945, having spent most of his 83 years loving, working for, and serving his Heavenly Father, we could almost hear Him say, "Jim, you seem so tired! come home to my house."

The sadness and hurt because of separation is difficult, especially in the late years, so for ten years there was a feeling of aloneness, even though she lived in the home with loved ones.

Because of several falls and blindness due to cataracts, she was in very poor health for three years. She was 87 years old now and our Heavenly Father seemed to feel that she had served, she had sacrificed, she had endured enough, and the time had come for rest and peace and happiness, with the loved ones who had gone before. So our loving and merciful Heavly Father came again on August 12, 1955, and seemed to say, "Julia, you have lived a long useful life in which I am well pleased, come with me to my house."

The funeral services were held in the home, her pastor, the Reverend Henry Ruark, officiating, assisted by the Reverend Hewitt Fulton, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

She was laid to rest in Hillside Cemetery beneath a mound of beautiful flowers, a fitting tribute to a sweet, gentle, lovable, Christian woman.

Written with a great feeling of humility, much love, and thanks for many happy memories.

GLADYS JOHNSON SUTHERLAND

MRS. MARY WOODLEY MERRITT

Mrs. Mary Woodley Merritt, widow of the Reverend William C. Merritt, died in Lexington, N. C., on October 5, 1955, after a serious illness of one day. Her funeral was conducted in First Methodist Church, Lexington, by the Reverend Howard C. Wilkinson, and the burial service was conducted by the Reverend E. B. Fisher in Maplewood Cemetery, Durham, N. C.

Mrs. Merritt was a noble Christian soul in every way. She taught school for six years before her marriage in 1895. She joined the church when quite young and always was very much interested in the work of the church. She and her husband established a truly Christian home, one in which first things were put first. They were instrumental in leading to the salvation of large numbers, for they taught both by precept and example the principles of the Christian life. Mrs. Merritt was active in the various phases of church work. Her activities included serving as president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, director of youth and children, teacher of adults, and work with choirs. She was awarded a Life Membership in the Woman's Society of Christian Service. With the passing of the years she retained her wonderful Christian faith and was a source of constant inspiration to all who were associated with her.

To Mrs. Merritt and her husband, five children were born: the first child, a girl, died in infancy. She is survived by the following children: Julia, of Lexington; Ruth, of Lexington and Louisburg College; Woodley C. of Honolulu, Hawaii; and Ethel (Mrs. Ottis M. Hedrick) of Lexington. She is survived also by two half-sisters: Mrs. Ida Grey, Norfolk, Virginia, and Mrs. Clara M. Windley, Suffolk, Virginia.

Mrs. Merritt's life was characterized by a great love for the members of her family, for the Methodist Church, and for God. Her life here on earth will continue to bear fruit for the righteousness in the lives of all to whom she was known before her departure to the heavenly home prepared for children of God. She is still active in her Father's house prepared for her by her Elder Brother, Jesus Christ, with angels and archangels singing the sweet anthems of glory. All who knew her rise up and call her blessed.

J. J. BOONE

MRS. FLORA McIVOR BODDIE MOYLE

1869-1956

On February 7, 1956, the gentle spirit of Mr. Flora McIvor Boddie Moyle was released from pain, and she went home to rest in her Father's House.

She was born August 25, 1869, the daughter of J. H. B. Boddie and Leah Vick Boddie of Nash County, N. C.

On November 28, 1893, she was married to a young Methodist minister, Samuel Thomas Moyle, who was then serving the Nashville Circuit. For about 35 years she was his faithful companion and helpmeet, as they served together many charges in the N. C. Conference, including those at Manteo; Ocracoke; St. John's, Goldsboro; and Fairmont.

Her life was one of unselfish service to her Master; giving freely of her time and talents to all phases of the work of the church, and helping her husband with his pastoral duties. In the Sunday School, the choir, and in the Woman's Missionary Society, she was ever ready to give her best efforts, and at one time she served as District Secretary of Woman's Missionary Society.

Her love for her church never waned and she attended its services as long as her health permitted. At one of the last meetings she attended she gave an inspiring program in her Circle of W.S.C.S.

She made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Montee Maddox in Goldsboro, and it was she, who tenderly cared for her mother during the three and one-half years she was confined to her bed. Mrs. Moyle bore, uncomplainingly, these years of pain, and was "sustained and soothed by an unflinching trust" knowing Him in whom she believed.

Three sons, William, of Lynchburg, Va.; Samuel T. of Columbia, S. C.; and Paul, of West Palm Beach, Fla.; and daughter, Mrs. Montee Maddox, survive along with seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Passing out of the shadow
 Into a purer light;
 Stepping behind the curtain
 Getting a clearer sight.
 Passing out of the shadow
 Into Eternal Day;
 Why do we call it dying,
 This sweet going away?

ISA SILLS DAMERON

MRS. I. S. RICHMOND

1897-1956

Mrs. I. S. Richmond, known to her intimate circle of friends as "Nannie Mack," was born in Edgecombe County, North Carolina, on December 28, 1887. She was the daughter of Robert Mack Brown and Nannie Harper Brown. On August 9, 1924, she was married to the Reverend I. S. Richmond. Two children were born to this consecrated couple: Robert, who died in 1954, and Mrs. Elda Richmond Edwards.

Nannie Mack died February 11, 1956, after a long illness. Her funeral was conducted in the Pinetops Methodist Church in Pinetops, her girlhood home, on Sunday, February 12, 1956, by the Rev. W. L. Clegg, the Rev. C. F. Heath, and the Rev. Vance Lewis. Interment was in the cemetery at Pinetops. She is survived by her husband, her daughter, one grandchild, and five sisters.

Nannie Mack came as near being the ideal wife of a minister as any her contemporaries ever knew. She was a natural fit in the parsonage home. Her talents were dedicated and directed to two directions: her home and her church. At every place where she and her preacher-husband lived and served she made a good and lasting impression. Every community in which she lived and labored is a better community because she passed that way and every church where her husband was pastor is a better and stronger church because it was blessed by her quiet and consecrated service. She possessed a special talent for calming troubled hearts and she helped lift what seemed at times to be unbearable loads from the troubled souls of many. She had a way of winning close and loyal friends. Her own sincere and genuine concern awakened a like concern and interest in others. There was no pretense or affectation about her. Her love was "without dissimulation." To know her was to realize that here was no superficial person, but a deeply religious, sincere, and capable child of God.

Sorrow and ill-health was her portion the last three years of her life. However, she did not allow this to embitter her. If anything her faith grew stronger and her chief concern remained for others and not for herself.

A good and gracious woman has walked among us. A devoted wife and faithful mother bore a glowing testimony supported by a life of consistent Christian endeavor.

"Out of the dusk a shadow,
Then a spark;
Out of the cloud a silence,
Then a lark;
Out of the heart a rapture,
Then a pain;
Out of the dead, cold ashes,
Life again!"

W. L. CLEGG

MRS. STELLA NORRIS HARMON

1879-1956

Mrs. Stella Norris Harmon, the faithful wife and constant companion of the Reverend John C. Harmon, died May 7, 1956. Funeral services were conducted at Edenton Street Church, Raleigh, N. C., by the Reverends Howard P. Powell, H. M. Jamieson and W. A.

Cade. Interment was in the Apex Cemetery, the community of her childhood; and was conducted by Dr. H. P. Powell and the Reverend H. S. Garris.

Mrs. Harmon was born June 22, 1879, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Allen Norris, a prominent Wake County family. She and Brother Harmon were married September 16, 1908. She had lived nearly seventy-seven years, and had shared the life of the ministry and in the parsonage with her good husband forty-seven and a half years.

She did indeed share life with her preacher husband with all its responsibilities, anxieties, joys and privileges. It was this writer's privilege to have known them in their home and in the fellowship of this ministry over a period of thirty years. Rarely did we see one without the other. They were a team and inseparable companions except by the inexorable power of death. But they were sure that death's victory is but for a brief moment, and that soon will come the eternal reunion in God's heavenly kingdom.

She was educated at Greensboro College and had many of the cultural qualities of life, especially playing the piano. She withheld no talent or service she could render. For the past several years of their retirement she and Brother Harmon lived in their home in Raleigh. They continued constant in their interest in the church and the worship of God.

Their union had been blessed with two fine children, John C. Harmon, Jr., of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Richard L. Cromarty of San Francisco, California, both of whom were educated at Duke University. There are five grandchildren. Thus the tide of life flows on and on.

W. A. CADE

MRS. CHAS. O. DuRANT

1861-1956

When the message came of the passing of my dear friend, Mrs. Geneva Edgerton DuRant, in the twilight hour of Mother's Day, Sunday, May 13, 1956, immediately there came to my mind the words of that beautiful resurrection hymn:

"The strife is o'er, the battle done;
The victory of life is won:
The song of triumph has begun."

Reviewing the years since our friendship began in 1915 soon after Mrs. DuRant and her late husband, the Reverend Charles Owen DuRant, moved into the Methodist parsonage in Snow Hill and I moved into the town as the bride of one of its doctors, I think the characteristic I admired most in her was her gallantry. She was truly one whom the "Stings and arrows of outrageous fortune" could never intimidate. Though for many years a great sufferer, she never lost her keen interest in people and in their problems and never failed to come up with a solution to a problem, provided it was asked for. Mrs. DuRant had an active mind and a ready wit which she retained until her passing. She attained the age of ninety-four years and eight months and until the last few months of her life read the newspapers and her Bible daily. In fact, she read the Bible in its entirety more than a score of times during her busy life.

Geneva Arcada Edgerton was born of Quaker parents, Nathan Edgerton and Sallie Pike Edgerton, on September 22, 1861, in the Nahunta section of Wayne County and was the youngest and last survivor of sixteen children.

She was married to the late Reverend Charles Owen DuRant of the North Carolina Methodist Conference on November 18, 1891, and was a great help and a constant source of inspiration to him throughout his ministry of almost forty years duration. One of her greatest natural endowments was the gift of nursing and she was always ready to minister to the sick whenever an opportunity arose. She was a meticulous housekeeper and it is literally true that every parsonage she lived in was in better condition when she moved out than when she moved in.

Following Mr. DuRant's death in 1919, shortly after his last pastorate in Snow Hill, Mrs. DuRant made her home with her daughter and son-in-law, Ethel DuRant Lasitter and Mark C. Lasitter, Sr., and their love and tender care kept her alive long beyond her life expectancy. The devotion of her other daughter and son, Winnie Dale DuRant and Fred Owen DuRant, will remain as a memorial to a true mother throughout the years to come. Mrs. DuRant's only grandson, Mark C. Lasitter, Jr., and her lovely little great-granddaughter, Deborah Lee Lasitter, also shared in the affection she felt for her own children.

During the latter years of her life she became tremendously interested in the work of the Green County Tuberculosis Association and until the fall of 1955 she personally folded the hundreds of thousands of seals for the mail sale, together with the accompanying letters, for which she was given due recognition by the press.

Always there shone in Mrs. DuRant a strong, brave, persistent, unquenchable light. Someone has said, "Life is no brief candle to me. It is a sort of splendid torch which I have got hold of for a moment, and I want to make it burn brightly as possible before handing it on to future generations." And this, I am sure, was Mrs. DuRant's credo.

Truly she could say with St. Paul: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: and henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love His appearing."

The funeral services were held at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mark C. Lasitter, Sr. Assisting her pastor, the Reverend W. B. Cotton, in the service were two former pastors, the Reverend J. D. Young of Beaufort and the Reverend J. A. Russell of New Bern.

Her body was borne to its last resting place in St. Barnabas Cemetery in Snow Hill by six of her great-nephews in the late afternoon of May 14, there to lie by that of her husband and together with him await resurrection.

The beautiful verses below were written by her daughter, Winnie Dale DuRant, and express the feeling of all who knew and loved Mrs. DuRant:

"I will not grieve!
 I will not shed a tear at her release!
 It must be sweet indeed
 To leave these prison walls of flesh
 And stand in radiance at last
 On heaven's threshold vast.
 And just as truly as kind hands
 Reached out to meet her when she came,
 Angelic hands outstretch today
 To greet her in His holy name.
 My heart rejoices now to know
 That she is free from pain:
 She walks in peace and blessedness
 Until the day we meet again."

MRS. MARY COLVIN MURPHY

JAMES WALTER SMITH

1886-1955

James Walter Smith was born in a Christian home. His earthly pilgrimage began September 19, 1886, in the vicinity of St. Pauls, and ended while living in Pembroke, North Carolina, and pastoring the Fairview-Hickory Grove Circuit, Wilmington District, North Carolina Conference, November 20, 1955. He had quite a rich experience during these sixty-nine years. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Smith, were farmers and attended Thessalonica Methodist Church, in the Saddle Tree vicinity. His parents were faithful attendants of church and noted for taking their children with them.

Walter as a boy, had experience on the farm, as a barber in St. Pauls, and was educated in the schools of Robeson County and in a Methodist Institute in Athens, Tennessee. He succeeded his father as church school superintendent in his home church. He was young, handsome, brilliant and aggressive, he adorned that office and gave it a new dignity.

Brother Smith taught in the public schools of Robeson County for 39 years, served as Postmaster in the Pembroke Post Office for 4 years and was pastor in various Methodist Churches in Robeson, Bladen, Richmond, and Scotland counties in North Carolina, and in Dillon County, South Carolina.

He was an efficient administrator, and an excellent pastor. His greatness was best revealed in his relationship to God. Among his many choice verses in the Bible is found in the 16th Division of Psalms, the 11th verse:

"Thou wilt show me the path of life;
in thy presence is fullness of joy;
at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore."

He was indeed the "full corn in the ear," ripe and hanging lightly to be plucked by the hand Divine. With courage and hope he quietly met the end, and at this hour we pay our homage to the memory of a true churchman, a great public servant, a noble and spiritual-minded man, and our dear friend.

On December 23, 1914, he was married to Miss Lelah Locklear of Lumberton, North Carolina. She was a devoted companion in the work of his ministry, a firm source of inspiration, and a tower of strength to him as he labored in his ministry. To this union were born seven children. Neill Archie died at 22 months. Others are Mrs. Frank H. Epps, assistant supervisor of schools; Rodger Millard Smith, credit investigator, Providence, R. I.; Mrs. Delton H. Lowry, Pembroke, N. C.; Joseph Walter Smith, agronomy department, State College, Raleigh, N. C.; Mrs. David H. Ransom, State of Maryland; and Henry Wellington Smith, of Pembroke, N. C. They have all taken their places as educated Christian citizens in various fields of labor and are rendering fine service to God and man.

Funeral services were held on November 23, 2:30 p.m. at the First Methodist Church, Pembroke, by the writer; the pastor, Reverend R. E. Garland and the district superintendent, Rev. Vergil E. Queen, with interment following in his home cemetery. Many Conference brethren and hundreds of other friends came to the services.

Our lives are richer because he lived and labored among us. I find it impossible to express my admiration for my dear friend of the years. I knew him from his boyhood days. My affections were formed for him in the early years of his life, and that affection never waned or wavered. We shall greet each other again in the "sweet by-and-by."

He was a great singer, and here is one of his favorite hymns:

"Jesus Saviour, pilot me
 Over life's tempestuous sea;
 Unknown waves before me roll
 Hiding rocks and treacherous shoal;
 Chart and compass came from Thee
 Jesus Saviour pilot me.
 As a mother stills her child
 Thou canst hush the ocean wild;
 Boisterous waves obey thy will
 When thou sayest to them, "Be still."
 Wondrous Sovereign of the sea—
 Jesus Saviour pilot me.
 When at last I near the shore
 And the fearful breakers roar,
 "Twixt me and the peaceful rest
 Then while leaning on thy breast
 May I hear Thee say to me,
 "Fear not, I will pilot thee." Amen.

DOCTER F. LOWRY

WILLIAM CARROLL SHAW

1881-1956

God's great plan for a human being is undiscernable from the beginning of a life, but as one looks backward over the span of earthly existence, God's great plan can be seen in His moulding and using of such a life. Thus it is that God was able to use William Carroll Shaw in many diverse ways. As a soldier, lawyer, teacher, court clerk and minister he was found an unflinching witness for righteousness in every phase of life.

Born on May 5, 1881, in the Mount Hope community, southwest of Greensboro in Guilford County, North Carolina, he was the youngest son of William Henry Clay Shaw and Sarah Louise Walker Shaw. He attended school at the Whitsett Institute and studied law in the LaSalle University Extension Division in Chicago, Illinois. As a young man he practiced law in California and then returned to North Carolina to become a school teacher in Alamance County. In 1917 he went to Hopewell, Virginia to work as a bookkeeper in a government war plant. It was while here that he married Miss Martha Alice Saunders.

Having felt since early manhood the urge of God to preach the good news, he frequently held services in the communities where he lived. In 1920, he began his Christian vocation on a full-time basis on the Guilford Circuit. Later, he served churches in Michigan and Ohio. During the depression years he worked for the Imperial Life Insurance Company in Wilmington, North Carolina, and served as Deputy Clerk of New Hanover County. In 1945 he returned to the full-time ministry and was appointed to the Bath Circuit of the North Carolina Conference. He then was sent to the Bynum Charge. In 1955 he was appointed to the Mamers Charge in the Raleigh District. This charge is composed of Spring Hill, Cool Springs, Mount Ariel, Woodside and Union Churches.

On Friday, April 27, 1956, he and his family had planned a trip, and shortly after noon he had gone to the Boone Trail School to pick up his grandchild. As he got out of his car he went to a near-by tree to rest awhile. The school principal found him there having suffered a severe heart attack. A doctor was called but death came within a short time after the attack.

This faithful servant of God is survived by his wife, Martha Alice Shaw; three sons, the Reverend S. M. Shaw of Allardt, Tennessee; Thomas Shaw of Bogalusa, Louisiana; and B. G. Shaw of Baltimore, Maryland; two daughters, Mrs. F. L. Dowdy of Kernersville; and Mrs. L. G. Dodd of the Hawaiian Islands; one sister, Mrs. Jacob Coble of Greensboro; and 14 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in the Spring Hill Church at 2:00 p.m. on April 29, with the following ministers conducting the services: The Reverend E. C. Shoaf, pastor of the Lillington Methodist Church, the Reverend J. Kern Ormond, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church of Raleigh, the Reverend Lester March, pastor of Antioch Baptist Church, and the Reverend J. B. Garrett, pastor of the Leaflet Presbyterian Church. Burial was in Mount Hope Cemetery near Greensboro, North Carolina.

Wherever he went William Carroll Shaw and his family left a host of friends. His quiet, peaceful wisdom was a source of guidance to many a life. His friendly concern for people left his mark on many a heart. His consecrated Christian life led many a soul to Christ his Master and his friend.

DURHAM DISTRICT

W. L. Clegg, District Superintendent

The Durham District comes to the close of another conference year with good reasons for a spirit of gratitude. Our Heavenly Father has blessed the work of the pastors and laymen of the district. There are a number of areas in which there has been good growth and progress. Our pastors and laymen have been faithful and diligent. We do recognize with deep humility that our district has not approached its potential, and we are challenged with the thought that with yet more consecrated enthusiasm God could do many wonderful things for us and through us.

We are happy to report one of the best years we have had recently in the field of membership and evangelism. We have nearly 1,300 additions to the church, about half of them on profession of faith and half by transfer. Not only has there been an increase in the number received, but also, a decrease in the number of members removed. There is evident an increased concern on the part of our churches to reclaim disinterested and inactive members.

The district superintendent would like to express his thanks for the fine contribution and the increased interest among the laymen of the district. Under the leadership of our district lay leader and the associate lay leaders significant progress has been made in this area. We have more laymen participating in the No Silent Pulpit program than before, and larger numbers attending our retreats and district-wide meetings. Our attendance at the annual laymen's meeting exceeded any in the history of the district.

The women continue to render outstanding service through the Woman's Society of Christian Service. There are no unorganized churches in the district.

Church school enrollment and attendance shows a steady but not sensational growth. Several churches in the district report substantial gains. Christian Workers' Schools in the district have strengthened and undergirded the work of our local church schools.

Notable achievement has been made in the matter of church and parsonage property. Bethany Church, Durham, has retired its debt, and the church has been dedicated. Carr, Durham, has paid its debt and is ready for dedication. Educational buildings have been dedicated at Helena, Brookland, and Long Memorial, Roxboro. A new educational building has been erected at McMannens. New educational buildings are under construction at Asbury, Durham, and Creedmoor. Improvement has been made on the recently acquired property at Aldersgate, and the former dance hall has been converted into an attractive place of worship. New parsonages have been occupied at Allensville, Trinity, Carrboro; Calvary, Durham; Orange; and Oxford. A new parsonage is under construction at Bahama, and the parsonage at Eno has been paid for and dedicated.

The recently organized churches in the district report substantial growth. We believe that these are now on a solid and sound basis.

For these, and all the other blessings which God has bestowed upon us, we are thankful.

ELIZABETH CITY DISTRICT

M. O. Fletcher, Acting District Superintendent

It is with deep regret that C. Freeman Heath, superintendent of the Elizabeth City District, was unable personally to supervise the making of this report. But with the efficient assistance of his devoted wife, a careful tabulation of the pastors' reports shows that much progress has been made and that the pastors have been diligent, loyal, cooperative, and faithful to their tasks.

Last year the district made an enviable record in evangelism; but, comparing that record with the one this year, we find forty-seven more revivals were held, one hundred and twenty-eight more received on profession of faith, one hundred twenty-one more by transfer, or a total of eight hundred twelve added to the church rolls this year. The losses in membership totaled seven hundred thirty-nine. Two hundred sixty-nine of these losses were removed by action of Quarterly Conferences, because the rolls were still carrying the names of deceased persons and were reporting certain numbers without names to correspond. In spite of this unusual number dropped because of incorrect bookkeeping, the district still shows a net gain of seventy-three in membership.

It is the opinion of this writer that the secret of a pastor's success lies in the quality and quantity of his pastoral visitation. The people want their pastor to share their sorrows and their successes. They want to know him well enough to rely upon his counsel and to believe he is able and competent to help them in solving their spiritual problems.

Surely much good has been accomplished in this district for the Kingdom of God by twelve thousand eight hundred twenty-four home visits, four thousand two hundred fifty-eight sick calls, and six thousand eight hundred sixty-eight visits interviewing prospects, a total of twenty-three thousand nine hundred fifty pastoral visits during the year.

The askings for World Service in this district for 1956-57 amounted to $80,344 and the charges accepted $77,851, only $2,493 short of the goal. In view of the hurricane damages sustained in this area, these figures portray a marvelous record for the cause of World Service.

Under the capable leadership of their district president, Mrs. Norwood L. Mixon, the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and under that of Mrs. Lane, district secretary of the Wesleyan Service Guild, the women of the district have rendered valuable aid to the extension of God's kingdom. The W.S.C.S. is now one hundred per cent organized in the Elizabeth City District.

The minimum pastors' salaries for 1955-56 were set at $117,650 and $118,500 was paid. For 1956-57 the minimum salaries are being increased $5,607 over the amount paid this year, and will total $124,107.

Three new parsonages, First Methodist in Elizabeth City, Union, and Newland, have been completed at a cost of $57,322. $7,568 have been spent on improvement of parsonages, and $19,621 have been spent on improving educational buildings. Also, three new educational buildings have been dedicated this year, Hatteras, Manteo, and Cressell. One parsonage, Hatteras, was dedicated. The first unit of the Ahsokie educational plant has been completed, and the members have raised more than $56,000 this year for its project. First Church, Washington, under the leadership of N. W. Grant, has raised $40,000. It is now installing a new organ, and is planning other improvements.

Twenty-three charges co-operated in making contributions to the Alaska College fund.

The church school enrollment increased from 9,835 last year to 10,595 this year. The charges as a whole supported the evangelistic program through the church schools.

Lay activities, through the leadership of Fred W. Ritter, district lay leader, and his assistants gave cause for great rejoicing. While one Methodist Men's Club ceased to function, two new clubs were organized, and 404 men are now enrolled. Excellent response was given the "No Silent Pulpit" program, and the attendance at the District Laymen's Mass Meeting in Elizabeth City reached the total of five hundred thirteen, the largest on record in this area.

The new Grace Church, Elizabeth City, J. R. Couchman, pastor, has been approved for the Ten Dollar Club Aid, and the building will get under way in the very near future.

Brother Heath has asked me to give this personal message:

"I wish to express my deep appreciation to Dr. M. O. Fletcher for taking over and completing my work, to O. Kelly Ingram and his secretary for sending out letters and geographing materials, and the following ministers who helped Dr. Fletcher with the Quarterly Conferences and Dedications: O. Kelly Ingram, D. J. Reid, Key Taylor, W. H. Crawford, Sr., and J. F. Coble, Superintendent of the Retirement Home, Durham; and to the laymen and laywomen in the district who by their faithful and loyal co-operation have contributed to the success of this year's work."

Educational buildings that have been occupied this year: St. Luke, Magnolia, Ebenezer, Seven Springs. Building programs will soon be started at Pine Forest, Warsaw, Carlton, Birch, Fremont, Princeton, and Sarecta. St. Paul sanctuary has been rebuilt following hurricane damage. Wallace has acquired property for an educational building. Newton Grove has completed its $60,000 building.

Salaries: Salaries and travel expense for next year: $169,340, an increase of $7,160. Charges now receiving salary supplements have decreased the same by $5,000.

Christian Education: Number of church schools, 103; enrollment, 15,538; peak attendance, 12,132. Advocate subscribers: 1,835; churches sending the Advocate to all families, 16. Vacation schools: 72; enrollment, 4,059. Evening MYF's: 80; Membership, 311. Sub-district Christian training schools were held at Warsaw, Goldsboro, Selma and Low Hill.

Lay Activities: Methodist Men's clubs: 23; membership, 940. Lay speakers, 152; district men's evangelism rally, 502. A. C. Edwards, district lay leader, has put on an aggressive program of lay activities. He has addressed men's clubs over the district.

We give all the praise to our Master for the success which has crowned our efforts this year. We really believe our people are growing in grace and the desire to do more and more to bring in the Kingdom. We face the future with great faith and optimism.

NEW BERN DISTRICT

Hiram K. King, District Superintendent

As one pastor wrote, "It has been difficult to stay even with the storms." But despite the destructive hurricanes that battered our coast district, this has nevertheless been our best year yet. Tribulation has seemed to deepen the devotion of both our pastors and people, and they have wrought well in the Vineyard of our Lord. I am grateful for the privilege of comradeship with them and am proud to give some account of their activities.

Evangelism: Reports from the pastors as of June 1 show that 687 persons have been received on profession of faith, and 796 by transfer and otherwise, for a total of 1,473. Members have been received by vows in every pastoral charge. The reports show a net increase in church membership of 818, church schools 1,095, and M.Y.F. groups 158, with 7 new M.Y.F.'s organized. Three hundred eleven infants have been christened, with a record number of 55 at one church—Havelock.

The Ministry: We have enjoyed the fellowship of 45 active pastors, one associate and two assistant pastors, and two retired ministers. Our district conference, with an attendance of over 400, renewed the licenses of ten local preachers, recommended four supply pastors, and granted license to preach to six new candidates for the ministry.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service: The W.S.C.S is organized 100% in the district with a total membership of 4,126, including 299 members of the Wesleyan Service Guild. We were hosts, at Queen Street Church in Kinston, to the annual meeting of the Conference W.S.G. in April. Mrs. I. N. Moore of Beaufort, is district president of the W.S.C.S., and Mrs. R. P. Hunnings, of New Bern, heads the Wesleyan Service Guild.

Methodist Men: We have 23 Methodist Men's Clubs, with others planned. Our laymen served again this year in the great program of lay preaching in our circuit churches during the six weeks prior to Easter. Our list of certified lay speakers numbers 158. Men from over the district filled the largest hall available in New Bern for our Annual Laymen's Rally in February, with Bishop Garber and Dr. Harry Denman as the speakers. Our pastors and laymen are still talking of the remarkable inspiration of this occasion. In all of our lay activities we have been ably led again by District Lay Leader Sam B. Underwood, Jr., and his four Associates, C. Byrd Wade, Hugh Ragsdale, James E. Thomas, and Roy L. Turnage.

Church Extension: Early this year we organized two new churches, St. John in Kinston and Cherry Point in Havelock. Each now numbers some 60 members with church school attendance between 80 and 100. Also, the charter service for a new congregation at Stacy was held on May 20. Both Atlantic and Swansboro will become stations this year, resulting in new charges to be known as the Sealevel Circuit, Queens-Oak Grove, and Midway-Bethlehem. Thanks to the generous help of laymen and women of the district, our church on Portsmouth Island has been repaired, and an assistant pastor employed for the Atlantic Circuit, whose ministry has included regular services every month at Portsmouth. Surveys have been made for new churches at Greenville and Jacksonville.

New Buildings and Parsonages: Trinity Church in Jacksonville moved into its handsome new edifice the first Sunday in May. Trinity Church in New Bern occupied the first unit of their new church early in the year. Salem on the Grimesland Circuit now has a lovely new brick church. Ayden is enjoying a beautiful, modern educational annex. Atlantic has nearly completed a splendid two story educational building. Centenary Church in New Bern expects to occupy its new educational annex in the fall. Ann Street Church in Beaufort broke ground on June 17 for their new educational building. Our churches at Bridgeton and Trenton have been beautifully remodeled. Nearly every charge is in a building improvement program. New parsonages have been built and occupied on the Richlands Circuit, at Havelock (bought), Maysville, Salter Path, Swansboro, and Williston.

Finances: During the year $198,104 has been raised for church buildings and $40,547 for parsonages, a total of $218,651. The average local support for our pastors has increased from $2,879 at the beginning of this quadrennium to $3,784 as set for the next year. A total of $26,399 has been reported for Advance Specials.

Other Matters: The district has supported a ministerial student at Pfeiffer College this year. Day schools for nursery, kindergarten and first grade children are conducted at Queen Street, St. Mark, and Westminster in Kinston; Jarvis Memorial in Greenville; and at Havelock. For the second year in succession Ayden is furnishing a member of the European Youth Caravan, Miss Betty Jean Padley. The North Carolina Christian Advocate is coming into 1,612 of our homes, with seven churches reporting it in all homes.

We give thanks to our Heavenly Father for His blessings upon us throughout the year. We rejoice in the bonds of brotherhood that are ours in the service of His Son. And we pledge ourselves anew for some part in building His Kingdom among men.

RALEIGH DISTRICT

R. Grady Dawson, District Superintendent

The achievements of the Raleigh District this year and the brief report given below have been made possible by the blessings of our Heavenly Father and the hard work, co-operation and liberality of the faithful pastors and lay people of the district. To them I gladly give the credit and my sincere thanks. A few achievements are listed below:

Membership and Evangelism: We have sought to keep Evangelism at the center of all of our work this year, promoting it through revival meetings, home visitation, church school teaching, preparatory classes, workshops, institutes, training schools, and Christian Witness Missions. As a result, 1,648 new members have been received into the church—641 on profession of faith—with a net gain in membership of 500.

Christian Education: Most of the church schools show an increase in enrollment and attendance. Considerable work has been done in the area of special training through five Christian Workers' Schools, five Sub-district Institutes on Church School work, five sub-district workshops on the new plan of benevolent giving, and one district-wide workshop on the four commissions. The North Carolina Christian Advocate goes into 1,621 homes in the district. Through the College Sustaining Fund and the United College Appeal, the district has given $42,891 to our church colleges.

Missions and Church Extension: Significant work has been done in the area of missions. Through instruction in sub-district workshops many more of the local church commissions on missions have been organized and become active. The W.S.C.S. has done an excellent job in the district this year. In addition to our regular budget giving to World Service of $38,603, the churches have given to Advance Specials (general and Conference) and to other specials the sum of $28,717. Through the Ten Dollar Club (640 Members) and the local church budget, our churches have contributed $28,076 to church extension. The response to the new plan of benevolent giving has been encouraging. The churches have accepted an increase in benevolences of about $15,000. Three new congregations have been organized this year in rapidly growing sections of Raleigh. They are Layden Memorial, St. Marks, and Wynnewood Park.

Lay Activities: The laymen in the district continue to grow in their interest and activity. Three new Methodist Men's Clubs have been organized this year, bringing the total to 28 in the district. The District Rally this year was the best ever, with nearly 300 in attendance. One hundred thirty laymen participated in the "No Silent Pulpit" program.

Building And Finances: New education buildings have been erected this year at Hollands (Garner Ct.), Knightdale, Millbrook, and Sims. New education buildings are to be erected next year at Fuquay Springs, First Church (Henderson), White Memorial (Henderson), Louisburg, Drewry, Fairmont (Raleigh), Longview Gardens (Raleigh). Beautiful new church sanctuaries have been completed this year at City Road (Henderson), Hayes Barton and Warrenton. New parsonages have been built this year at Ebenezer, Macedonia, Macon, and Wendell. New building programs are in the planning stage at Garner, Lillington, Layden Memorial (Raleigh), Trinity (Raleigh), Wesley Memorial (Raleigh), and Wake Forest. The sum of $502,335 has been raised this year for church and parsonage buildings and debts. For all purposes the district has raised this year in excess of $1,100,000.

Significant progress has been made in the Raleigh District this year. God has been good to us. Methodist people and pastors have given a good account of themselves. With thankful hearts for past achievements, we now look to the future for new and larger opportunities.

ROCKY MOUNT DISTRICT

J. Furman Herbert, District Superintendent

As I write this report on the morning of June 8, 1956, there are thirty-three churches in Rocky Mount District that have not received a new member on Profession of Faith during the conference year. In our district we call these barren churches. This record is not prideful. Its shame is not because we have the largest number of barren churches, however. On the contrary, it is quite possible that other districts have more. Nor is it to be regretted because our men are not working. On the contrary, I am receiving reports each week that more barren churches have become fruitful, and I am of the faith that of these thirty-three barren churches not more than ten will be barren by conference time. But what of the ten? We will not let this happen again. I verily believe we will not close the next conference year with a single barren church where there is regular preaching. Why should we? What is our mission?

Last minute reports show that 600 have joined our churches during the year by Profession of Faith. To this add 554 who have come in by certificate, making a total of 1,154. Our goal for the conference year is 1,250. We will attain it by conference time. The goal is too low, though. Next year we will set our goal at 2,000 and reach it.

Four new charges are presented for the new conference year. This means genuine progress. Elm City will become a station. Hornes and Mt. Zion will become a two-point work. Pinetons circuit is being divided. Pinetons and Conetoe becoming a strong two-point work, with Temperance Hall and McKendree forming a new charge with a student pastor. Littleton and Littleton-Tabor circuits are co-operating in forming three charges of their eight churches: Littleton, Calvary, and Hawkins-Tabor Charges. Roanoke circuit will divide. Smith Church bravely becoming a country station, South Rosemary and New Hope forming a charge alone. I find this setting up of new charges the most rewarding work of the superintendency. Where four pastors have served there will now be eight serving the same people. We will watch the charges grow strong.

Our women's work is in splendid condition. Capable leadership is bringing fine results. Our WSCS takes a high place in the conference life. They win more than their share of recognition and awards.

Methodist Men are going forward. The district quota of organized groups has been reached and passed. Seven hundred men met at First Church, Rocky Mount, in February for the annual Men's Mass Meeting and Banquet. Much praise has been heard of the wonderful spirit there, and of the addresses of our beloved Bishop and Dr. Harry Denman.

We are building churches, too, and educational buildings, and parsonages, and we are paying building debts: the marvelous new building at First Church, Wilson, new buildings and improvements at Aulander, Pinetops, Gaston, Elm City, Garysburg, Englewood, Conway, Clark Street, Jamesville, Spring Hope, Stanhope, Hart Church in Tarboro, Winstead in Wilson, and others. Great new structures are planned in the immediate future at Rocky Mount First and Weldon. Significant debts have been paid at Williamston and Rosemary.

Consecrated ministers and devoted laymen in the Rocky Mount District have labored well. We are grateful to God for them all.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT

Vergil E. Queen, District Superintendent

The Wilmington District of the N. C. Annual Conference is composed of 42 pastoral charges embracing 80 local churches, all situated in the six counties of the lower Cape Fear country in southeastern North Carolina.

This reporter is deeply grateful for the privilege of directing the program of Methodism in this wonderful area of opportunity and need. It is fitting, therefore, that I here thank the pastors and laymen of the Wilmington District for their fine work making possible this report, and that all of us give thanks to our heavenly Father for His guiding Providences which have sustained and kept us along the way.

The best clue to an evaluation of the achievements wrought in the Wilmington District this year will be found in certain intangible, though none the less obvious evidences, which have always characterized our efforts. These are: (1) we have stressed excellence as the only acceptable and valid hallmark of our work; (2) we have sought diligently to encourage, inspire, and motivate the pastors and laymen in the small and difficult places; and (3) we have constantly sought to elevate and glorify our historic Methodism by keeping our pastors and laymen close to its doctrines, disciplines, and traditions. These ends are our finest hopes; they have received our best efforts.

Specific areas of our work deserving special attention here are: (1) Membership and Evangelism; (2) Christian Education; (3) Missions and Church Extension; (4) Stewardship and Finance; and (5) Miscellaneous facts.

Membership and Evangelism: During the year 979 members have been added to the churches—398 by profession of faith; 145 from other denominations; and 436 from other Methodist churches. There were 413 baptisms—231 infants and 182 adults. There were 68 revivals, 38 visitation evangelism campaigns; and 62 confirmation classes enrolling 498 persons.

Christian Education: There are 80 local church schools in the Wilmington District, enrolling 9,506 pupils. From this group 301 united with the church. There are 990 members in the MYF. Throughout the year, our district workers have laid great emphasis on both Evangelism and Leadership Training. The Evangelism Through the Church School Program received wide cultivation, while the Vacation Church School Institute drew an attendance of 195 workers who have planned and held 59 Vacation Church Schools. A total of $4,959.00 has been paid on the United College Appeal.

Missions and Church Extension: The churches of the Wilmington District gave this year $22,610.00 for World Service; $5,250.00 for Mission Specials; and contributed to all the special offerings requested through the year. A total of $913.00 has been directed to the Alaska College.

One new congregation has been organized, the Devon Park Methodist Church in Wilmington, with a membership to date of 54 persons.

Stewardship and Finance: Both stewardship and administration have been widely promoted. Next year the charges of the Wilmington District have accepted $141,693.00 on pastors' salaries; $7,155.00 on pastors' travel and expense; and approximately $74,000.00 on the combined World Service and Conference Benevolences.

Building, repairing, improvement, and debt reduction on churches and parsonages have been emphasized throughout the year. A total of $91,000.00 has been spent on churches and parsonages, while $71,382.00 have been spent on church and parsonage debt retirement.

Miscellaneous Facts: The Wilmington District has 338 members of the $10 Club; 2,867 members in the WSCS; 92 certified lay speakers; and 907 subscriptions to the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

Quadrennial Board and Commission Reports

DEACONESS BOARD

Through the Office of Deaconess an official relationship to the Church is established for the woman who is called to a vocation within the Church. This relationship is to the Church at large. The vocation of a Deaconess is a special dedication to full-time Christian service under the direction of the Church. The consecration of the Deaconess is to the Lord who has called her to discipleship—that she may find the Source of power; that Christ may be made known through her life and service; that others may be enabled through her ministry to walk in the ways of life with power through Jesus-Christ.

Our Church is deeply concerned with recruitment of young people for full-time Christian service. The needs are continually being lifted up by the various agencies of the Church. The Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Board of Missions needs more than 300 replacements annually in its projects in the Home Field, employing 1,500 persons. The Board of Hospitals and Homes need 3,000 replacements. Approximately 900 Churches have full-time directors of Christian education and we are informed that the Board of Education expects to need at least 600 additional directors during this quadrennium. During this session of the Annual Conference you will hear from the representatives of various Boards of the urgent need for workers within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference.

During the past year we have had only three deaconesses at work in the North Carolina Conference: Mamie J. Chandler, Director of the Methodist Student Center, Greenville; Ethekvnde Ballance, rural worker, Roberdell Charge; Alta Nye, rural worker, Filton Charge. Other deaconesses residing within the bounds of the Conference: Sara McCracken, on leave, Durham; Jennie Congleton, retired, Greenville; Elizabeth R. Davis, retired, Rocky Mount.

Special emphasis has been given to recruitment of young women for the office of Deaconess during the year, and this special opportunity for service in the Church was presented by our deaconesses at the First Student Vocational Conference, at Chapel Hill in February, and at the Senior Youth Assemblies this summer at Louisburg; One of our deaconesses attended the Regional Methodist Student Movement Conference and served on the program; Conferences were held with young women interested in full-time Christian services at these assemblies and conferences. Information concerning Deaconess Work has been given through the North Carolina Advocate. Special emphasis has been given to student groups and through the program of the Student Center at East Carolina College, and in meetings of the Woman's Society of Christian Service in the local churches wherever opportunity has been given. Our deaconesses have cooperated with the Secretary of Missionary Personnel of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Conference, in keeping before our youth the need and the challenge to full-time Christian service.

Charlotte Whitfield, of Garland, received the Master's Degree in Religious Education from Scarritt College, in June, and will begin her service as Director of Christian Education at Siler City in September. She is an approved candidate and will be presented for consecration as a Deaconess after one year of service. Hazel Burke, LaGrange, and Gene Civils, Kinston, are continuing their study at Scarritt College. Willa Dean Lindsay, Clinton, has completed one year of service as a US-2, and expects to continue her present work for another year.

As we look back over the work of the past year, we recognize how small has been our service in the face of the urgent needs within our Conference and in the Church. We have faith that our youth today will respond if we who are leaders will present to them the high calling of our Church to service. We know that the Deaconess is well qualified through dedication and training to answer the call. Therefore, your Deaconess Board recommends:

That all available resources be utilized to encourage able young women to serve the Church as Deaconesses.

That Deaconess Work be presented, with time for discussion, through every relevant channel—District Conferences, Youth assemblies and conferences, meetings of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and to groups in the local churches.

Your Deaconess Board stands ready to cooperate with all Boards and agencies of the Conference to carry out these recommendations.

May I close this report in the words of one of the speakers at the Second Deaconess Convocation, held in Nashville last year:

The vocation of a deaconess is not basically social service, but spiritual dedication. A Deaconess should fulfill her task by voluntary and vicarious sacrifice. The law of Christ constrains her heart, and her concern for needy lives makes her identify herself with them in their needs, doing for them, praying for them, what they themselves cannot do or pray, until they find the same Source of power in Crucified Love.

Respectfully submitted,

MAMIEJ CHANDLER, Chairman, Deaconess Board

ADOPTED.

Report No. 1

DIVISION OF THE LOCAL CHURCH

Section A

GENERAL CHURCH SCHOOL WORK

The two primary emphases of the Local Church Division of the Board of Education during 1955-56 were evangelism and leadership training. To implement the emphasis on evangelism the Board projected the program, "Evangelism Through the Church School," a two-pronged evangelistic offensive. In the fall there was a campaign to increase church school membership and attendance, while from January through Easter the emphasis was on winning church school members to Christ and church membership.

To implement the emphasis on leadership education the Board laid stress upon Subdistrict Christian Workers' Schools, Subdistrict Institutes for Church School Workers, District Vacation Church School Institutes, encouraged attendance at the Conference Laboratory School for Children's Workers, and at the Leadership and Laboratory Schools at Lake Junaluska while urging teachers to participate in informal training opportunities in local churches.

As a special service to the small rural charge, one-teacher schools were developed featuring the course, "The Educational Work of the Small Church." Teacher honoraria for this course were paid by the Conference Board of Education.

The Board also promoted the proper observance of the following special days: Church School Rally Day, Race Relations Sunday, and Methodist Student Day.

Statement of Progress in Past Quadrennium

The past four years have been marked by progress in a number of areas:

1. An increase in church school membership and attendance.
2. The development of a much more adequate leadership training program.
3. Christian education staffs were set up in each district and activated.
4. A full conference staff has been secured.
5. The number of local churches employing Directors of Christian Education has greatly increased.
6. The educational facilities of local churches have been improved tremendously.
7. Growth in the use and understanding of Methodist literature.
8. Increased giving to special causes promoted by the Board of Education; Church School Rally Day, Race Relations Sunday, and Methodist Student Day.
9. The camping program has been enlarged and strengthened.
10. The support of our Methodist colleges and Wesley Foundations has been increased.
11. There has been an upsurge of interest in Christian education in our conference.

Plans for the Future

1. EMPHASES FOR THE NEW QUADRENNIUM:

- a. Strengthening, extending, improving Christian education in the local church.
- b. Strengthening, expanding, improving Christian Higher Education.

2. PROGRAM FOR 1956-57

a. Improve local church program of Christian education:

- (1) Take inventory, survey program; make self-evaluation in each local church
- (2) Areas to be surveyed; local church organized for Christian education; providing trained leadership; guidance in the use of literature and other resources; building and equipment; church music and worship; providing extra time for Christian education; membership and attendance; proper observance of special days; classes in church membership conducted by the pastor.
- (3) After the local church has made its survey it should decide on the "next steps" for improving the program.
- (4) The pastor of the local church and/or the Commission on Education should feel free to call on the Conference Board of Education staff for help as needed.

b. Strengthen program of leadership training:

- (1) Subdistrict Christian Workers' School in each subdistrict area (Conference Board of Education will continue to pay one-half of teacher honoraria)
- (2) Special service to small churches—one-teacher schools (full honoraria paid by Conference Board of Education).
- (3) Conduct subdistrict, district and conference-wide institutes, workshops, conferences, seminars, etc., in specialized fields of training.
- (4) Encourage attendance at Jurisdictional schools, workshops, conferences, etc.
- (5) Encourage local churches to provide formal and informal training opportunities for their workers.
- (6) Emphasize the observance of Church School Rally Day and the offering that finances this program of leadership training.

3. DIRECTORS OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

There is an acute shortage of trained persons for the work of Christian Education in the Methodist Church. The church especially needs local church directors of Christian education. We call the attention of the churches to the "100 Project" by which a local church may provide scholarships for graduate degrees in Christian education to train more local church directors of Christian education. In providing these scholarships the churches are participating in the program of Conference Advance Specials.

4. CHRISTIAN FAMILY LIFE

We recommend that the New Board of Education set up a Christian Family Life Committee to plan and expedite a conference Family Life Program, to be composed of the staff of the Board of Education, three interested laymen and three clerical members.

5. CONFERENCE YOUTH CAMPS

We direct the conference's attention to the fact that our present camping facilities are not adequate to take care of our camping needs. We must foresee the fact that we eventually need to develop three or perhaps four camps for our conference. Therefore, we recommend that the conference authorize the Board of Education to secure a second youth camp site for our conference and develop it as soon as funds become available.

The Conference Commission on World Service and Finance has been asked to change the present conference budgetary fund for "Camp Don-Lee" to "Conference Youth Camps" to be administered by the Conference Board of Education, with the understanding that funds needed to complete the building program at Camp Don-Lee will be provided from this fund.

We recommend that the new Conference Board of Education set up a committee on camping to give general oversight to our camping program, the development of a new camp-site, and the supervision of the conference Youth Camp Fund. It is suggested that this committee may include some persons who are not members of the Conference Board of Education. The committee shall be responsible to the Conference Board of Education.

6. SPECIAL DAYS

We recommend the observance of the following special days by each church in the conference with appropriate programs and generous offerings as recommended by the General Conference:

- a. Church School Rally Day, September 16, 1956, with special offering for Conference Board of Education (Leadership Training)
- b. Christian Education Week, September 30-October 7 (No offering)
- c. Student Recognition Day, December 30, 1957 (No offering)
- d. Race Relations Sunday, February 10, 1957 (Offering for Paine College, Augusta, Georgia)
- e. Children's Day, May 5, 1957 (No offering)
- f. National Family Week, May 5-12, 1957 (No offering)
- g. Methodist Student Day, June 9, 1957 (Offering for National Methodist Student Loan and Scholarship Fund)

7. We commend the Conference Radio and Film Commission for setting up an audio-visual film-strip library for our conference. We call attention to the fact that film-strips listed in "Forecast," recommended for use with our church school units of study, may be secured from this office for a very small rental fee.

Our Executive Secretary

We congratulate Dr. C. P. Morris, our Executive Secretary, on leading us in a quadrennium of achievement in Christian education in our conference and recommend his reappointment to this position.

O. KELLY INGRAM, Chairman

Section BCHILDREN'S WORK

There are several special emphases which we would like to stress during the year 1956-1957. We therefore, recommend:

1. That we shall endeavor to experience a oneness of purpose and a sense of togetherness in all our church activities. It is our hope that the work with children shall be considered a vital and integral part of the task of the whole church and vitally related to its essential program. It is important to keep the family together in our church activities. Family camping has been planned for the summer and a Family Life Workshop has also been planned.

2. That we shall encourage officers and teachers in local churches to evaluate their needs, resources, and objectives and to call on the district and conference staffs for help when they can assist.

3. That the district directors enlist the aid of subdistrict leaders and organizations to take the resources of Christian education closer to the local church.

4. That Methodist literature be explained to officers and teachers and its uses be outlined, with special reference to family helps included in the church school publications and auxiliary audio-visual aids provided by our conference.

5. That we continue our present practice of having fall promotions until such time that the General Board of Education rewrites the literature to facilitate a change to another date.

6. That book lists pertinent to work with children and to personal enrichment of the spiritual life of children's workers be provided for the use of those concerned with teaching children. We also recommend that church libraries be developed and expanded.

7. That day-camping be promoted by local churches.

8. That week-day nursery and kindergarten programs be developed in our local churches and that our conference staff provide some training for leaders in this field.

9. That demonstrations on planning a unit of lesson materials be given for all four departments in the children's division at the fall subdistrict institutes.

10. That Daily Vacation Church School Institutes be held the first two weeks in March, 1957.

11. That we commend very highly Miss Elizabeth Johnson who has served so ably as our conference director of children's work since 1953. We wish to express our sincere regret that she has resigned this position with our conference and will not be with us in that capacity for another year.

R. L. JEROME, Chairman

YOUTH WORK

1. ADULT WORKERS WITH YOUTH

Training adult workers is increasingly recognized as one of the most fruitful uses of time and energy in raising the level of youth work in the annual conference. We believe time invested with adult workers will achieve more in strengthening the program of youth work than at any other point. To this purpose we recommend:

- a. That two-day or three-day workshops for "adult workers with youth" be held on a district basis in the quadrennium.
- b. That a conference-wide workshop be held in the quadrennium.
- c. That the subdistrict MYF offer training for adults and youth as a part of its yearly program.
- d. That Workers Conferences be encouraged to consider as a part of their opportunity the training of adult workers.
- e. That training for adult workers be offered in some measure at Senior Youth Assemblies and MYF Annual Conference Session.
- f. We commend as one of the very first training programs the Christian Workers' School.
- g. That the 1957 District Christian Education Institutes feature the training of adult workers.
- h. That a fellowship of adult workers with youth be formed by bringing together workers from a number of churches in a given area.
- i. That an effort be made to secure more certified instructors for courses in the Youth Department for leadership in Christian Workers' Schools.
- j. That all training experiences for adult workers with youth concern themselves with problems of the local church in so far as possible.
- k. That study and evaluation be given to the question, "What kind of significant training for adult workers with youth is possible in one evening?" This study could serve as a key for the work of conference, district, and subdistrict personnel. Also, it would provide a clue for local church workers' conferences.

2. CHRISTIAN WITNESS MISSIONS

We now have more young men and women in our conference than ever before in history. We believe there is a readiness to challenge our youth to win these young men and women to Christ and His Church. We recommend that a tri-district Christian Witness Mission be held as an experiment in this direction in the conference year 1956-57. We recommend that proper representatives from the Conference Board of Education and Conference Board of Evangelism undertake this as a joint venture, establishing liaison with the Conference Board of Evangelism early in the new conference year.

3. PRAYER MOVEMENT

We are convinced that young men and women can be helped in the development of their spiritual life and experience a personal faith through the discipline of prayer. We are led to recommend:

- a. That a prayer movement be developed among the youth and their adult leaders.
- b. That encouragement be given and help offered for the formation of prayer cells on local and subdistrict levels.
- c. That the Youth Department of the Conference Board of Education co-ordinate the prayer fellowships into a permanent part of the MYF program.
- d. That the ACS of the MYF consider the setting of a prayer day in which local fellowships and their adult leaders would spend time as individuals or groups at the church altar in prayer.

4. STUDY

We feel the need for a climate of study in our local MYF's. We feel that the Lenten Reading Project each year has helped in this direction. We recommend that every local MYF be made aware of the Lenten Reading Project and be given help in the use of the Lenten Reading book. We commend to all new MYF's the past three youth Lenten Reading books, I Believe by Nevin Harner, I Belong by Hoover Rupert, I Follow by Charles M. Layman.

5. METHODIST YOUTH FUND

This is a fund through which members of the MYF help in a program of missions, Christian education, and youth work around the world. The MYFund is a vital part of the world mission of the Church. We recommend:

- a. That a Conference goal of $1.00 per year per member of the MYF be an aim for this fund. This would more than double the present giving to this fund.
- b. That a conference-wide pledge week be set and each MYFer be asked to make a personal pledge to the MYFund.
- c. That conference publicity and promotion stress the vital elements in this program, namely;
 - (1) Stewardship of possessions
 - (2) Help in world mission of church
 - (3) Act of dedication as this offering is presented at the altar.

6. CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

That we pledge our full co-operation to the Conference Commission on Christian Vocations to conduct Conference and District Vocations Conferences.

7. OLDER YOUTH

We feel that our older youth are being neglected. It is here that we have been suffering our greatest loss in membership.

- a. We recommend that each local church give more serious attention to ministering to the needs of service men and women, college students, and working youth at home.
- b. We recommend that young people enrolled in a college attend The Wesley Foundation or Methodist Student Fellowship and become active in the life of this fellowship. We urge local churches to keep in touch with students and help them become active in The Methodist Student group on the campus.
- c. We ask each local church to exert effort toward getting its older young people to attend the Older Youth Assembly at Camp Don-Lee.
- d. We recommend that a study be made of Older Youth work in our conference. Some questions we are facing in this area now:

- (1) Relationship of older youth (18-23) and senior youth (15-17) in conference MYF.
- (2) Separate senior and older organization in levels beyond local church. Enlarged older youth program.
- (3) Working older youth in the local church. How to strengthen older youth groups and organize new one in the local church.

8. SUMMER YOUTH CARAVANS

We call attention to the fact that a National Youth Caravan, consisting of four young people and one adult counselor, and a Divinity School Caravan, consisting of two young men, will be working in our conference during the summer to improve and strengthen the youth program in the churches visited.

We recommend that similar caravans be secured to work in our conference during the summer of 1957.

9. SENIOR SUMMER ASSEMBLIES

Our Senior Summer Assemblies are meeting a real need in the lives of our senior young men and young women. Three assemblies are planned for this year of 1956 in June. We recommend that this program be continued, enriched, evaluated. That one or more of the assemblies be of the workshop type.

10. ANNUAL CONFERENCE SESSION

The MYF of the North Carolina Conference is unique in Methodism in its five-day annual session held each year on the campus of Duke University. This is a delegated assembly and this past year three hundred and fifty-three local churches were represented. We commend this week to our Board and ask for the Conference Board to help study and evaluate the purposes of this session.

11. DISTRICT AND SUBDISTRICT WORK

We would emphasize here the proper perspective for District and Subdistrict MYF organizations. Let it be known that they have as their reason for existence the strengthening of the local MYF's. In planning programs these organizations should ask, How does this help the local young people and their MYF?

We recommend:

- a. That each MYF Subdistrict in the conference plan one meeting designed to train local MYF officers and adult leaders.
- b. That District rallies be held in every district under the planning of the district council.
- c. That the Youth Department of the Conference Board of Education provide guidance in training and materials for Subdistrict officers and adult workers.
- d. That District Directors attend a special training conference in their job at Lake Junaluska.

Our Director of Youth Work

The Board commends Reverend Herman Winberry for the dedicated and dynamic leadership he has given our program of youth work during the last two years, and recommend his reappointment for the conference year 1956-57.

ADULT WORK

1. REPORT FOR 1955-56

a. The Conference Director and a number of District Directors attended the Leadership School at Lake Junaluska. The Conference director and a number of young adults attended the Regional Young Adult Workshop at Lake Junaluska where the conference director was one of the leaders of the workshop. A planning conference was held for District directors to plan for District and Subdistrict work with adults.

b. Several subdistrict young adult meetings were visited during the year. Training courses in the area of Christian education of adults were offered in most of the Christian Workers' Training Schools in the conference. This conference was second in the nation in number of courses in adult work during the past year. The conference director participated in many of these schools and one out-of-state school. The Young Adult Assembly held at Camp Don-Lee, June 8-10, was planned and promoted.

c. An assembly for "Senior" adults was held at Louisburg College, May 31-June 3. Thirty-nine persons were in attendance. It was a very successful venture in an area in which we look forward to do a great deal in the future. Miss Virginia Stafford from the General Board of Education, Dr. Verne S. Caviness, Raleigh, N. C., Rev. R. Grady Dawson, Miss Virginia Gregory, Raleigh, N. C., and many other conference people assisted in making this a very successful meeting. Rev. J. F. Coble served as Dean for the assembly.

d. Sixteen people from our conference attended the Southeastern Recreation workshop at Leesburg, Florida. The conference director was Chairman of the steering committee and as such had the major responsibility for this workshop which attracted one hundred eighty people interested in the promotion of Christian recreation among our people.

e. Many local churches were visited. We feel that the cause of Christian education among adults has been furthered during the year.

f. The conference director wishes to express his thanks to all who have given of their time and efforts to make the progress that we have made. I also wish to thank the conference for having given me the opportunity to serve in the capacity as conference director during the past several years. It has been a great joy to serve our people. I pledge my continued support to the new director and to our great church and wish him and you success as we move forward for Christ through the Christian education of adults.

2. EMPHASES FOR 1956-57

Conference Director of Adult Work

We commend Mr. John M. Meares for his capable and faithful leadership in the adult program of our conference on a volunteer basis. Since it is not possible for him to give full time to this important work, we recommend that Reverend Harold Minor be appointed as full-time Conference Director of Adult Work.

CHRISTIAN FAMILY LIFE

1. REPORT FOR 1955-56

Your Committee on Christian Family Life is encouraged to believe that some real progress has been made in the area of Family Life Education during this year. Some of the evidences of this are listed below.

a. The chairman and several of the ministers and laymen from this conference participated in leadership and sharing in the Southeastern Jurisdiction Family Life Conference at Lake Junaluska, August 25-28.

b. Fifty or more ministers from this conference participated in a most successful seminar on "Marriage Counseling" at Steele Street Methodist Church, Sanford, September 6-7, led by Dr. John T. Greene of Boston University.

c. A number of our Methodist ministers attended and shared in an outstanding workshop on "The Minister Exploring Christian Marriage" sponsored by the North Carolina Council of Churches and held in Charlotte, April 17-18.

d. The chairman presented four television programs on Christian Family Living prior to and during National Family Week, May 6-13. These were done over stations W11N, Washington, and WNCT, Greenville, in co-operation with the North Carolina Council of Churches. These met with outstanding and widespread response.

e. Quite a few family-centered courses have been made a part of our Christian Workers' Schools throughout the Conference.

f. An increasing number of churches are giving attention to family-centered programs including parent participation, family nights, etc.

g. Perhaps most of all is the growing awareness of the vital importance of education and preparation for Christian Family Living.

2. RECOMMENDATIONS

a. In keeping with the studied recommendations of our District Directors of General Church School work in the Annual Planning Session at Rocky Mount on May 22 it is recommended that a new Christian Family Life Committee composed of the Conference Executive Secretary, the Conference Director of Adult Work and Christian Family Life Education, and the Conference Director of Youth Work, and the Conference Director of Children's Work, and three qualified and interested ministers and three interested laymen be formed to study, plan and help to effectively carry out a Family Life Education Program in the conference.

b. That this Conference Committee on Christian Family Life meet as soon as is practical after Annual Conference to make this study and to plan the work so that it may be effective this year.

2. DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

The Divinity School has had an unusually good year. 283 students enrolled (an all-time high); of these 238 persons working for the B.D. and Master of Religious Education. Seventeen persons enrolled in 1955 Summer Session. Twenty-eight enrolled in the graduate School of Arts and Sciences as Ph.D. and M.A. degree candidates.

Divinity School students represent 93 institutions; Duke University has the largest number with 31. Fifteen denominations are represented with 237 of the 283 Methodists. 26 states and one foreign country. Sixty-nine persons are candidates for B.D. degree June 6 and six for Master of Religious Education.

Action of Recent General Conference

a. Increase support of theological schools from $800.00 per year to (about) $1,200.00.

b. Voted $25,000 per year grants in aid to other institutions (non-Methodist) where large numbers of Methodist students are registered.

c. Organize two new theological seminaries, one in Ohio and one in Kansas-Missouri-Nebraska area.

The number of applicants for admission during the present year has been much larger than ever before. The standard of scholarship for admission has been raised from "C" average in a four-year college to a "C+" average and preferably to a "B" average.

For the last two years it has been necessary to close admissions by April 1 of each year. Since the Divinity School will reach and even exceed its maximum justifiable enrollment, it will not receive any large increase in the funds voted by the recent General Conference. This makes it all the more necessary that the funds which it is now receiving from the North Carolina Conferences will be maintained at not less than their present level and wherever possible should be increased. The particular case in point is the funds of the school for approved supply pastors. Each of the North Carolina Conferences this year gives $500 for this school, whereas over 40 students from each conference attended last year. The school will run this year for four weeks, thus increasing the cost for faculty and to the students. If students are granted only $50 scholarships, this would mean $2,000 from each of the North Carolina Conferences.

3. GREENSBORO COLLEGE

From the charter of Greensboro College it is very clear that the College was founded to serve all Methodists in North Carolina. Greensboro College is owned and operated by the two Conferences of North Carolina Methodism.

During the year 1955-56 the college worked toward an increased enrollment. Completion of the Greensboro Building will enable us to accommodate 435 resident students for the immediate future. Utilizing other college owned properties may permit us to expand this to approximately 500 within the next few years. We should be able to add to this a town student population of 75 to 100, thus bringing our total enrollment for the future to 575 to 600.

The financial picture has several important aspects. (1) In order to complete the Greensboro Building we shall need to borrow approximately $150,000. Repayment of this will hinge directly upon receipts from United College Appeal, particularly from the North Carolina Conference. (2) In the near future the college will need a gymnasium at a cost of $250,000. (3) Renovation of several areas of the campus will cost $150,000. (4) The college needs an additional $4,000,000 for the endowment fund.

The following statistics for the year 1955-56: Officers and instructors—54; students—401; value of property—$2,161,151.00; endowment—$831,235.00; endowment scholarship aid—$1,800; work awards to students—$16,750.00; other scholarship and grants—$5,300; tuition reductions to ministers' children and to ministerial candidates, $5,645; an additional dormitory, $300,000.

Greensboro College takes seriously its relationship to the Methodist Church. It is frankly and avowedly a church-related college.

4. HIGH POINT COLLEGE

Statistics for the year 1955-56

The enrollment for the year ending May 28, 1956, was as follows: Regular session—963 different students; Summer School—573 different students; Extension—51 different students; making a total of 1,587. Between 80 and 90 pre-ministerial students and a similar number of young women preparing for directors of Christian education and other religious vocations have been enrolled this year. There were 72 faculty and staff members. We had 892 students enrolled during the last semester. For next year we are planning to hold the enrollment to the same number, certainly under 900, of the students of high quality.

The auditors have not as yet given their report but the following are some unofficial figures: The college will close the year without a deficit. The value of equipment, buildings and grounds has increased. The endowment fund has increased by $25,292. Approximately $10,000 has been received as current operating scholarship funds during the year.

High Point College is in desperate need of additional funds from the College Sustaining Fund of the North Carolina Conference. Last year we received $22 per full-time student from the North Carolina Sustaining Fund and $53 per full-time student from the Western North Carolina Conference or a total of $75 from both conferences. The amount appropriated to each student at High Point College is no more than one half or perhaps less of the amount appropriated to each student at the other colleges in the Conferences.

Student religious activities play an important part in the life of the college. Faculty members head up the leadership in the Department of Religion. In March the college, in co-operation with local churches played host to the State Conference of the Methodist Student Movement. In the regular life of the college the Student Christian Association is responsible for Sunday evening vespers, Religious Emphasis Week, and other campus-wide religious activities. The fellowship teams offer to all students who are interested an opportunity to participate in church activities. After a period of careful training, these teams go out to surrounding churches to lead in services. This summer 19 students will be taking part in special summer activities.

Immediate needs of the college: (1) Increased operating funds from the College Sustaining Fund; (2) Larger endowment; (3) A new and adequate gymnasium and dining hall and kitchen; (4) A separate building for an infirmary; (5) additional equipment such as an adequate pipe organ for the memorial auditorium and chapel.

5. LOUISBURG COLLEGE

Total enrollment at Louisburg College during the 1955-56 session was 343, representing an increase of more than 50% over the previous year. Pre-registrations for the 1956-57 session are running ahead of last year, and indications are that a capacity enrollment will be reached for the coming year.

During the past summer renovations included Main Building which opened new dormitory space for men. A central heating plant has been completed at a cost of approximately $125,000. It is expected that the Davis Building will be remodeled during the summer to provide much needed additional classroom space and living quarters for faculty members.

Urgent physical needs include a cafeteria and a library building. Long term needs include a classroom-auditorium building and additional dormitory space.

Indebtedness on the central heating plant is $85,000 which sum is covered by anticipated United College Appeal funds.

The college closed its fiscal year May 31, 1956, with a surplus in its year's operations. Statistics for the 1955-56 session are: officers and instructors, 25; students, 343; value of property, $1,260,000; endowments, $160,000.

6. PFEIFFER COLLEGE

Statistics for the year 1955-56

Total enrollment—534; Number of faculty—32; Number of staff—29; Value of Buildings and Grounds—$3,250,000; Total Budget for Fiscal Year 1955-56—$525,000; Rent for Capital Expansion—$400,000; Endowment—$1,625,000.

Pfeiffer College expects to enroll its first senior class in September 1956, when the total enrollment will approximate 650 students. Our faculty will increase to nearly 50 and other expansion will be in proportion. We are now in process of completing a campaign for $1,500,000 which will make possible a new science building, new dormitory and 12 additional faculty homes. The dormitory and homes will be ready for occupancy this fall. The college is owned and operated by the Woman's Division of Christian Service and receives support from Methodist women in all parts of the country.

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

The Reverend J. Robert Regan, Jr., State Director of the North Carolina Methodist Student Movement, has had a busy, successful, and rewarding year working with our student organization in all sections of the state. He has visited most of the 58 colleges in the state which has brought him in contact with college officials and MSM groups. Under his leadership 26 units of the MSM have been organized. Interdenominational programs are being carried on at 31 other institutions.

A more detailed report of the Methodist Student Movement will be found following the Board of Education report under the title, "Inter-Conference Commission on Student Religious Work." This program presents one of the most challenging opportunities for creative evangelistic, missionary, and educational activity to be found in the Methodist church.

We commend Mr. Regan for his outstanding leadership in this field and enthusiastically recommend his reappointment for another year.

THE METHODIST COLLEGE COMMITTEE
(Local Church)

It is the belief of the Committee on Schools and Colleges that the committee in the local church called the "Methodist College Committee" should be responsible, along with the pastor, for the presentation of the opportunities and needs of our Methodist Colleges and for encouraging our Methodist young people to attend these colleges. Early in the conference year this committee should plan its program for the year.

The minimum program for the local church should include the following:

(1) In co-operation with the Commission on Education, plan for the proper observance of Student Recognition Day in December, Race Relations Day in February, and Methodist Student Day in June.

(2) Plan for the most effective observance of Christian College Day on Sunday, April 28.

(3) Inform each church about the Sustaining Fund.

(4) A personal interview by the pastor of each local Methodist high school senior for the purpose of presenting the challenge of our Methodist colleges.

(5) Early in the school year, send the names and addresses of all Methodist high school seniors to the executive secretary of the Conference Board of Education and the district superintendent.

(6) The Methodist College Committee is urged to use its own initiative and imagination in trying to set up a local Methodist Scholarship Fund for worthy Methodist students.

Inform church members about the work of the Wesley Foundations and Methodist Student Movement and enlist their interest in this work.

Report No. 4

ANNUAL REPORT OF CAMP DON-LEE, INC.

Considerable progress has been made in the development of Camp Don-Lee during the past year. We are now approaching the final phase of this development which began ten years ago. The building program will be completed within the next twelve months. When this has been done we will have a total property evaluation of approximately $200,000.00.

The camp was struck by two severe hurricanes last fall that inflicted considerable damage to our properties. Two cabins were severely damaged, a retaining wall and a river pier destroyed, many trees blown down, and minor wind damage inflicted upon other buildings. The high tide and lashing waves also inflicted severe damage to the river shore, washed out trees, washed out around one cabin, and littered the grounds with debris. It was conservatively estimated that we suffered a minimum of twelve or fifteen thousand dollars damage to our camp properties in these two storms.

Two of these hurricanes occurred during the camping season, but we are glad to report that no one was injured. Twice the camp was evacuated and the campers moved to New Bern where they were housed and fed in the Centenary Methodist Church until they could return to the camp or until their parents came to take them home. Both campers and counselors faced the emergency heroically and turned a difficult situation into a profitable experience. We shall forever be grateful to the people of Centenary Church for their helpfulness.

Practically all the damage has been repaired and the camp is now more beautiful than ever. The damaged cabins have been repaired, the shore-line rebuilt, the debris cleaned up, and a new and much larger river pier is to be built. In addition, all the cabins have been painted a rustic brown. Very few scars now remain to remind one of the storms of last fall. We all hope and pray that no more hurricanes bearing the inapt names of docile girls will visit our camp.

The following buildings have been erected during the past year: a combination garage-workshop-storage building, an infirmary, a crafts hut and three screened-in pavilions. These buildings have enhanced both the value and the beauty of the camp, added to the comfort of the campers, and increased the efficiency of the camping program. They were erected under the direction of Mr. T. J. Collier of Bayboro, N. C., treasurer of the camp, at a considerable financial saving to the camp.

A beautiful four hundred foot river pier is being built at a cost of approximately $4,000.00, $1,000.00 of which was donated by two friends of the camp. This will be a very substantial pier, built out of creosoted piling and cypress lumber. It will be insured at 80% of the cost of construction against hurricane and storm damage.

A number of small gifts of money and equipment have been made to the camp for which we are very grateful. These gifts have been recorded in the minutes of Camp Don-Lee, Inc.

Blueprints have been drawn for the two buildings that will complete the presently anticipated building program. These buildings will be erected within the next six or eight months. They are a Fellowship Lodge and a Staff Lodge. The Fellowship Lodge will consist of a large room for fellowship, recreation, and assembly purposes, a camp director's office, a work room, toilet facilities and large porches on two sides. It will contain a large fireplace at the end of the hall with another fireplace on the porch. The Staff Lodge will contain living quarters for both men and women, toilet facilities, a kitchen-utility room, a lobby and a porch.

When these buildings have been completed, it is hoped that a caretaker can be secured to live in the home erected for this purpose and currently being used as a Staff Lodge. This person will look after the camp properties and make preparation for groups to use the camp.

The Reverend Robert Regan, Jr., has served as our camp director for the past two years on a part-time basis. He continues to do an outstanding job of conducting the camping program. Under his leadership interest in camping has grown until we no longer can take care of all the boys and girls of the North Carolina Conference at Camp Don-Lee who would like to attend a church camp. In spite of the fact that Camp Carone was leased for four weeks last summer, several hundred boys and girls who applied for camp had to be turned away. In order to help relieve this situation, this summer, three private camps have been leased for a total of nine weeks for nine district junior camps. Camp Don-Lee will be open for the entire summer camping season to intermediate (junior high) boys and girls. In addition the Young Adult Assembly, and the Older Youth Assembly will be held at Camp Don-Lee this summer.

The Conference Board of Education is now looking for another campsite and the annual conference is being asked to continue an apportionment for the development of a second conference camp.

As we near the completion of the development of Camp Don-Lee, we would like to thank the pastors and the laymen of the North Carolina Conference for their loyal support without which this camp could not have been built. We are witnessing the fulfillment of a dream that has been in the hearts and minds of a number of our people for a great number of years. Your Board of Trustees has shared in this dream and worked diligently to help bring it to pass. We have attempted to be true to the trust placed in us to guide the development of this our first Conference Youth Camp. Everyone who has had a part in this project can take pride in this camp which we shall dedicate to the glory of God and the Christian education of the boys and girls of the North Carolina Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

L. R. FOREMAN, President

C. P. MORRIS, Secretary and Business Manager

ANNUAL REPORT OF INTER-CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON STUDENT RELIGIOUS WORK

The Inter-Conference Commission has sought to give direction to the program of student religious work carried on at all of the fifty-nine colleges of North Carolina. Financial assistance has been provided for the student work being carried on at the following colleges: University of North Carolina, Rev. Murry Unruh, director; Duke University, Rev. Art Brandenburg, director; Woman's College, Mrs. Ira Shelley, director; Western Carolina College, Rev. and Mrs. Milford Thumm, directors; Appalachian State Teachers College, Rev. and Mrs. Everett Lowman, directors; Raleigh colleges, Rev. Neal McGlamery, director; Wake Forest College, Rev. Leonard Ranson, director; East Carolina College, Miss Mamie Chandler, director; Catawba College, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hardesty, directors; and Davidson College, Rev. Jerry Murray, director. Only a small amount of money is being provided at Davidson and Catawba Colleges to assist in program planning. The Reverend J. Robert Regan, Jr., is employed on a half-time basis as State Director of the Methodist Student Movement. The names of the Boards of Directors of all Wesley Foundations will be filed with the Conference Secretary for publication in the Journal.

At the present time, we have twenty-six organized units of the Methodist Student Movement and we co-operate in the interdenominational programs being carried on at thirty-one other campuses. At those colleges where MSM units are not organized, either because of administrative policy or because of the infeasibility of organizing such a group, the intercollegiate program and projects of the MSM are emphasized. At each of the colleges where Wesley Foundations are organized, the influence of the Methodist Church is keenly felt and college officials are looking to us for constructive student religious development. Programs on Christian faith, vocations, social issues, missions, and fellowship are well attended at each college, and it is clearly seen that the Christian religion can and must make an impact on the college campuses.

The Intercollegiate program of the MSM was expanded this year. In October, a retreat for presidents and advisers of MSM groups and a Deputations and Fellowship Team Leadership Conference were held which were attended by thirty-five and fifty leaders, respectively. A series of three weekend district conferences was held in November which brought together 260 students, and in February seventy students attended the first Collegiate Church Vocations Conference held in Chapel Hill. High Point entertained the state conference in March which attracted 225 students from throughout the state, and an April weekend saw seventy recreation leaders from various colleges gather for the State Recreational Leadership Conference. The weekend of June 21-23 is set aside for the Annual Nurses Retreat, which attracts student nurses from at least fifteen of the schools of nursing in the state. In addition, North Carolina has been well-represented at the state, regional, and national conferences of students—most notable being the attendance of thirty students at the Student Volunteer Movement Conference in Athens, Ohio, during the Christmas holidays. Also, the MSM has co-operated very closely with the State Student Ecumenical Movement which sponsored a conference in May on Christian unity. The state director serves as adviser for this ecumenical group. The entire program of activities was carried out under the direction of the State Student Council, Jim Murr of Davidson, president. Garland Young of High Point College is incoming president.

With 5,167 Methodist students in state institutions of higher learning, 2,959 in Methodist colleges, and 2,317 in other private or denominational colleges, this means that we have over 13,000 Methodist students in the colleges of North Carolina, when we include those who are enrolled in our thirty-four schools of nursing. Every Methodist in North Carolina has a responsibility for the religious training and guidance of these students. This responsibility carries with it tremendous financial obligations. To meet the increased needs of expanding college enrollments, the annual appropriation of funds coming from both Annual Conferences will have to be doubled during this quadrennium. To take care of the future leadership of our Church, we must strengthen our student program.

APPROVED SUPPLY PASTORS' SCHOOL FOR 1956

The annual Approved Supply Pastors' School at Duke University is a joint project of the Divinity School of Duke University, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, and the Department of In-Service Training of The Methodist Church. The school is planned to afford opportunity for supply pastors and ministers coming into conference membership to fulfill the requirements of the Course of Study prescribed in the 1952 Methodist Discipline, and to develop understanding and skills for a more effective ministry.

Thirty-nine of the 185 students in the 1955 school and five of the teachers were members of the North Carolina Conference. A direct contribution of $200 from the North Carolina Conference was allocated to its men in scholarship grants. The $500 location for this year will more adequately support those in need of such aid. It is hoped that local churches and the several districts will provide further help to their representatives in the school.

This year the school will be extended to four weeks to allow each student credit on full year of work in the Course of Study. The curriculum and extra-curricular activities are planned, in co-operation with the Department of In-Service Training, by a Divinity School committee consisting of Dean James Cannon and Professors W. A. Kale, A. J. Walton, and McMurry S. Richey. Faculty members this year include two pastors from the North Carolina Conference, Leon Couch and O. Kelly Ingram; six Divinity School faculty members, John W. Carlton, A. Durwood Foster, W. A. Kale, Creighton Lacy, H. E. Myers, and Gilbert T. Rowe; two from the Undergraduate Department of Religion, Clyde L. Manshreck and J. H. Phillips; and William R. Locke of High Point College. The daily services of worship will be conducted by students and faculty members under the direction of the classes on "Preaching" and "The Methodist Hymnal and Worship." Three evenings a week will be given to lectures, films, sermons, workshops, and faculty forums.

The dates of the 1956 school will be July 17-August 10. In spite of the greater length and expense of the school this year, advance enrollments are running about the same as for 1955. Probably 175 to 185 will attend, and probably between thirty and forty of these will represent the North Carolina Conference.

As in other years, the Approved Supply Pastors' School has had the helpful co-operation of the district superintendents and officials of the Conference Boards of Ministerial Training of the North Carolina Conference and other annual conferences of the Southern Jurisdiction, in publicizing the school, securing and approving students, and furnishing supplementary scholarship aid. It is our hope to be of effective service to the conferences and their men in their training through the Course of Study.

BOARD OF EVANGELISM ¶1478

Your Board of Evangelism calls upon our Conference to become aware of the great and pressing need of the church that it might be the central evangelizing force in our world today. If the Church is to have great spiritual results we must have a great evangelistic emphasis. Our preaching must have a note of urgency in it. We must preach for verdicts. The ultimate job of preaching is to move the will, to set it in another course. This is still the time in which we must bring the wills of men into tune with the will of God. The true spirit of evangelism must permeate the entire program of the Church.

Your Conference Board of Evangelism presents the following recommendations with the hope and prayer that they will receive the hearty endorsement of our Conference:

1. We pledge our Board of Evangelism to co-operate fully with the General Board of Evangelism as it seeks to guide the general church in its evangelistic efforts.

2. In order that ministers may be better trained in the field of evangelism, we recommend that Schools of Evangelism for pastors be held in each district during this conference year.

3. We recommend that Workshops in Evangelism for local church Commissions on Membership and Evangelism be conducted on a subdistrict level during the ensuing year.

4. Realizing the value of prayer, your Board urges that every church co-operate in the Prayer Movement promoted by the General Board of Evangelism.

5. Every church is urged to participate in the Church Attendance Crusade, January 1 through Easter, 1957.

6. One of the most important phases in evangelistic effort is that of finding prospects. We, therefore, recommend that a Community Religious Survey be conducted in order to find those to be reached for Christ.

7. Your Board of Evangelism must work with our Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension in locating and establishing new churches.

8. Every local church is urged to make the best possible use of all devotional materials available for the cultivations of the spiritual life.

9. We pledge our full support to all conference boards and commissions sharing in the evangelistic efforts of our Conference.

10. We urge that all methods or evangelism be used that are in accordance with the historical framework of Methodism.

11. Realizing the importance of knowing what is taking place in the field of evangelism in our Conference, we recommend that an Evangelism News Sheet be prepared and sent to pastors and chairmen of the Local Commission on Membership and Evangelism.

12. Again we heartily endorse the "No-Silent Pulpit" program of the Conference Board of Lay Activities carried out during the Lenten period. A great service has been rendered by these consecrated lay speakers, so we urge the same plan be used this year.

13. Laymen are the best evangelists. We would, therefore, recommend that full co-operation be given to the Conference Board of Lay Activities in getting members of the Methodist Men's Clubs to become personal evangelists. It is from these groups should come our Fisherman's Club or F.B.I.—Find them, Bring them, Interest them.

14. Your conference Board recommends that the conference employ a full-time man in the field of evangelism to be known as the Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Evangelism.

M. C. DUNN, President
C. J. ANDREWS, Secretary

BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES ¶1571

We recommend that:

1. $26,300 be given for the Golden Cross Fund, and that $52,600 be given to the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

2. That Mother's Day 1957 be used as a day of promoting our Retirement Home program, and a special offering be taken on that day to go to the Retirement Home. This offering is apart from the budget item.

3. According to our action a year ago regarding a chaplain at Duke Hospital which was to the effect that when an equal amount could be secured from some other source, the N. C. Conference would, through Golden Cross, supply half of a $5,000 salary. An agreement has been reached with The Keeley Institute in Greensboro which will supply half this amount so that the services of a chaplain will be available to be shared between Duke Hospital and Keeley Institute. The Reverend Paul Wesley Aitken, a member of the North Carolina Conference, has been secured for this appointment.

4. That the rules governing the use of Golden Cross funds printed in the 1954 Journal, pages 130-131, be continued.

5. That traveling preachers and approved supply pastors take group hospital insurance with the Hospital Care Association, Inc., of Durham, North Carolina.

6. That Dr. Russell Dicks be re-elected as the Golden Cross director of the North Carolina Conference. That the district superintendents appoint a district director for each district to assist Dr. Dicks, and a committee of three to pass on Golden Cross Cases.

A. L. THOMPSON, Chairman

METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN

For almost a year now, our Home has operated under the name of The Methodist Home for Children, Inc. It has been a source of gratification to those of us who live under its roof, for it more completely describes our aims and ambitions for our children. Then, too, the new name has met with favorable response on the part of ministers and laymen throughout the Conference. Of course, where legal matters are involved, the name Methodist Orphanage is used, pending final changes in the charter.

In the report to the June meeting of the Annual Conference in 1955, certain phases of the program for the ensuing year were outlined. Prominent among these were plans for sending the senior high students to Needham Broughton High School, and the establishing of the new school district, to be known as the Methodist-Lewis School. This latter step meant that approximately one hundred children from the former Lewis School would attend the school here on the grounds.

While the above ventures were entered into with some fears and uncertainties, yet it was felt that this was an educational move which would be of great benefit to our children and young people. The results have proven that our fears were largely without foundation. On the other hand, the results have substantiated the vision of a better day educationally for those entrusted to our care. Justifiable compliments are extended to Mr. Hammack and his fine corps of teachers for this year's achievements.

One need only look around the campus and buildings to see that the renovation plans of the June 1955 meeting of the Board of Trustees have been carried out. The expense of this project went beyond what we had hoped, but such is often the case in a repair and renovation program. The resulting effect of clean and attractive schoolrooms, properly lighted, and major improvements in the auditorium, is very noticeable in the reactions and behavior of our children.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Trustees the proposal to send the eighth and ninth grades of the Home to Hugh Morson Junior High was adopted. It is believed that this step will be most valuable preparation for those who will later enter Needham Broughton Senior High School.

The capacity of the Methodist Home for Children is two hundred and thirty-eight. This is an average of approximately twenty-four children or young people per cottage. It is impossible for one who has not worked here in some capacity to realize what an inordinate load the House Mother must carry. Housing, feeding and clothing an individual is only a part of the responsibility of the Home. The necessary guidance of disturbed and emotionally upset children in order to develop stable, Christian persons, is the challenge that must not be underestimated. One with experience in this field can see why new cottages which are being constructed in Methodist Homes for Children throughout the Church have a capacity in most cases of not over twelve.

Most of our cottages carry the capacity load. However, it is the practice of the present administration to give preference, as far as vacancies are concerned, to cottages like Cole, Garris and Burwell, which care for the older young people.

The Methodist Home for Children is most fortunate in its staff of co-operative and devoted individuals who strive to make real the Home's basic policy of being truly child-centered in all of its service to children.

FORREST D. HEDDEN, Superintendent

THE METHODIST RETIREMENT HOMES, INC.

The first ten months that the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., in Durham have been open have taught us two things. First, there is a real need in our Conference for such a home and, second, the members of our Annual Conference have only to visit the Home to be made conscious of the great need for immediate expansion of the Home so that we can take care of not less than 100 elderly people in our Conference.

There are also two great needs why this is true. First, we want to provide a home for those who, in the evening of life, find themselves in need of a place to go where they can be taken care of and receive the loving care that only a Christian home, such as the Methodist Retirement Homes in Durham, can offer; and second, we need at least 60 additional guests in the Home to be able to operate it economically, because we have certain overhead expenses that must be paid regardless of the number in the Home. The present building has sufficient dining room, kitchen, and public meeting space to take care of at least 60 additional guests.

We realize that there is a need for clarification of how the Home operates. I have been asked the question, "Why is it that we have some living in the Home paying $160.00 per month, others pay $130.00, and even some a great deal less?"

The Board of Trustees of the Home determined as soon as possible after the Home opened what the actual cost was of maintaining a guest in the Home. This amounted to $160.00 per month; therefore, the Executive Committee felt that those who were able to pay $160.00 per month should do so, and if there were those in the Home who could not pay that amount, they should pay what they could. Therefore, we have some in the Home who are absolutely unable to pay more than $50.00 per month and yet they receive the same loving care as those paying $160.00. Now, that is where the Christian spirit comes into the Home. When the application of the one applying for admittance to the Home is reviewed by the Admissions Committee, it is first determined whether that person meets every qualification required by the Admissions Committee. After this has been determined, it is a matter of working out the business details as to the amount that they can pay. After an investigation has been made, if it is determined that the person is able to pay $160.00 per month, we expect them to do it, otherwise they would be receiving charity from the Methodist Conference. On the other hand, if they are not able to pay that amount, then a plan is worked out whereby they can come into the Home regardless of the amount they are able to pay.

The point that I am trying to make is that the amount anyone entering the Home is required to pay is determined after the Admissions Committee has decided that they are eligible for membership in the Home.

The question has also been asked, "Why do you require those entering the Home to agree to give a certain portion of their material wealth to the Home?" Again, that is where the Christian spirit comes in. If those living in the Home have material wealth, they should be willing to share it with the Methodist Conference to enable it to provide additional space for others who, like themselves, need a home in the evening time of life. Certainly, those receiving the benefits of the Home should be the first to want to share whatever they may have of worldly goods with the Home.

We, of course, have experienced instances where the family was able to pay the full charge and, also, to share something with the Home but they did not want to assume that responsibility. They felt that the Church should provide their loved ones with a home at whatever amount they are willing to pay. This is an un-Christian spirit and is contrary to everything that the Home stands for.

We do not have a right to go to the members of the North Carolina Conference asking them to give contributions to the Home in order that we may provide additional space, as well as comforts for those already living in the Home, when members of the Home own in their own name material wealth that they will not share with the Home, and certainly when it comes to the place that the members of a family of a guest in the Home are not willing to share some of their material wealth to help provide additional space for others.

I know a number of contributors to the Home who never intend to live in the Home. Would it be right to ask them to provide the physical property and then contribute to the operating fund of the Home when we have guests in the Home who are able to pay the full charge, or whose loved ones are able to pay for them and will not do it because they want to get it as cheap as possible?

It all might be summed up in these words. There is none too poor or none too rich to be a guest in the Home. Again, that is where the Christian spirit comes in, but it would be un-Christian for those who are able to pay and even contribute something extra to help take care of those who cannot pay if we allowed them to live in the Home without meeting their full responsibilities.

The question also has been raised, "What services do you render?" Again, it can be best explained in these words. It is the next thing to getting married because we take them "for better or worse, for richer or poorer." Those going in the Home on a life contract are assured of a home as long as they live, with all the medical and nursing care that is required; in other words, they are relieved of all of the responsibilities of life. This includes those who may not be able to pay more than $50.00 per month, as well as those who are able to pay the full amount of their expenses.

The Home is like a great big family, the strong must help the weak.

Brother Coble, the superintendent, has proven in his first nine months as a superintendent, that he is not only interested in the work but he loves it. He is giving his whole heart and soul to the great work to which he has been called.

Our one big need now is to pay the $180,000.00 we owe on the present Home so that we can build 60 additional rooms as soon as possible. This can only be accomplished through contributions to the Home.

M. G. MANN, President, Board of Trustees

REPORT OF THE FIRST EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE METHODIST RETIREMENT HOMES, INC.

The first unit of the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., was accepted from the architects on August 23, and its doors opened for service on September 1, 1956, with 12 Home members. The first to register were a retired minister and his wife with 41 years of service in the Methodist Church, 33 of these in Cuba. Besides our missionary couple, we have the widows of six of our ministers. These represent 232 years of service to the church.

Our membership has increased until our building is filled with the exception of the infirmary. When it becomes necessary for a person to be moved to the infirmary permanently, the room they occupied will be filled with a new Home member. There is room for 32 members outside the infirmary and eight in the infirmary.

Applications are coming to the Home almost daily. The need is so widespread that all nine districts of our Conference are represented in our Home membership of 32 persons.

With contentment, proper diet, and excellent medical attention, every Home member is in better health than when they entered the Home. The building and the daily schedule are so planned that there has not been a single accidental injury. We must recognize, however, that with members ranging in age from 65 to 89, with an average of over 77, illnesses will come.

Our members are offered something that cannot be purchased commercially. Along with room, board, and medical attention, go love and compassion. Our day begins with a worship program before breakfast. The remainder of the day is so scheduled that there is a wholesomeness to life. Not only are years added to living, but living is added to years.

The Home members pay toward their keep whatever they are able to pay, so that while some pay our sustaining rate of $160.00 per month, others are paying less. Some are on a life contract with guaranteed care for life. Others are on a monthly boarding basis.

Need for the services offered by the Home and a life of service to the Church and community are the first requirements for admission into the Home. Every Home member we have has been outstanding in these respects. Though no one has been turned away solely for financial reasons, many have been denied entrance because of lack of room. Choices have been made on the basis of need for the Home and a record of service by the member.

We deeply appreciate the contribution made to the Home through the budgets of our churches, and urge the Commission on World Service and Finance to continue the same apportionment for the coming year. The Special Mother's Day Offering is our hope for expansion, and we pray that this might be continued as a Special Offering over and above the budget item. Our next unit can be financed only when the present one is paid for.

Our income is derived from the Home members, the apportionment in the budget of the churches, the Mother's Day Offering, the furnishing of rooms as memorials, gifts, and through wills. First must come the expenses of the actual day by day keep of the members. Next must come the payments of interest and principal on our debt.

Along with plans for the next unit of our building are plans for developing our property so that building lots will be available for the erection of cottages. Here couples can know the security of a central home with the privacy of separate homes.

During the year gifts have come from friends of the Home, along with a bequest in the will of the late Mr. L. L. Wren in the amount of $25,000.00. The promotion of Mother's Day provided the most intense publicity the Home has received, when with the co-operation of Bishop Garber and the district superintendents, letters were sent to the church officials in each church in the Conference.

The response on Mother's Day gives us faith to believe that our next unit can be started soon. When people learn of the service that our Home is giving, they have responded liberally with gifts.

Recently, the first unit of our conference-wide Auxiliary was organized with Mrs. H. C. Satterfield, Jr., of Durham as its first president. Through the Auxiliary those who are interested in the Home will be given the opportunity to serve. As rapidly as possible other units of the Auxiliary will be organized across the Conference.

The superintendent has presented the cause of the Home at every opportunity. He is available wherever the cause of the Home can be represented. He has seen the dreams and efforts of others come to fulfillment. He has known the thrill of seeing those who were alone and afraid find security and contentment. He has been greatly concerned that many equally in need have been turned away because there is no room.

Sharing with God, we can accept the challenge of Christ on the Cross to one of the disciples to look after His mother, by expanding our program to meet the needs of our senior citizens of today.

J. F. COBLE, Superintendent

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES ¶1503

Report No. 1

Carrying out a program of district-wide laymen's rallies, held in the winter each year, the Conference Board of Lay Activities sponsored in this conference year a series of rallies in each of the nine districts. All of these rallies were attended by Bishop Paul N. Garber and by Dr. Henry Denman, Executive Secretary of the Board of Evangelism, and our sincere appreciation is expressed for this co-operation. A total of 5,151 persons attended these rallies and it is the feeling of the Board that the inspiration gathered at these rallies added much to the support of laymen generally for the program of evangelism.

During the conference year a total of 1,160 lay speakers were certified in accordance with the provisions of the Discipline and these lay speakers were used to implement the "No Silent Pulpit" program which was carried out during the weeks immediately preceding Easter under the supervision and direction of Bishop Garber. Reports reaching the Board indicate that this program has been very effective in increasing the interest and enthusiasm of laymen generally.

At the 1952 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference it was announced that the General Board of Lay Activities had assigned to this Conference a goal of 156 chartered Methodist Men's Clubs by 1956. The Board is happy to report that there are in the bounds of this Conference now a total of 194 chartered Methodist Men's Clubs and this Conference has, therefore, far exceeded the request of the General Board of Lay Activities.

One of the most successful annual retreats for the laymen of the conference was held last August at Duke University. At this time the largest number of laymen ever to attend a retreat were present and enjoyed the period of study and fellowship and inspiration. The Board has voted to hold its 1956-57 annual laymen's retreat again at Duke University in August, and plans are being completed to make this the largest and most unsuccessful retreat yet to be held by the Board. Co-operating in the national observance of Laymen's Day in October, your Conference Board is happy to report that this occasion was again fully observed in the North Carolina Conference. It is suggested that, with the quadrennial emphasis of work in the local church, this occasion, particularly in the coming conference year, can be most effectively used and will, if used widely, do much to bring laymen to a deeper realization of their function within the framework of the Methodist Church and the opportunities existing for lay work in each local church of Methodism.

The Conference Board of Lay Activities pledges anew the combined strength of Methodist laymen in supporting and pushing forward the program of the Methodist Church. An informed and dedicated lay group can best serve to carry the gospel message to the four corners of the world by strengthening the gospel message and its application in each home church.

Respectfully submitted,

W. J. SMITH, Chairman

BOARD OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING AND QUALIFICATION ¶639Report No. 1

Note: Report No. 1 of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications is reflected in Part II. Condensed Minutes questions 17-35, inclusive. Editor

RECOMMENDATION

Numerous complaints have reached the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications concerning the quality of some men who have been recommended by the North Carolina Annual Conference and sent out to minister to Methodist congregations. We are aware that some unlettered men have wrought wonders for the Kingdom of God but we also know that in a day of advancing education and training, standards must be maintained; therefore, we are offering this resolution which sets up what we consider to be minimum requirements.

We recommend that ordinarily no person begin an Approved Supply status who is over 40 years of age; and, further, that no man without a high school diploma be recommended for the same status. We further recommend to District Committees on Ministerial Qualifications that no person without a high school diploma be given local preacher's license.

BOARD OF MISSIONS ¶1295

Report No. 1

In a recent article by Bishop Paul N. Garber it was stated that the North Carolina Annual Conference is being referred to as the "Miracle Conference" in American Methodism. Among the notable facts substantiating this claim is the unusual strides made in Church Extension and the matter of Mission Specials. We now have 100 more pastoral charges than in 1952, and are ranked third among the more than 100 American conferences in Mission Specials carried. This growth is also reflected in the fact that at the recent General Conference we had 12 delegates, as compared to 8 four years ago, this being based on membership growth.

During this quadrennium the emphasis has been placed on church extension by this Conference. We have employed an executive secretary of church extension, and we desire to commend the splendid work done by Rev. Thomas A. Collins in this field. This quadrennium has seen the establishment of 41 new Methodist congregations. Of this number twelve have been organized this year. These include: Grace Methodist, Burlington; Saint Paul, Burlington; Trinity, Sanford; Aldersgate, Durham; Aldersgate, Chapel Hill; Eutaw Village, Fayetteville; Stacy Methodist at Stacy; Cherry Point Methodist at Havelock; Wynnewood Park and Six Forks Methodist, Raleigh; Hart Mill Methodist at Tarboro, and Devon Park at Wilmington.

During the year the board has also assisted in the construction of 17 new parsonages. Five of these were for new churches, and the others primarily for newly formed charges. More than $16,500 has been contributed for this work—twelve churches have been assisted in building programs, or expanding their present facilities, in addition to six which shared in the Ten Dollar Club funds. The twelve received assistance in excess of $20,000 from Church Extension funds administered by the Board of Missions. Assistance has also been given in acquiring lots for the location of churches in some strategic places. This was made possible by use of the loan fund approved by the last annual conference. The Ten Dollar Club has assisted six new churches in constructing their first building unit, contributing more than $100,000 to these young churches. We wish to express our thanks to the more than 5,000 laymen and ministers who have joined this club to give incentive to this work, and for their spirit of "Forward with Christ" through church extension. We urge our pastors to activate local church committees to maintain membership in the Ten Dollar Club, and to enlist new converts to this great cause. Because of the unusual need existing in the Havelock military community, our Conference last year authorized a special Christmas offering for Havelock Methodist Church. We are glad to report that approximately $13,000 was contributed to this cause, and it has been a blessing to the church. Plans are now under way for the construction of their new educational addition.

This year we have been able to attain a quadrennial goal of a minimum salary scale of $3,000 for single ministers; $3,300 for married ministers without children; and $3,600 for married men with children, provided this man is an approved supply or conference member. If he is not an approved supply he shall be considered by the Board as a special case, and minimum salary rules do not necessarily apply in his case.

We recommend that Sunday, October 14, be designated as Church Extension Sunday, and request the district superintendents to constitute at the first quarterly conference a Ten Dollar Club committee in each local church to work with the chairman of the Commission on Missions in securing new members of the Ten Dollar Club, and the collection of delinquent payments; and that a member of the WSCS be included on this committee. The names and addresses of this committee should be forwarded immediately to Rev. Thomas A. Collins, Executive Secretary, 920 Lake Boone Trail, Raleigh, N. C.

In the light of the many calls upon this Board for building assistance, and in view of the number of new churches organized this quadrennium, we recognize that major increases must be made in funds available to this Board for these purposes. Therefore, we recommend that the item of Church Extension be increased substantially subject to the approval of the Commission of World Service and Finance. We request that the apportionment, which this year is 4% of "total money raised" be increased to the equivalent of 10% of "total money raised."

We have made an excellent record in the number of mission specials carried. We are now holding third place among all American conferences. We want to maintain, and if possible increase these specials. The Board approves as Advance Mission Specials the following: Conference specials: All new churches organized during this quadrennium of 1952-1956, including the parsonages of these new churches; the Bethany (Portuguese)

Mission of the Rocky Mount District; Longhurst Methodist Church; Sunset Park Church, Wilmington; the Scholarship fund set up to assist in the training of Directors of Religious Education. The Foreign Student Aid Fund for all our Methodist colleges in North Carolina (Assisting foreign students who come to this country for study). (If a church is carrying a direct gift special for a local church it should secure the proper blank from Mr. Cowell and fill it in accordingly in order to get credit as a special.) General Specials: The Caravan Methodist Church of Linz, Austria. The new Alaska College. The Methodist Church in Sorocaba, Brazil, with which Rev. C. B. Dawsey is working. District Specials: Ed Smith, J. W. Garrison, and Linwood Blackburn.

We urge the support of the district mission institutes to be held, and commend the study book to be used. Churches should encourage large attendance at these institutes this fall. We suggest that each church adopt a mission special, either district, conference, or foreign. Our Conference Missionary Secretary, Rev. Mark W. Lawrence, has done a good job in promoting these specials, for which we are grateful to him.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service is doing a fine work in this field. They give expression of their faith in missions through their deeds. We also commend the several district mission secretaries for the good work they have done in promoting the cause of missions in their respective districts. The Board is again assisting in sending nine young people (one from each district) to the Missionary Conference at Lake Junaluska.

Rev. J. W. Lineberger, one of our district missionary secretaries and a member of this board, is this year leading the European Caravan group. They are now in Europe working with churches and young people in strengthening their churches. Dr. Joseph Batak of Austria has said it is the North Carolina Caravan that has made possible the Methodist Church in Austria. We recommend that this program be continued.

The North Carolina Christian Advocate renders a fine service to Methodism in our Conference. We urge more churches to send it to every Methodist family in the church. We suggest the months of January and February as "Advocate Month." We also recommend a larger circulation of World Outlook in our conference.

The conference last year elected the following as members of the Board of Managers of the North Carolina Pastors' School at Duke University: Rev. T. M. Vick and Rev. J. W. Lineberger, for two-year terms; Mrs. J. H. Cutchin and Rev. L. C. Vereen, for four-year terms; Rev. S. J. Starnes and Rev. A. S. Parker, for six-year terms.

A list of the appropriations is attached hereto.

J. E. GARLINGTON, President
S. J. STARNES, Secretary

APPENDIX: RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION

The members of the Board of Missions wish to make a part of the report to the North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, S.E.J., the following resolution of appreciation:

Resolved that we express some slight degree of our appreciation to the Reverend S. J. Starnes for his faithful years of service. For more than twenty years he has served as chairman of the Board of Church Extension, and the secretary of the Board of Missions. For more than eighteen years he has written the report to Annual Conference for these Boards and has faithfully performed his duties which have made possible reports of progress in every instance. We gratefully acknowledge his fine and consecrated labors in behalf of the mission interests of our Conference, and commend him to whatever board he may serve next.

Resolved that we express our appreciation to the Reverend Doctor J. E. Garlington for his faithful service as president of the Board of Missions for the past eight years. These years have seen the growth of the work of Church Extension not imagined possible before, and through his tireless efforts the work of the Board of Missions of this Conference has received national recognition.

THOMAS A. COLLINS, Executive Secretary
MR. B. TROY FERGUSON, Member, Board of Missions

Report No. 2

GUARANTEE FUND

The Section of Church Extension of the North Carolina Annual Conference has been for some time aware of an acute need for funds to be made available to rural and small town churches for the purposes of new construction, whether new sanctuary or educational addition. There is a great difficulty in these churches making arrangements for mortgage loans in this field.

After much study over a period of months, we have been encouraged to believe that funds up to a total of $1,000,000 can possibly be made available for loans of this character under the following conditions:

1. That this Board, or its designated agency, arrange a fund to guarantee such loans when recommended and approved by the section of Church Extension of this conference.
2. The amount needed to guarantee loans up to $1,000,000 would probably be $200,000.
3. This might be arranged step by step over a period of five years in blocks of $40,000 to guarantee $200,000 in mortgage loans each year.
4. Some agreement would be made to provide for some earnings on this guarantee fund and on the other hand loans in default after an agreed period would be charged against the guarantee fund.
5. No single church might borrow in excess of $50,000 under this plan and the period of the loan would be limited to approximately 10 years.
6. Other conditions should be that the borrowing church have in hand 50% or more of the estimated total project cost.

Your Board of Missions requests endorsement of this plan in principle and the authority to negotiate details of the plan with the hope of being ready to put the plan into action immediately following next Annual Conference if approved by that body.

We respectfully request that the Commission on World Service and Finance allocate from undesignated Benevolence Funds for the coming year such an amount as may in their judgment be available not to exceed $40,000 per year, to achieve a maximum goal of $200,000.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS ¶1613

Report No. 1

We call attention to the fact that, due to General Conference action, this board, formerly known as "The Board of Conference Claimants," will become the "Conference Board of Pensions."

For the support of our conference claimants during the year 1956-1957, we recommend an apportionment on the churches of an amount equal to 16% of the salaries of the preachers and their assistants. We also recommend that the annuity rate be $48.00 per service year for retired preachers, including the retired approved supply preachers who have served at least ten full-time years.

The names, addresses and years of service of our conference claimants, including the dependent children, will appear in the Conference Journal. The conference claimants who have died during the year are: Orren W. Dowd, Ethelbert L. Hill, James M. Joliff, W. A. Parsons, Mrs. James H. Buffaloe, Mrs. Charles O. Durant, Mrs. James G. Johnson, Mrs. William C. Merritt, Mrs. Julian Midgette, and Mrs. Samuel T. Moyle.

We call attention to Report No. 3, page 115 of the 1955 journal, recommending the observance of a "Veterans of the Cross Day" in every charge on the third Sunday in September. We strongly urge that this program be observed the day designated on the conference calendar. Your Conference Board of Pensions will prepare and distribute literature and information to be used for this program.

The board recommends that the honorarium of the secretary of the Conference Board of Pensions remain at $300.00 and that his expense account be submitted to the conference treasurer.

This board again urges that the Conference look with favor toward setting up a plan by which the preachers may share in their pension program.

Report No. 2

CONCERNING CHANGES IN THE CONSTITUTION OF THE MINISTERS' RETIREMENT FUND

Your Conference Board of Pensions recommends the following changes in the constitution of the Ministers' Retirement Fund:

First, change the first sentence of the section titled "Assessments" to read: Each member shall pay into the fund one per cent (1%) of all money he receives each year from charge or conference sources (this includes salary, minimum salary fund, Duke Endowment, and missionary sources).

Second, add at the end of the section titled "Eligibility for Membership" the following sentence: Eligible ministers may join the fund at any time although no member shall be eligible for dividends until he has been a member in good standing for ten years.

Report No. 3

CONCERNING TAXABILITY OF PENSION PLAN AND RETIREMENT FUND INCOME

The Conference Board of Pensions presents the ruling from the Attorney General's office concerning taxability of pension plan and retirement fund income. Following the inquiry of our conference treasurer concerning this matter, we have received the following ruling from William B. Rodman, Jr., Attorney General, passing his decision on paragraph 5 of G. S. 105-142 (Sec. 318 of the Revenue Code). Mr. Rodman states:

"As to the payments received from the Pension Plan, whether received by the retiring minister or by his beneficiary, these payments should be reported in full for purposes of the State income tax law." This is due to the fact that the minister makes no contribution under the Pension Plan.

"As to the payments received from the Retirement Fund, whether received by the minister personally or by his beneficiary, if the payment is in a lump sum, only that portion of the payment which is in excess of the amount contributed to the Retirement Fund by the Minister will be taxable. If the payment from the Retirement Fund is received periodically, over a number of years, the amount received annually will be taxable as an annuity, 'to the extent of three per cent (3%) of the amount of such contributions, until the excess of receipts over and above the portion thus taxable as an annuity shall equal the total contributions, at which time all receipts thereafter received shall be annually taxable.'"

Report No. 4

MINISTERS' RETIREMENT FUND OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE
THE METHODIST CHURCH

CONSTITUTION

Revised June 1956

This fund is intended to provide a single, lump sum benefit to be paid at the time of retirement of each member of the fund. The treasurer of the North Carolina Conference shall serve as treasurer of this fund. He shall promote this work, receive reports from the district superintendents, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of collections and benefits paid. The treasurer will obtain the names of all ministers retiring at each annual conference and pay to them promptly any benefit to which they are entitled.

Assessments: Each member shall pay into the fund one per cent (1%) of all money he receives each year from charge or conference sources (this includes salary, minimum salary fund payments, Duke Endowment, and missionary sources). Members transferring out of the North Carolina Conference who wish to retain membership in the funds must pay into the fund two per cent (2%) of their salaries and other income items received from church sources constituting a usual part of their annual income.

Each charge in the conference shall be required to pay into the fund annually an amount equal to one per cent (1%) of what it reports as paid to the pastor and his associates, if any.

Deadline for Receipt of Payments: Each charge and each member of the fund shall submit the required payment no later than the last day of the month following the month in which the North Carolina Annual Conference meets.

Benefits: Benefits shall be paid to members of the retirement fund as follows:

If superannuated at the end of one year of membership	$ 100.00
If superannuated at the end of two years of membership	200.00
If superannuated at the end of three years of membership	300.00
If superannuated at the end of four years of membership	400.00
If superannuated at the end of five years of membership	500.00
If superannuated at the end of six years of membership	600.00
If superannuated at the end of seven years of membership	700.00
If superannuated at the end of eight years of membership	800.00
If superannuated at the end of nine years of membership	900.00
If superannuated at the end of ten years of membership	1000.00

The sum of $100.00 additional benefit shall be paid to members retiring each year provided receipts for that year are sufficient to pay this additional benefit. No money shall be paid from the reserve fund for this purpose.

Dividends: Any funds remaining after retirement benefits have been paid to eligible members (including the additional $100.00 benefit) shall be divided in equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for ten years or longer and are not in arrears. The total dividends of each member shall be paid to him at the time of his retirement or to his beneficiary in the event of his death prior to retirement.

Death Benefits: If a participating member dies while in the active service, the treasurer shall pay to his widow and/or other dependents the sum which the member had paid into the fund and his accumulated dividends plus twenty dollars ($20.00) for each year of service after the conference year 1941-42 in which his charge paid its assessment to this fund in full or in which he has paid two per cent (2%) of his earnings in years in which he did not serve a charge. The maximum death benefit shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) unless the member's payment and accumulated dividends are in excess of five hundred dollars ($500.00). Then the death benefit shall be the actual amount the member had paid into the fund plus any accumulated dividends in his account.

Penalties: Upon superannuation or death of any member who has failed any year for years to contribute one per cent (1%) or two per cent (2%) in any years in which he did not serve a charge, there shall be deducted from any benefits an amount equal to twice the amount he should have paid during the year or years he did not contribute.

If any member of the fund fails to contribute the required per cent of his salary for more than a total of three years, consecutive or otherwise, he shall have no claim on this fund beyond the amount he has paid into the fund.

Eligibility for Membership: Each minister of the North Carolina Conference shall become eligible for membership in the Ministers' Retirement Fund in the year following the Conference at which he is taken into full connection. Ministers transferring into the Conference in full connection are eligible to join the fund in the year following the Conference in which their credentials are recognized. Eligible ministers may join the fund at any time although no member shall be eligible for dividends until he has been a member in good standing for 10 years.

Approved Supply Pastors: Approved supply pastors may become participating members in this fund in the year following the Conference at which they are accepted as Approved Supply Pastors. The following conditions of membership apply to supply members:

1. If within five years of becoming a participating member, an approved supply is not given work, he shall be paid the amount he has paid into the fund plus one-half the amount the charges he served paid into the fund during his years as pastor, and terminate his membership.

2. If an approved supply member has served five years but less than ten years since becoming a participating member and is not given work, he shall be paid the amount he has paid into the fund plus the total amount the charges he served paid into the fund during his years as pastor, and terminate his membership.

3. Approved supply pastors who have served ten years or more may become participating members on the same basis as members in full connection.

4. The provisions contained in this section shall apply only to those approved supply pastors giving full-time service to the ministry.

Investment of Funds: Funds paid in shall be processed and accounted for by the Treasurer of the North Carolina Conference. The reserve fund and dividend fund shall be invested at the discretion of the World Service and Finance Commission of the North Carolina Conference in consultation with the officers of the Board of Conference Claimants. Any income from investments shall be added to the reserve fund until it reaches the sum of $250,000.00, at which time the earnings shall be added to the current fund and included in the balance available for crediting to members' accounts as dividends as provided in this constitution.

BOARD OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

This Resolution Is Presented to

Brother John A. Staton

Who for thirty years served with distinction the cause of retired ministers in the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church. Brother Staton was appointed to the Board of Conference Claimants in 1926 and served continuously until his retirement at the annual conference held in Greenville, N. C., in June, 1956. For twenty-two years he was Chairman of the Board.

The Methodist Church, the North Carolina Conference, the ministers who have retired, and especially those ministers who will retire in future years owe Brother Staton a debt of gratitude. He fought fearlessly, tirelessly, and enthusiastically for the present fine retirement program for the superannuates of Methodism.

In testimony of our warm feeling for Brother Staton and as a salute to his fruitful career of service to his church, this scroll is given.

BOARD OF TEMPERANCE ¶1541

Work against liquor in our North Carolina Conference has increased during 1955-56 as compared with previous years. There have been more activities and better activities against liquor on the district level and in local churches. However, in spite of these increased activities, the sale of liquor continues to increase, and the tragic results of drinking continue to increase. And your Conference Board of Temperance urges all-out efforts against this nefarious business. And your Board urges greatly increased action along every possible line, including the following special activities.

1. This is an election year. We should elect legislators, who will enact laws against liquor, and judges and other public officials, who will enforce laws against liquor.

2. We should urge the 1957 General Assembly to enact a statute providing for a Statewide Referendum.

3. Our efforts should be increased along educational lines, including instruction in our homes, our public schools, our colleges and our Sunday Schools; and including effective material in newspapers, magazines and in programs on radio and television.

4. Pastors, district secretaries and other leaders should utilize our Methodist film, "Far From Alone," and other effective methods of presenting this cause.

5. Our NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE and other church papers should publish more material against the sale and use of liquor.

6. District superintendents and district secretaries should make sure that this cause is fully and effectively presented during district conferences and in all other district meetings.

(a) We recommend that a workshop on alcohol education be arranged for every district in the North Carolina Conference, with plans formulated by the Board of Temperance, district secretaries, in co-operation with the district superintendents, and that this be done at the earliest possible date.

(b) That Dr. Hooten, of our General Board, be invited to conduct such workshops. (He has already indicated that he would like to be with us.)

(c) That we will give our all-out support to legislation against the high-pressure advertisement of alcoholic beverages on a national level. There is a better than 50-50 chance, we believe, of passing this bill, if we will write letters or send telegrams to its sponsors and our representatives in Congress.

(d) That we endorse Dr. Russell Dick's book, "From Isolation to Acceptance." This is a handbook for helping alcoholics. Chapter titles are: Can the Alcoholics Be Helped? Highways to Alcoholism; Helping the Alcoholic Family; How to Counsel the Alcoholic.

We not only commend this book, but we recommend that this slender volume be placed in the hands of all Board members and district secretaries, and consider the advisability of mailing copies to all ministers of the North Carolina Conference.

7. Pastors should recommend only total abstainers as members of the official board and other places of leadership in our Sunday Schools and churches.

8. Pastors and other church leaders should co-operate with the Allied Church League, the Women's Christian Temperance Union and all other organizations that are working against liquor. And we urge co-operation with another organization, Alcoholics Anonymous, that is doing splendid work throughout North Carolina and America. There is one or more units of Alcoholics Anonymous in practically every community in North Carolina. In many communities, they need a place in which to hold their weekly and semi-weekly meetings; and we recommend that our pastors co-operate in providing meeting places for AA groups. We recommend also that all pastors and other church leaders familiarize themselves with the program of Alcoholics Anonymous; that they invite qualified speakers from this organization to address Sunday School classes and other groups in our churches; and we recommend that our pastors and other members co-operate fully with the local units of Alcoholics Anonymous.

9. District superintendents, district secretaries and pastors should support fully and participate effectively in the observation of World Temperance Sunday on the last Sunday in October of each year and Commitment Day on the first Sunday in December in each year.

10. Pastors should preach often against the use of beer, wine and whiskey. This preaching should not be apologetic. It should be soul searching. It should come from a mind that is well informed and a heart that is aflame with a desire for the saving of human bodies and the salvation of eternal souls. Our pastors should recognize the vital fact that the supreme issue is moral and spiritual. Of course, liquor enters and causes injury in every human sphere, economics, health, politics and public morals; and facts should be presented to show the harm that liquor does in every aspect of man's life; but pastors and other leaders must remember always that the supreme issue is moral and spiritual. If a person has been reborn, if a person is Christ-controlled, he will not make liquor; he will not sell or vote for the sale of liquor; and he will not drink liquor.

Today there are many things that are impairing the influence of our church; and the liquor traffic is one of the forces that is helping to destroy everything for which our Church stands. The liquor traffic would destroy the Church, if it could; the Church could destroy the liquor traffic, if it would. Hence, every person, who is interested in the Church, should use his influence, his means and his vote against the liquor traffic. This Conference appeals to all pastors and all church members that they increase and make more effective their opposition to this nefarious business. As individuals, we Methodists should abstain absolutely from the use of alcoholic beverages. As members of society, we should vote and work to outlaw the liquor traffic. The attitude and the practice of individuals should be total abstinence. The attitude and policy of government should be absolute prohibition. And to the achievement of total abstinence and absolute prohibition, we rededicate our efforts and our lives.

COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK ¶1231

(The following reports are based on the current equivalent of

Report No. 1 POLICY

Recent research in the field of membership and evangelism, by Bishop Paul N. Garber, reveals a record of low annual net increase in church membership in the Annual Conference. Frontier Again, 1954, Walston and Nickens, shows that with time tide has turned and the North Carolina Conference area is again the frontier of the state. Look at the People, 1955, Chambers, gives detailed information on the very considerable population growth and the shift in the North Carolina Conference area. These and other works of research have made evident the need and opportunity for an enterprising spirit, policy, and program on the part of the Annual Conference during the new quadrennium, and afterwards.

A great program of rehabilitation and expansion in all areas of work must be carried forward in the years ahead. The Conference will need to mobilize its total resources in order to provide a ministry of adequate scope and effectiveness to the people residing today and tomorrow in eastern North Carolina. Much imagination, inventiveness, and "imagineering" will be required. Capable long-range planning, extensively and locally, will be essential. Many leaders, conference and local, will need to stretch their minds. New lifting levers will have to be found. Renewal of Wesleyan evangelistic spirit will be necessary. Flowing-from-within energies must be released, and up-from-the-roots procedures devised. Creative church craftsmanship will be called for.

In the field of creative church craftsmanship, the Commission on Town and Country Work has a very definite responsibility. The Discipline commits to the Commission the work to "outline a program of town and country work to the participating boards and agencies."

Preceding such a general outline it is in order to present a statement of rural church policy. The rural church policy of The Methodist Church is given in Discipline, 1952, 020 (10), and in accord with this the ensuing is presented as a statement of Annual Conference policy.

Bishop Paul N. Garber in his published address, "Some Suggestions Concerning the Future Program of our North Carolina Conference" (July 12, 1954, p. 11), stated: "We should therefore have in our North Carolina Conference a rural church program of the highest possible type and really be leaders in rural church work not only in eastern North Carolina but throughout our entire connection."

x x x

"This unprecedented development of roads serving local communities offers to North Carolina Conference Methodism an opportunity and a challenge to develop a magnificently conceived program of rural church expansion" (Frontier Again, 1954, Walston Nickens, p. 24).

"The Conference would be wise in making a large investment of prayer, thought, research, planning, money, and work in rebuilding and developing its root system (rural churches). Such would bear abundant fruit for time and eternity." (Look at the Roots, 1955, Taylor, p. 13.)

x x x

"We recognize the fact that the rural areas are the fountain heads of resources in terms of leadership, population, religious and economic life, and that many of these areas are now suffering religious and cultural depletion.

"This fact calls for an awakened church consciousness of the significance of the rural community, issuing in a growing statesmanship and strategy that will develop religious institutions adequate to create and conserve the religious and cultural values in rural community life.

"The North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church recognizes the basic significance of the rural church to the total life of the church, and recognizes the gradual decline in strength of the rural church, and regrets the inadequate policy heretofore pursued with reference to it. Therefore, the Conference does at this time commit itself to the policy of mobilizing its total resources to provide a ministry of adequate scope and effectiveness to the rural people of our Conference area." (Journal, 1947, pp. 123-4.)

CHURCH EXTENSION

Competent sociological studies indicate that the population of North Carolina will double between the years 1950 and 2003.

Look at the People, 1955, Chambers, a statistical study of population resources and trends in the North Carolina Conference area, shows the what and the where as to the "flight to Suburbia" which is on all across the Conference area. From this and other studies it is evident that the church extension program should contemplate the organization of a total of 200 new churches by the year 1965.

Under the heading, "The duties of a district superintendent," Discipline, 1952, 362 (15), the following is noted: "To promote all the interests of the Church within the bounds of his district, in co-operation with the pastors and the quarterly conferences, giving particular attention to the following: . . . (c) Establishment of new preaching places and organization of new congregations wherever needed."

B

The United States Census of Population divides the population into three categories: urban, rural-farm, and rural-nonfarm.

In the North Carolina Conference area the (white) rural-nonfarm category is the largest and fastest growing. About 100 newly organized churches will be needed within the next few years to serve the people reflected in this census category. Many of these new churches could be based on needed relocations.

The state of North Carolina has recently completed a county paving program which is without parallel in the South. In eastern North Carolina more new homes are being built on the county roads and state highways than in the urban areas.

Church extension in the rural areas of the North Carolina Conference is highly important, not only because of population shift to and growth in these areas, but also because many thousands of the town and city dwellers of the future will have been born and reared in rural areas. The future of North Carolina Conference Methodism lies in the rural Sunday schools to a very considerable degree.

The Annual Conference, and the Board of Missions, are respectfully requested to give top priority to rural church extension during the new quadrennium, and adoption of this report records concurrence with such a policy and proposed procedure.

C

The recent research in the field of membership and evangelism in the Annual Conference, by Bishop Paul N. Garber, is now a matter of general information and concern. The problem revealed by Bishop Garber's research has many root causes. A major root cause is the fact that 233 or more of the rural (root) churches are in one stage or another of decline, and of these 25 or more are at the point of closing.

Country Church Ladder, 1956, Tyson, gives chart and documentation with regard to 542 circuit churches studied, classifying individual churches as to whether growing, stagnant, or in decline.

The Annual Conference and the several agencies are requested to give immediate attention to the problem of declining rural churches, looking to an analysis and progressive solution of this particular root cause of low annual net increase of membership.

A careful case study should be done for each of the declining churches, beginning at the bottom of the "Ladder" and working up, with a view to finding a solution in each case.

D

The district superintendents recently made a survey to discover how many one-room churches there are in the Conference. Reports came from eight districts giving a total of 2, with an average per district of 11.5. Based on the average, the Conference total one-room churches would be 103.5. These churches are just one step from the brush arbor, and from the standpoint of present day procedures as to Christian education, are very inefficient and ineffective.

This survey also considered the number of "Churches of more than one-room, but having less than five class rooms." The reported total of these churches, for eight districts, is 150.

It is probable that many of the one-room and near one-room churches are among the 233 declining churches mentioned in section C of this report.

The Annual Conference and the several agencies are requested to give prompt and constructive attention to this problem of the one-room and near one-room church, which is probably a part of the cause of the declining church problem.

Report N. 3

CHURCH EXTENSION RESEARCH, PLANNING, AND SURVEY COMMITTEE

Because of the fact that the rural church is so involved, potentially, in the church extension enterprise, the following report is presented by the Commission on Town and Country Work.

Competent sociological studies indicate that the population of North Carolina will double between the years 1950 and 2003. Progressive change is being accelerated by many new dynamics operating in the state. Eastern North Carolina is again the frontier of the state. Competent research, wise planning, and careful survey are necessary if the Methodist Church is to expand rapidly, wisely, and adequately in the North Carolina Conference area.

The 1953 Journal, p. 19, lists the "Conference Church Extension Survey Committee." The request is hereby made that the committee be continued as a conference quadrennial committee, and that the name be changed to—"Church Extension Research, Planning, and Survey Committee."

Further, it is requested that the Conference continue the annual appropriations to this committee in the present amount or more as needed.

Further, that the nature of the work of the committee be that as described by the proposed new name, that is, to chart the course of church extension, both extensively and locally, in a scholarly and efficient manner.

Further, that this committee would employ such full-time personnel as needed, and provide the necessary facilities for effective work. The nature of the work of the principal person employed would be similar to that of the city planner as used by many of the larger cities.

Further, it would be the work of the principal person employed to conduct in a constant, creative, and effective manner, a conference-wide enterprise of information and selling as to church extension needs and opportunities.

Further, that this committee would co-operate closely and constantly with the Conference Board of Missions and all other conference agencies.

In order to acquire current information on economic and sociological trends and developments, that the church extension enterprise be charted wisely and well, the committee would enlist the co-operation of all organizations and agencies having such information available. Among such agencies are: North Carolina State Department of Conservation and Development; North Carolina State Highway and Public Works Commission; Chambers of Commerce; Ormond Fund of Duke University; Department of Rural Sociology of North Carolina State College; Federal agencies.

Report No. 4

GROUP MINISTRY

Provision for group ministry procedure is given in Discipline, 1952, 362 (15i), under the heading of "The duties of a district superintendent," and in the Discipline of 1956.

The Group Ministry is the Methodist connectional system carried down to the grass roots level of work, and is thereby a cell approach. Also, it is a sell approach as it uses a methodology of consultation and cultivation, rather than compulsion.

The need for this co-operative and up-from-the-roots procedure in this Annual Conference is made evident by the low annual net increase in church membership in the Conference, the large annual net increase in white population in the Conference area, the very considerable population shift process, and the rapidity of general sociological change.

The administrative unit for this work shall be defined as each of the 56 counties within the bounds of the Annual Conference.

The bishop, and the district superintendents, are respectfully requested to arrange district lines as to correspond with county lines.

Hereafter, as the "Conference Master-plan of Circuits and Stations" (Journal, 1954, pp. 152-3), is progressively executed, each circuit shall be completely within a given county, and where possible within a given high school district.

The members of each county group ministry shall be the district superintendent, pastors, and charge lay leaders, serving all churches within a given county. To these may be added such persons as may seem wise in each case. The group as constituted shall be called the County Council. The chairman of the group should be a competent leader. The Group Ministry, a pamphlet available from the Division of National Missions of The Methodist Church may be used in general as a guide for organization and procedure.

It shall be the duty of each county group ministry to assume responsibility for the advancement of the total work of The Methodist Church over the entire county. Thus, neglected areas of work would receive constructive attention, and the "no man's land" pockets between charges would be eliminated. Also, it shall be the work of each county group ministry to employ, supervise the work of, secure finances for, and provide necessary facilities for, one or more properly trained full-time Directors of Christian Education for each county, or practicable combination of counties.

The immediate and specific work of each county group ministry would be to deal creatively with the areas of greatest deficiency and need in conference life and work, included in which are:

- (1) Renewal of Wesleyan evangelistic spirit
- (2) Long-range planning on the county and local level (Journal, 1954, p. 155 (V))
- (3) New church extension
- (4) Logical division of circuits, in accord with "Conference Master-Plan of Circuits and Stations" (Journal, 1954, pp 152-3)
- (5) Develop declining churches
- (6) Improve one-room and near one-room churches
- (7) Relocation of churches needing such
- (8) Locate and reopen closed churches (Discipline, 1952, 362 (11))
- (9) Develop the strategically important small rural Sunday schools
- (10) Reach unchurched children and youths

Available aids to the work of a county group ministry include: the newly revised county maps which may be secured from the North Carolina State Highway and Public Works Commission; Look at the People, 1955, Chambers, a book sent to boards, and district superintendents, and to be sent to the pastors, giving a statistical analysis of the population resources in each county in the Conference; 1950 United States Census of Population, P-A33, North Carolina, giving the population resources of each township available from the Conference Secretary of Town and Country Work; Frontier Again 1954, Walston and Nickens, a booklet in general circulation dealing with certain sociological and economic factors in the North Carolina Conference area as pertaining to the expansion of The Methodist Church; Country Church Ladder, 1956, Tyson, chart an encouragement, showing the individual country churches which are growing and those that decline, available from the district superintendents; Look at the Roots, 1955, Taylor, a booklet giving an analysis of the nature of the rural church problem in the North Carolina Conference, available from the Conference Secretary of Town and Country

Work; Working Together—The Group Ministry, a color film strip available from the Methodist Publishing House, showing the group ministry at work.

Report No. 5

IMPLEMENTATION OF "CONFERENCE MASTER-PLAN OF CIRCUITS AND STATIONS"

The proposal that the Conference progressively develop a "Conference Master-Plan of Circuits and Stations" was approved by the Annual Conference of 1954, and is recorded in the Journal of that year on pages 152-3. It is recommended that this action of the Conference be implemented as follows:

1. That there be formed a quadrennial "Annual Conference Committee on Master-Plan of Circuits and Stations," consisting of the Bishop, District Superintendents, Conference Lay Leader, District Lay Leaders, Conference Secretary of Town and Country Work, and the District Secretaries of Town and Country Work. This committee would be organized by the Bishop and cabinet.

2. That there be formed in each district a quadrennial "District Committee on Master-Plan of Circuits and Stations," consisting of the District Superintendent, District Lay Leader, District Secretary of Town and Country Work, plus two other pastors and two other laymen. Members of this committee would be representative of the several geographical areas of the district. The district committees would be established by the conference committee.

3. The "County Group Ministry" is provided for in Commission on Town and Country Work report No. 4, 1956. One of its functions would be to implement on the county level, the work of the "District Committee on Master-Plan of Circuits and Stations."

4. That the conference committee meet at a time suitable to the Bishop following the session of the Annual Conference, to begin work on a layout of a "Conference Master-Plan of Circuits and Stations."

5. That additional meetings of the conference committee be held as needed.

6. That the conference committee hand down to the district committees the responsibility of studying such cases as may be indicated, in co-operation with the respective County Group Ministries.

7. That circuit divisions be approved by the Bishop, (Discipline, 1952, 433 (1)), by the District Superintendents, and by the County Group Ministries.

8. That in determination of circuit divisions, procedure shall be in accord with the paper, "Conference Master-Plan of Circuits and Stations" (Journal, 1954, pp 152-3).

9. Essential expenses involved by the district committees in surveying and traveling would be paid by the Commission on Town and Country Work.

Report No. 6

ROCKY MOUNT COLLEGE DEPARTMENT OF TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

It is evident that the church college is in a position to render more effectively certain needed services to the rural churches, than is any other agency.

In accord with policy of the Division of National Missions of The Methodist Church, and in accord with a trend in Methodist colleges across the nation, request is hereby made that there be established in the newly authorized college at Rocky Mount, a Department of Town and Country Work. This would be a department of the college and under college administration.

The Department of Town and Country Work should have sufficient personnel to render to the Conference needed services which would include at least the following:

1. Provide college training, and counseling, for supply pastors.

2. Provide proper training for lay preachers, perhaps utilizing in this regard some of the ideas and procedures in use by the Methodist Church in England.

3. Provide in-service training institutes on creative parish craftsmanship for all rural pastors. The curriculum would be designed to meet the basic and varied needs of rural pastors for training.

4. Provide local church development revivals, designed to meet the specific needs of the individual rural church. The design of each local church development revival would grow out of the pastor's participation in the in-service training institutes on creative parish craftsmanship.

5. Provide consultation program with ministerial students, and pastors, in the interest of enlistment for lifetime rural ministry.
6. Establish, equip, and operate an office for rural research. The research work should be of a practical nature rather than a technical nature.
7. Conduct spiritual life missions, prayer missions, and stewardship missions in the rural churches, utilizing college students in this ministry where and when practicable.

x x x

The Rocky Mount college is requested, to provide proper training for rural deaconesses, and directors of Christian education who would serve county-wide areas. Also, the college is requested to offer the M.A. degree in religion, and in religious education.

Report No. 7 MISCELLANEOUS

1. The newly constituted Commission on Town and Country Work is requested to appoint district secretaries on Town and Country Work, and the district superintendents are requested to include these on the district staffs.
2. Recent research reveals that the average pastoral tenure on circuits in the Conference is only 2.47 years. This is one of the basic reasons for rural church weakness. The district superintendents are requested to give thought and attention to this problem that the average pastoral tenure on circuits may be increased to at least 4 years.
3. The attention of the district superintendents is called to Discipline, 1952, 362 (7) which has to do with deeds for church property.
4. Appreciation is hereby expressed to the Conference Board of Lay Activities for providing the "No Silent Pulpit" program. It is requested that this program be continued, and with an adequate training program for the lay preachers.
- The Conference Board of Evangelism is respectfully requested to give creative thought and leadership with regard to the obviously needed renewal of Wesleyan evangelistic spirit in the life and work of the Conference.
6. In accord with paragraph 1231 (4) in the 1952 Discipline the Commission on Town and Country Work nominates Ralph Epps for office of Conference Secretary of Town and Country Work.
7. The Annual Conference is hereby requested to continue the Long-Range Planning Committee as a Conference quadrennial committee, under the terms of the establishing resolution as found in Journal, 1952, p. 147, paragraph 16.
8. The Annual Conference is requested to give consideration to ways and means of establishing a much needed information, publicity, and public relations service.
9. The newly constituted Commission on Town and Country Work is requested to consider the advisability of asking the Conference for an administrative official for Town and Country Work.
10. In the population shift process, some of our churches are being surrounded by Negro residents. The Annual Conference is requested to adopt a policy and procedure which, when advisable and acceptable, will transfer by sale or gift church property thus involved to the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Central Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church.
11. The several agents and agencies of the Annual Conference have records which are valuable and should be permanently preserved. The 1952 Discipline, in paragraphs 637 and 661, recognizes the importance of an Annual Conference having an archives. The new college at Rocky Mount when established, is requested to provide the proper facilities for a Conference archives, and to provide the necessary secretarial labor to efficiently maintain a filing system.
- All of the agents and agencies of the Annual Conference are requested to deposit annually in the archives records not in current use.
- The secretary of the Annual Conference shall be the official custodian of the Conference archives, and shall have authority to decide which records have value for permanent keeping.

Report No. 8
MINIMUM SALARY

The Commission looks back upon the last thirteen years during which the Minimum Salary Fund has been in operation and recognizes that giant strides have been made in providing more nearly adequate support for our ministry. The top bracket of the minimum salary schedule has increased 140% since the beginning of operations in 1942, from $1,500 to $3,600. We are of the opinion that raising of the schedule has had the effect of raising pastoral salaries in general, as well as other salutary effects.

The Commission, however, feels that the time has come when the Minimum Salary Schedule should be stabilized, not in terms of any static and unrealistic numerical figure, which might very quickly cease to reflect the cost of living in a rapidly changing economy, but in terms of some stated principle which will guide the conference in determining what the schedule should be.

In the year of 1955-1956 the minimum salary paid married pastors with one or more dependent children was approximately $460.00 below the average salary paid by all charges being served by full-time pastors, except church extension projects founded in the 8-year period preceding the current year.

We recommend, therefore, that the conference adopt the principle of making the minimum salary paid to:

(1) All married full-time pastors with one or more dependent children $300 less than the average of all salaries and travel and expense funds paid by all charges the previous year to full-time pastors under episcopal appointment, except church extension projects founded in the eight-year period preceding the annual conference at which the minimum salary schedule shall be calculated.

(2) All married full-time pastors with no dependent children $300 less than pastors described in the above point 1;

(3) And all unmarried full-time pastors $300 less than pastors described in the above point 2.

This principle is to be put into effect beginning with the conference year of 1957-1958. If this principle were to go into effect in the conference year of 1956-1957, the minimum salary in all brackets would increase by approximately $160.00. It is the opinion of the Commission that pastors receiving minimum salary aid can help increase the standard minimum salary schedule under the operation of this principle by encouraging their charges to increase the amount paid on pastors' salaries, thus raising the average salary throughout the conference.

In making these recommendations the Commission is motivated by the desire to stabilize the Minimum Salary Schedule with a principle that will gear the schedule in with the general economy of the Conference in such a way that it will automatically rise when pastors' salaries in general rise. There will be no more great increase such as characterized the past history of the schedule, but there will be an advantage in that increases will no longer be a matter of caprice but of principle. The adoption of this principle means settling down for the long pull, making the gains of the past stick in the long term future of our conference.

COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE ¶791

Report No. 1

The dominant theme of our meeting on December 13, 1955, was the New Financial Plan, "As Much for Others As for Ourselves." Discussion centered around the need for a workable method for presenting the plan to the charges of the Conference with reasonable uniformity in the several districts.

The decision was made that it would be necessary for the district superintendents to present the needs of the Annual Conference and World Methodism and guide pastors and members of official boards in acceptance of apportionments, askings and specials. This was thought to be in keeping with Section 1 of the plan as adopted:

"That all benevolences, as hereinafter defined be placed on the same basis as has been the case with World Service, the amount for which each charge is obligated to be determined by its acceptance at the beginning of each conference year."

However, in setting up the plan to go into effect next conference year, it becomes necessary that each charge determine at its fourth quarterly conference for this year what is to be its acceptance for next year.

The Conference Commission on World Service and Finance presents this recommendation:

"Some charges have already attained this objective; 'AS MUCH FOR OTHERS AS FOR OURSELVES.' Some can readily reach the objective in the first year; others will need two years, some three years. We recommend that all endeavor to reach the goal in four years."

Attainment of the goal should not mean that a church would stop progress at that point. True spiritual growth will continue to be reflected in what we do FOR OTHERS.

In order to meet the basic needs of the Conference, it will be necessary for the charges to accept a minimum 10% increase for combined Benevolences over the total amount for the similar items this year. Increased Church Extension and other items of needed expansion of the Conference program will depend on the Total Acceptances for BENEVOLENCES to be reported at Annual Conference.

"Total Money" figure. The base is the 1955 Journal. From Table 2A take Charge totals shown in Columns 44, 45, 47 then add Total Apportionments from Table 2B. The total of these four items add $\frac{1}{2}$ of the total so as to adjust to 12-month year and the result is the Charge "total money" figure. Adjustments for errors in facts may be made on concurrence of the District Superintendent and the Conference Treasurer. The "total money" figure for the Annual Conference under the above formula would be \$3,677.37.

LIMITING AND SUPPLEMENTING PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE BUDGET

1. In conformity with the New Financial Plan as adopted by the Annual Conference, items for Connectional Expense as listed under Fund 1 through Fund 5 continue as apportionments as indicated.

2. Apportionments against pastor's salary are defined to include the salary of the pastor and associate pastor under Episcopal appointment.

3. (a) The annual salary of each of the nine district superintendents shall be set at $7,500, including travel.

(b) We recommend the custom already established in most districts in providing from the district treasury a fund for office expense for the District Superintendent not to exceed $600 annually.

4. The total funds received from the acceptances for the combined BENEVOLENCES shall be distributed as provided in the plan: "Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from acceptances up to the amount fixed in the budget. Any surplus shall be held by the Conference Treasurer to be expended by the Annual Conference upon recommendation of the Commission."

5. Under the Church Extension Fund the first $25,000 is earmarked to be paid to Board of Missions, Inc., for the revolving loan fund.

6. Fund for Conference Youth Camps. The Trustees may use not more than $2,500 for administrative purposes.

7. The district superintendents will establish suitable apportionments for new churches, and adjust apportionments where other charge changes occur; provided that beginning with the conference year 1955-56 where circuits are divided any churches involved in the division that must receive minimum salary, may upon the consent of the district superintendent, pay their proportionate share of the former items based on pastoral support and total money raised, plus an additional 20% of this amount. This shall be increased by at least 20% of the original base annually until they achieve the then current base of established charges, in a period not to exceed four years.

8. Since there is a growing practice on the part of official boards to adopt prior to Annual Conference budgets for the ensuing year and to consider them closed therefore, we direct by the Annual Conference that such adoption of budgets prior to Annual Conference shall be subject to being reopened after the ensuing Annual Conference for consideration of new or increased askings.

The Commission recommend approval of the following SPECIALS to be arranged by Special Offerings or included in the budget.

Advance Special General

Advance Special Conference

Church School Rally Day (the goal being an amount equal to 1% of the pastor's salary) for leadership training.

Fellowship of Suffering & Service (World Wide Communion)

Race Relations Sunday (Paine College)

Week of Dedication

Methodist Retirement Homes Special (Mothers' Day)

Methodist Student Day

The Television Ministry of the Methodist Church

We recommend approval of the requests of the following agencies for the privilege soliciting funds throughout the Conference:

1. Wesley Foundation Commission for special gifts for the benefit of special works in supported institutions.

2. Inter-Conference Commission on Student Religious Work for Wesley Foundation facilities and buildings at Fairmont, Raleigh, and College Place, Greensboro; also Methodist Student Center at Duke University.

3. The Board of Directors for Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., for the new Methodist Retirement Home in Durham. Such gifts may be reported by pastors in column "Vouchers for Direct Gifts—Conference."

4. The Board of Missions for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club.

5. We recommend that the program of the Methodist College Foundation of North Carolina, Inc., have the hearty support of the Conference, and that the purposes and actions of the Foundation as outlined therein be approved.

6. We recommend the effort of the Radio and Film Commission to support the work of the Methodist Television Ministry by special offering.

7. That the Board of Education be permitted to accept funds donated by children's groups, young adult groups, individuals, etc., to begin an additional Camp for our Conference.

We recommend that the conference fiscal year be designated to begin July 1st and to close June 30th.

We recommend to charge our church treasurers that they set up a schedule for remitting at a fixed time each month and to close the year as early as possible. Final remittances should be mailed on Monday two weeks preceding the opening of Conference.

We report the issuance of a Fidelity Bond to cover the Conference Treasurer in the amount of $100,000 and to cover the Stenographer-Clerk in the amount of $25,000.

Report No. 2

RE: METHODIST FUND, INCORPORATED

The Annual Conference of June 1955 authorized the Commission on World Service and Finance to set up an investment committee, see Journal page 161 (our report No. 2). This was done. We then were faced with making a decision in the holding of certificates of stock and the transfer of same in the event of sale. We discovered that the Discipline ¶1612 recommends the formation of a corporation for the handling of permanent funds and we procured a charter for Methodist Fund, Incorporated.

The fund has broad powers for the handling of all types of securities, real estate, et cetera and to manage same. The corporation is a non-profit religious organization and all income must be distributed "as the annual conference shall from time to time direct." Methodist Fund, Incorporated, may receive funds or property for the use, benefit, or account of any Board, Committee, Commission, Quarterly Conference, Corporation or other body, such Board, Committee, Commission, Quarterly Conference, Corporation or such other body being subsidiary to or an agency of and owned by the North Carolina Annual Conference (Southeastern Jurisdiction) of the Methodist Church, and all accretions and capital gains thereto and income thereon shall be applied exclusively, subject to lawful directions of the said North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, to such Board, Committee, Commission, Quarterly Conference, Corporation or other body.

The corporation is under the control of the Annual Conference which may dissolve the corporation if it so desires.

The incorporating members of the corporation in alphabetical order are the following: namely: Marvin J. Cowell, J. M. Dozier, J. E. Garlington, Gurney P. Hood, Charles S. Hubbard, J. H. Waldrop. They will hold office until their successors shall be elected.

"Members of this corporation shall be, until and unless the North Carolina Annual Conference (Southeastern Jurisdiction) of the Methodist Church otherwise directs:

(a) That person holding the office of treasurer of the North Carolina Annual Conference (Southeastern Jurisdiction) of the Methodist Church.

(b) One member elected by the Board of Conference Claimants of said North Carolina Annual Conference;

(c) One member elected by the Board of Missions of said North Carolina Annual Conference;

(d) Three members elected by the Commission on World Service and Finance of said North Carolina Annual Conference.

Vacancies occurring in the membership shall be filled by the membership by majority vote.

Membership shall expire as soon after the quadrennial meeting of said North Carolina Annual Conference as a successor has been elected, except members elected by the membership on the happening of a vacancy shall expire upon the election of a successor, which may be done at the next regular meeting of the Board or Commission charged with the election of such member.

The North Carolina Annual Conference (Southeastern Jurisdiction) may provide other and different qualifications for membership in this Corporation. (In compliance with a request from the floor of the Conference, the Certificate of Incorporation of Methodist Fund, Incorporated, was read in detail. A copy of the charter may be had on request to the Secretary of Methodist Fund, Incorporated.) We present, with measure of pride, the financial report of Methodist Fund, Incorporated, which will be found elsewhere in the treasurer's reports.

We respectfully ask Conference approval and acceptance of the charter of the Corporation.

By reason of experience gained in the past year, we now ask that the Conference authorize the directors of Methodist Fund, Incorporated, to act concurrently as the investment committee for funds handled by the central treasury and that restrictions applying to types of investments or securities in which funds of central treasury may be placed shall be only those set by the investment committee for central treasury funds. We ask this authority for the reason that flexibility is a big factor in the making of investments and in shifting from one type to another at times.

We recommend that there be no distribution of income of Methodist Fund, Incorporated, at this time, rather that it remain for the creation of a reserve for possible depreciation of securities.

We also propose that the Annual Conference direct, as authorized by the charter of Methodist Fund, Incorporated, that the number of members be increased from six to seven and to include one member elected by the Conference Board of Trustees.

We also report for the record the change of name of the Board of Conference Claimants as it appears in the charter to read Conference Board of Pensions. In compliance with a request from the floor of the Conference, the Certificate of Incorporation of Methodist Fund, Incorporated, was read in detail. A copy of the Charter may be had on request to the Secretary of Methodist Fund, Incorporated.

An amendment to Report No. 2, Commission on World Service and Finance offered by Drury W. Wall to require Methodist Fund, Incorporated, to dispose of its tobacco stocks was accepted by the Committee and became part of the report.

Respectfully submitted,

Report No. 3

Latest figures on our new financial plan "As Much for Others as for Ourselves" indicate acceptance by charges in amount of $943,111 for combined benevolences which include World Service and other Conference benevolences. We have just presented in Report No. 1 an amended budget distribution of $926,932. This allows a margin for non-payment of $16,179 or 1.8% safety factor. This reflects need for co-operation on the part of our churches in full payment of these acceptances.

We request approval of supplementary budget items in their respective order: (1) Additional for printing 1955 Conference Journal $1,567.76 (2) Board of Education, Local Church Division, (a) to meet 1955-56 budget commitments $1,875; (b) house furnishings for director of youth and/or adult work $2,500; (c) office equipment $500; (3) Inter-Conference Commission on Student Religious Work, $589.30, to meet 1955-56 deficit; (4) Co-ordinating Council (not included in current budget) $500; (5) Conference printing expense, $254.66; (6) Cost of College Survey which was charged to the account of Long Range Planning Committee $1,269.25; (7) Reserve for payment of three-year premium on a Fidelity Bond due November, 1956 (estimated), $900; (8) Conference entertainment, the excess above apportionment $00; (9) Town and Country Commission $5,000; (10) To be paid from District Superintendents Fund to Mr. M. O. Fletcher for service in Elizabeth City District, $750.

We recommend that A. M. Pullen and Company be retained to audit the accounts of the office of the conference treasurer.

We nominate to be continued in the office conference treasurer, Marvin J. Cowell.

We elect three members to the Methodist Fund, Inc., to represent the Commission on World Service and Finance; Gurney P. Hood, J. Herbert Waldrop and Charles S. Hubbard, and request approval.

We recommend that Louisburg College be included in the forthcoming campaign for capital funds for colleges in the amount of $450,000 to be conditioned upon their fulfillment of a community commitment of (a) $50,000 for renovation of the Davis Building; (b) provision of $10,000 annual continuing support to the college; (c) upon their securing a government loan to build a new cafeteria; (d) that they set aside in the Methodist Fund, Incorporated, from the $450,00 capital funds a sufficient amount for the income to retire the government obligation, after allowing for the income for the cafeteria; (e) remainder may be used for capital expenditures at the discretion of the Board of Trustees.

We approve the request of the Board of Missions for the endorsement in principle of their request for authority to negotiate details of a proposal to set up a fund in the total amount of $200,000 to stand as a guarantee against default of local churches in mortgage loans to a total of $1,000,000 or five times the guarantee fund.

We recommend that the Conference authorize the Commission on World Service and Finance to appropriate from the Conference reserve fund, from year to year, to the guarantee fund when established, amounts in their discretion which will not reduce the reserve fund below $15,000 and the annual appropriations not to exceed $40,000 after provision has been made for all other appropriations.

Resolution of Appreciation of the Faithful Service of

on the Commission on World Service and Finance

At the 1931 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference which met in Greenville, Gurney P. Hood was made a member of the Commission on Budget, now known as the Commission on World Service and Finance. For twenty-five years he has rendered most faithful and effective service in all areas of finance in our Conference. Since 1944 he has served as Chairman of the Commission on World Service and Finance.

He has given courageous and constructive leadership in all phases of the financial program of our Conference. During these twenty-five years the total sum of money raised for all causes in our Conference has increased from $1,126,994 to more than $7,000,000. He has been in the foreground of every movement of advance and progress. The causes of Christian Education, Homes for Children and the Aged, Minimum Salary and every other area of financial support have been greatly strengthened by his perseverance and fidelity.

This Conference owes a real debt of gratitude to Mr. Hood for his large labors of love and his unfailing interest in all causes that have made our Conference great in its labors to extend the Kingdom of our Lord.

After twenty-five years of continuous service of heart interest and devotion, in the same church in which he was placed on this Commission, he now retires from membership on the Commission under the provision of a Resolution of Rotation adopted by the North Carolina Annual Conference in 1952. This Conference desires to express to Brother Hood our deep gratitude for the constancy of his vision, faithfulness of his service, and the numerous contributions that he has made in the total program of our Conference.

Brother Hood, we assure you of our continuing love and gratitude, and express the hope that you will have many more years in which to live and labor and love.

Quadrennial Committee Reports

THE ADVANCE COMMITTEE

We close this conference year with deep gratitude for the fine progress made in every phase of Advance Specials. For the excellent leadership of Presiding Bishop Paul N. Garber, the nine district superintendents, boards of our conference, the pastors, and members of all of our charges, your Advance Committee is most grateful.

It is not possible to give in detail all items which are included in Advance or Mission Specials. The money contributed to some of these such as, The Week of Dedication, Fellowship of Suffering and Service, Overseas Relief, Race Relations, are shown in their proper places by our conference treasurer. I do think, however, it will be of great interest to highlight in this report the truly great progress made this year in the following four phases of Specials:

1. In General Advance Specials, according to the reports from our district superintendents, we have contributed a total of $53,428.

2. Conference Specials have been most encouraging. Approximately $72,000 has been raised for the different projects that are included in this group.

3. The general appeal for building a Methodist College in Alaska has been excellent. Every district and almost every church has come forward with substantial sums of money for this project. To date for this year this item totals $10,501.

4. The Ten Dollar Club, promoted especially by the Board of Missions through its Executive Secretary, Rev. Tom Collins, reports that there are now 4,930 active members. If each of the three calls are met by these members for this year now ending, we will be able to contribute to the building of new Methodist churches in our own conference the magnificent sum of nearly one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Respectfully submitted,

COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE CALENDAR

The purpose of the Conference Calendar Committee is to assemble the dates of all the important events, emphases, and programs of the several boards and agencies of the North Carolina Conference and to incorporate these dates in a calendar to be prepared for distribution to the pastors and to each local church.

We are requesting the co-operation of all the boards, committees, commissions, agencies, and organizations of the conference in securing the information needed for the 1956-1957 calendar.

The committee plans to have the calendar published and ready to be distributed at the District Set-Up meetings. In order for us to meet this schedule, it will be necessary for this information to be in the hands of the committee immediately.

COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT

At the 1955 session of our North Carolina Annual Conference, held in Fayetteville, our program was so crowded that we did not take the time to hear invitations for the session for 1956. Within a short time, however, the loyal Methodists of Jarvis Memorial and other Greenville churches saw the opportunity, and extended to us a most gracious welcome. So here we are—by the grace of God. For the hospitality extended by these our Christian friends, and the friendly co-operation of East Carolina College, we are most grateful.

We continue to anticipate the day when conference entertainment will be offered in more of our cities. Perhaps we may soon be in position to consider invitations from our Fayetteville and Rocky Mount colleges. Meantime, we are ready to accept invitations from some of our great churches which could profit immensely by providing entertainment. MAY WE COME TO YOUR CHURCH IN 1957?

BOARD OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC RELATIONS ¶1559

The North Carolina Conference Board of Social and Economic Relations completes, at this Conference, the first quadrennium of work. The new quadrennium will usher in many opportunities for service to our Conference in social and economic areas.

The Conference Board is recommending for next conference year, where possible, Social Action Committee be set up in the local church for leading in study and action projects in social and economic problems. The Board recommends the study text, "The Modern Samaritan," as one source book to be used in the local church. Order copies from the General Board of Social and Economic Relations, 740 Rush Street, Chicago 11, Illinois, at 35¢ per copy.

Our Board congratulates the General Conference of 1956 for the Amendment to the Constitution of The Methodist Church which we feel is the proper Christian approach for The Methodist Church to take in our day in the area of race relations. It is the request of our Board that our bishop prepare a digest of this Amendment in the form of a pamphlet, and the same be distributed throughout every church in our Conference.

COMMISSION ON RADIO AND FILM WORK ¶1591

The goal of all of our endeavors in the Church is to reach more persons with the Christian message. We want to help them become more effective Christians. Whatever our leadership responsibility may be, we are directing our efforts toward a more adequate church program. We may be primarily interested in education, evangelism, or missions, but our chief concern is to reach more persons more effectively.

In our generation we have witnessed a miracle. People in places of authority have literally changed the philosophy, outlook and response of an entire nation to accomplish their own purposes—sometimes high and beautiful, other times low and ruthless. They have made full use of two new tools of communication—the radio and motion picture and many other audio-visual media.

The evidence is clear and unmistakable, and means one thing to us in the Church: if we want to move toward a more adequate church program, we must of necessity achieve an understanding skill in the use of audio-visual resources. We need to harness every tool that makes for quicker and more permanent learning.

To help meet this demand the Commission on Radio and Film Work has in the past year attempted to broaden its activities in the field of its responsibility.

At the last Annual Conference the report of this commission was approved whereunder the Boards of Managers of Christian Workers' Schools throughout the Conference were invited to let the Commission share in the expense of including a course on the use of Audio-Visuals in the curricula. Several schools have accepted the invitation, and we look forward to the time when many of our church workers will be better trained to use this media which is such a force in directing the minds of men. We recommend that this policy be continued in the 1956-57 year.

Also, during the past year a Conference Filmstrip Library has been organized. From this library any church, or any church worker, may secure a filmstrip, or filmstrips which may be used as a teaching or worship aid in any phase of the total church program. Such filmstrips (or slide sets) may be rented from the commission at a nominal fee that pays only the cost of administration of the program. Thus, the necessity on the part of the church to purchase all filmstrips used in its program is obviated. The utilization of the Filmstrip Library has grown in a phenomenal way. We recommend that this program be continued and expanded through the next conference year.

The television series, "The Way," has received the support of the commission and conference during the past year in the amount of well over $2,200. It has been promoted to the extent that "The Way" has been televised by at least four of the major TV stations serving the members of our conference. We recommend that the pastors of our conference promote the series in every way possible amongst the members of their various congregations. A Pastor's Workbook for the local use of "The Way" has been sent to each pastor. Others may be secured from The Central Office of Promotion, Chicago, Illinois.

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS ¶643

In preparation of the final report for this quadrennium our Commission on Christian Vocations believes that the program is now well established in our North Carolina Conference.

Several conferences have been held with emphasis on the philosophy of our Christian vocation, with special emphasis on recruitment and commitment to church related vocations. This program has been emphasized in subdistrict, district, and conference youth meetings, assemblies, and annual conferences. During the past conference year the emphasis has been on the district level, with district conferences held in the Burlington, Raleigh, and Wilmington districts. The results have been most encouraging and gratifying. The Raleigh district conference included a class for pastors and adult counsellors taught by Dr. B. G. Childs of Duke University. In the Wilmington district conference there were twenty-five commitments to full-time Christian service. Decisions were made by some for the first time to attend college. Some youth rallies were given over entirely to emphasis on church related vocations.

Our first vocations conference for college students was held at Chapel Hill under the direction of the Reverend J. Robert Regan, Jr., State Director of Student Work. The interest in this conference was so great that those attending requested that similar conferences be held every other year.

Our commission has received excellent co-operation from Mrs. H. R. Odom, secretary of missionary personnel and the district missionary personnel secretaries of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Through these secretaries, copies of Methodist Service Projects, 1956 have been distributed to each high school in our conference. The Reverend Herman Winberry, Conference Director of Youth Work, has set up a central file on church vocations prospects in our board of education office. The directors of youth work have co-operated in high-lighting Christian vocations throughout the Conference.

Our commission makes the following recommendations for the next conference year:

(1) That each pastor see that there is a committee on Christian vocations in each local church in his charge and that literature be provided by the church for this committee.

(2) That each pastor contact the local high school principal in his community and offer his assistance in arranging career day programs for juniors and seniors in which the filmstrip on Christian vocations and Protestant church opportunities would be presented.

(3) That the Radio and Film Commission of our Conference purchase the filmstrips listed on pp. 66-67 Methodist Service Projects, 1956, so they will be more readily available for use in meetings on vocational recruitment and guidance.

(4) That each district director set up a cumulative record system using form 3207-c and "Basic Information Record Blank" 3208-c on all youth in his district who have expressed an interest in a church vocation.

(5) That each district superintendent call together, early in the conference year, the following members of his staff to make plans for promoting Christian vocations in his district, the director of youth work, secretary of missionary personnel of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the director of Christian vocations.

It is further recommended that this committee give attention to setting up the cumulative record system referred to in number 4 above. Also, that this committee work with the conference director of youth work and the state director of Methodist student work in securing information on college students who are preparing for church-related vocations.

We recommend that conferences for young adults who express an interest in church vocations be held at some time during this quadrennium and that a specialized conference on the ministry also be held during the quadrennium.

We further recommend that an institute for pastors and other adult counselors of youth be conducted in each district by Dr. Richard G. Belcher, Executive Secretary of the Interboard Committee on Christian Vocations, Nashville, Tennessee.

A conference on Christian vocations for the entire conference will be held in Steele Street Methodist Church in Sanford on March 1, 2, 3, 1957.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the wonderful co-operation given the commission by our bishop, our district superintendents, our conference board of education, our Woman's Society of Christian Service, district directors of youth work, district directors of Christian vocations, and our state director of student work.

Respectfully submitted,
GRAHAM S. EUBANK, Chairman
J. C. P. BROWN, Secretary

COMMITTEE ON WORLD PEACE ¶1551

We rejoice and give thanks to Almighty God that the nations of the world are "living in peace" one with another at the present time. It encourages us to believe more strongly that the Spirit of "The Prince of Peace" is moving through the nations of the earth, and that the leaders of the nations are gathering inspiration from the teachings of our Lord Jesus Christ. The prayers of devout people all over the earth are being answered. Mankind is slowly learning that the road to happiness and economic betterment is "The Way of Christ." Students and visitors from other countries, studying and visiting in the United States, are beginning to catch our "Peace Loving Point of View." Gradually the world is awakening to the fact that the alternative to atomic and hydrogen war is brotherhood as conceived in the mind of Christ, and taught by His Church. With such instruments of destruction as now possessed by at least one other nation, and this nation, it is unthinkable that national leaders of any country, or countries, will again lead the world to war.

We commend the Secretary General of the United Nations, Mr. Daj Hammarskjold, for the splendid work he has done in the Near East in bringing those nations together in a cease-fire agreement. We urge the United Nations, and our government, to give full support.

We believe with Dr. Charles F. Boss, Jr., executive secretary of The Methodist Board of World Peace, that five chief objectives must be reached if disarmament is to be genuine, universal and permanent.

First: Man needs to develop and define universal, mutual goals which can be clearly recognized and agreed upon as those which men everywhere are striving to achieve.

Second: The will, the determination to adhere to peaceful methods of effecting economic, social, and political change is the only way in which the values and goals, which man has defined as universal, can be reached. War will fail in achieving even these goals and the security and welfare of a militarily victorious nation.

Third: Disarmament requires the establishment of mutual confidence between nations, especially the large nations, and also practical technical steps for the maintenance of mutual confidence. Technical steps must be clearly defined, put into practice, and supervised by international controls as to make them both acceptable and effective.

Fourth: We stress the fact that disarmament must be universal and complete. The renunciation of armament races and of atomic and hydrogen bombs and all forms of international war will require the application of the whole range of peaceful methods and techniques, for creating the conditions which support peace.

Fifth: It is the function of the Church to work with God, the Creator and sustainer of the universe and of society, in the achievement of a warless world, replaced by an international society which, by adherence to the peaceful solutions of difference and disputes may enter, through the use of creative approach, into a progressively changing economic, social, and political order on a world scale.

We are thankful that both individual citizens and the government of our country have seen our responsibility in the field of economic and technical assistance to underdeveloped areas of the world.

We urge our government to channel its assistance through the United Nations International Technical Assistance Program, because when we give aid by ourselves some get the impression that we are trying to "buy" friends and allies, and the recipients of our aid tend to resent us.

We commend the President of the United States for his stand in favor of foreign economic and technical aid, and a copy of this Report should be sent to him.

We recommend:

That the North Carolina Conference send a representative to the World Affairs Institute which will be held at Blue Ridge the latter part of July. Moreover, we request that such a representative confer with the sponsors of the above institute, and assure them of our interest and willingness to co-operate in the cause of World Peace.

We further recommend,

That our Conference go on record as favoring a movement to strengthen the United Nation into a form of world government, with limited, though adequate powers, to make and enforce international laws.

We believe that our ministry and our Methodist Church are instruments in the hands of Almighty God to guide the world toward the goal of international good will. We have accepted the challenge, and to this end we will work and pray with inspired zeal.

J. PAUL EDWARDS, Secretary

The Brotherhood is a group of Methodist ministers and lay people who want to express their sympathy to the bereaved widow of a Methodist preacher in a way that will be of real assistance when it is most needed. Instead of sending telegrams or flowers, gifts of $1 by superannuate ministers and lay people; $3 by pastor members whose salary is under $3,000; $4, if the salary is from $3,000 to $4,000; and $5 if above $4,000. This money is sent by the treasurer as soon as the death is reported to him, and the widow has the needed money to pay funeral expenses even before she receives any money from insurance. This is not an insurance company. It is a fellowship, a brotherhood.

The membership is made up of 52 retired ministers, 229 active ministers, and 229 non-beneficiary members (lay members), a total membership of 510. This means that a widow and family will receive a sum of more than $1,200 upon the death of the husband and father. We are happy to report that during this year we have added many new members, both ministers and laymen.

Article 4 of the Constitution of the Brotherhood states: "Any minister of the North Carolina Conference on Trial or in Full Connection, or any Accepted Supply Pastor doing supply work in the Conference, may become a Beneficiary Member of the Brotherhood by payment of an Initiation Fee of $1, and within 30 days from the date of entrance a Mortuary Assessment of $3, if salary is under $3,000; $4, if salary is from $3,000 to $4,000; and $5, if salary is $4,000 or above. The Mortuary Assessment on any beneficiary member who becomes superannuated shall be $1 per call. Accepted Supply Pastors who have served at least ten years and who cease to travel because of physical disability, or because there is no more work for them, may continue as beneficiary members. Any person or organization may become a non-beneficiary member upon the payment of $1 or more and the promise to pay the specified sum on the death of each beneficiary member thereafter."

We sincerely urge all the ministers who are not members to take advantage of the opportunity to join the Brotherhood before the close of this Annual Conference. We believe all of you will want to share in our Brotherhood. Should all the Methodist preachers and at least 300 lay members join the Brotherhood, approximately $2,400 would go to the widow and family of the deceased.

BOARD OF COLLEGE VISITORS

ANNUAL REPORT

June 25, 1956

During the year the Board has visited Greensboro, High Point, and Louisburg Colleges; and, at the request of the president of Pfeiffer College, has also included that school in its itinerary.

At each of these institutions we find many evidences of progress in terms of improved physical plant, rising enrollment, and good spirit among faculty and students. In its development into a four-year college Pfeiffer seems to be following a well conceived and soundly supported plan. At each of the institutions there is continuing need for improved and expanded physical facilities. We mention especially the need for a gymnasium at Greensboro College to make possible an adequate program of physical education; and a chapel at Louisburg to serve as a center of student religious life.

As the Church undertakes necessary expansion of its facilities for higher education, we believe that two cautions should be carefully observed:

First, to safeguard the stability and effectiveness of established institutions.

Second, since the distinctive contribution of the Church to higher education is in the realm of quality, to preserve a high standard in both academic training and spiritual life.

We recommend that the Board of College Visitors be continued as a part of the conference organization for the quadrennium now opening; and that during this period there be consultation with the Western North Carolina Conference with a view to growing co-operation between the two conferences in providing for the discharge of duties entrusted to this Board.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Minutes, 1955-56 Annual Meeting

The sixty-second annual session of the Historical Society of the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church was held in Hay Street Methodist Church, Fayetteville, Thursday, June 30, 1955, with the Reverend O. L. Hathaway, president, presiding.

The anniversary address, "A Look At Eastern North Carolina Methodism," was given by Bishop W. W. Peele. This address was very informative and inspiring and, by vote of the Conference, was published in the 1955 Conference Journal.

The Reverend Paul Carruth was advanced from first vice-president to president; the Reverend R. E. Walston was advanced from second vice-president to first vice-president; the Reverend H. S. Winberry was advanced from third vice-president to second vice-president; and the Reverend Dwight L. Fouts was elected third vice-president. The Reverend C. D. Barclift was elected secretary.

The literary project of Professor B. G. Childs in writing a brief history of Methodism in North Carolina and an annotation of those parts of "Asbury's Journal" that relate to his travels and labors in this state was endorsed by the Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

C. D. BARCLIFT, Secretary

N. C. Conference Historical Society

Nomination of Officers

The Reverend Leon Russell is nominated for third vice-president; and the Reverend C. D. Barclift, secretary.

Recommendations

The attention of the Conference is called to Paragraph 661 in the 1952 Discipline which is as follows:

"In each Annual Conference there shall be a Historical Society, to be appointed or elected in whatever manner the conference may decide, whose duties it shall be to preserve the records of the conference, gather all data referring to its organization, its past history, its former members, and to collect all data of interest from elderly persons and to preserve these for future generations, together with a record of current items of importance, and to keep before the minds of our people the glorious deeds of the heroes of the past."

In keeping with the Discipline requirement, listed above, we recommend that each church give diligent attention to the matter of collecting and keeping in some permanent the items of historical significance and related pertinent data to its history and growth. The Methodist Church is rich in its historical heritage, and it is also achieving worthily now. However, we are often times neglectful in recording these deeds as they transpire. The record of the Methodist Church is but the composite record of achievements of each individual church. Let us be more faithful in preserving these records. It is further recommended that the Committee on Records and History, whose duties are set forth in Paragraph 145, Section III, 1952 Discipline, be organized in each church, and faithfully perform the duties thereof.

THE METHODIST COLLEGE FOUNDATION OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

There is a Methodist College in North Carolina to meet the needs, both intellectual and spiritual, of every Methodist boy or girl. No other denomination is so fortunate in what it has to offer young people in the field of Christian higher education. From the Junior College level to the great University, our colleges are surpassed by none and superior to many.

The colleges that make up the Foundation are owned and operated and supported by the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Conferences. These are Brevard, Duke, Greensboro, High Point and Louisburg. All these colleges are accredited by the regional accrediting agency and by the University Senate of the Methodist Church. They stand for the most excellent in spiritual and intellectual achievement. Their faculties are among the best. They are committed to the proposition that to train the mind only is not enough—motives must be trained as well. Your Christian colleges are the only educational institutions that put the Christian religion and ethic at the center of the educational process. They offer the only kind of higher education that is concerned primarily about what the church exists for. They teach the Bible as the "word of God," and are committed to the fundamental belief that all human life is sacred and that it should be guided into its most creative possibilities.

These are your colleges. You should know that in these colleges the Methodists of North Carolina have an investment of more than fifty million dollars in property value. In addition are the endowments that run into the millions. More than 8,000 students are enrolled annually.

During the next four years the Methodists of North Carolina will be working together to make these colleges stronger and more effective in the instilling, deepening, and making more vital the insights and faith of our young people who enroll there. Let us pray and work and give "For Youth and The Kingdom." Remember this: To strengthen the colleges is to strengthen the church! The most that we can do for our colleges is the least we should do!

METHODIST MINISTERS CREDIT UNION

Incorporated under North Carolina law in 1938, the Credit Union is administered under the supervision of the state Superintendent of Credit Unions; and its books are audited by state auditors.

All members in full connection of the North Carolina Conference are eligible to join the Credit Union. Accounts of married members are considered joint accounts.

HOW MAY ONE BECOME A MEMBER?

1. Pay Entrance Fee of twenty-five cents.
2. Invest five dollars ($5.00) or more.

WHERE? At the Credit Union Desk in the Book Room.

WHY? MATERIAL ADVANTAGES

1. The Credit Union provides safe investment for your savings—large or small.
2. In recent years the Credit Union has paid a dividend of 2½ per cent each year. The amount of the dividend has been added to the accounts of members. The largest dividend paid last year was $12.00.
3. Each member's life is insured in the amount of his savings. Insurance premiums are paid by the Credit Union.

4. The Credit Union provides a place where members may borrow small amounts. The limit on the size of loans can be raised as more money is invested. Each borrower's life is insured in the amount of the unpaid balance on his loan.

WHY? SPIRITUAL ADVANTAGES

1. Your savings are an investment in brotherhood. The Credit Union has made 63 loans, totaling $6,121.24. These loans have helped members to pay car repair bills, hospital bills, and funeral expenses. They have helped members to buy cars, electrical appliances, books, and other equipment needed by the minister. Your investment in the Credit Union is a helping hand to your brother in need.

2. Your savings add to your family's sense of security. The life insurance feature above means that if a member dies, his widow or estate receives the amount invested in the Credit Union plus an equal amount from insurance. Joint accounts for married members make it possible for the widow to collect these amounts without waiting for settlement of the estate. If a borrower dies before repaying his loan, the insurance company pays the unpaid balance; and the widow does not have to worry about that debt.

REPORT OF THE METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

In this centennial year we are glad to report that subscriptions to the North Carolina Christian Advocate have maintained the level set last year with an average of more than 30,000 copies going into Methodists homes in this state. For the first eight months of this year the income from subscriptions has amounted to $41,268.59; job work, $61,048.37 other income, $4,395.32; total, $106,712.08.

The editor, the Rev. R. P. Marshall, has traveled more than 18,000 miles on Advocate business since coming to North Carolina last August and has spoken more than 130 times in 120 different churches.

We call attention to the fact, that with the loss of the Christian Advocate (Chicago) as a general news-magazine, ministers and laity will be left without any source of church news and promotional material except for a very small amount which will appear in the two new monthly publications. This means that the North Carolina Christian Advocate will be needed all the more during the coming years, and must expand its news coverage to take care of church-wide interests. To do this, we must have the co-operation of all the pastors and official boards in an increased effort to secure subscriptions. We believe that they will do their best, as they have done in the past.

In order to meet the challenge of the future, we recommend that the endowment campaign begun some years ago be continued until the original goal of $100,000 be reached. The endowment totals $55,000. We ask that this campaign be called to the attention of the churches.

The term of A. J. Hobbs expires with the present conference year, and the Board recommends his re-election for another five year term by the North Carolina Conference.

METHODIST STUDENT CENTER

Report No. 1

The program of the Methodist Student Center at East Carolina College has been carried on under the Program Emphases of the Methodist Student Movement, recognizing that the Wesley Foundation is the program of The Methodist Church on the state-owned campus. Our students are encouraged to find a "church home" in one of the Methodist churches in the city and a "Home away from home" in the Methodist Student Center. The Director co-operates with both churches and the pastors support the Wesley Foundation, giving of their interest and time to meet the needs of our students.

The specific aim of the year's program: To help our students make their religion real and to give serious consideration to full-time Christian service through The Methodist Church. Two retreats were held, one in the spring and one in the fall to evaluate the program, prepare members of the WF Council for Christian leadership on the campus and to set up the program for the year. Weekly meetings of the WF Council were held throughout the year.

"Making Religion Real" was the theme for Sunday vespers, held at the Student Center under the leadership of our pastors, out-of-town visitors, and church leaders. The Ten Commandments and the Twenty-third Psalm were chosen for study at student-led weekly vespers on Monday and Wednesday. Members of the WF Council and a group of sophomores and freshmen met at 7:00 a.m. on Wednesday and Thursday every week for meditation and prayer under the leadership of the Director.

Alpha Zeta Chapter held bi-monthly meetings throughout the year; presented a three-act play during the Advent season; dramatic services of worship in both churches of the city and at the MSM Conference for District No. 1; assisted (and directed) MYF of Jarvis Memorial Church in presenting a dramatic program for Youth Activities Week and for a subdistrict meeting.

Conference for North Carolina MSM District No. 1 was entertained at Jarvis Memorial Church. This conference was inter-racial; Negro delegates were entertained in the home of the local M.E. Church, Zion. The banquet and breakfast Sunday morning were served in Fellowship Hall of Jarvis Memorial by the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Representative students with the Director attended the State and Regional MSM conferences, and state recreation weekend.

The call to full-time Christian Service was presented throughout the year by two former students now studying at Scarritt College for Christian Workers; a Methodist minister from the Philippine Islands, studying in the U. S. on a Crusade scholarship; by a field worker from the personnel department of the Board of Missions, who spent several days at the Student Center, spoke at vesper and on campus, and held individual conferences with students. An outstanding event of fall quarter was the visit of Mrs. W. B. Landrum, field worker of the Woman's Division of Christian Service, who spoke at Sunday vesper to a capacity audience of students at the Student Center.

Eight of our students are serving in the program of the Church this summer: two in regular Youth Caravan; one in Drama Caravan; one in the Rio Grande Valley Work Camp; one as counselor in a Children's Camp under the Goodwill Industries; three as counselors at Camp Don-Lee. Others are serving in their home churches in the summer program. The president of the Wesley Foundation has work for the summer in the Department of Public Relations at Scarritt College. One of our former students, active in the Wesley Foundation at ECC, was awarded the M.A. degree from Scarritt College in May and has accepted a position in the North Carolina Conference as Director of Christian Education in a local church. Two others are continuing their study at Scarritt College.

Contributions: Cuba Work Camp $21.87; Fellow-College (Ewha Univ.) $20.00; World Student Christian Federation $10.00; MCOR (Korea) $15.00; MSFF (Student Work India) $100.00; Negro student at Clark College $35.00—TOTAL $201.87.

Enrollment at East Carolina College for the year:

Fall Quarter	2,940
Winter Quarter	2,814
Spring Quarter	2,693
Methodist Enrollment (as well as we could get from the College)		650
Freshmen		324
Upper Classmen		326
Freshmen Reached		139
Freshmen Active		79
Upper Classmen Reached		113
Upper Classmen Active		80

Contact was made with all students whose names and addresses we were able to obtain—through visits, letters, invitations and regular announcements of the WF program.

400 copies of POWER, given by Jarvis Memorial Church were distributed in the dorms

Folders outlining the WF program, the student bulletin—THE WESLEYJ— and made available for town students.

401 students made a total of 5,729 visits to the Student Center. 241 of these Methodist. Total student attendance in Sunday School—both churches 194. Student visitors in Sunday School from ECC 75—other colleges 9—total 84.

The Director has had 667 personal conferences with students. Assisted 5 students in obtaining loans through the Methodist Student Loan Fund.

Five young men and one young woman rented rooms at the Student Center and found that a Christian home life was offered them.

We look forward to the coming year with a deep sense of responsibility in the face of the opportunity presented by the increasing enrollment at East Carolina College and the further expansion of the college program. We rejoice over the prospect for a new and adequate building to be used as a Student Center and we are making plans to meet the needs of our students during the transition period. We go forward in faith under the guidance of God.

THE NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL AND CHRISTIAN CONVOCATION

Another successful Pastors' School and Christian Convocation was held on the campus of Duke University, Durham, during the period June 5-8, 1956, with 460 persons in attendance. The advance preparations were handled by the Board of Managers and the Convocation Committee of the Duke Divinity School, Dean James Cannon, chairman. Helpful assistance was provided by Dr. J. Richard Spann, director of the Department of In-Service Training of the General Board of Education.

The featured lecturer was Dr. John Knox, Baldwin Professor of Sacred Literature, Union Theological Seminary, New York City, who delivered the seventh series of James

A. Gray Lectures speaking daily in Page Auditorium on the general subject, "The Integrity of Preaching." These lectures will be published at a later date.

Each night in Duke Chapel sermons were brought by Dr. Robert Bruce Pierce, minister of Broadway Methodist Church, Indianapolis, Indiana. His themes were: "Tourists of the Common Way," "Crosses are in Style," and "Sane Living in an Insane World." Dr. Pierce also directed the "Workshop on Preaching."

The daily schedule was changed from the pattern of previous years to provide two other series of lectures in Page Auditorium. These were brought by Dr. James W. Henley, minister of West End Methodist Church, Nashville, Tennessee, on the subject "Parish Administration" and Dr. Gerald O. McCulloch, director of the Department of Theological Schools of the Methodist General Board of Education, whose subject was "The Pulpit Ministry and Christian Doctrine."

The afternoons were spent in workshops in the following areas:

1. "Alcohol Study" led by Dr. Caradine R. Hooton, Executive Secretary of the General Board of Temperance, Washington, D. C.
2. "Youth Work" directed by Dr. Joseph W. Bell, a staff member of the Department of Youth Work of the General Board of Education.
3. "The Vacation Church School" led by Mrs. W. R. Reed of Salisbury.
4. "Preaching" led by Dr. Robert B. Pierce.

The Convocation Communion service was led by Bishop W. W. Peele, of Laurinburg, North Carolina, assisted by the Reverend Clyde Dunn, the Reverend D. M. Sharp, the Reverend B. B. Slaughter, and the Reverend Kermit Wheeler.

Each morning at 8:15 in Page Auditorium a period of hymn singing was led by the Reverend E. K. McLarty, Jr., minister of First Methodist Church, Salisbury.

On Wednesday of Convocation week the Divinity School Alumni Association held a luncheon with some two hundred persons attending. The Reverend R. W. McCulley of the class of '38 and president of the association, acted as toastmaster. An address was delivered by Dr. James W. Henley, whose son, James W. Henley, Jr., is now a student in the Divinity School. New officers were elected as follows: president—the Reverend Warren Petteway of the class of '46; vice president—Dr. A. Purnell Bailey of the class of '36; secretary-treasurer—the Reverend Russell Montford of the class of '53.

At the end of the school Dr. James Cannon announced that the James A. Gray Lectures for 1957 will be delivered by Bishop Gerald Kennedy of Los Angeles, California.

REPORT OF THE LONG RANGE PLANNING COMMITTEE

During the year the Long Range Planning Committee of the North Carolina Annual Conference held several meetings, some of which were in conjunction with other boards and committees of our Conference, in a study of the needs of higher education in our Conference. After hearing reports from the special committee which had visited several cities in our Conference to hear their offers for aid in establishing Methodist colleges, the Long Range Planning Committee recommended to the Special Session of the Annual Conference held in Goldsboro, May 14, that "a senior (four-year) co-educational Methodist College be established in Fayetteville, North Carolina, and that Louisburg College become the nucleus of the college at Rocky Mount." The report was adopted with the amendment that we build the two new colleges and that Louisburg College remain at Louisburg.

CONFERENCE SURVEY COMMITTEE

The Conference Survey Committee has led in a careful study of areas of need in our Conference during this conference year. Careful census surveys have been made in 33 communities, covering every district in our conference.

Mr. R. L. Turnage, Jr., has worked faithfully and well in directing this survey study of local communities as Director of Field Work. The Duke Foundation has co-operated with this committee by making available six Duke Divinity School students who helped in this study during the summer of 1955.

Twelve new churches have been organized this conference year. We feel this work has helped make these possible, as well as others which shall emerge next year. In some instances communities have been studied to the end that recommendation was for postponement of organization of a new congregation. We feel that this also is progress.

These studies have not exhausted the study and planning which must continue in the light of the needs already revealed. This committee will also be available to discover information vital to any area of need in our conference and may assist in research and survey in co-operation with other major boards and agencies of our conference. This committee will assist in publicity and promotion of items of interest to our conference members.

We recommend that Mr. Turnage be retained to assist in the work of this Committee, and work in co-operation with the Boards of Missions, Evangelism and Education, as well as the Town and Country Commission. We feel that the work of this committee is only beginning to reach its maturity. Therefore we recommend that the Conference Survey Committee be continued, and its services expanded, for the quadrennium beginning in 1956.

Respectfully submitted,

WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE AND WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

June 1, 1955-May 31, 1956

In the history of our church we close and begin another quadrennium. In the Woman's Society of Christian Service we began the quadrennium now closing with exalted goals. Some of these goals are intangible and, therefore, they cannot be measured with accuracy. We are grateful in believing, however, that real progress has been made toward achieving them, and that our progress has been greatest during this, the last year, of the quadrennium.

Numbers do not tell a complete story but it is significant that there has been a large increase in the total membership of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild, the organization of employed women. The present adult membership is approximately thirty-five thousand, an increase during this quadrennium of about forty-five hundred. Real progress has been made in organizing new societies, eighty-three having been organized during the past four years. The Conference is now not far from complete organization.

Finances do not, of course, tell the whole story of achievement, but they may indicate; and, in the story of our conference society, they do reflect real progress. The conference treasurer has received for missions, during the year 1955-1956, $198,393.93. This is an increase over the previous year of nearly $10,000. A grand total of $325,203.97 was given for both missions and local work. This represents an increase over the previous year of $38,325.68. We give thanks that our women have seen the need around the world and have increased their financial gifts during this quadrennium over the last quadrennium in the amount of $52,672.94.

Plans for the new student center at East Carolina College, Greenville, began to crystallize in midwinter. We expect, sometime this year, to erect a beautiful, adequate, brick building to meet the needs of Methodist students there.

Another dream about to be fulfilled is the establishment of work among the Indians of our Conference. A deaconess has been appointed and will assume her duties on September 1, 1956.

The conference society is grateful for the fine young women who have given themselves to full-time Christian service, for the missionaries supported by the North Carolina Conference, for what it has been able to do for the youth of our conference, for the projects established, for the inspiration given by those who are leading, and for the devotion of those who compose our membership.

We desire to express our appreciation to Bishop Paul N. Garber for the recognition he has given to our work. Too, we would record appreciation for the support of the district superintendents and the pastors.

Our theme for the past quadrennium has been "That the Kingdom of God May Be Realized." This has been pursued with humility and sincerity, even though imperfectly reached. We now turn in the next quadrennium to a new theme, "The Spirit of Christ—For All of Life." Whatever may be the theme to guide and to inspire Methodist women, the purpose of the Woman's Society of Christian Service never changes—"to establish a Christian social order around the world."

MRS. H. I. GLASS, President

MRS. C. D. BARCLIFT, Recording Secretary

MOTIONS

MOTION TO BECOME PART OF WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE REPORT

Report No. 2

Whereas, the Discipline states in three separate instances (Sections 304, 321 and 2025) a definite and answering position against the use of tobacco by young people, by local and by travelling preachers and against misleading and suggestive advertisement for the promotion of the sale of tobacco.

Whereas, the 1956 General Conference has retained and reaffirmed these provisions.

Whereas, the Discipline states (Section T37) that Christian as well as sound economic principles shall be observed in the handling of investment funds.

Whereas, the proposed Report No. 2, of the Commission on World Service and Finance, Re: Methodist Fund Inc., shows a holding by the Methodist Fund of 200 shares of 3.60% Preferred Stock of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company at a cost of $17,786.85, with an expected dividend of $720.

Whereas, we, the North Carolina Conference, recognize the inconsistency between the mandates of the Discipline and the above stock holding and desire to correct this inconsistency; Therefore, we move that the Commission on World Service and Finance and the members of the Methodist Fund, Inc., be directed to liquidate immediately all holdings in the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, that they be directed to refrain from any future purchase of stock in any company or corporation whose objectives are inconsistent with the regulation of the Discipline of the Methodist Church and that this motion become part of the proposed Report No. 2 of the Commission on World Service and Finance.

RESOLUTIONS

°°CONCERNING BISHOP AND MRS. PAUL N. GARBER

Whereas Bishop and Mrs. Paul N. Garber have so efficiently, effectively, and graciously served the Richmond Area and the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church for the past five and one half years; and whereas under Bishop Garber great progress in all fields of the Church's program has been made; and whereas his leadership is at this time necessary in the Area to continue the outstanding work so ably begun by him;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, S.E.J., in its regular session assembled, Greenville, North Carolina, June 25, 1956, that:

CONCERNING TENURE OF MEMBERSHIP ON BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

WHEREAS the current limit of tenure of membership on the Board of Lay Activities of the North Carolina Methodist Conference creates difficulties in the proper administration of the work of said board in that the time served as an Associate District Lay Leader and/or as a District Lay Leader limits the tenure of a member if elected as Conference Lay Leader by reason of such service on the District level to less than the maximum now provided, and

WHEREAS there is great need for time for the members of the Board of Lay Activities, all of whom are elected each year, to learn the work on both the District and Conference levels,

Now Therefore Be It Resolved by the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, Southeastern Jurisdiction, in regular session at Greenville, North Carolina, June 25-28, 1956, that the time served by any member of the Board of Lay Activities of said Conference as Associate District Lay Leader and/or District Lay Leader shall not be counted as a part of tenure of that member if elected as Conference Lay Leader, thus providing maximum tenure for the Conference Lay Leader, subject to his annual election as provided by the Discipline of the Methodist Church.

CONCERNING APPROVED SUPPLY PASTORS AND LOCAL PREACHERS

Numerous complaints have reached the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualification concerning the quality of some men who have been recommended by the North Carolina Annual Conference and sent out to minister to Methodist congregations. We are aware that some unlettered men have wrought wonders for the Kingdom of God but we also know that in a day of advancing education and training, standards must be maintained; therefore, we are offering this resolution which sets up what we consider to be minimum requirements.

We recommend that ordinarily no person begin an Approved Supply status who is over 40 years of age; and, further, that no man without a High School diploma be recommended for the same status. We further recommend to District Committees or Ministerial Qualifications that no person without a High School diploma be given local preacher's license.

Bishop Garber, the hardest working Bishop in American Methodism can well say with John Wesley: "Leisure and I have parted company." In his consecrated industry lies the secret of why The North Carolina Conference is becoming known as "the Miracle Conference" of Modern Methodism.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances, some features of which are referred to in the outline that follows on specific items.

Cash on deposit was confirmed directly with the banks. Recorded cash receipts were traced to their subsequent deposit in the bank on a test basis, and disbursements were verified by test examination of cancelled checks and paid invoices or authorizations. Income from charges as shown by the Treasurer's records was compared with reports of the pastors to the Annual Conference on a test basis. The Treasurer requested the pastors from all charges in which there was a material difference between pastors' report and treasurer's records to recheck the charge records and advise as to any corrections to be made. We examined all replies and determined that necessary adjustments were made. Distribution of income from the charges was audited by reference to the report of the Commission on World Service and Finance for the 1955 and 1956 sessions of the Annual Conference and by reference to proper authorization from the various boards of the conference.

Investments of the Treasurer and the various boards and funds were either inspected, or, if held by an outside agent, confirmed by direct confirmation during the course of our audit.

Cash receipts in transit represent 1955-56 collections received by the Treasurer subsequent to the balance sheet date and were set up from deposits in the banks. Accounts and apportionments payable were set up from disbursements subsequent to the balance sheet date and by reference to proper authorizations for the distribution of 1955-56 collections.

CERTIFICATE

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and related statement of income, expense or distribution and fund balance present fairly the financial position of the North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of The Methodist Church, Mr. M. J. Cowell, Treasurer, at June 30, 1956, and the results of operations for the 1955-56 conference year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles of the conference applied on a basis consistent with that of the previous year.

Respectfully submitted,

METHODIST YOUTH ASSEMBLIES

September 20, 1956

Mr. Herman Winberry, Director
Methodist Youth Assemblies
Durham, North Carolina

We have examined the financial records of the Methodist Youth Assemblies for the year ended July 31, 1956 and have prepared the attached Cash Receipts and Disbursements Statement.

All recorded receipts were traced into the depository and disbursements were verified by the examination of cancelled checks.

The cash balance at July 31, 1956 was verified by reconciliation of the statement furnished by the bank. A savings account is maintained with the Home Savings and Loan Association and as at July 31, 1956 the balance was six hundred ninety six dollars and thirty seven cents ($696.37). The savings account is for the apparent purpose of providing a replacement fund for the station wagon.
