CELEBRATING

VITAL CONGREGATIONS <=> FAITHFUL DISCIPLES

In keeping with the episcopal initiative for the quadrennium, the Committee for Annual Conference Program selected Vital Congregations<=>Faithful Disciples as our 1988 Conference theme. In part, we developed this theme with testimonials during Conference and with a special celebration on Friday evening.

In an effort to strengthen The United Methodist Church for witness and service, we realize how vital congregations and faithful disciples are dependent on each other for the success of our mission.

HISTORICAL STATEMENT

I. COMPOSITION

The North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church is composed of:

- 1) The eastern portion of the former North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Protestant Church.
- 2) The former North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church South.
- 3) The coastal region of the former Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church.
- 4) The Eastern District, North Carolina-Virginia Conference, Central Jurisdiction.

II. ORGANIZATION

The organizing dates of the four former Conferences were as follows:

- 1) The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Protestant Church 1828, at Whitaker's Chapel in Halifax County, North Carolina.
- 2) The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 1837.
- 3) The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, 1879, at Greensboro, North Carolina, first named Southern Central Conference; two years later, 1881, renamed Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference.
- 4) The Eastern District North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference was organized at a special session on August 11, 1964, at Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina.

RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE

Section I: Rules of Order

1. Robert's Rules of Order shall apply to any situation not covered by these rules.
2. A member may speak out only once on any one motion until all who desire to speak have done so; and then he/she may speak only one additional time.
3. The chairperson of an agency (or someone designated by him/her) shall be allowed to speak last on his/her report even though the previous questions have been ordered.
4. Speeches shall be limited to ten (10) minutes except by consent of the Conference.
5. If any part of these rules conflict with The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, the Discipline shall prevail.
6. The Rules of Order and Procedure for the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church shall apply to the Annual Conference as regularly scheduled and to all called sessions of the Conference.

Section II: Voting

1. Voting shall be by "yes or no" or by a "show of hands" or by "standing" at the discretion of the chair.
2. A count vote may be ordered or called by any member of the Conference supported by one-fifth (1/5) of the members present and voting. The results of a count vote shall be printed in the Journal. The chair may call for a count vote if he/she is in doubt as to the outcome of the vote.
3. All votes shall be cast in the bar of the Conference. The bar of the Conference shall be determined by the Conference at the beginning of the first session.

Section III: Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences

1. The election of clerical delegates shall be by secret ballot. (Each person eligible to vote shall indicate his/her choice of names for the places ordered by the chair on the secret ballot without prior nomination, with balloting to continue until a majority is received by sufficient persons to fulfill the needed number of delegates.)
 - a. Any lay person who is a member of the United Methodist Church of the North Carolina Conference who wishes to be a nominee may submit a resume, not to exceed 200 words. Resumes may also be submitted on behalf of a prospective nominee.
 - b. Consent of the nominee should be obtained after the nominee has been informed of the duties of a delegate.
 - c. Any lay member of the Church may be voted for whether a resume is submitted or not.
 - d. Resumes should be mailed to the Conference lay leader by April 1 of the year prior to the upcoming General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
 - e. The list of nominees and their resumes will be prepared and distributed by the Conference Board of Lay Life and Work at the District Briefings or be mailed with the Book of Reports.
 - f. The election of lay delegates shall be by secret ballot as above. Electors may vote for any eligible person, whether nominated as above or not.
3. All votes shall be cast upon the official ballots authorized by the Conference.
4. Ballots shall be numbered consecutively and only ballots with the number announced by the chair shall be valid. Defaced ballots will not be valid. (If a member defaces a ballot, he/she may exchange it for a new one at the secretary's desk.)
5. Each member will place his/her own ballot in the ballot box held by a teller.
6. Different colored ballots will be provided for lay and clerical members.

7. The names of persons receiving less than ten votes shall not be reported to the Conference.
8. Five alternates to Jurisdictional Conference shall be elected.
9. A ballot will be considered invalid in the following cases:
 - a. Any electronic ballot which is not marked clearly and darkly with a number 2 lead pencil. (Any the scanner will not read.)
 - b. More or less than the maximum number of votes permitted on that particular ballot.
 - c. Voting for a person already elected.
 - d. Voting for someone not eligible.
 - e. Voting twice for the same person.

Section IV: Conference Structure

1. The Bishop and Cabinet shall determine the size of and nominate the members of all Boards, Agencies, Commissions, and Committees authorized by the General Conference, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, and this Annual Conference, except in those cases where the Discipline or the Annual Conference directs otherwise.
2. Near the end of each quadrennium, the heads of all Boards, Agencies, Commissions, and Committees shall submit a list of qualified, suggested nominees to the Bishop and the Cabinet for their consideration in the formation of new Boards, Divisions, Commissions, and Committees.
3. Recommendations and nominations shall be subject to the approval of the Annual Conference.
 - a. At the beginning of each quadrennium all Boards, Agencies, Commissions, and Committees shall elect their officers only after all their members have been notified of the organizational meeting. A member of the Cabinet or the Conference Staff (designated by the Cabinet) shall serve as the convening officer for the organizational meeting.
 - b. All elections in the Boards and Agencies of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be by written, secret ballot of those present and eligible to vote. Nominations from the floor may be made.
 - c. The presiding Bishop shall be requested to announce the Cabinet assignments to the various Boards and Agencies at some point during the Annual Conference.
 - d. Tenure for membership for all persons on boards, agencies, divisions, commissions, and committees shall be eight years, with two exceptions: the Board of Laity where tenure shall be six years for members and four years for the Conference lay leader; the Board of Trustees where tenure shall be nine years. (The Conference lay leader may serve also the unexpired term of his predecessor.)
5. The Conference structure shall be as determined by the charter of the Conference Council on Ministries. In addition there shall be a coordinator of ministerial relations/administrative assistant to the bishop with such duties and responsibilities as determined by the Annual Conference or assigned by the residing bishop.
6. The Secretary: The secretary of the Annual Conference shall be elected quadrennially, at the first session of the Conference after the meeting of the General Conference; and on nominations arising from the floor.
 - a. The position of Conference Secretary shall be continued on a part-time basis with adequate funding provided.
 - b. The responsibilities of the Conference Secretary shall be defined as follows:
 - 1) To fulfill the duties and functions of the Conference Secretary as adopted by The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.
 - 2) To edit the Conference Journal.

- 3) And such other duties as are stipulated by the Annual Conference.
 - a) Provides for the Local Entertainment Committee any necessary information pertinent to Conference entertainment, and to provide the names and addresses of all persons (guests, delegates, and reserves) to be invited and entertained, including early arrivals.
 - b) Provides delegate registration cards with complete information, by districts,
 - c) Serves as a member of the Annual Conference Program Committee and responsible for the printing and the distribution of the Conference Program as planned by the Bishop and the Program Committee, also the Book of Recommendations,
 - d) Serves as chairman of the Annual Conference Committee on Memoirs and is responsible for the compiling and the printing of the memoirs and the Memorial Service as prepared by the Bishop and the Memoirs Committee,
 - e) Arranges with the Local Entertainment Committee plans for all special luncheons or banquets,
 - f) Provides a packet for each delegate with necessary materials, including name tags,
 - g) Responsible for proper preparation of ordination credentials and other documents, and securing the class photos,
 - h) Provides necessary office equipment and supplies during Annual Conference for the following offices: Bishop, Conference Secretary, Cabinet, Cabinet Secretary, Conference Statistician, Treasurer, and United Methodist information,

 - m) Provides required statistical information for General Church Agencies,
 - n) Serves as Conference archivist and custodian of historical artifacts and information of antecedent conferences,
 - o) Receives and retains surrendered credentials.

- c. The position of Conference Secretary shall be limited by a tenure of eight years, effective at the beginning of the 1972-1973 Conference Year.
- d. Proper provision shall be made in The United Methodist Building in Raleigh for the protection and the preservation of all records, historical data, etc. of the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church and (and any antecedent conferences) dating prior to the Union of 1939 now being held by the Conference Secretary and the Conference Statistician.
- e. Assistant Secretaries: The Secretary shall nominate his/her assistants and the Conference shall elect.
- f. Conference Stenographers: The Conference Secretary shall employ the Conference stenographers.

7. The Conference Statistician:

- a. The position of Conference Statistician shall be continued on a part-time basis with those duties stipulated by The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, with adequate funding provided.

- b. The position of Conference Statistician shall be limited by a tenure of eight years, effective at the beginning of the 1972-1973 Conference Year.
8. Compensation: The Council on Finance and Administration shall determine, subject to the approval of the Conference, the compensation given officers for their services and also, the method and amount for meeting expenses of said officers. The Conference treasurer shall pay these amounts.
9. The Conference Lay Leader: The Conference Lay Leader shall be elected quadrennially, at the first session of the Annual Conference following General Conference on nomination by the Bishop and Cabinet and the Executive Committee of the Board of Laity. Should the vacancy occur at any other time it would be filled by the same procedure. The Conference Lay Leader shall serve as the chairperson of the Board of Laity.
10. Committees and Boards:
- a. The Conference Board of Trustees shall be required to meet at least once a year other than the regular meeting at the session of the Annual Conference.
 - b. There shall be a Program Committee of the Conference consisting of the resident Bishop, the Conference secretary, the host district superintendent, the chairperson of Local Committee on Entertainment, the Conference lay leader, the Conference presidents of the UMM, UMW, the UMY, and the director of the Conference Council on Ministries. They shall determine the compensation and expense for invited speakers and this shall be paid from the Conference expense fund.
 - c. There shall be an Entertainment Committee composed of three ministers and three laypersons. The Committee shall be elected at the session of the Annual Conference after the meeting of the General Conference. The Committee shall receive invitations and recommend to the Annual Conference the place and method of entertaining the Annual Conference. A local church or other institution may host the Annual Conference upon acceptance of the invitation of the Annual Conference.
 - 1) When no invitation has come from the local church or other institution, the Annual Conference will be held at Methodist College and North Carolina Wesleyan College on alternating years (held at Methodist College until Wesleyan has an auditorium).
 - 2) The Cabinet will designate a district each year on a rotating basis as the host district (when the Conference is held at Methodist College and North Carolina Wesleyan College) which will be responsible for ushers, flowers, and other related items of hospitality.
 - d. There shall be a Committee on Memoirs composed of the Conference secretary, and the district superintendents. They are charged with the responsibility of providing for all details of the memorial service. The Conference secretary shall serve as its chairperson.
 - e. There shall be a Committee on Daily Minutes elected each year to examine the daily minutes of the sessions of the Conference and report daily to the Conference.
 - f. There shall be a Committee on Appeals appointed quadrennially, composed of five members whose duties shall be to hear appeals from the decisions of the several District Boards of Church Location and Buildings, or any other questions that may properly come before it.
 - g. There shall be a Committee of Rules which shall provide to the Conference a document of Rules of Order and Procedure and the policies and standing rules and structure that the Conference from time to time shall adopt for its functioning. This document shall be presented to each Annual Conference.

- h. There shall be constituted a Committee on Courtesies and Introductions annually, at the first session of the Conference.
11. No person may serve on more than one board of trustees of an institution to which trustees are elected by the Conference.

Section V: Financial Administration

1. The Conference treasurer and all others receiving and disbursing funds from our Conference shall be required to make audited statements annually, and to print the same in the Journal.
2. The Council on Finance and Administration shall present its report to the Annual Conference only after all other committees, commissions, boards, and agencies having claims on the budget have presented their report.
3. Each district superintendent shall furnish the Conference treasurer as early as possible following the completion of the Charge Conferences an official copy of the Outreach Ministries Fair Share Apportionments and a schedule of the salaries of pastors as set by the Charge Conferences. The Conference treasurer shall furnish this information to other agencies who have need of it. The statistician shall use this report in compiling his report to the Annual Conference. (See also Section VII, ¶ 2).

Section VI: Reports, Resolutions, Motions, and Amendments to Report

1. All reports, recommendations, and resolutions to be included in the Book of Recommendations shall be sent to the Conference secretary, typewritten and in triplicate, on or before the date approved for such by the Council on Ministries and published in the conference calendar.
2. Resolutions presented to the Annual Conference shall be submitted in writing to the Conference secretary with copies for all the lay and clergy members of the Conference. The resolution shall be presented to the Annual Conference on one day and considered the next day. No resolutions shall be distributed later than the second night of the Conference. All resolutions shall be referred to the Conference Committee on Resolutions and Reference.
3. Motions presented to the Annual Conference and amendments to motions shall be in writing (in triplicate) and placed in the hands of the Conference secretary prior to or when presented or immediately following.

Section VII: Pastor's Report to the Annual Conference - Statistics

1. Final remittances for the current calendar year shall be made to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.
2. Each table of the report shall be filled out by individual churches.
3. Table II shall be made out in even dollars only.
4. Tables I and II shall be printed in the Conference Journal with individual church reports and charge totals as compiled by the Conference statistician from the pastor's reports.

Section VIII: The Conference Journal

1. The Conference secretary shall be charged with the responsibility of editing and making contracts for the publication of the Conference Journal, in keeping with regulations of the General Conference and of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. The editor shall have full authority to condense reports, memoirs, and other papers when necessary.
2. One complimentary copy of the Conference Journal shall be sent to each of the following: the conference claimants, lay members of the Conference boards, the educational and church-related institutions of the North Carolina Conference, and lay members of the Annual Conference. The Conference secretary shall have discretionary authority to send copies to such other institutions and agencies of the General Church as he/she may deem advisable. Three copies shall be sent to each pastor without charge. All other copies shall be sold at $5.00 each. Monies accruing from the sale of the Journal shall be deposited with the Conference treasurer and credited to the Journal Account.

3. That the Conference shall publish a one volume Journal of the North Carolina Annual Conference each year.

Section IX: Districts

1. The number of districts shall be twelve.
2. Any change in the number of districts shall be approved at one Annual Conference to take effect at the next Annual Conference. A majority may change the number of districts.
3. A district conference may be held annually in each district.
4. The district president, sub-district presidents, and the local church presidents of the United Methodist Youth Fellowship shall be delegates to the District Conference, in addition to those named by the 1972 Discipline.
5. The district lay leaders shall be elected annually by the Annual Conference on nomination of the district superintendent and the Conference lay leader.

Section X: Amendments

These rules of order and procedure may be amended by a two-thirds vote on the next day a proposed amendment has been presented in writing, providing that the rule governing the manner in which the number of districts may be changed cannot be amended until the next Annual Conference.

Section XI: When the Rules Become Effective

These rules of order and procedure of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall become effective immediately upon passage by the vote of the majority of the Conference.

1988-1989 CONFERENCE MEMBERS IN FULL CONNECTION, ROLL AND PASTORAL RECORD OF

Note: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for great convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference members in full connection both effective and retired. These records include only service in the North Carolina Conference. Please note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluate each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the right hand column indicate the number of years service under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference after being received into the Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions.

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS (Daily Minutes)

EXECUTIVE SESSION, Thursday, June 16, 1988

The Executive Session for all Ministers in Full Connection: This session was held at 10:30 a.m. at Camp Ground United Methodist Church in Fayetteville with Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., presiding.

Invocation: The bishop called for the singing of Hymn 72, All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name, followed by a brief meditation and appropriate remarks.

Report of Board of Ordained Ministry: Bishop Minnick called upon Carol Goehring, chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, to present the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry to the pastors assembled.

Questions 19 - 54 were called and voted upon as necessary in the affirmative with the new candidates for Deacon's Orders and admission on Probation being presented first. The candidates for Elder's Orders and Full Connection were then presented and the historic questions were asked. All answers to the questions will be found in the business of the Annual Conference in this section of the Journal with portions of it also in Section II and in Section V.

Miscellaneous Matters: The character and conduct of the district superintendents and the other clergy were considered and passed unanimously. Portions of the general report of the Board of Ordained Ministry were discussed and nominations for members of the Joint Review Committee were presented and passed.

Point of Personal Privilege: Bishop Minnick expressed appreciation, as did the entire Board, for the special work of Carol Goehring in her year as chairperson of the Board. Particular compliments were given for the rapid and speedy action taken on all issues and the accuracy of the information. A gift was presented to Carol Goehring and she expressed appreciation.

Benediction: The benediction was given by Bishop Minnick and the meeting was adjourned.

FIRST DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Thursday, June 16, 1988

General Session for All Lay and Clergy Members: At 1:25 p.m., the General Session of all lay and clergy members was called. The session began with the singing of And Are We Yet Alive and the service of Holy Communion for all members of the Annual Conference and visitors, conducted by Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., and the Cabinet. Communion was taken by intinction by the Conference assembled. Bishop Minnick preached a most appropriate homily for this occasion which was well received. As has become usual, Reeves Auditorium on the Methodist College campus was completely filled.

Recess: After the Communion Service, a brief period of time was given to clear the stage.

Conference Convened: Bishop Minnick called the full Conference to order noting this was the one hundred sixty-third session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church. The Bishop offered special prayer for this session and brought enthusiastic words of welcome to all attending.

Bishop Minnick called for the singing of the hymn, Lift High the Cross, taken from the sampler of the new United Methodist Hymnal recently adopted by the General Conference of The United Methodist Church.

Bishop Minnick called attention to the program and the fact that he was to give an episcopal address. He made it clear that this was not THE episcopal address, because that was always given by a bishop at General Conference. This was simply an address by a bishop at this Conference to suggest direction for the years to come. (For complete text of the Bishop's address, see Section V of the Journal.) The essential theme of Bishop Minnick's episcopal address was "Vital Congregations and Faithful Disciples" as we go into the twenty-first century. At the conclusion of his address, the Conference responded with an affirmative standing round of applause.

Greetings and Welcome: Bishop Minnick called upon Elton Hendricks, president of Methodist College, for words of welcome. Hendricks responded by greeting the packed congregation and offering them words of genuine welcome and the hope that the college staff could make the Conference as comfortable as possible, keeping comfort and coolness to a maximum, but concentrating on purpose. He indicated that staff and students were identified by yellow name tags and were available to answer questions or give assistance. He spoke of the new Art Gallery located in the Rogers-Mallett House, one of the oldest houses in Cumberland County. He encouraged members of the Conference and visitors to tour the house on Friday between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m., when a guide would be present. He also spoke of the new golf driving ranges and referred to the nature trails that were available at all times for reflection and appreciation of the beauty of nature. Hendricks then asked Bill Lowdermilk to come forward and Bill received his usual round of applause for the tremendous amount of work and the number of hours that he puts into the preparations for Annual Conference. Hendricks stated that for all matters of ultimate concern, Bill Lowdermilk was the man to see. Bishop Minnick expressed appreciation to both Hendricks and Lowdermilk.

Greetings: Bishop Minnick called upon Thelbert Torrey, who came to bring greetings to the Conference on behalf of the City of Fayetteville. He expressed sorrow that other pressing concerns kept the mayor from being present, but gave extreme gratitude for the privilege of bringing greetings on his behalf. He indicated that his heart had already been strangely warmed and it was that spirit of the warm heart at Methodist College that added much to the City of Fayetteville. He spoke of some of the new additions to Fayetteville as it continues to grow and become an increasingly restored metropolis of both historic and economic significance to the State of North Carolina.

Recognition of Host District Superintendent: Bishop Minnick presented Randall Baker to bring greetings to the Conference. Baker spoke of the rotational plan of having district hosts for the Conference and some of the things that his district had done. He brought greetings on behalf of the Elizabeth City District and welcomed the Conference to Fayetteville and to Methodist College.

Organization of the Conference: Bishop Minnick recognized Conference Secretary Ted Wilson for rules concerning the organization of the Conference. Wilson presented the following motions:

"I move that the registration kept by the registrars at the registration tables be designated and declared the official roll of the Conference; that the bar of the Conference be the main floor and the stage of Reeves Auditorium; that the program as contained in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1988 (as amended from time to time by the Chair) be the official program of the Conference; that the materials printed and published in Saddlebag be declared 'presented to the Conference' when distributed to the members, to satisfy Section VI, Paragraph 2, of the Rules of the Conference; that persons appearing on the program of the Conference be granted the privilege of the floor; that the committees and persons printed on pages 8 and 9 of The Conference Program, Recommendations And Reports 1988 be elected."

The motions were put to the Conference and were adopted.

Report of the Committee on Conference Rules: Bishop Minnick presented James Coile to speak to certain changes that are being recommended. Coile spoke to these changes from last year. (For text see "Rules of Order and Procedure" in this Journal.) Ernie Wendell rose to indicate that under one of the Rules the president of United Methodist Men should be included. Coile stated that it was not a deliberate omission. It just simply hadn't been in the Rules.

Amendment: Ernest J. Wendell moved "the inclusion of Conference president of United Methodist Men in item b of paragraph 10, Section IV." The motion was approved as an addition to the Conference Rules.

Amendment: James Coile moved that under Section VI, paragraph 2, the wording be changed to read, "No resolutions shall be distributed later than the second night of the Conference." The motion passed.

Coile noted a correction made in Section X with the addition of the word "after" following the words "on the next day..."

The Rules were approved as amended and were adopted.

Amendment: Bishop Minnick recognized James Earl Vann from Wilmington for a proposed addition to the Lay/Clergy Equalization Plan for Annual Conference. He wanted to add the following paragraph: "Add one college or university student from each United Methodist-related campus ministry within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference. Where no charge conference is held, a recommendation will be made to the district superintendent for appointment to Annual Conference."

He noted additional lay persons needed for equalization of lay and clergy now come from these categories: Conference presidents of UMW, UMM, UMY, Young Adult Council, and Conference Lay Leader; All lay chairpersons of Conference boards and agencies; lay members of general boards; lay delegates to General Conference; lay delegates to Jurisdictional Conference; district lay leaders; district presidents, UMM; district presidents, UMW; Diaconal Ministers; presidents of our Conference colleges; two young persons from each district under age 25; one additional youth/young adult from each district, age 19 - 30; additional lay members as needed from local churches.

Conference Secretary Ted Wilson indicated that this was going to add an even greater representation. The question was asked whether this should lie on the table for 24 hours and the Bishop ruled that this was not that type of resolution. This was simply a motion. Bishop Minnick asked that the Vann motion be voted up or down. It was approved.

Motion: Malloy Owen moved "that the Conference Secretary be asked to have in written form the entire law of the Conference concerning Lay/Clergy Equalization and that it be published in the Conference Journal by 1989." The motion passed.

Election of Conference Secretary: J. Allen Norris moved "to suspend the Rules (Section IV, #6c) to permit the incumbent secretary to serve another term." He indicated that this would allow the nomination of the incumbent secretary so that he might continue beyond the 8-year limit. The motion passed. Norris then placed in nomination the name of L. T. Wilson for Conference Secretary. Bishop Minnick requested further nominations.

Bob Baldrige placed in nomination the name of James Coile. It was seconded.

Point of Personal Privilege: Bishop Minnick recognized James Coile for a point of personal privilege. Coile stated that he had promised Ted Wilson that he would not run against him and Coile turned down the nomination, stating that he would not serve in the position, if elected.

Ted Wilson was elected unanimously and Bishop Minnick called on the Conference to give a standing ovation. It was done.

Election of Conference Statistician: William Sherman moved "that we suspend the Rules, Section IV, 7b, page 14, to permit the nomination of the incumbent statistician." It was sustained by a two-thirds vote. Sherman nominated David D. Traynham for Conference Statistician for the coming quadrennium. The Bishop asked if there were further nominations.

Wallace Kirby nominated Kimsey King for Conference Statistician.

William Sherman spoke in behalf of the nomination of D. D. Traynham. Wallace Kirby and Brian Gentle spoke for Kimsey King. A count vote was taken. Bishop Minnick declared the ballot closed. The votes were counted and Kimsey King was elected Conference Statistician. The motion was made to send D. D. Traynham a letter of appreciation for his many years of faithful service. It was adopted by a standing vote of the Conference.

Report of Agency Nomination Procedures: Bishop Minnick called on Belton Joyner to bring the report of Agency Nomination Procedures. Joyner gave the history behind this with the summation that each board and agency had decided how it wanted to assure inclusiveness among chairpersons. The report of agency plans was included in the packet at registration. Joyner stated that he felt that the agencies had fulfilled the will of the Conference and no further action was needed.

Committee on Nominations: Joyner stated that the report of the Committee on Nominations to the 1988 Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church had been distributed and would be taken up tomorrow after the people had time to study it. Joyner then showed each workbook that had been used to encounter this task in coordination with the plans of each agency and still be within the Conference guidelines and the guidelines of The Discipline and all other workbooks concerning boards and agencies. Six workbooks were used plus the actual report. Bishop Minnick stated that we would come back to that particular report on the next day. He requested that the people study the book tonight.

Report of Nominations to Jurisdictional Pool: J. Allen Norris brought the report from the Jurisdictional Conference delegation for the Jurisdictional Pool. Certain changes in General Conference legislation required adjustment in the prepared report and he requested that action be delayed until the next day. His request was granted.

Composite Report of the District Superintendents: Bishop Minnick called upon James C. P. Brown to bring this report. Brown expressed appreciation for the work of other personnel in the United Methodist Building for their help. (For complete text of the Brown report, see Section V of the Journal.) He was most eloquent in his comments. In the midst of his report, Brown called for the escorting of Mrs. Mary Ann Minnick to the platform and her recognition before the entire body. Gracious words were spoken on behalf of Mrs. Minnick. Brown then highlighted the fact that the Statistician's report for this year showed a modest gain of 675 at a time when so many conferences are showing a loss of membership. He gave several examples of churches which had extraordinary growth in people who were received on profession of faith, and even churches of small membership had large increases in membership and also even larger average attendances at worship. Brown spoke of the honor of Ernie Wendell being elected as the Southeastern Jurisdictional president of United Methodist Men. Brown received a round of applause as his eloquent and detailed report was completed, and appreciation was expressed by the Conference and by Bishop Minnick.

Report of the Laity: Bishop Minnick called upon J. Allen Norris, Jr., Conference Lay Leader, to begin the laity reports.

Conference Lay Leader: Norris spoke to the need for lay activism in the church. He projected the possibility of The United Methodist Church being even greater, and our Conference being even greater, provided we can attack our problems positively. He cited through both parable and humorous story examples of how, when people think small, they tend to fail. When people attack a problem with enthusiasm, they will succeed. Norris pointed out that we need to appreciate one another in love and in sincerity, if not always in understanding. He emphasized the immediate need for personal enrichment through increased spirituality, through Bible reading, and genuine concern for the scriptures. Norris asked how much time we spend as laity and clergy in the search of God as the center of our being. Another positive point was the need to enrich and enliven the programs of the local church. When people recognize that the church is something that really commands attention, then there will be growth! The same, he stated, held true throughout all the areas of the church - a quality approach for a quality day - for an age that drew people to the church and thus to Christ and drew them because of the power to witness and not in spite of an attitude held by some churches that continue to relive the past. Do we focus on people or problems? Do we serve or are we to be served?

Report of United Methodist Men: Ernie Wendell brought the report of United Methodist Men, stating that he was fixed on the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the essence of service. As a Conference organization, the United Methodist Men has the purpose to strengthen and unite men of faith in its mission, its evangelistic zeal, and its opportunities to contribute time, talent, and money to those less fortunate. (For complete text of the report, see Journal, Section V.)

Report of United Methodist Women: Jane Johnson, president, brought the report of the work of United Methodist Women. She spoke of the accomplishments of the past year and of the goals that were yet before the women. (For complete text of the report, see Journal, Section V.)

Report of United Methodist Youth: The report was brought by Andy Sneed. He spoke of a genuine growth on the part of the youth as their experience of the Lord and their work on His behalf are constantly growing. He spoke of how deeply impressed he was about this. He paid tribute to the Conference staff which provided such great support and spoke especially of the work of Pam Lineberger who had continued to work with the youth programs. (For complete text of the report, see Journal, Section V.)

Report of the Council on Finance and Administration: Bishop Minnick called upon Samuel W. Dixon to bring the report which is contained on pages 68-73 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1988. He made certain corrections which will be reflected in the 1988 Journal. Corrections were made which reflect changes that were made by the General Conference. He stated that the big news was the changes in the Outreach Ministries Fair Share formula. A video was planned at this time but the Bishop asked that we hold this off until the next day.

Hymn: The Bishop called for the singing of Lift High the Cross from the sampler of the new United Methodist Hymnal, recently adopted.

Announcements: Conference Secretary Ted Wilson made announcements. Bishop Minnick expressed special appreciation to Edward Norton, organist for the afternoon.

Benediction: Bishop Minnick gave the benediction and the Conference was in recess until the evening session.

FIRST DAY, EVENING SESSION, Thursday, June 16, 1988

At 8:00 p.m., the Conference was convened for worship with Bishop Roy C. Clark preaching. Special music was rendered by the Queen Street United Methodist Church Choir in Kinston. (For a synopsis of the entire service see the worship bulletin, A Service of Worship, Thursday, June 16, 1988.)

SECOND DAY, MORNING SESSION, Friday, June 17, 1988

Holy Communion: The Sacrament of Holy Communion was celebrated at 7:30 a.m., Wednesday, in Hensdale Chapel, led by David L. Harvin.

Conference Called to Order: Bishop Minnick called the Conference to order at 8:30 a.m.

Announcements: Secretary Ted Wilson made announcements.

Bible Study: After calling for the singing of Come We That Love the Lord and Fill My Cup, Lord from the new United Methodist Hymnal sampler, and following a prayer, Bishop Minnick began his Bible Study devoted to a most devout, intriguing, and well-presented study of the Book of Revelation. The Bishop concluded the first part of his study of Revelation with the announcement that he would concern himself with the millennium tomorrow. The Bible Study was exceedingly interesting and understandable - a marvelous treatment of a most difficult book of the Bible.

Recess: A brief recess was called for the Conference to reseat itself and stretch as we got ready for the activities of business.

Conference Reconvened: The Conference was called to order by Bishop Minnick.

Recognition of the 1000th Anniversary of the Russian Orthodox Church: Joe Mann presented Mrs. Carlisle Harvard, who works with the international students at Duke University, to bring a message of greeting - a thousand years of struggle - and a struggle with atheism that was the official statement of the state. She indicated the strength of that church and how we should look to it as an example of survival in hard times and take it as a challenge for us to continue, grow and develop a strength, a wisdom, and a belief that would sustain. Her presentation was received with obvious love and enthusiasm.

Report of the Committee on Minutes: Thomas Holtsclaw gave the report and moved acceptance of the Minutes for the preceding day which had been reviewed by the committee. It was so ordered by the Conference.

Report of the Conference Statistician: Brother D. D. Traynham received a standing ovation as he took the podium and received an expression of appreciation by the Conference for the 35 years that he had served as statistician. Mr. Traynham wished Kimsey King success as he assumed the office. Traynham referred to the statistician's report on pages 124 - 126 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1988. He lifted up the report and some of its statements and objectives, indicating places where the increases had occurred and those where the declines had occurred, emphasizing yet a net increase in the membership of the church. At the conclusion of the report, he received the appreciation of the Bishop and others. The Bishop announced that this was Brother Traynham's 58th Annual Conference and that he had been statistician since 1953.

Continuation of the Report of the Council on Finance and Administration: Samuel W. Dixon resumed the report from the preceding day. The video interpreting the uses of financial resources for the work of Christ was announced and presented.

Dixon spoke to section 2 of the Report on page 68 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1988. Dixon spoke to the change in the Fair Share Apportionment calculation. It was moved.

Tom Faggart made a motion concerning the Fair Share Apportionments. The motion was seconded. Faggart spoke to the problems of the churches not being the same size and configuration; therefore, the proposed formula could cause drastic inequities. Dixon gave a word of explanation why the Faggart amendment would not work. The vote was taken and the amendment lost.

Amendment: Stan Smith rose to bring an amendment: "I move that Council on Finance and Administration obtain from their auditors, McGladrey, Hendrickson & Pulen detailed, or any manner CFA deems appropriate, exact directions for local church treasurers reporting the minister's 1099 to IRS and this information be distributed by the Conference treasurer to all local church treasurers in the most expeditious and feasible manner." The Motion was approved with Smith's amendment.

Amendment: Stan Smith presented a second motion regarding the travel exclusion policy: "Believing the travel exclusion for pastor's travel in calculating the apportionments of the Fair Share askings is legitimate; and since the travel exclusion figure has stayed relatively the same since it was first instituted while actual cost of pastor's travel has risen each year, I therefore move that this exclusion be increased annually on an incremental basis determined by Council on Finance and Administration until this figure matches the Conference average for the travel allowance for ministers."

The motion passed.

Barton W. Baldwin from Mount Olive offered a motion concerning the budget at this time but it was defeated.

Amendment: Dennis P. Levin moved "on page 68, Section II, Item 1 (second sentence) delete 'exceed' and replace it with 'increase in excess of.'" This was approved without dissenting vote.

Section II was moved and approved as a whole. Dixon then moved Section III of the report on page 69 - 70 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1988. It was approved without dissent. Dixon moved Section V of the report. It was approved without dissent.

Election of Conference Treasurer: Dixon moved Section VII of the report, nominating Herb Stout for the office of Conference treasurer for the quadrennium. Stout was elected.

Scott Washington called for consideration of a resolution opposing hazardous waste treatment plants in North Carolina. After consultation, the Bishop ruled the matter in order and the resolution was spoken to by Washington. He spoke to his resolution discussing pollution, and specifically to having a hazardous waste treatment plant in North Carolina. Jimmy Williams spoke against the resolution.

G. Robert McKenzie requested that the resolution be referred to Church and Society for an in-depth study. Clyde Dunn spoke against the motion to refer. Jim Coile spoke in favor of referral but the motion was defeated.

The Washington resolution was called. A vote was taken, but there was confusion about eligibility to vote. After the Bishop explained the rules regarding who could and could not vote, he called for another vote and another count. After the second vote was taken, the resolution was defeated.

Motion: Elton Hendricks brought the following motion: "Because of the closeness of the vote, the complexity of the issue, and the long-term implications for our society, the issue of toxic waste disposal needs continuing study. I move that the Board of Church and Society be charged with the responsibility of conducting a continuing study of the issue and reporting to the Annual Conference at our next session." Steve Hickle of the Board of Church and Society spoke in favor of it and upon vote, it was supported by the Conference.

Report of the Board of Diaconal Ministry: Bishop Minnick presented Carol Dell to give the report. The report as found on pages 54 - 55 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1988 was presented, continuing for information through the top of page 60. Carol Dell spoke to the study of a proposed 1989 salary scale for lay certified professionals and diaconal ministers. She emphasized that this was simply a guideline and a suggestion, but it had been worked on with great care. The report was moved for acceptance and it was accepted. Carol Dell called to the stage Bess Sawyer for recognition of recertification and of the position she will be taking as Director of Music, Queen Street Church in Kinston. She received a round of applause.

Report of the Methodist Board of Publication: C. Alison Simonton, editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, brought the report, recognizing that George Johnson was now president of the Methodist Board of Publication. It was the first time that both the president and the editor were from the same conference. Simonton presented Cecil Robbins in honor of all of his work and specifically for his having been at one time editor of The Advocate. Robbins received a round of applause. Simonton also encouraged more subscriptions from the North Carolina Conference, alluding to the fact that some dry bones needed to get busy and turn into Advocate subscriptions. The report was received with appreciation and applause.

Report of the Black College Fund: The report was given by Gloria R. Scott, president of Bennett College. She gave thanks for the opportunity to speak and listed the colleges that took part in the fund.

Rufus Stark rose to pay tribute to Bennett College and its usefulness to our Conference and its meaning to the state. He addressed his remarks specifically to Dr. Scott as she completed her report. A round of applause was accorded both.

Recommendations of the Conference Council on Ministries: Bishop Minnick called upon Belton Joyner to take the podium to bring the report. This included pages 29 - 47 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1988. Joyner stated that item 27 on page 40 would not be before us, as it was an informational matter and was not a program recommendation. Section I was proposed and adopted. The 1988 Supplemental Recommendations were moved and adopted. The 1989 Program Recommendations for Local Church Consideration, pages 30 - 35, were before us with changes that would be required by action of the General Conference to be included in the final text.

Amendment: Paul Stallsworth moved that on page 35 we add "Item L62: That each local church consider conducting a study of 'The Articles of Religion of the Methodist Church.' The study might use as a resource, Doctrinal Standards In The Wesleyan Tradition (Francis Asbury Press/Zondervan, 1988) by Thomas C. Oden. To be taught by the pastor." It was accepted by Joyner and supported by the Conference.

Amendment: Paul Stallsworth moved the addition of "L63: That each local church consider holding a discussion, or series of discussions, on abortion and the Church. To be implemented by the Council on Ministries/Administrative Council." Stallsworth spoke to his intention about openness in the discussion of controversial matters. It was adopted.

Amendment: James Coile moved the addition of "L64: That each local church shall consider sponsoring and/or supporting 'Special Olympics.' To be implemented by the Council on Ministries/Administrative Council." It was approved.

Amendment: Robert Pullman rose to amend L51: "Under L51 of the COM report, that a period be placed after the word 'representative' and that the rest of the sentence be deleted; and that a new section be listed under 1989 Policy Recommendations, namely, The Methodist Board of Publication, Inc., which shall read 'that if the North Carolina Chris- ian Advocate representative be elected by the charge conference, that person be chosen from the members at large of the Administrative Board/Administrative Council." The motion was adopted.

Amendment: Scott C. Washington proposed the addition of "L66: That each local church consider having a study about pollution and ecology. To be implemented and funded by the Council on Ministries/Administrative Council." It was approved.

The entire report of local church program recommendations was placed before the body as amended and it was approved.

Joyner introduced the district program recommendations.

Motion: Charles Litzenberger moved "that each district Council on Ministries consider placing a North Carolina Christian Advocate in nursing homes, retirement homes, hospitals, and public libraries within each district." The motion was adopted.

Motion: W. Stanley Smith moved "that each district COM support the Cape Fear Walks to Emmaus in the spring and fall and that the dates be obtained from the Lay Director of the Cape Fear Emmaus community." It was adopted.

The 1989 Program Recommendations for District Consideration, pages 35 - 37, were before us. They were adopted.

The 1989 Program Recommendations Directed to the Annual Conference, bottom of page 37 through top of page 44, were before us.

A motion regarding making campmeeting an annual event was made by Thomas S. Fleck, Sr. from Hertford. It was received, discussed, then rejected.

A question was raised by Robert Pullman.

Amendment: Jimmy F. Cummings moved "that we amend A55 on page 44 by deleting the words 'ethnic minority.'" The motion carried.

Amendment: W. Edward Privette moved "that a seminar on the Multiple Staff Church be held in 1989 with nationally known leadership to assist in development of the unique resources of the large church in staffing, financing, programming, and missional outreach opportunities. To be funded by the Board of Evangelism, Board of Missions, and through participant fees. To be implemented jointly by the Board of Evangelism and the Board of Missions." The motion was adopted.

Order of the Day: The Bishop observed that it was now time for the retired and retiring ministers' luncheon, and therefore, the order of the day was called.

Announcements: Conference Secretary Wilson made several announcements.

Adjournment: Bishop Minnick declared the Conference adjourned until 1:25 p.m. for the afternoon session.

SECOND DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Friday, June 17, 1988

Conference Convened: The Conference was called to order. The Bishop spoke to the problem of the fact that we were behind in our business and encouraged the Conference to move along expeditiously.

Motion: Albert Shuler moved that all speeches be limited to two minutes. It was adopted unanimously.

Return to the Recommendations of the Conference Council on Ministries: Belton Joyner took the podium and moved the sections on pages 44 and 45 but was ruled out of order on the grounds that we had to go back and finish the business being discussed before the adjournment for the noonday meal.

Amendment: Roderic L. Mullen moved an amendment to item A5, page 38: "After the words 'other Protestant traditions,' add the words 'Eastern Orthodox,' so that the complete sentence reads: "That there be ongoing dialogue opportunities among United Methodists, other Protestant traditions, Eastern Orthodox, Roman Catholics, and Jews." It was approved.

Amendment: Joseph M. Berne from Camp Lejeune moved "that the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries develop educational and promotional material to assist persons in the local church to understand better persons with terminally ill conditions and how to minister to them." This was to become item A33b on page 40. The motion was adopted.

The 1989 Program Recommendations Directed to the Annual Conference section was then approved in its entirety as amended.

The 1989 Program Recommendations Directed to Other Agencies items regarding other agencies, on pages 44 and 45, were put before the Conference. They were moved and adopted.

The 1989 Policy Recommendations: Joyner then presented the Policy Recommendations, pages 45-47. They were moved and adopted. That portion of the report was declared completed by Belton Joyner.

Charter Change for CCOM: David Banks came to the microphone to present the charter change, referring to the pink sheet which had been handed out the day before: "Delete the following paragraph: 'Council on Young Adult Ministries - Membership shall be composed of the following: the district coordinators of young adult ministries, and either one lay person or one clergy person from each district so that there will be one lay person and one clergy person from each district (one of whom shall be a young adult), to be nominated by the district superintendent.' Add this new paragraph: 'Council on Young Adult Ministries - Membership shall be comprised of one clergy and one lay representative from each district plus the campus minister from each college or university with a United Methodist campus ministry and/or a Wesley Foundation campus ministry.'" The action was an amendment to the Charter of the Conference Council on Ministries. There was no discussion. It was adopted.

Report of the Committee on Nominations: Belton Joyner returned to the podium to present the report. Mark Kasper moved that Bob Bergland take the place of Elizabeth Oxendine on the Board of Worship, page 33. The substitution was made.

James Brown asked that the name of Clark Barfield, page 7, Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns, be replaced by Scott C. Washington. It was adopted.

David S. Fischler moved the placement of the name of Christian Kraatz in place of Barbara McClure on the Board of Worship, page 33. This failed and it is not substituted.

W. Arthur Warren made an editorial correction.

The report of the Committee on Nominations to the 1988 Annual Conference was adopted.

Belton Joyner moved the election of the District Lay Leaders as required by the Conference rules. They were elected.

Nominees for District Boards of Trustees and District Committees on Superintendency were noted. For those who had not had a district conference and were approved as distributed, the Conference approved these presented to the Conference and those who were on file in the Council Director's office.

Nominations to Jurisdictional Pool: Nominees were presented and read to the Conference, and would lay on the table until the next day.

Report of the Duke Endowment: Albert F. Fisher presented the report. He expressed his enthusiasm and sense of pleasure at being able to present this report. He indicated that the work of the Duke Endowment became more exciting each year. He spoke of the Duke Endowment Charter. He spoke of how the Endowment had provided a half million dollars during the past year for grants for building and improving new rural churches. He also spoke of the wisdom of Mr. Duke and the many other implications of Christian service provided through the Endowment. (Full text of this report will be found in Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the Capital Funds Plans Council: The order of the day was called. Bishop Minnick asked for the presenters of the Plans Council recommendation. He called upon Harry Gatton to preside. He presented the recommendations as outlined on page 27-30 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1988. Gatton presented Beth Norris to the Conference to make a statement on behalf of Camping Ministries. Charles Carpenter spoke of what the funds would do - including the division of $8,000,000 into half, with half to go to camping and half to go to church extension. The church extension money would be allocated $3,000,000 to purchase new church sites and make new church construction grants. $500,000 would be for the redevelopment of existing congregations and $500,000 for salary support for clergy at new churches. In terms of church extension, it was indicated that this money would be set up as endowments with a minimal use of principal so that it would last over many years. It was placed before the Conference for debate.

James Coile moved suspension of the rules to give more time for discussion. The rules were suspended. Coile moved that the speeches be limited to 5 minutes. It was seconded and passed.

Jean Haislip from Goldsboro moved to make a motion to allow pledges for either course. Stan Smith spoke against the motion because of its divisiveness. Floyd Evans of the Plans Council made a speech that we had been telling people that the money would be divided 50/50 and he felt that it would be 50/50 in order to keep faith with what had been told the people in preparation. The motion failed.

Winton Rankin from Zebulon spoke against the plan and said he felt that it was inconsistent. Time was called on the speech against the proposal. Bill Simpson spoke for the campaign but asked about the timing and wondered if it had to be done in November of this year and could not wait until January or February of next year. Other questions were asked about timing. Tom Collins responded that the United Methodist organization that would help with the campaign could allocate their best personnel most effectively if it was done by the schedule suggested. Also he reminded the Conference that this would avoid a church's having two campaigns in one year.

E. W. Gore from Tabor City attempted a motion for secret ballot. After discussion, the Bishop said that motion should be made after the decision was made to take the vote.

Bruce Pate made a speech for the campaign.

Langill Watson proposed a motion to change the chronology of the campaign - to move it back four months - with the campaign targeted for February or March. David Brownlee spoke against the change in chronology. Bill Simpson spoke for and Maness Mitchell spoke against the Watson amendment. The motion was defeated.

Pat Herring of Siler City questioned the amount of $500,000 for redevelopment indicated on page 29 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1988. She spoke as though this was a new asking but was reminded that it had been there from the beginning. Michele Merchant spoke in behalf of the campaign.

Frank Berkes from Durham gave a detailed account of his experience through church extension.

The previous question on all that is before us was called. It was sustained. Again a secret ballot was called for by E. W. Gore but a secret ballot was not supported. Belton Joyner gave closing statement from the Plans Council. The question was called and by a wide margin the vote was in favor of the Capital Funds Campaign as is with no further changes.

Point of Personal Privilege: James C. P. Brown announced that the Cabinet and the Bishop had already made their pledges before the vote was taken. The total was announced as over $112,000. This was received with applause.

Break: Bill Cottingham asked that there be a five-minute singing break taken. During this period, hymns were sung by the body assembled and it was obvious that they were hymns of praise and celebration for the historic action taken by this 1988 North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church in deciding to embark upon this momentous campaign.

Jerry Lowry raised a question about the total number of delegates registered. Secretary Wilson stated that over 1800 had been sent invitations. The question was asked, "How many seats are there in the auditorium?" The answer was, "1,104." There was a request that the Conference Committee on Entertainment look into better seating arrangements so that all members of the Conference might be able to be seated at the time of a vote as persons were standing in the halls.

Procedures for Pastoral Support for Proposed New Congregations: Caswell Shaw presented the proposal. (For full text see Section V of the Journal.)

Amendment: Robert Pullman moved: "To add in the third paragraph following 20%, 'of the initial grant' and add in the last paragraph following 20%, 'of the initial grant.'" It was accepted by the Board of Missions. The report was approved as amended.

Testimonial: Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.: Margaret Harper from Southport came to give a testimonial on behalf of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. She asked Langill Watson to come and stand with her. Margaret Harper discussed the conclusion of the long range plan to provide a retirement home within easy driving distance of everybody within the Conference and gave a testimony to the work that had been done from 1952-1986. Langill Watson also spoke on behalf of the Methodist Retirement Homes.

Motion: Bill Sherman moved that the helpful portions of the statements by Margaret Harper and Langill Watson be published in the Coordinated Mailing and also in The North Carolina Christian Advocate. It was adopted.

Harvey Johnson attempted a motion that the Bishop of the North Carolina Conference appoint a committee of no less than 5 nor more than 7, of whom one will be an expert in the field and outside the Conference, and that no more than two be members or former members of the Board of Trustees; that the committee study the operation and management of the total concept of the Homes' mission and relation to the North Carolina Conference. Joe Parker spoke against the motion. The question was called, the vote was taken, and the Bishop ruled that it did not carry.

Report from the General Conference: Bishop Minnick called on Allen Norris, Jr., to bring a report from the 1988 session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church, held in St. Louis, April 26 - May 6, 1988. The delegation joined Norris on the stage. (For an extension of his remarks, refer to the Journal, Section V.) After he finished the report, Norris presented the Bishop with a photograph of Bishop Minnick presiding at General Conference. This concluded the report on General Conference.

Report of Board of Managers, North Carolina Pastors' School: Charles Michael Smith gave the report. (For complete text, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the Board of Pensions: J. Donald Phillips gave the report and made the necessary corrections. Report A was moved and passed. Report B was approved. Report

C was approved. Report D was moved with the understanding that the study that had been ordered by the Conference last year be held until it could be completely examined by the Board of Pensions and reported back to the Conference next year. Report D was passed.

Point of Personal Privilege: Whit Warren rose to a point of personal privilege. He asked about the possible service of Lynn Wall on the Board of Pensions. He had been told that she could not serve because as a widow she was a recipient of benefits from the Board. The Bishop ruled this out of order at the time.

James Coile rose to state that all members of The United Methodist Church should not be deprived because of status of service on any board or agency. The Bishop responded that he would make a ruling before the end of Conference.

The report as a whole was voted and it was adopted.

Report of the Conference Board of Trustees: Myron C. Banks gave the report. Banks felt that the Conference Board of Trustees was able to report the Conference in excellent shape.

The Board of Trustees gave a report on the Study of the United Methodist Building and the fact that the only way that the vacant space could be used would be to go ahead and remove the asbestos and take up the options of people who had long-term leases in mind. As a result, the asbestos was ordered removed so that rental could be made. The cost of removing the asbestos and repairing has been about $300,000 and has been covered by funds accumulated and by an emergency appropriation from CFA. New lessees will soon be moving into the renovated building. (For complete text of the report of the Conference Board of Trustees, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report on Study of United Methodist Building: The feasibility study of relocating Conference headquarters, ordered by last year's Annual Conference, was long and detailed and impartial. It was discovered that the least expensive proposal was to stay in the present location with the asbestos removal and necessary repairs. Myron Banks noted others who had helped with the Committee, including William H. Gattis, Margaret Saunders, Ruth Harper, Paul Edwards, Laura Little, Whit Warren, Allen Norris, Jerry Lowry, Charles Mercer, Grace Black, and Earle Merrill, along with the members of the Board of Trustees. The entire report, including pages 92-95 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1988, was placed before the Conference.

A lay member from Raleigh, Charles Holland, made a motion against the proposal of doing any rehabilitation to the old building but his motion failed.

Question: Maness Mitchell asked if there was any plan or provision for providing more space for the operation of the Conference and for the Conference staff in the immediate future. Mitchell reminded Banks that last year it was stated that the Conference needed 4,000 square feet of new space for Conference activities. He wondered why more of the building could not be used. Banks responded that the rental of the rest of the space would be needed to pay for the rest of the renovation of the building and its upkeep.

Maness Mitchell then moved that The North Carolina Conference be provided with 4,000 square feet or more for expansion as needed from the space formerly leased. It was seconded. Dennis Campbell spoke against the motion. Following further discussion the motion failed.

A question was asked concerning whether the parsonages and their sale and reacquisition in other location was considered. The answer by Banks was, "Yes."

Barton W. Baldwin from Mount Olive attempted a motion concerning repayment of asbestos removal expenses but the motion failed.

Charles Holland from Raleigh attempted a motion to table but there was no second.

James Coile rose to state that he wished that our United Methodist Building in Raleigh had been built with a facade as a symbol of The Church rather than the structure we have today and he wished we could have a new building somewhere else to reflect the symbol but he realized this to be wishful thinking. The report of the Board of Trustees, without further emendation, was voted. It was adopted.

Report of Task Force on Congregational Development and Church Growth: Bishop Minnick called on W. Edward Privette to bring the report. The report is found on pages 100-101 in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1988. (For extended remarks, see Section V of the Journal.) The report was adopted.

Announcements: Conference Secretary Ted Wilson made announcements.

Adjournment: Bishop Minnick announced that the Conference was adjourned until 7:30 p.m.

SECOND DAY, EVENING SESSION, Friday, June 17, 1988, AN EVENING OF CELEBRATION,
VITAL CONGREGATIONS - FAITHFUL DISCIPLES

Invocation: The Mass Choir of 100 members opened this evening of uplift and celebration at 7:30 p.m. with the Introit, Psalm 150 by John Harper. The invocation was given by Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., followed by the singing of several hymns of The Church, including The Church's One Foundation, I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord, Jesus, with Thy Church Abide, and Onward Then, Ye People.

Service of Recognition of Clergy Who Are Retiring: Following the singing, Bishop Minnick announced the Service of Recognition of Clergy Who Are Retiring and called upon J. Donald Phillips to present the 1988 retirees. Phillips stated that before the beginning of the service they had added the total number of years represented in service on the stage among those retiring. The total came to 583 years. Before the service, retiring clergy spouses had been presented with orchid corsages. Each retiring clergy person in turn gave his own testimony - some humorous, some filled with a master stroke of beauty, some with the obvious love for Jesus which all expressed, but all gave their sense of appreciation and joy in the service they had had within the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church. As each finished, Bishop Minnick shook hands with them, and then when all had completed, The Doxology was sung.

United Methodist Publishing House: James Busby represented the United Methodist Publishing House as director of the Charlotte Area and spoke of the work and necessity of loyalty to the Publishing House, for the Publishing House was the servant of The Church. All profits from the sale of books from The United Methodist Publishing House are redistributed equitably to the Annual Conferences to help the retirement annuities of retired servants of the Lord through the ministry of Jesus Christ. He presented the check, which will supplement the retirement fund within the Conference.

Busby introduced Mary Louise (Lou) Braswell who is to be the new manager of the Cokesbury Book Store in Raleigh. He encouraged everyone to patronize the store. Miss Braswell was received with applause. Busby explained that she was the daughter of Kermit and Alice Braswell of our own Conference.

Busby then spoke of some of the new projects of Cokesbury, including a multi-unit Bible study, a new T.V. ministry through a channel, the new hymnal which he encouraged people to order early and save by placing a cash order for the hymnal, and many other books which were being released as new stores were constantly being opened. Then he presented the check to Bishop Minnick for $14,738.92 for the retirement fund.

Scholarship Presentations: Thomas G. Melvin made the presentations. The Blackburn Scholarship, for $5,000 over a four-year period, went to Julie Baird from Roanoke Rapids who will be attending North Carolina Wesleyan College. Next was the scholarship established by Bishop William R. Cannon - The Cannon Scholarship - to be presented to those persons who planned to be ordained ministers. The scholarship is the equivalent of ten percent of the earnings of the principal less ten percent to be added to the principal. This year's scholarship was presented to Timothy Scott Taylor from Louisburg who is attending Louisburg College. Other scholarships came through the route of the Student Day offering. Scholarships provided the following persons an opportunity for continuation in their education: Shawn Hurley from Fayetteville and Pamela Sue Woodall from Raeford.

Presentation of Charters to New Congregations: Thomas A. Collins presented charters to new congregations which had been made possible through a variety of ways. These charters went to Richard P. Wilkerson, pastor of Genesis Church in Cary; to Jerry Lowry and Ray Brooks, who will serve at West Robeson; to Ellen Metcalf, pastor of Evergreen; to Leroy Worth, who will serve the Southeast Raleigh Ministry; to Sam Wynn, who will serve the Native American Ministries in the Fayetteville area; and to Mark Lykins, who will serve a church to be formed along Highway 98 in Durham.

During all of this, there was an opportunity for worship, singing, and great anthems of the church. Each portion of these special services was separated by an antiphonal singing of Alleluia! and praising God.

Lay Person of the Year Award: Perhaps one of the highest moments of the evening came in the presentation of the Lay Person of the Year Award by Conference Lay Leader J. Allen Norris, Jr. The award went to William Foster Jacobs of the Rockingham District, a man of abiding faith and sacrificial living, a member of the Sandy Plains Church in Robeson County. Jacobs came to the podium and received his award, along with members of his family and his church, giving praise only to God and to his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Other honored district lay persons were Elma Hawkins from Burlington District, Fred Rivers from Durham District, Juanita Davenport from Elizabeth City District, Kathryn G. Bundy from Fayetteville District, Floyd Evans from Goldsboro District, Sara M. Stocks from Greenville District, Georgia B. Wertman from New Bern District, Mildred Fry from Raleigh District, Thelma B. Cooke from Rocky Mount District, Frances and Jimmy Roberts from Sanford District, and Jeanne Rouse from Wilmington District. The Conference graciously accepted these lay persons with appropriate responses.

Recognition of Chaplains: The evening service moved to the recognition of chaplains by Milford Oxendine, Jr., giving a description of their duties and their ministry and the calling of the roll. The Conference responded with appreciation.

Bishop Minnick took the podium to also recognize those other faithful disciples - the members of the staff that serve our entire United Methodist Conference and members of the Cabinet - who work closely with him in the ministry of districts throughout the North Carolina Annual Conference. He acknowledged Charles Bryant for six years on the Council on Ministries staff, and presented a new staff member, Albert Shuler. The Bishop thanked outgoing District Superintendent, Charles M. Smith, and introduced new District Superintendent, J. Malloy Owen III.

The evening ended with the benediction, the choral response, The Lord Bless You and Keep You, and the hymn, God of Ev'ry Generation.

THIRD DAY, MORNING SESSION, Saturday, June 18, 1988

Holy Communion: The Sacrament of Holy Communion was celebrated in Hensdale Chapel at 7:30 a.m., with Gerry G. Davis as leader.

Conference Convened: Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., greeted everyone with a cheery, "Good morning!" The Conference responded. Bishop Minnick then called for the singing of the hymn, Come Ye That Love the Lord. The Conference assembled responded with great joy.

Bible Study: The Bishop turned to the second portion of his study of the Book of Revelation. Upon the conclusion of the study, the Bishop received applause from the congregation. This was indeed a highly momentous event to have in just two mornings presented one of the most difficult books of the Bible and have them so clearly represented so that they were understandable to everyone present.

Conference Business Convened: Bishop Minnick called on the Conference to be in order so that the day's work might begin.

Announcement: Bishop Minnick reported that Lynn Wall was indeed eligible to serve on the Board of Pensions, even though she was receiving benefits therefrom.

Report of the General Council on Ministries: The Bishop called on Allen Norris to present this report. (See Section V in the Journal.)

Jurisdictional Pool Election: Norris also presented the nominations for the Jurisdictional Conference pool. He asked for nominations from the floor. From the lay persons, Ernie Wendell asked that his name be taken off, since he was already on a General Commission. He nominated Frank Berkes to take his place. With that one change, the nominations were approved.

Nomination: Allen Norris presented the following: "The North Carolina Annual Conference nominates Joseph B. Bethea for the episcopacy, acknowledging the full endorsement of the Annual Conference jurisdictional delegation, appreciative of the high level of support seen across the jurisdiction, and convinced that he carries well the finest marks of episcopal leadership." It was done. Joseph Bethea was recognized with a round of applause.

Joseph Bethea asked for the privilege to speak and it was accorded by the Bishop. Bethea expressed his appreciation to the Annual Conference and to the delegates and to the members across its boundaries for their concern for him, the mutuality of love, and his desire to make whatever contribution he could - be it here, or if he should happen to be elected to the episcopacy, he would attempt to be a good and faithful steward of the Lord Jesus Christ and always indebted to his brothers and sisters in Christ in the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Report of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Council on Ministries and Lake Junaluska Assembly: Bishop Minnick called upon Reginald Ponder to give the report and also of the Lake Junaluska Assembly. Ponder expressed his personal appreciation for those who had represented the Conference with great skill and devotion - Bishop Minnick, Margaret Saunders, Albert F. Fisher, and others who had served along with him and had guided and aided him. (For full text of the report, see Section V of the Journal.) Ponder gave special thanks for this Conference's support of the Jurisdictional Administration Fund. The proposed changes in the Jurisdictional Conference structure were presented and Ponder indicated that Bishop Minnick as well as Bishop Duffey had worked diligently on this report and he commended it to the delegates from this Conference to support it.

Testimonial: Habitat for Humanity: Bishop Minnick introduced William L. Bingham to bring the report. A report showing what had been done in Raleigh and Wake County through the work of Edenton Street United Methodist Church was presented as an example. A copy of The Bridge Builder, the Robeson County Church and Community Center publication, was distributed to show a typical diagram of a habitat dwelling. This alternative low-cost housing will provide housing for many who have never had it - through the work of Christians and churches of all denominations throughout many conferences and many churches all over the nation as this unique program grows.

A video tape was presented to the Conference and then the testimony from two people living in an initial habitat dwelling. Following the video presentation, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Smith, who are occupants of the new habitat home, gave their own personal testimony as to how much it meant to them. Their comments were received by the Conference with great appreciation and no small emotion at what can be done when Christians work together to help others in need. Their remarks were among the most exciting of the Conference and were received with a rousing standing round of applause.

Bingham presented James Coile who introduced the Lackeys who are working with Habitat in Haiti. Emmit McCall stated that if this Conference had accomplished no more than we had heard in the last few minutes, it would have been worth it all! There was a response with great applause.

Resolution on Social Justice in Robeson County: The Bishop recognized Nancy Best to present a resolution distributed the preceding day concerning Robeson County. The resolution was placed before the Conference.

Robert Rudd spoke in favor of the sentiment, but against the wording of the resolution.

Amendment: Robert Rudd moved "to delete 'Whereas Billy McKellar' and insert 'support of the intention ... we must disapprove of their methods of achieving their goal.'" The motion passed.

Floyd Evans made a motion to table the resolution and amendments but the motion to table failed.

Amendment: George C. Megill moved "that the 'Whereas Billy McKellar died' be put at the end of the whereas, or after 'information concerning the possible corruption in Robeson County' rather than where it is in the resolution." His motion passed.

Announcement: Secretary Ted Wilson said it was imperative to make an announcement regarding the Clergy Partners luncheon - that the bus was in front of the building now waiting to take those who needed a ride.

We were back to the resolution. Arthur Wall and Elma McLaurin from Fayetteville spoke against it. Hazel Sorrell from Benson and John Wenberg spoke for it. Robert Mangum of Prospect Church stated an understanding of the Jacobs and Hatcher situation but we could not support the manner in which they acted; however, he felt the Conference could take a stand supporting bail pending a trial because they could be trusted to return for that trial.

Previous Question: Stan Smith moved the previous question on all that was before us. The call for the question succeeded, the resolution was put, and it was passed as amended by the Rudd and Megill amendments. (After editorial changes it will appear in Section V of the Journal.)

Order of the Day: Bishop Minnick called for the order of the day for the stage to be set for the Memorial Service which was to take place next.

Memorial Service: The Memorial Service was held at 11:00 a.m., in Reeves Auditorium with Ted Wilson, Conference Secretary, presiding and H. Langill Watson preaching. (See synopsis of the entire service and memorials in Section IV of the Journal.)

Announcements: At the conclusion of the Memorial Service, Secretary Wilson made several announcements including the Conference registration tally which is 1521 thus far. The Conference was adjourned until 1:25 p.m.

THIRD DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Saturday, June 18, 1988

Meeting of the North Carolina Conference Brotherhood/Sisterhood: J. K. Bostick called for the singing of Hymn 24 in the United Methodist Hymnal sampler, Come We That Love the Lord. The Conference responded. Bostick called upon Murry L. DeHart to offer prayer. He led in prayer with fervor.

Bostick called upon Jerry Smith to give the report as treasurer of the Brotherhood and commended Jerry for the marvelous work he had done during the year. He asked that we look at page 73 in The Conference Programs, Recommendations and Reports 1988. He made corrections in the trustee list, adding George Blanchard to the Class of 1993. Smith called upon the members of the Brotherhood to consider the recommendations that were mailed earlier concerning the increase in the amount of each call so that the amount disbursed would be increased in order to provide more than adequate funding and, perhaps, enough to increase the amount of each call that is paid. It is recommended that active beneficiary members pay an increase of from $10 to $15 over a three year period. Retired beneficiary members would be requested to pay $3 instead of $2 per call following the 1988 Annual Conference.

The question was raised as to how a person could become a member of the Brotherhood. Bostick responded.

The motion concerning the raising of the amount of each call was passed. The amount of each call following the 1988 Annual Conference was moved to be changed from $3800 to $3900 payment.

The name of the North Carolina Conference Brotherhood was changed to North Carolina Conference Brotherhood/Sisterhood effective immediately.

Rufus Stark moved the publishing of ministerial deaths in all the newspapers covering the North Carolina Conference with the Brotherhood bearing the cost. This was disputed by several other people, stating that it was an overlap of duty and responsibility. The Ministerial Relations Office acknowledged that it was their responsibility to get notice of death out and that all District Superintendents were called; that Bill Norton took all of the papers, read them for information concerning this, and reported it so the superintendents could find out as quickly as possible about ministerial deaths throughout the Conference and contact the ministers within the district.

Reginald Ponder moved that this be referred to the Executive Committee of the Brotherhood/Sisterhood who could meet with the Office of Ministerial Relations and come up with a program which would show how it could be workable and useful.

He stated that this committee should report to the 1989 Annual Conference. The motion prevailed.

No trustees needed to be elected. Officers J. K. Bostick, Sr., president; Murry L. DeHart, Jr., vice president; and Jerry T. Smith, Secretary-Treasurer, were elected.

The Brotherhood/Sisterhood was adjourned, having completed its business.

Conference Business Resumed: Bishop Minnick recognized Dr. Gerald Floyd from Candler and Wes Allen of the Office of Finance and Field Service who will be working with us with the Capital Funds Campaign during the months to come. Allen addressed the Conference with positive words of excitement about things that were happening within the Conference. He introduced Bill and Roanne Nace, and John Henry and Audrey Shadburn as regional directors for the campaign. Ernie Porter from our Conference was also recognized as he will be going to work with the Office of Finance and Field Service. The co-workers who would be helping us in our Conference fund raising were greeted with applause. He spoke of our need to see this as a spiritual venture and begin at once to pray for the gift of the Holy Spirit, that it might touch clergy and laity to bring this to a conclusion with a whole-hearted response, a sacrificial response, a response to Jesus.

Greetings: The Bishop called on Caswell Shaw who recognized George Megill and James Goodwin, missionaries in Brazil. Each of the missionaries brought greetings and expressed thanks.

Composite Report of the Conference Council on Ministries: Bishop Minnick called upon Belton Joyner to bring the report. Joyner introduced a series of speakers who told how the Conference agencies had helped local churches. Joyner recognized Milford Oxendine to make a statement on the work of Archives and History. Steve Hickle spoke on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns. Dorothy Rogers spoke to the accomplishments of the Board of Church and Society. Mack MacMillan spoke to the cause of Education. Branson Sheets spoke of a project of the Board of Evangelism. Rob Huckaby spoke for the cause of Health and Welfare Ministries and the projects their church had undertaken. Statements were made on behalf of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry. Ray Wittman spoke of the Board of Laity. Larry Robinson spoke of the Board of Missions. Robert Wallace spoke on behalf of Outdoor and Camping Ministries. Randy Blanchard spoke on Religion and Race. Floyd Evans spoke on Stewardship. Statements were made on behalf of the Status & Role of Women. Mae Turner spoke for the Board of Worship. One by one other local church programs that were encompassed in this entire range, briefly in 45 seconds, gave information about a specific activity that had changed the lives of people within their church or community. Belton Joyner stated this was simply a sample of what was going on in the North Carolina Annual Conference. The report was received by the Annual Conference with great enthusiasm.

Report on Relationship Statements: Bishop Minnick called on Joseph C. Parker to give the report for the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries. Parker explained the background of the need for these relationship statements and why it was necessary from time to time to review the relationship statements and to bring them up to date. The Relationship Statements appear on pages 24-26 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1988 and were placed before the Conference for acceptance.

Amendment: G. Robert McKenzie moved "to delete the paragraph following the last item in each section on Relationship Statements on Covenant Relationship beginning "Neither the institution nor the Annual Conference ..." The motion passed.

A question was asked by David Harvin regarding the Retirement Homes structure and why they were unable to take people who had limited resources. Parker answered that they simply could not afford to continue to function at the loss rate that the homes are experiencing.

A question was asked concerning Cypress Glen as to its current census. Parker responded that it was 13 at the present time.

Point of Order: Harvey Johnson asked if there was fiduciary insurance on the trustees, and if so, how much? The answer was "Yes - $1,000,000 per person total."

Amendment: Scott C. Washington moved to change item 1 under The Methodist Home for Children, page 24, to read: "The Methodist Home for Children agrees to: 1. Continue its tradition of offering quality services to children, youth, and families, to develop innovative concepts to help with their changing needs, and to be consistent with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church." The motion passed.

There was then a call for the previous question and the Relationship Statements were accepted as amended.

Trustee Elections: Nominations for the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, pages 48-52, were moved by James Earl Vann and they were adopted, concerning both trustees and campus ministries.

Sam McMillan put into nomination the Local Camp Committees as listed on page 47. With typographic corrections as noted they were approved.

Motion: Joseph B. Bethea moved that due to the Conference running behind in the program "that all reports be limited to 10 minutes and all speeches to 2 minutes for the remainder of this session." It was supported by the entire house.

Joe Parker moved the nomination of trustees for the Methodist Home for Children, pages 52-53. After Parker announced two corrections, they were elected.

On pages 53-54, nominations for trustees for the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., were presented. It was noted that Margaret Saunders could no longer serve because she was going on CFA.

Motion: Joe Parker moved "that the rules be suspended in order that Frank Brooks might be nominated to serve for one year on the Board of Trustees for the Retirement Homes because of his skill and expertise as chairperson of the Buildings and Grounds Committee, since all of the trustees who have served on this committee have rotated off." The motion passed and the name of Frank Brooks replaces the name of Margaret Saunders.

Langill Watson stated that he felt it necessary to have a clergy person on the Class of 1992. Watson asked that J. Malloy Owen be nominated in place of Gary Fisher. Bill Sherman spoke against it on the grounds that Gary Fisher had been nominated another year and had been placed aside out of courtesy, and he felt that this was not right.

Sherman proposed an amendment to the motion "that Malloy Owen be nominated in place of J. Edwin Guirkins of the New Bern District." The amendment was not supported. The Watson motion also failed.

The nominations for trustees for the Retirement Homes were adopted as printed on pages 53 and 54.

Proposal to Change Number of Trustees on Retirement Homes Board: Roger Elliott presented the report found on page 63.

Amendment: Robert Wallace moved "to amend #3 (on page 63) by deleting 'Resident Representatives.'" It was sustained to keep the resident representative on the Board.

Scott Washington moved that the entire matter be deleted, giving as a rationale that the people who were being removed from the Board of Trustees were people who needed to have information and input. It was not supported.

Reginald Ponder moved to change "four" to "six" under item 1 on page 63. Joe Parker rose to oppose the motion because it was felt necessary to bring the total number of trustees into a number that was manageable and could effectively govern the Homes. John Wenberg spoke for the Ponder motion.

The previous question on all before us was called. Elliott made a final statement and the Ponder amendment was not supported.

The Elliott proposal of trustee reduction passed with the exception of the retention of the resident representatives as contained in the Wallace amendment.

Point of Personal Privilege: Era Mae Rickman of Carthage stood to express her heart felt gratitude for Bishop Minnick and especially for his patience, fairness, understanding and wisdom.

Testimonial: Yokefellow Prison Ministry: R. Bruce Pate led the testimonial of this worthy and comprehensive ministry. Vicki Sigmon, part of Yokefellow Ministries Program, an Episcopalian, was also invited to address the Conference which she did appreciatively.

Recognition of Clergy Partners: Bishop Minnick asked all Clergy Partners present to stand so they could be recognized. He expressed sorrow that he had not been able to call on them at the correct time when more were present.

Report of the Task Force on Farm Crisis: In the absence of Ed Legates, Charles Bryant was called upon to present the report. The report included the fact that over $50,000 had been distributed to farm crisis needs and that $10,000 would be carried over to the Board of Church and Society for that work since the Task Force would now become a part of the Board of Church and Society. He also remarked on the presences that had been established at State fairs. Several persons - Charles Holland, Jim Huskins, Lilly Best, and Tony Collier asked and answered questions on the Farm Crisis issue.

Testimonial: Report of Disaster Preparedness Committee: Bishop Minnick called upon Dennis Levin to present the testimonial. He began with discussing the Red Tide Relief in North Carolina and expanded on further work of this committee. The report was well received by the entire Conference.

Motion: Malloy Owen moved "that when the resolution on Robeson County is released and sent out, that it be accompanied by a letter from this Conference commending Governor James Martin and the good people of all three races who are working with the Council on Community Relations for peace with justice in Robeson County, and that the letter assure people of faith in all congregations of that county of our love and prayers." The motion was adopted.

Recognition of the Aldersgate Experience Trip: Lawrence Lugar made recognition of this trip which will be departing on July 26, to observe and celebrate the 250th anniversary of John Wesley's heart warming experience.

Committee on Minutes: Thomas Holtsclaw reported that the Committee had reviewed the minutes for the Friday session and they are found to be in order, and he asked that the Committee be given the authority to review the remaining minutes without the necessity of bringing a further motion. It was adopted.

Report of Church Extension: Tom Collins brought the report concerning church extension in our Conference, and the increased and good spirit of church extension under our episcopal leadership. Collins referred to the decade of the 50's when church extension was at an all-time high and looked forward to the time when this would again be true. He laid to rest the idea that all these new churches were affluent churches and assured that they were a variety of many churches. He discussed many other factors that made up an outstanding record in church extension for the North Carolina Conference.

Capital Funds Campaign Executive Committee: The Bishop announced that in the event the campaign passed, as it did, he had contacted six people to serve as an Executive Committee. Chairperson is C. Felix Harvey, III; Committee on Major Gifts, Randolph Few; Local Church Commitments, Margaret Saunders and Grier Garrick; Clergy Commitments, George Johnson and Roger Elliott.

Report of the Insurance Committee: Norwood Jones was asked to present the report of the Insurance Committee, found on pages 78-80 in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1988. (The Report will be found in Section V of the Jour- nal.) Jones indicated that there will be a necessary increase of a dollar per month for the group term life insurance in order to raise enough money to provide the present coverage, considering our present loss rate. To have the recommended Blue Cross/Blue Shield coverage will require a decided increase. However, he pointed out that the amount of increase would not be significantly more with the increased benefits than without them. One way or another there will be a substantial increase. The plan was approved.

Motion: James B. Ward moved "that this Conference request the Insurance Committee to attempt to spread rate increases over the years in the future in order to avoid sudden increases such as this." Norwood Jones said he would accept that, and it was approved by the Conference and the report at large was approved.

Norwood Jones expressed appreciation for the time he had been able to serve on this committee and other committees of the church, but said his tenure had run out and this would be his last session as chair of this committee.

Report of the Commission on Equitable Salaries: Charles K. Morrison brought the report. Morrison presented a plaque to A. S. Mosley and the Conference accorded him a round of applause as he received it, for his service on the Commission. Morrison noted the report contained in The Conference Program, Recommendations And Reports 1988, pages 75-78. He also noted the substantial increase in the equitable salary table for the coming year. Ministers in full-time appointments will receive $18,704; student pastors, $12,158. A new item concerns an extra appropriation for ethnic minority ministers, item H of the report. The report was moved and adopted by the Conference.

Continuation of Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry: Bishop Minnick asked Carol Goehring to bring the supplemental report. This report was the first section of the blue book concerning procedures and committees of the board which was handed out to the ministers on the first day of the Conference.

In addition, she presented the report of the Joint Committee on Evaluation. Goehring referred to the time line in the evaluation process which had been adopted by the Board and its suggestions to the Conference. The Conference approved this matter, but Bishop Minnick noted that it was up to the Cabinet to make a decision about this and they would give it due consideration.

Beverly Small from Elizabeth City particularly observed the second paragraph under the morale issue, and made a motion that the Conference recognize the faithfulness of our pastors. She wished to adopt this as a policy. The Bishop said this would have to be as a recommendation, not as a policy.

The Joint Committee on Evaluation paper was recommended. Goehring again referred to the Ordained Ministry blue booklet and asked adoption of the sections requiring lay observers who would be on the Board of Ordained Ministry. J. Allen Norris, James H. Thompson, Jr., Roberta Scipio, Mabel Cummings are the lay observers for the coming quadrennium.

Jimmy Cummings rose to offer thanks to the committee.

Report of the Pastoral Care Committee: The report was brought by Rodney G. Hamm. The report is found on pages 60-62 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1988. He called attention to the definition of family, including dependents of the minister living in the minister's home, with children being eligible, whether or not attending college or living at home, through age 22. He also noted a change that the committee would cover up to one-half the client cost of assistance. There are also set amounts available for clergy families going through separation and divorce grants made to both spouses of $300.00 over a period of two years. Hamm assured the body of the fact that total confidentiality in counseling situations is maintained, that neither the conference treasurer nor the Board of Ordained Ministry know the names of persons receiving counseling, that the contract with the counselors is that they simply look the names up in the Conference Journal and ascertain that they are indeed clergy persons. The report of the Committee on Pastoral Care was approved.

Report of Joint Committee on Disability: The report is found on pages 74-75 on The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1988. Since the report remained the same as last year's, adoption was moved, seconded, and approved by the Conference.

Decision on Council on Finance and Administration Report: The Council on Finance and Administration came to represent the summation of its report and answer its needs and speak to Conference concerns. The proposed budget is in The Conference Program, pages 66-67. The budget was presented and moved for adoption. Robert Pullman asked a question about line 3, COM Staff Salaries. Dixon answered all the questions satisfactorily. The budget was passed. Then he expressed his appreciation for his eight years in serving the Annual Conference as a member of CFA and as chairman.

Report of United Methodist Foundation, Inc.: Nelson Gibson brought the report because Thomas Chandler was unable to be present. He noted the increase that was one to be proud of and will be noted in the full text of the report in Section V of the Journal. He presented Douglas Byrd, executive vice-president of the Foundation.

Report of the Committee on District Conference Records: Bruce Taylor brought the report which he stated would be printed in the Conference Journal. He made the following motion: "Since the District Conferences are no longer required by the Annual Conference BUT may be convened at the "call" of the District Superintendent according to Paragraph 744, and by this same paragraph, the Secretary of the District Conference is required to submit the records of the District Conference to the Annual Conference for examination, we the members of the Committee on District Conference Records move that the committee membership be reduced from its present 12 members to 3 and that this committee shall be nominated by the Cabinet and elected by the Annual Conference.

We further move that the records be contained in a hardback cover and provide a copy of the following items: 1) A copy of the notice of "call" from the district superintendent. 2) The record/roll of attendance. 3) A copy of the minutes of the proceedings.

It shall also be the policy that all records six years old or older be forwarded to the Conference Archives for storage and security."

The motion was approved.

Report of the Committee on the Episcopacy: J. Allen Norris brought the report. (For complete text, see Journal, Section V.) He expressed high gratitude for Bishop Minnick and for his leadership and for the tremendous additions that he had made to the Conference as well as his work within the Council of Bishops. Norris indicated that the Bishop's return had been requested for a subsequent quadrennium. Norris said the committee also joined the Conference expressing love for Mary Ann Minnick who had also added so much to the Conference and its life. The report was adopted with a standing ovation and applause as Bishop and Mrs. Minnick were recognized by the Conference. The Bishop expressed thanksgiving for the report and for the tribute.

Report of the Committee on Entertainment: Allen Norris brought the report. The recommendation was that the 1989 Conference meet at Methodist College in Fayetteville in accordance with a long-standing agreement, but that for the succeeding quadrennium a study of the seating capacity would be taken into consideration when making future selections.

Motion: Beverly Small from Elizabeth City moved "that in consultation with the District Superintendents and Pastor-Parish Relations Committees that provisions for adequate vacation for pastors be made, in keeping with the report on Morale Issues in the report of the Joint Committee on Evaluation and Morale." The motion was adopted by the Conference.

Sam Wynn presented a resolution to establish a task force to study social justice issues in Robeson County. Wynn spoke to his resolution.

Thomas S. Fleck, Sr. from Hertford offered an amendment but it did not pass.

Amendment: Sam McMillan moved "to amend the last paragraph to read: 'Further, this Task Force shall report to the Conference COM and the 1989 Session of the NC Annual Conference.'"

Reginald Ponder questioned what the task force was embodied to do. The Bishop answered. The amendment was supported.

Malloy Owen questioned whether or not the task force would be speaking for the Conference between Conference sessions. McMillan responded that it was strictly a material-gathering recommendation-making task force. There was a speech against the motion. The previous question was called by Jimmy Cummings. It was sustained. The motion as a whole was before us. The resolution failed.

Report of Committee on Resolutions and Reference: Due to the late hour, the Bishop called for the final Conference report. Tom Collins gave a glowing report for this Conference, giving part of it as impressions and asking that the Conference accept the written form to the Conference Secretary for the Conference Journal. He noted the common theme was celebration. He noted the challenge of Bishop Roy Clark, that 55 people were coming into Christian service this year for the first time and the approval of the campaign. He noted the message of Langill Watson at the Memorial Service, the work of Methodist College and Conference Staff, expressing particular praise to Randall Baker and the host district. He praised the Conference body and spoke of special appreciation to Bishop Minnick and Mrs. Minnick for their service the past four years and the Conference's hopes for renewed assignment for another four years. This has been a matter of discovery and content.

Motion: Quinton Covington offered a motion on the alcohol policy at Greensboro College: "I move that Greensboro College be put on notice that we the members of the Body of Christ can not accept any policy change that runs contrary to our Christian conviction as stated in our Social Principle:

'We affirm our long-standing support of abstinence from alcohol as a faithful witness to God's liberating and redeeming love for persons...'

Therefore, we strongly urge them to reconsider their change of policy concerning the consumption of alcohol by anyone on their campus."

It was seconded. After much discussion a motion was called on all that was before us. It was supported.

Amendment: Covington moved "to inform interested and concerned persons regarding our position on the resolution." His amendment passed.

Point of Personal Privilege: Bill Sherman told the Conference that Dr. & Mrs. T. B. Hough were not attending Conference but that they had celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary last Wednesday. He wished greetings to be sent to them. Several other names were brought before the Conference at this time. Bishop Minnick stated that a list of these people could be taken to the Conference Secretary.

Adjournment: Bill Cottingham called for adjournment for dinner. The session was adjourned until the evening.

THIRD DAY, EVENING SESSION, Saturday, June 18, 1988

A Covenant for Ministry and Passing of the Torch: The Worship Service was held at 8:00 p.m. in Reeves Auditorium with Bishop Roy C. Clark preaching. Special music was rendered by the Mt. Sylvan Church Choir of Durham. Bishop Minnick conducted the Passing of the Torch ceremony and the lists of appointments were distributed to the Conference. Corrections were made as appropriate, then fixed as true and accurate. (For a synopsis of this meaningful evening service see the service bulletin, A Covenant for Ministry and Passing of the Torch, Saturday, June 18, 1988.)

Conference Business Reconvened: Upon evidence of need, Bishop Minnick reconvened the Conference following the evening worship service. He praised the Conference members for their patience and perseverance and their spirit-filled actions.

Announcements: Secretary Ted Wilson made several announcements including "with the distribution of supplemental information on disciplinary questions 15, 16, 67 and 68, all the disciplinary questions have been satisfied."

Scott Washington attempted to make motions concerning justice in Robeson County and asked the Conference to make inquiries into situations in Robeson County government. He wanted the Board of Church and Society to conduct hearings. Malloy Owen asked if hearings would be open to the public. Washington answered, "Yes." There was much discussion on the matter. Sam Wynn and John Speight spoke for it.

David Banks was recognized for an amendment. Banks moved that Church and Society bring program recommendations to the CCOM meeting to help Robeson County churches bring reconciliation and justice to the county. He stated that we needed to do more than just gather information, that we must be involved in peace making.

Bruce Pate gave a word of caution about limitations of the Conference Board of Church and Society in this area regarding the extent of their activity and authority.

Steve Hickle noted many issues mandated for study and some for action by the Conference, such as toxic waste, etc. He questioned the possibility of genuine effectiveness.

Era Mae Rickman spoke against the amendment.

Call for Previous Question: John Speight called the previous question. He was ruled out of order by the chair.

Motion: Rufus Stark moved to make a substitute motion: "I move that we pray for the several United Methodist churches of Robeson County, and the Robeson County Church and Community Center, and the office of the District Superintendent of the Rockingham District during this difficult time; that we earnestly pray that their good offices shall bring grace and justice to bear in Robeson County, and that these churches call upon the resources and offices of all the agencies and boards of the Annual Conference, if in any way, they may serve their needs at this very critical time."

Robert Mangum was recognized for a motion but then was ruled out of order.

David Banks attempted reconsideration but this was defeated. A vote was called and the Stark substitute passed.

Moving Day: Bill Sherman moved that moving day for pastors should be June 30. It was approved by vote of the Conference.

Point of Personal Privilege: Whit Warren asked that Conference greetings and wishes of prayer be sent to the Reverend and Mrs. Robert Nicks and the Reverend and Mrs. Vance Lewis. The Conference Secretary was directed to send the greetings.

Bishop Minnick asked the Conference about the weekend date for Annual Conference. It was pointed out that we had the highest registration ever recorded. The Conference appeared to prefer the later date and the weekend. The Bishop offered thanks to the Conference participants.

Announcements: The Conference Secretary made announcements and gave details of the Ordination Service tomorrow.

Adjournment: The final hymn was sung and the benediction given. Bishop Minnick told the floor assembled, "Good night and God bless you."

FOURTH DAY, MORNING SESSION, Sunday, June 19, 1988

The Love Feast: Joseph B. Bethea led in the Love Feast with William W. Sherman, Jr. assisting. The traditional bread and water were distributed as people in attendance began to give testimony in song and word of glory to God. They gave testimonies as to what the Lord had done in their lives. Mark Lykins rose to speak of his mission work in Liberia and that he would be returning. He recommended aid from the Conference for Liberia and a spontaneous offering was received for missions there. Hymns were sung and the entire body sang Bless Be the Tie That Binds as the final prayer closing the Love Feast. (For a synopsis, see the worship bulletin, The Love Feast, Sunday, June 19, 1988.)

Brief Recess: A recess was called in order to make preparation for the upcoming Ordination Service.

A Service of Worship for Ordination: At 10:00 a.m., an ordination service was held in Reeves Auditorium. Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., presided and Bishop Roy C. Clark was the preacher. The Conference Cabinet rendered special music. Carol W. Goehring presented the deacons and elders for ordination. (For a synopsis of the entire service see worship bulletin, A Service of Worship for Ordination, Sunday, June 19, 1988.)

With the close of this special spirit-filled service, the 1988 Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church ended. This was the one hundred sixty-third session in the fourth year of the episcopacy of Carlton P. Minnick, Jr., as Bishop of the Raleigh Area of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church.

We come together in grief, acknowledging our human loss. May God grant us grace, that in pain we may find comfort, in sorrow hope, and in death resurrection.

* HYMN (No. 536) — Spirit of Life, In This New Dawn (Tune, Maryton) Marlatt

CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER

Eternal God, we praise you for the great company of all those who have finished their course in faith and now rest from their labor. We praise you for those dear to us whom we name in our hearts before you. To all of these, grant your peace. Let perpetual light shine upon them; and help us so to believe where we have not seen, that your presence may lead us through our years, and bring us at last with them into the joy of your home not made with hands but eternal in the heavens; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANTHEM — O Divine Redeemer Gounod

READING OF THE WORD Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr.

MEMORIAL ADDRESS — In Company With The Saints Dr. H. Langill Watson

*STATEMENT OF FAITH The Reverend L. T. Wilson

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death

I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me;

thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

* HYMN (No. 462) — For All The Saints (Tune, Sine Nomine) How

* CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER

God of love, we thank you for all with which you have blessed us even to this day; for the gift of joy in days of health and strength, and for the gifts of your abiding presence and promise in days of pain and grief. We praise you for home and friends, for our baptism and place in your Church with all who have faithfully lived and died. Above all else we thank you for Jesus, who knew our griefs, who died our death and rose for our sake, and who lives and prays for us. And as he taught us, so now we pray.

* THE LORD'S PRAYER

* DISMISSAL WITH BLESSING Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr.

The peace of God which passes all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of the Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. And the blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

RALPH HENRY LEWIS

Ralph Henry Lewis, third son of Joel Henry and Maggie Julie Lewis, was born January 30, 1899. His birth, on his father's Carlisle, Arkansas, farm, was during a heavy snow storm and he was born at his parent's home without aid of a doctor or midwife. He spent his childhood and early years on his father's and his uncle's farms, attending Carlisle schools for his elementary education.

At age 20 (1919) both he and his brother, Earle, felt called to be ministers. This necessitated a move to a college town. They chose Arkadelphia, Arkansas. So both young men and their widowed mother moved to Arkadelphia where the young men entered Henderson-Brown College for secondary and college study. Graduating from Henderson-Brown, they and their mother moved to Atlanta, Georgia, where the young men entered the Candler School of Theology at Emory University. Upon graduating with a BD degree in 1929, Ralph left immediately to go as missionary to Korea under the Southern Methodist Board of Missions. He was soon joined by his fiancée, Anna Mae Atchley, and they were married in Seoul, Korea, on December 19, 1929.

Their first appointment was language study, of course. Both successfully fulfilled the three language courses and were assigned to rural evangelism. Usually the Board furnished well built residences for their appointees but there was no housing vacancy for the newly-weds. Accordingly, to the consternation of older missionaries, the Lewises found and rented a small Japanese house in Seoul. Soon a housing vacancy occurred in the mission station of Wonsan.

The young couple, along with other young couples, were recalled to America because of the financial difficulties the Board was experiencing at that time. Before returning from Korea to America the Lewises went to Peking, China. There they found numerous Korean emigrants who had fled from the Japanese who dominated Korea for many years. Fearing that the Lewises were working for the Japanese, the emigrants were very distrustful at first. They finally gained their confidence and found enough of them to start a Sunday School and ultimately a church, meeting in the Chinese Methodist buildings. While in China, the Lewises were not on salary by the Board of Missions. Ralph taught English at a Chinese boys school and Anna Mae nursed at the Peking Union Medical College (both at Chinese wage standards).

Bishop Paul B. Kern was bishop in charge of the orient so he transferred Ralph to the North Carolina Conference where he resided. Ralph's first appointment was Stumpy Point. The people were kind and accepted the Lewises lovingly despite Ralph's inexperience in preaching in English. After serving a year at Stumpy Point, Ralph served the following charges: Wachese, Dover, Maysville, Fountain Place-Glen Raven in Burlington, St. Luke in Goldsboro, and Bahama where he retired in 1966. After two years sick leave, he was appointed to Cordova, supposedly on a temporary basis. He remained as pastor for four years when he was relieved by regular appointees. As the Lewises had elected to stay in Cordova, the church there honored Ralph by naming him Pastor Emeritus. He preached there and elsewhere as asked until his health necessitated relinquishing even that small service to The United Methodist Church. However, he retained that title of Pastor Emeritus until his death.

The Lewises gave up independent housekeeping, sold their house near Cordova and entered the Glenwood Rest Home in March, 1986. They remained together as happy residents of Glenwood until Ralph had to go to Richmond Memorial Hospital in June of 1987 where he died on July 14, 1987.

The Family

JOHN BASCOM HURLEY

DAISY FUQUA HURLEY

1898 - 1987

Everyone loved John and Daisy Hurley. The Reverend John Bascom Hurley and his wife, Daisy, could very well have been "role models" had the NC Conference wanted to recognize a couple who epitomized service to our Lord through their service to the local churches and their communities. Their faith was well rooted. Their dedication and loyalty to The United Methodist Church was paramount. The love and warmth they spread for many years through eighteen Conference appointments all over eastern North Carolina has made a difference and will continue to do so for generations to come.

John Bascom Hurley was born on June 12, 1892, in Montgomery County, NC. He was the son of John Bradley Hurley and Tabitha (Tabby) Bruton Hurley, and had seven brothers and one sister.

Daisy Fuqua Hurley was born on March 25, 1898 in Person County, NC. Her parents were John William Fuqua and Mary Alice Satterfield Fuqua.

John was ordained as a deacon in Greenville during the Annual Conference in 1917 and was admitted into the Conference in full connection in 1921. During the Conference in 1917, the ladies of the host church decided to play "matchmaker" for the bachelors in the Conference by inviting them and the student teachers from nearby East Carolina Teachers College to a church social. John and Daisy did not realize that when they met that evening they were beginning their loyal service to The United Methodist Church and to each other. They were married June 12, 1919 shortly after John finished Divinity School at Trinity College.

For the next forty-two years, they served Clark Street South, Rocky Mount, Elm City, Moyock, Roanoke Island, Milton, Bahama Circuit, Rougemont, Roper, Murfreesboro, Halifax, Rowland, Seaboard, Snow Hill, Cedar Grove, Littleton Circuit, Robersonville, and Burlington Circuit. John and Daisy retired in Apex, NC in 1957 after serving their last charge. They were married for nearly 68 years.

John and Daisy enjoyed playing games with their children and grandchildren. Their favorites were Chinese checkers and dominoes. Both also possessed a great love of music and John's rich bass voice was heard and enjoyed not only in the churches but at home as well.

One of John's more memorable sermons occurred when he attended homecoming at his beloved birthplace, Wadeville, NC in 1983. The scheduled preacher did not show and when the minister recognized John, who was sitting in the congregation with members of his family, he not only stood to be recognized but proceeded to preach his favorite sermon on salvation while standing at his pew. Although he physically could not see, his message was very clear and so wonderfully presented that all in the church were noticeably touched. The local minister, who was not prepared to preach, was doubly blessed.

Until his death, John held seniority in the Conference. Visiting friends and colleagues at Annual Conference was an event that both John and Daisy loved so much. He attended his last Conference in Fayetteville in June of 1987, ten days after Daisy's funeral, and was warmly received by Bishop Minnick and the delegates with a standing round of applause.

John and Daisy were blessed with five children. They have two daughters, Nita (Mrs. Juanita H. Page of Jacksonville, NC), and Doris (Mrs. Doris McKellar of Jackson, NC); and three sons, Bob (Robert B. Hurley of Myrtle Beach, SC), Bill (John W. Hurley of Fayetteville, NC), and Darel C. Hurley of Lillington, NC. They have 13 grandchildren, and 11 great-grandchildren.

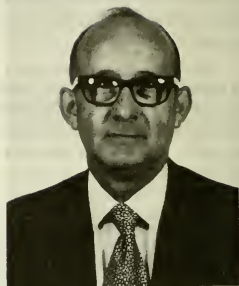

Daisy Fuqua Hurley died on June 4, 1987 in Lillington, NC, and the funeral service was held on June 6, 1987. John Bascom Hurley died on August 25, 1987 in Fayetteville, NC, and the funeral service was held on August 28, 1987. The services were conducted at Lillington United Methodist Church by the Reverends Jimmy Tatum and Jack Benfield. Graveside worship was led by Dr. John Bergland. John and Daisy are buried in LaFayette Memorial Park in Fayetteville, NC.

We should note here that John is survived by his youngest brother, George Hurley of Charlotte, who is also a very active United Methodist.

Perhaps John and Daisy's greatest legacies, other than their service to our Lord, was their gentle, sweet spirit, highlighted by a strong, positive attitude. Like John's role model, older brother and fellow Conference member, B. T. Hurley, the family emphasis was always placed on service, love and respect for others; but, above all, "Live life according to the word of our Lord, Jesus Christ".

We miss them so.

The Children

CHARLES EVERETTE PRICE, JR.1923 - 1988

Charles Everette Price, Jr., son of Charles Everette, Sr. and Wilma Pierce Price, was born on June 10, 1923 in Gastonia, NC. He was educated in the schools of Gaston County and Evans Business College. Later, he married Grace Pearson of Rock Hill, SC. After several years in the business world, he was called to serve as a minister for our Lord Jesus Christ. Back to school he went: to Fruitland Bible College, Wingate College, Louisburg College, and Duke Divinity School.

He was a devoted husband, a good minister of Jesus Christ, and a diligent and faithful pastor to his people. Under his leadership, the churches that he served were growing churches; through his ministry, many lives were touched by our Lord.

As we read from the Prophet Isaiah the passage on God's servant, we see it as an early announcement of the coming of our Lord:

Behold my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my Spirit upon him, he will bring forth justice to the nations. He will not cry or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street; a bruised reed he will not break, and a dimly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice. He will not fail or be discouraged 'til he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands await his law. (Isaiah 42:1-4)

As we read from this passage it is hard not to think of our friend Everette.

Together with Grace, Everette served as pastor in the Wilmington District for twenty-seven years, serving in Clarkton, Wrightsboro, Rocky Point, Hampstead, Zion, and again at Rocky Point where, due to failing health, he retired in 1985.

Everette and Grace retired to Gastonia, NC where he spent much time under medical care. He entered Gaston Memorial Hospital December 21, 1987 for what was thought to be an aneurysm of the aorta, but turned out to be cancer.

Though there was much pain, there was little complaining. Even as a patient who was failing fast, Everette's life continued to be a strong witness for the Lord whom he loved.

February 6, 1988 Everette died. He was survived by his wife Grace, his father (who later died on March 23), two brothers, and one sister.

His funeral was held in the church of his childhood, Trinity United Methodist Church in Gastonia. The Reverends Linwood Brooks and Garland Young, Gaston County District Superintendent, led the service. On February 8, 1988, Everette was buried in Gaston Memorial Park, Gastonia, NC.

Everette, too, could say that he fought the good fight - he finished the race - he kept the faith.

FRANKLIN ODELL WALKER

Franklin Odell Walker was born March 16, 1926 in Randolph County to Elmer and Nannie Robbins Walker. At twenty-five, after serving in the armed forces, he felt called to preach. He was accepted at Pfeiffer Junior College as a special student, transferred to, and later graduated from High Point College and enrolled in Duke Divinity School. He received his Master of Divinity degree from Duke in 1959. It was in the same year that Odell received what he cherished greatly, since he had left public school at the completion of the eighth grade: an honorary high school diploma.

Odell and Margaret Brown were married on August 13, 1949. Their children are Kay Walker of Greenville, Nancy Walker of Roanoke Rapids, Debby Walker Ray of Charlotte and Warren Walker of Greensboro. Odell demonstrated his love for Margaret and the children by being there when needed, generous with his attention and affection.

Wherever Odell went to serve God, who empowered him to minister, he was an instant hit. Lay people were affected by Odell's magnetic personality. They knew he lived his faith and genuinely loved them. Other than Lovejoy-Macedonia (1954-1959), where a parsonage was built; Odell was pastor of Cumberland-St. Andrews (1959-1960); St. Andrews (1960-1961) where another parsonage was built; Cotton-Hope Mills (1961-1966) where a beautiful new church was built; Lillington (1966-1968); Longview (1968-1971); Goldsboro: St. Luke (1971-1974); Washington: First (1974-1981); and Clinton: First (1981-1988). It was in Clinton that he died: February 17, 1988. The funeral service was a memorial conducted at First, Clinton, by his former District Superintendent, Rick Commander, and Paul Bunn, with whom Odell began his ministry in Troy in 1954, living in the same parsonage. Odell was ordained Deacon in 1957 and Elder in 1959 by Bishop Paul Neff Garber.

In many ways, Odell served the North Carolina Conference well. He was a member of numerous boards and agencies. His most recent appointments included the Board of Higher Education and the Board of Trustees of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

"Who can hold a sunbeam in his hand" is a line of a song sung in Sound of Music that points to who Odell Walker really was, a radiant, fun-filled, out-going, almost boisterous guy. He loved everybody, and everybody who knew Odell realized that fact. If he found someone depressed, he left him with hope, renewed. Without a doubt, Odell practiced "the power of positive thinking", doing and living. May the joy this handsome, exciting, dynamic messenger of the Good News brought to us remain with us! That is the bequest of one who so loved people that in death he willed every part of his body to be used to help those who could be benefitted. His ashes provide nourishment for the flowers and plants in the Memorial Garden he so loved at First Church, Clinton.

Thanks be to God for His love made tangible in the love Odell Walker shared with those he met: Inasmuch as you have done these things to the least of these, you have done them to me. (Matthew 25:40)

GREGORY ALLEN HOWARD

JANE PETERSON HOWARD

1955 - 1988

A shock wave spread across the state on the evening of February 29 as the telephone message came from Jefferson that the Reverend Gregory Allen Howard and Jane Peterson Howard had been killed when a tractor-trailer truck struck the car in which they were traveling that afternoon.

The funeral was held March 3 at Haymount United Methodist Church in Fayetteville with John K. Bergland and Bill Lowdermilk officiating. Greg and Jane are survived by a four and one-half year old son, Joshua Allen Howard, Mr. and Mrs. James Peterson and Mrs. Golda Howard.

Greg was born February 1, 1958 at Fort Benning, Georgia. After graduating from Fayetteville Senior High School, he entered Methodist College and earned the B.S. degree in biology in 1979. He served as Student Government Association vice-president and the college chorus president. While a student he went to China on a scientific study tour. He is remembered on campus for his ecological concerns. In the fall of 1979 he entered United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio, where he received the Herwin Roop Award for excellence in worship leadership.

Jane was born January 8, 1955 at Fort Knox, Kentucky. After graduating from Pine Forest Senior High School in Cumberland County, North Carolina, she entered Methodist College where she majored in elementary education. She edited an award winning campus newspaper, was inducted into the academic honorary society and was secretary to Pi Gamma Mu.

Jane and Greg met at Methodist College and were married December 22, 1979. They were the parsonage family for the Goshen-Keener United Methodist Churches 1983-1986 and the Vanceboro Circuit 1986-1987. In 1987 a long-time dream was realized, Greg became a church camp director. At Elk Shoals Camp, Greg and Jane started an expanded and innovative program which included the raising of funds for camp scholarships.

Greg was a certified EMT and worked on the Sampson County and Vanceboro Rescue Squads. He led his people into a fuller understanding of worship and taught the youth about God through camping experiences and field trips that led to an understanding of the stewardship of God's gift of the earth.

Jane was a co-worker in the life of the church in the United Methodist Women, the United Methodist Youth Fellowship and the church school. She taught in the public school systems where they lived and demonstrated exceptional teaching skills and unmatched love for children.

The love of God becomes real when through us it touches others. Family, friends, parishioners and campers know God a little better, understand his love in a deeper sense and appreciate the gift of creation to a greater degree because their lives were touched by the love of God through Jane and Greg. Although their lives were short in number of years, they were long in terms of influence. We stand in awe and appreciation at their commitment to Jesus, their willingness to stand firm for their beliefs and their unselfish love that continues to be an influence in our lives.

CUYLER FREEMAN HEATH

C. Freeman Heath was born in Midway, Texas on Christmas Eve, 1900, the son of Willie Freeman and Pauline Thompson Heath. He lost his father at the age of one day (due to typhoid fever) and his mother at the age of five. He was raised by his maternal grandmother and his "Uncle Bud" Thompson. Freeman was married to Margaret Elizabeth Frank, the daughter of Methodist missionaries to Japan. His wife preceded him in death as did his younger sister, Pauline. Surviving are his wife, Hazel Henserling Heath of Madisonville, Texas, whom he married in 1984; his children, Cuyler F. Heath, Jr. of Clinton, John W. Heath of Oxford, Jo H. Hodges of Washington, Margaret F. Heath of Kauserslauten, Germany; fourteen grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren.

Freeman was greatly influenced by his Grandmother who read the Bible every day. She not only prayed with him, but taught him to pray and read the Bible. When he was a boy he played "church" and was always elected to be the "preacher". He knew his Grandmother was praying that he might be a preacher, and things kept happening that always pointed in that direction.

Freeman left Madisonville High School and attended Thorps Christian College. He entered Southern Methodist University, and at this time felt God's call to preach. He later attended Texas Christian University, graduating in 1922. He went to Yale for graduate work and later received a scholarship from The College of the Bible in Lexington, Kentucky, and graduated there in 1924.

Freeman Heath began his ministry as an assistant pastor in Kinston, NC. He was a Methodist minister in churches in Chadbourne, Graham, Siler City, Oxford, Washington, Clinton, Wilmington and Sampson County. He was a district superintendent of the Elizabeth City District and served in Raleigh as Conference Director of Evangelism, the North Carolina Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church.

Freeman Heath was affectionately known as "the one arm preacher" having lost his arm in an accident at the age of five. Freeman always said there was no such thing as a handicap if you are a true follower of Christ. His Uncle Bud would not allow anyone to help him do things, telling him that he could do anything anybody else could do. Freeman once said there were two things he would have liked to do - skin a cat (on parallel bars) and play a violin.

Until his death Freeman Heath continued to preach, teach, do evangelistic work and work with other preachers. At the age of eighty-seven Freeman was in his workshop, using power tools to make toys and gifts for others when he had a heart attack, one week before a second and fatal heart attack. Freeman died on February 29, 1988 in Madisonville, Texas. Funeral services were held at First United Methodist Church in Madisonville. Officiating were Dr. James Heflin, the Reverend David Denning and the Reverend Marty Vershel. Graveside services were conducted in Clinton, NC, followed by a Memorial Service at First United Methodist Church. Officiating were the Reverend Bruce Pate, Dr. J. Paul Edwards, and the Reverend Charles Moseley.

Three weeks prior to his death, Freeman Heath wrote the following: 1. If you read daily the word of God, pray daily saying "What do you want me to do, Lord?" He will show you, you will know, and He will see you through. 2. No matter what the problem or temptation you face, Jesus will help you overcome it. 3. All things work together for good - you can do anything God wants you to do.

JOSEPH FILMORE COBLE

Joseph F. Coble was born September 12, 1911, near Greensboro to Annie McCulloch and J. Frank Coble. Following a severe injury, Joe died on March 27, 1988 in the Cape Fear Valley Hospital in Fayetteville, NC. For the preceding two years, Joe and his beloved wife and co-worker in ministry, Virginia, had lived in retirement in one of the apartments of the Wesley Pines Retirement Home. Indeed, the Wesley Pines Home was a dream of his own conception and fulfillment and an addition to the potential for service to retired Methodists as a ministry of the NC Conference of The United Methodist Church.

Joe Coble's immediate family were active members of the Calvary United Methodist Church. His great-grandfather, the Reverend John Coe, helped establish Moriah Methodist Church, and his paternal grandfather, the Reverend J. F. McCulloch, served Methodist churches in eastern NC.

For many years Joe Coble knew that he was called to the ministry of his Lord Jesus Christ. As the years passed, a subtle vision grew within Joe leading him toward the plowing of a new ground in the formation of a specialized ministry. Somewhere the seed was planted in his heart for great concern for family living in the later years of life. He was a pioneer! The idea of life-care communities had scarcely developed within the Methodist Church. The concept was unique. Many people were afraid of "a new idea," but Joe Coble set his course to do what he felt to be the call of God in the interest of God's children. Joe Coble sought not fame nor fortune, but only service!

He began to prepare himself by attending High Point College where he received his A.B. degree in 1934 and proceeded to Westminster Theological Seminary where he earned the Sacred Bachelor of Theology in 1937. In 1943 he received his Master of Arts from Duke University. During his years at Duke his dream grew into a recognizable framework; he delved deeply into the scriptures and wrote his thesis on the emerging patterns of family care and responsibility for the elderly in the early Hebrew family unit. It combined the best of scriptural authenticity and the emerging field of sociology. The Church was not ready for the new vision. Joe Coble took post-graduate work from 1945-46 in Boston University's Institute of Pastoral Care.

On finishing his studies at Westminster, Joe had married Mary Virginia Brittingham on July 9, 1937, and of that marriage ensued a daughter, Stephanie Dawn.

Joe Coble joined the NC Conference of the Methodist Church and was ordained deacon in 1936 and elder in 1937. He served as pastor in Union Grove from 1938-39; Glen Raven from 1939-42; Tabor City from 1942-47; Northampton from 1947-52; and Biscoe from 1952-55. During this time he wrote letters, talked to bishops, lobbied, cajoled the Conference, and talked in tones both pleading and strident about the emerging need for the ministry for which he had prepared and which he knew would become a fundamental necessity in generations to come. Joe Coble believed in the philosophy of life care to provide a better tomorrow for a generation that was having increasingly longer life expectancies. Finally, with the urging of Bishop Paul N. Garber and the able lay assistance of the late M. M. Fowler of Durham, the idea of a Conference-sponsored retirement home became a reality with Joe Coble being appointed the first superintendent in 1955. Money had already been raised and construction was underway at 2616 Erwin Road in Durham. In September 1955, following the Conference at which he was appointed, the first twelve members were received into the new facility with another new member added each week until the home's capacity of forty was achieved! Four apartments were built and then came expansion of the main building making room for sixty members. All were filled. Soon more apartments were being completed and another addition to the main building was under way. Joe and Virginia both worked tirelessly to serve the always full retirement home which had become a great success and fulfillment of a man who had strived for the necessary dream. The Retirement Home was more than a success; it became a necessity and the chief problem then was building more extensive facilities. During these years, Joe was a member of the NC Non-profit Homes for the Ageing and its president and executive director during several terms over the years of his ministry. He was Executive Director of The Methodist Retirement Homes of the NC Conference. He was also a member of the Institute for Pastoral Care, a charter member of the American Association of Homes for the Ageing, and a member of the National Association of Methodist Hospitals and Homes. He served on the executive committee for the High Point College Alumni Association from 1961-65 and was awarded an honorary Doctor of Divinity in 1966 by High Point College. For many years the Cobles had their own home on Cranford Road in Durham - just a short distance from the Erwin Road facility.

Expansion plans continued to call and Joe Coble envisioned and worked unstintingly on a home for eastern North Carolina which was realized in the building of the Wesley Pines Retirement Center in Lumberton and a Health Care Center for all levels of nursing care in Durham. When Joe retired in 1977 from his ministry as executive director to the then Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., the Board of Trustees voted unanimously to name the health care center The Joseph Coble Health Care Center.

Joe Coble pioneered in other ways. When the US Congress felt it was time to develop uniform standards for administrators for long-term-care facilities and nursing homes, Joe Coble was at the National Conference and was appointed as part of a NC State Board of Nursing Home Examiners to set standards and qualifications for both present administrators and managers and those to come. He was not only a charter member of that State Board but also served for two terms - the maximum!

Joe Coble never sought public praise or even esteem. Joe was sometimes strident in his voice as he gave a call for help for the needy elderly, but underneath he was tender in heart and more likely to give from his own pocket to help someone else in need. Joe had a depth of understanding that few could comprehend and a stance of personal self-sacrifice of his time and talent and worldly goods of which few had any understanding and most no knowledge! Without question he was a non-self-seeking person who gave of himself until almost all was given away!

Here was a man that wore out more than two cars traveling for "The Home" to churches all over the NC Conference. He made thousands of speeches and visited prospective home residents - after normal hard-working hours and on weekends - what sacrifice and devotion!

Funeral services for Joe Coble were conducted in Greensboro by the Reverend Lee Ellis, pastor of Moriah United Methodist Church, with the committal by the Reverend Harvey Johnson. Burial was in the Moriah Church Cemetery near the grave of his grandfather, John W. Coe. Survivors include his wife, Virginia; a daughter, Dawn Cook of Clinton, NC; a granddaughter, Melissa Parker of Chicago, IL, and one sister, Mrs. Edgar Hitchings of Norfolk, VA.

Well done, thou good and faithful servant; enter into the kingdom of thy Lord...

WADE HAWKINS

Wade Hawkins was born August 22, 1905 in Fort Worth, Texas. He spent all of his early years in his beloved state of Texas and was often known by his many friends as "Tex." He was a 1929 graduate of Texas Christian University and received his masters degree from New York University in 1939. During his college years, he was active in summer camp work during which he met his wife, Kathryn Shampamore of Washington, New Jersey. She was serving as the camp nurse during that time. They were married July 30, 1930. For many years Wade served in public recreation and social service work in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Salisbury, North Carolina.

At the age when many men are thinking of retirement, Wade, then 62, embarked on a new career. He resigned his position with the US Saving Bond Division of the Federal government and entered the United Methodist ministry. Most of his life was involved in church affairs - as an active member of Highland Methodist Church in Raleigh he served on the official board, was on several commissions and a constant Sunday school teacher.

His civic commitment included over forty years of perfect attendance in Kiwanis International. While in Raleigh, he was club president and lieutenant governor of the Fifth Area.

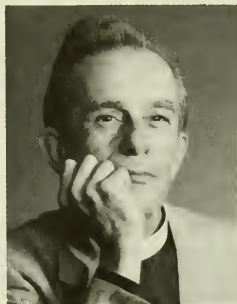

His short but special "second career" included two pastorates, one in Durham at Branson Memorial and the other in Rich Square, NC. He and Kathryn decided to remain in that wonderful, friendly eastern North Carolina town. It was here that friends and family observed their 50th wedding anniversary in 1980 in the fellowship hall of the church. Both later became members of the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham.

Wade Hawkins died in his sleep on April 7, 1988. A memorial service was conducted by the Reverend John M. Cline at Highland Methodist Church in Raleigh. Kathryn had passed away slightly over a year earlier on January 6, 1987.

The Reverend J. Paul Edwards, a former pastor of Highland, remarked at the time Wade entered the ministry, "We are happy that Wade Hawkins felt led by God to give himself in full-time Christian service. He has felt this call for a number of years but the opportunity did not present itself until recently. To Wade and Kathryn - our church joins in prayers of thanksgiving that God will bless them both in this new Christian venture."

Survivors include two sons, Gerald G. Hawkins, an associate dean at North Carolina State University in Raleigh, and H. Bradford Hawkins of Magnolia, NC, former teacher in the public school system and currently an independent businessman. There are seven grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Haywood Lee Martin was born in Rich Square, NC, the son of the late Henry L. and Mable Martin, on August 28, 1922. His death occurred on Tuesday morning, June 14, 1988 at the parsonage in Roper, NC. Haywood died of a massive heart attack just three days before he was to retire at the Annual Conference.

Before entering the ministry he operated the family business, a funeral home in Rich Square, where he was a licensed embalmer and funeral director. At the age of forty-three, God placed His hand on Haywood's shoulder and called him to His ministry. As I write this memorial, I cannot help but think of the words of the poet as he penned this prayer:

"God give us men! A time like this demands
 Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands;
 Men whom the lust of office do not kill;
 Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
 Men who possess opinions and a will;
 Men who have honor - men who will not lie;

Men who can stand before a demagogue
 And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking;
 Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog
 In public duty and private thinking."

God answered that prayer in the life of Haywood Lee Martin. He was indeed a man of strong mind, great heart, true faith and strong hands who lived above the fog.

He was first married to Janice Deegraph who died in 1958. From this union three daughters were born; Mrs. Sylvia Elliott of Lake Mary, FL; Mrs. Judy Bouche of Huntington, NY; Miss Sandy Martin of Kinston, NC.

In 1961, Haywood married Elizabeth Pendergraft Sanders and was blessed with three stepchildren; Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Upchurch of Atlanta, GA; James Sanders of Immokalee, FL; Mrs. Marsha Gibbs of Englehard, NC. Haywood and Lib have eight grandchildren.

He was licensed to preach in 1965 and ordained deacon in 1968. Haywood served the following appointments: Mattamuskeet Charge, North Gates Charge, Manns Harbour, Pollocksville-Lees Chapel, Vanceboro Charge, Bath Charge, Currituck Charge, Harlowe-Oak Grove Churches, and the Roper Charge.

Funeral services were conducted on Friday, June 17, 1988 in the Rich Square United Methodist Church in Rich Square with the Reverend Randall Baker, his district superintendent, and the Reverend H. Charles Davis, officiating. Burial was in the Cedar Lawn Cemetery in Rich Square.

Haywood lived close to the Lord. He was loyal to his call and spent the days of his ministry pointing people to the Lamb of God. His wonderful loving spirit was exemplified daily in his home, in the work of the church, and in all the communities in which he lived. It was truly a blessing to have counted Haywood as a close friend. I shall always be most grateful for the privilege of being so closely related to Haywood, Lib, and the children. For those of us who knew Haywood so well and loved him so much, the following words have a very special meaning:

"One day at a time, Sweet Jesus, is all I'm asking from You.

Just give me the strength to do everyday what I would do.

Yesterday's gone, Sweet Jesus, and tomorrow may never be mine.

Lord, help me today, show me the way one day at a time."

Most fitting for the life and ministry of Haywood Lee Martin are the words of II Timothy 4:7-8: I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not me only, but to all them that have loved his appearing.

PAULINE BIGGS WOODARD WHEELER LEWIS1918 - 1987

Pauline Biggs Woodard was born May 30, 1918 and graduated from Hamlet High School in Hamlet, NC. Her father was Gilbert Woodard and her mother was Flora Biggs Woodard, both deceased.

She was the widow of Franklin Wheeler with one young son when she married William Carson Lewis on June 2, 1945. Three more children were born to this union. When Carson later decided to enter the Methodist ministry, during and after much preparatory schooling, together Pauline and Carson served several fine churches in the NC Conference: Scotts Hill, 1957; Asbury in Lumberton, 1960; Bethel-Lebanon, 1962; Jerusalem-Zion, 1967; and Glenwood in Rockingham, 1971, where Carson went on disability leave due to very ill health in 1976. Though he died on December 17, 1977, Pauline continued to make her home in Rockingham.

Pauline died in the Methodist Retirement Home in Lumberton, NC in Robeson County on June 12, 1987. Her survivors are: one daughter, Daphne Jeanne Smith of Charlotte; two sons, William Carson Lewis, Jr. of Toledo, OH, and Samuel Franklin Wheeler of Sanford, NC; one sister, Gladys Barkley of Gastonia, NC; and nine grandchildren. She was buried in Rockingham, NC in Richmond County.

Her loves were her God, her family and people in general. She loved to listen to others and to try to help in any way that she could. She gave of herself and ministered unto others many times over. She was a very good, loving and kind person - and she is missed!

MARILYN GAIL STEWART LITTLE

Marilyn Gail Stewart Little was born in Sampson County, NC on March 15, 1957. She was the last of three children born to Lattie Malon and Ida Mae Stewart. She was married to Milton Earl Little. Her family was made up of four children: Minica Gail Holland; Milton, Jr.; Tina; and Sharon Little. Just thirty years old at her death, she left an example of love and caring far beyond the years of one her age.

Marilyn grew up and lived all of her life in the Clement community. Her great pride was the restored 100 year old homeplace. Her joy was the environment of love within that home. Her hobby was cross-stitching. The walls of the house are decorated with her works.

A graduate of Campbell University with a Master's Degree in Education, Marilyn served as a school teacher at Clement School for nine years. She was known for her teaching and discipline. Mostly, she was known for her rapport with her students. One child said she never ended a class without saying, "I love you, boys and girls." She coached softball leading her girls to several championships. An annual award presented to a top student-athlete at Clement School will now be in memory of Marilyn and her mother. The award will be named the Ida Mae Stewart and Marilyn Stewart Little Award.

Marilyn came to the Methodist Church out of a Baptist background through her marriage to Milton, who serves as a part-time local pastor. The people of Christ and Tabor Churches in the Fayetteville District found it easy to accept her because she embraced them with a caring spirit. Marilyn loved children and became active in establishing a nursery at Tabor United Methodist Church. Her quiet leadership inspired the church to dedicate the new nursery in her memory.

Lynn Atchley, administrative chairperson of Tabor UMC, wrote the following tribute:

"On June 21, 1987 we lost a friend, Marilyn Stewart Little. Marilyn became a member of the Tabor Church family three years ago when her husband, Milton, became our pastor. It was a new experience for her - a new role as a pastor's wife, a new church community, a new denomination, but she quickly became an integral part of the church family.

We fell in love with Marilyn for many reasons - her devotion to family and friends, her enthusiasm for life, and her excitement over life's seemingly simple treasures. Perhaps Marilyn's most endearing quality was that she wasn't ashamed of her feelings. She loved children, kittens, teddy bears, country crafts, teaching, snow, and Christmas. Who wouldn't love someone who trimmed her Christmas tree in October?

We mourn her passing. We do not understand why she was taken so soon. We do know that we are better for having known her. The children miss her - she played with them; the adults miss her - she talked and teased them.

On June 21, 1987 we, the Tabor Church Family, Fayetteville District, lost a friend."

LEONA BLANCHE NEWTON EARLY HARRIS

Leona Newton Early Harris, wife of the Reverend Hyman Leroy Harris of Carolina Beach, formally of Wendell, died June 10, 1987 in Durham County Hospital. Mrs. Harris had been a resident of the J. F. Coble Health Care Center on the campus of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. for three years prior to her death.

She was born Leona Blanche Newton on August 1, 1901 in Martin County, daughter of James Robert and Adana Waters Newton of the Dardens Community. She was educated in Martin and Pitt Counties, and graduated from East Carolina University in Greenville. She taught school for many years in Martin County, first in Oak City and later in Bear Grass. While teaching in Oak City she met and later married Henry Augdon Early in 1933. She resided on the Early family farm for over forty years. Her husband, Henry, died in January of 1972. Born to that union were two sons, Ralph Newton (deceased at age 15), and Joseph Lester Early of Oak City, who remains on the family farm with his wife, Arlene, the third generation to settle in the area known as Williams Chapel Community. Mrs. Harris is also survived by three grandchildren; Joey, Celeste, and Gina.

Funeral services were conducted in the chapel at the Scotland Neck Funeral Home by the Reverend Rick A. Moser, pastor of Scotland Neck United Methodist Church. Burial was in the Oak City Cemetery in upper Martin County.

Mrs. Harris was a member of the rural historical Williams Chapel Methodist Church for over forty years. (The church closed its doors in 1986 due to lack of members.) She served as adult Sunday school teacher for all her years in the church. She served on various committees and boards, held all offices in the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and through the years she was known for being the most frequent giver of programs for which she spent hours preparing. She spent a lot of time in prayer and meditation before her presentations to the people of her beloved church. Many members knew that the small, struggling church would have most likely closed its doors years before had it not been for her hard work and efforts to keep it the center of the community. There were many Sundays that Mrs. Harris and her small sons were the only members to attend worship services and Sunday School but nothing could discourage her from serving her Lord and teaching his word. She was faithful in attending Conference meetings and workshops. She planned Bible School and was eager to teach, she held Bible Studies, and worked with youth groups. She not only gave of her time freely, but also her money, she was well known for her contributions to missions and needy causes. Sacrifice seemed to give her such pleasure and endeared her to all relatives, friends, and neighbors.

Mrs. Leona, as she was affectionately known, was devoted to her family, she was openly affectionate to her family and held to her strong convictions of Christianity. Her sense of loyalty to family was rare, having become necessary to raise not only two small sons, but also the care of her mother, and her mother-in-law in their declining years. She always opened her old historical two-story home to the ministers who served her church. She willingly boarded, prepared meals, and made the young ministers a part of her family for their appointment years in the church, there being no parsonage available in the district during that time.

Leona Early married the Reverend H. Leroy Harris on July 19, 1976. They moved to Wendell and lived there until she entered the nursing home due to declining health. She was a member of the Wendell United Methodist Church for ten years.

Mrs. Harris lived her last three remaining years in the Christian surroundings at the Coble Center, a most fitting atmosphere for a devoted Christian who had dedicated her life to God and the Methodist faith that she was so much a part of.

MARION LOUISE SMITH POTTER

Marion Louise Smith Potter, 81, of the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham and formerly of Sanford, died Sunday, September 13, 1987.

She was a native of Long Island, NY, the daughter of the late Frank Willis and Olla Rosetta Haff Smith, and the widow of the late Dr. W. Stanley Potter who was pastor for eight years at the old Steele Street Methodist Church before it became St. Luke UMC. His other appointments in the NC Conference were Horne Memorial in Clayton, Ann Street in Beaufort, Hayes Barton in Raleigh, Henderson: First, Haymount in Fayetteville, (Steele Street in Sanford), Queen Street in Kinston, and Mebane.

Marion was born on April 30, 1906 and was a graduate of Mt. Holyoke College in Massachusetts. She married Stanley Potter on June 26, 1929. Though her talents and graces were many, her primary devotion was to her family and to the ministry of The United Methodist Church beside her husband. She had been very active with her husband's pastoral ministry in the Missouri and eastern NC Conferences before Stanley's retirement to Sanford in 1970 and his death on August 10, 1975. Marion also did student work for the United Methodist Women, was in the Mt. Holyoke Alumnae Association and was a member of the Sanford Literary Club.

The funeral was held at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday at St. Luke UMC with the Reverend Tom Faggart officiating. Burial was in Buffalo Cemetery.

Surviving are one daughter, Elizabeth Louise Potter Davis of Springfield, VA; three sons, William Stanley Potter, Jr. of Roanoke Rapids, Frank Grafton Potter of Charlotte, and James Richard Potter of Atlanta, GA; eight grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

HELEN LOUISE CANNON CRIBB

Helen Louise Cribb was a faithful loving wife and devoted to her family. She was born May 9, 1924 in the Southwest Community, near Jacksonville, North Carolina, the daughter of William Henry and Annie Augustus Cannon. She was one of seven children. She graduated from Swansboro High School with the class of 1941. Following graduation she moved to Baltimore, Maryland for training and employment by the Martin Aircraft Company. She returned to Newport, NC to care for her ailing father in 1944 and was employed by the Naval Air Rework Facility at the Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point.

While at Cherry Point, she met George F. Cribb, Jr. who was serving in the Marine Corps. They were married in November, 1948. Her life as the wife of a career Marine was not easy. Maintaining a home in Newport, NC for her parents and later her father-in-law, her husband was often deployed with the Fleet Marine Force in many hostile situations throughout the world. Prior to her husband's retirement in 1970, Louise moved with him and lived in Jacksonville, Florida; Denver, Colorado; Quantico and Norfolk, Virginia.

During her travels, Louise was active in the Corps "Toys for Tots" program. She served as counselor for the Methodist Youth Fellowship and inspired many youth by her love and faith. As a member of Home Extension Club in Carteret County, she was instrumental in starting the first Crafts Exposition in Morehead City. This annual nine county event continues until this date.

When her husband became the part-time local pastor of the Broad Creek United Methodist Church in 1981, Louise began living the life of a devoted minister's wife. She became actively involved in all aspects of the work of the church. Even though she suffered with emphysema the last three years of her life, she was an aggressive evangelist for her church. She worked constantly on the telephone contacting members, counseling, and keeping all aware of special events and church programs.

Louise passed away quietly in her sleep September 13. Her funeral was conducted by the Reverend M. Whitfield Warren, district superintendent of the New Bern District. Interment was in the Broad Creek Community Cemetery.

She is survived by her husband; a sister, Daisy Hilbert; a brother, Troy B. Cannon; and two dear nieces, Sheila and Sharon, who loved her as a mother. It is fitting that the inscription on her tombstone reads, "It is good to be with God."

KATHLEEN DIANE PAUL REED

Kathleen Diane Paul Reed was born on August 8, 1946 in McKean County, Bradford, Pennsylvania, and she died on September 21, 1987 at the Duke Hospital in Durham. She received her education in the Bradford area schools.

On June 19, 1965 she married the Reverend Richard G. Reed, who came to the NC Conference in June 1986. At the time of death, Kathy and her husband were serving the Bethel-Lebanon Charge in Clarendon. This fulfilled one of the greatest desires of her heart, serving the Lord in NC. In all of the five churches the Reeds pastored, Kathy was very active with the youth. She loved children. Even though she had four of her own, she became a mother to more young people than she could count. These young people would walk into her home and say, "Hello, mom," and, of course, her husband became "dad." Kathy had a unique ministry with young people. She told one of the youth groups she was working with that they should be prepared to grow. One Sunday night about fifteen new young people appeared for the youth meeting. The regular youth were amazed. God blessed Kathy in her work with the youth and when she passed away, she was a youth counselor for the Lebanon United Methodist Church.

Kathy was the kind of person who always smiled. She was always positive in everything and people loved to be around her because she had a way of making them feel good. She was happiest at being a wife, mother, and servant of the Lord.

Kathy Reed was survived by her husband, who is still serving the Bethel-Lebanon Charge; three daughters, Tammy Day of Warsaw, NY; Kimberly and Rita of the home; and a son, Richard, Jr., also of the home. She is also survived by her parents, Charles and Rita Paul, her grandparents, Lee and Aletha Payne, and her great-grandmother, Flossie Howard, all of Bradford, Pennsylvania.

Kathy's funeral was conducted at the Lebanon United Methodist Church on September 25, 1987. Dr. Samuel D. McMillan, Jr., superintendent of the Wilmington District, and the Reverend George A. Jones, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, Havelock, NC, a dear friend for over 20 years, shared in the service. It was a "Celebration Service." She was buried in the Lebanon United Methodist Church Cemetery. Most of the pallbearers were ministers of the Columbus County sub-district, with the exception of two special clergy friends. Honorary pallbearers were the United Methodist ministers of the NC Conference and the United Methodist Youth Fellowship of the Bethel-Lebanon United Methodist Churches.

This is the way Kathy felt about her God. Upon the occasion of her homecoming on September 21, 1987, three verses of her favorite hymn, "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee," were sung by the congregation:

"Joyful, joyful, we adore thee, God of Glory, God of Love,
 Hearts unfold like flowers before thee, opening to the sun above.
 Melt the clouds of sin and sadness; drive the dark of doubt away;
 Giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day.

Thou art giving and forgiving, ever blessing, ever blest,
 Well-spring of the joy of living, ocean-depth of happy rest!
 Thou our Father, Christ our brother, all who live in love are thine;
 Teach us how to love each other, lift us to the joy divine.

Mortals join the mighty chorus, which the morning stars began;
 Father love is reigning o'er us, brother love binds man to man.
 Ever singing, march we onward, victors in the midst of strife;
 Joyful music leads us sunward, in the triumph song of life."

Without a doubt, Mrs. Kathleen Diane Reed received a "crown of life" because she endured all that crossed her path of life (from James 1:12).

MARY ETHEL PREVATTE ANDREWS

Ethel Prevatte Andrews was born November 10, 1905, the daughter of James Lawrence and Sarah Ausley Prevatte of Red Springs. She died at the Coble Health Care Center at the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham on September 22, 1987 after a long illness of Alzheimer's Disease.

It was in a spirit of Christian triumph and faith that funeral services for Ethel were held in the Hillsborough United Methodist Church on Friday, September 25, with interment in the Floyd Memorial Cemetery in Fairmont, NC. The Reverend Herman N. Ward, Jr., the Reverend F. Owen Fitzgerald, Jr., and the Reverend David D. Traynham conducted the services.

During her high school days, Ethel's interest turned to a career in teaching. After graduation she entered East Carolina University. Following her course of study there, she taught in the public schools of North Carolina for 22 years. She loved the classroom and her work with children, and was devoted to the opportunity of service.

The Reverend Chester J. Andrews and Ethel were married June 14, 1933 and to this union of over 54 years were born two sons, James Marshall Andrews of Greensboro, NC and Norman Leon Andrews of High Point, NC. There are three grandchildren. Ethel is also survived by four sisters; Mrs. Daisy Willis of Farmington Hills, MI; Mrs. Ellen Kinlaw of Lumberton, NC; Mrs. Margaret Kitchin of Maxton, NC; and Mrs. Agnes Humphrey of Fayetteville, NC; two brothers, J. Russell Prevatte of Red Springs, NC and J. Elias Prevatte of Southport, NC.

Ethel's dedication to the church was very pronounced. She shared fully, joyfully and faithfully in the ministry of her husband as they served in the NC Conference in various towns and cities. The appointments they served were: Scotts Hill; Maysville; Warsaw; Webb Avenue-Fountain Place in Burlington; Maxton; Chadbourn; Rosemary in Roanoke Rapids; Robbins; Ahoskie; Mount Gilead; Fifth Avenue in Wilmington; and Hertford.

Through her education and natural ability, Ethel was well qualified to be a real helpmate to her husband in the work of the ministry. In many of the churches she worked in the church school, sang in the choir, and was involved in the work of the United Methodist Women.

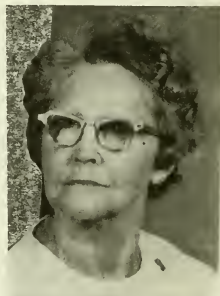

Her love of music and interest in gardening were lifelong hobbies that she enjoyed to the fullest. She was a dedicated mother and grandmother and much beloved by her family.

Ethel and Chester retired at the 1972 session of the Annual Conference and established residence in Hillsborough. She entered the Methodist Retirement Home in 1982.

MARY HELM DANIEL SHULLER

Mary Helm Daniel Shuller was born September 6, 1907 in the town of Hillsborough, Orange County, NC, the daughter of Robert and Ada Nicholson Daniel, one of seven children. She died in Durham County Hospital on November 19, 1987.

Mary graduated from Hillsborough High School on May 1, 1925 and from Duke University in June, 1929. She taught two years in the public schools there and then married the Reverend Edgar R. Shuller in 1931. They served Methodist churches in Garner, Fremont, Warrenton, Hookerton, Williamston, Conway, Swansboro, Grifton, Fayetteville, and Laurel Hill. After his retirement in 1969 they made their home in Yaupon Beach where he served as associate pastor for visitation and for communion at Ocean View United Methodist Church. He taught Sunday school and both were active in church affairs. They had four children: Mary Ada, Edgar Ralph, Jr., Robert North and Carol.

Mary's diverse talents allowed her to be more than a helpmate to her husband. Besides running the parsonage with a family of four children, she directed children's choirs, held offices in the UMW, taught Sunday school, and still managed to find time to pursue her many interests. For several years she also taught upper elementary grades in the public schools. She was a renowned cook, her specialty being candy making for the church and for private sales. Gardening was her passion. Each year she called on her children to spade the garden and prepare it for spring planting. Edgar raised vegetables, but Mary raised the flowers. Her joy overflowed when one of her sons gave her a greenhouse for the yard. Now she could and did raise flowers in winter and make good use of that always green thumb. She played piano enough to play for her own private enjoyment and for family singing. Reading to her children when they were small was sheer delight for them and for her. Reading was one of her hobbies. Listening was another. She loved people and was as capable of listening as of self-expression, and a delightful conversationalist who frequently offered opinions with considerable wit and humor. She was no mean artist and produced works in several media: oil, acrylic, and clay. She had her own kiln for firing pottery. In a brief autobiography for her granddaughter Mary reveals that her father taught her to value the English language and her mother the value of a job well done.

Mary's early training reveals a great deal about her later character. Part of her training was helping in the house and helping her father at tobacco harvesting time. He was very strict about everything: attending religious services, using no slang nor bad words, school attendance, no dating at an early age, telling the truth, and finding time to read the Bible. She especially enjoyed going places with a group like black berrying or strawberry picking. For these they would take a picnic lunch and spend all day. She met Edgar at a Duke Divinity students' wiener roast. She loved the movies in her early years. She confesses to having been a fan of Ramon Navarro and Mary Pickford. Other loves include radio's "Lum 'n Abner," lilacs, mother's fried chicken, the novel David Copperfield and the song "Over the Rainbow."

Mary expressed her warmth and humanity through the care of her husband and family and through her church. One was never around her for very long in her later years without seeing pictures of her wonderful family: children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was so proud of all of them. God granted her an abundant measure of His grace to meet the challenges of her life.

In 1985 Mary and Edgar moved to the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham. There she continued work on her hobbies. She worked in the greenhouse and the craft shop and participated in writing classes. An essay of hers will be published soon in the "Creative Writing Journal" at the home. Edgar died in 1986 and Mary in 1987. Funeral Services were held for her on November 22, 1987 at Ocean View United Methodist Church, Yaupon Beach, NC with the Reverend J. Mark Kasper officiating. She is buried in Northside Cemetery at Southport.

"A perfect women, nobly planned, to warm, to comfort, and command; and yet a spirit still, and bright with something of angelic light." (Wordsworth)

EMMA JANE JOLLY FITTS

Emma Jolly Fitts, widow of the Reverend Robert N. Fitts of the NC Conference, died January 11, 1988.

Emma was born on June 4, 1892 to Joseph H. and Serena Buck Jolly near Winterville in Pitt County, NC. When she was nine years of age her father died and her mother placed Emma and another daughter, Dora, in the Methodist Orphanage in Raleigh because Serena (known as Rena) had to find employment to earn a living. Emma remained in the orphanage until age 18, at which time she found employment in a cotton mill in Rosemary, NC (now Roanoke Rapids). It was here she met Robert N. Fitts and they were married on December 17, 1913.

As a bride she went with her husband to his first appointment at Scott's Hill, NC. After this they served the following appointments: Shallotte (twice), Stantonsburg, Vanceboro, Mann's Harbor, Avon, Ocracoke, Robersonville, Dover, Creswell, Stonewall, Seven Springs, Marshallberg and Salem at Oxford. After Robert's retirement in 1954 they bought a house at 207 Grove St., Oxford, NC where they made their home.

Six daughters were born to Emma and Robert. Mary and Virginia Dare died in infancy. Pauline (Mrs. Clifton Noble) of Dover, NC died in 1979. Surviving are Serena (Rena) (Mrs. C. L. Humphrey) of Dover, NC, Roberta (Mrs. Hayward Marshall) of Bethesda, MD, and Grace (Mrs. R. J. Chadwick) of Gloucester, NC. Also surviving are 13 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren. Her husband, Robert, died in 1971.

Emma was a strong and active supporter of her husband's ministry. She was one of the early leaders in the progressive participation of women in the NC Conference. She was instrumental in organizing and leading various Women's Societies in their appointments, beginning with The Ladies Aid Society and continuing until her husband's retirement.

Emma was of a quiet, gentle nature, but was forthright and outspoken in her defense of honesty and right. She was never idle, performing her homemaking duties as faithfully as she devoted her efforts as a minister's wife. As a mother she was a loving, but firm, disciplinarian. She was a skilled seamstress and made practically all clothing for herself, her daughters and even some for her husband. She sewed some for friends and neighbors, making a little spending money, which was usually used to buy more material to make up for her family. She was no stranger to a paint brush and always freshened and brightened the parsonages with her painting, new curtains and whatever it took to help make as attractive and comfortable home as she could for her family. She loved flowers and she and Robert always allowed room in their vegetable garden for a spot of color. During those days many of the parsonages were sparsely and poorly furnished. When moving time came, essentials such as beds, kitchen items, Emma's beloved piano, etc., along with two cows and chickens were shipped by whatever means necessary, several times by boat and ferry! Hurricanes and floods were quite common along the outer banks. Understandably, Emma's "theme song" was the old hymn "Higher Ground."

Emma was a compassionate and generous lady. She loved and needed people around her. Her sense of humor was subtle and natural. The sparkle in her eyes and her shy little smile endeared her to her family and many friends who were privileged to know her. She will be missed.

Emma died quietly in Granville Hospital in Oxford, NC. Funeral services were held at Oxford United Methodist Church with the Reverend Daniel Jolly (her nephew), and the Reverend Bruce Pate (her pastor) officiating. Burial was in the Fitts burial plot in Warren-ton, NC.

"She gave us life, she gave us love, she gave us values that we're proud of.

When we needed her she was always there to comfort, advise and give of her care.

She never wavered, she held on strong in belief that right was better than wrong;

That peace in the heart gives joy to the soul, forgiveness of spirit will let us grow old

Free from memories of wrongs of the past, treasuring friendships that last and last.

She taught us patience and kindness to others, She was, indeed, tops among mothers.

We won the sweepstakes when God drew her name to receive the grand prize in life's wonderful game,

A gem of a mother, no frills or pretend, a sweet, gentle lady, our mama, our friend."

Rena, Roberta and Grace

CLARA MAE RESPESS TEW

In the life of Clara Tew we see the exemplification of the good wife, the loving spouse, the helpmate, the co-worker for Christ with her late husband. As in the case of most minister's spouses, Clara Tew had the opportunity to touch more lives than can be dreamed of! She did this even before she and Alton were married through her teaching and then afterwards going with him through their many appointments and joining with him in bringing a depth to the Christian gospel that comes from living it and a measure of sunshine to the lives of those who needed that extra measure. No wonder that Clara Tew was awarded every honor that could be awarded her by the churches and particularly by the Women's Society of Christian Service, the United Methodist Women, and all such organizations whose lives she touched. After Alton and Clara came to the Methodist Retirement Home, they expressed together a mark of devotion that was so marvelous that it was an inspiration to all who lived there. They were in love with the Lord Jesus Christ and knew him as their personal Savior and as spokespeople for him throughout their lives, and in addition they loved one another.

Clara Tew was born on March 20, 1906 in Belhaven, NC. Her parents were Richard F. and Drucilla Burbage Respass. She attended the public schools of Belhaven and later Bath. She graduated from Women's College in Greensboro in 1930. She taught in the public schools of Bath until her marriage. She and W. Alton Tew were married on January 19, 1934 and she joined on her great labor of love (which in truth was no labor at all, but pure love!) as she set forth with her husband in the itineracy serving with him at Ocracoke, Stonewall, Wilmington: Wesley Memorial, Riverside-Bridgeton, Lillington, Rowland, Aberdeen: Page Memorial, West Burlington, Rosemary in Roanoke Rapids, Trinity in Raleigh, St. Paul in Durham, and Enfield, from which they retired to Durham. There they acquired the first home that they had ever owned themselves - for thirty-nine years they had lived together in Methodist parsonages.

During these years Clara and Alton had their son, William Alton Tew, Jr., of Newport News, VA, who is the only family survivor. Bill Tew was appreciative of his Christian upbringing and of the book that his father left him, Memoirs of a Methodist Minister, which was completed after Clara and Alton moved to the Methodist Retirement Home in 1978. I recall the marvelous life they had there together and the remarkable influence they had upon the Home itself. Their son, Bill, reflects on his rich legacy from both his father and mother through memories of the Lord that he perceived through the singing of hymns. It was a musical family. He shares some of his early memories reflecting the lighting of oil lamps by Sunday twilight as a rural congregation together sang the haunting "Day is Dying in the West" and the tender "Sweet Hour of Prayer" and the enthusiastic "Revive Us Again" and "Jesus Saves." He remembers his mother in church on bright Sunday mornings singing "O Worship the King" and the jubilant "Jesus Shall Reign," but above all he recalls how his youngest years were enchanted by his mother's quiet singing as she did her house work humming or singing "Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus" and other hymns of like genre from the Cokesbury Hymnal. He recalls how her example of a sweet, earnest conviction impressed him more than she ever realized and brought to him the power of the Gospel which will always exemplify truth and remain a part of his life here and hereafter.

In writing this I reflect upon how important it is that the parsonage family be together and that mother and father both bring a sense of the presence of Jesus and a spiritual creed to their offspring that they may know and may grow strong in the service of Jesus in the way that each shall choose.

Following Alton's death, Clara did her mourning and accepted life as it was as a soldier of Christ and yet continued her witness throughout the Retirement Home as a shining example to others. In 1987, her health began to fail and Clara Tew died at Duke University Medical Center on January 18, 1988. A memorial service was held in the Methodist Retirement Home Chapel on January 20, by Lawrence Lugar, Maness Mitchell, and David Grissom, the chaplain of the Home.

As a final act of stewardship, Clara had already made arrangements that her body be donated to the Duke University Medical Center and her wishes were carried out with the understanding that eventually her ashes would be scattered in the memorial section of the Duke Gardens.

It was very much like Clara Tew to recognize that her soul was with the Lord and that the body could be of service and she was a steward of that which she had cast off as she put on a heavenly body. So her plans remained firm.

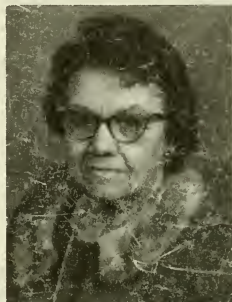

At this point one could say, "Here concludes the earthly lives of two of God's most faithful servants, Alton and Clara Tew, but somehow I feel they have left enough of themselves that in truth in the hearts of many whose hearts they touched, they will live on and their works will be passed on unto other generations.

"Yea, when this flesh and heart shall fail, and mortal life shall cease,
I shall possess, within the veil a life of joy and peace."

IDA CATHERINE JUNE HUSTED

Ida Catherine June was born August 19, 1901 and she began her parsonage career in a small rented house 30 miles south of Pittsburgh, PA. She had married the Reverend Morris L. Husted on January 10, 1924 and moved there from her family farm in upper New York State. Meadowlands, PA was their first church assignment in the Pittsburgh Conference.

Shortly after the onset of World War II, nineteen years, nine parsonages, and four children later, she moved back to New York State to be with her husband, then a chaplain in the USAF. During the war they served at various USAF bases and hospitals primarily in New England and North Carolina.

After the war, Mrs. Husted resumed parsonage responsibilities in the New York Conference. But memories of North Carolina were nostalgic and, after repeated invitations, on a Saturday morning in 1952, they accepted a call to serve in the North Carolina Conference. It was a decision they never regretted. They both had a deep affection and appreciation for the people of North Carolina.

Mrs. Husted was blessed with a long and full life and actively served 52 years in the Methodist parsonage. She held many offices within the church and various civic organizations. Children's organizations were the main focus of her most active endeavors and she took joy and pride and great satisfaction in her role as a founder of the still ongoing NY State program of Alternative Homes for Children at Risk.

The love Catherine Husted gave, the hungry she fed, the children she harbored, the church pianos she played, the pain she suffered and the charity of her heart were most certainly noticed by God.

Her husband, Morris Lyman Husted, preceded her in death on November 8, 1972. Her four children survive: three sons, Eston A. Husted of Minneapolis, MN; Wayne D. Husted of San Francisco, CA, Ronald E. Husted of Poughkeepsie, NY; and one daughter, Mrs. David E. (Norma) Van Vleet of Durham, NC.

JOSIE LUCILE WADDILL PORTER

Josie Lucile Waddill Porter was born in Carthage, NC on November 22, 1889, the daughter of Joseph E. and Martha H. Waddill. She died on April 6, 1988 at the Coble Health Care Center of the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham. She received her education in the Carthage public schools and at Greensboro College in Greensboro, NC. She worked in the Moore County Register of Deeds office until her marriage on April 29, 1914 to the Reverend Hubbard B. Porter. He joined the NC Methodist Conference in 1913. They met when Hubbard Porter was serving as pastor of the Carthage Methodist Church during the illness of their pastor.

To Mrs. Porter being a minister's wife was a call to Christian service to be shared with her husband. She assumed the responsibility as a minister's wife with great dignity, humility, loyalty and faithfulness. Her love of her family and her church were predominant throughout her life. With her husband they served churches in Parkton, Lillington, Siler City, Warrenton, Henderson, Wilmington, Durham, Wilson and Troy. Hubbard Porter also served the Durham and Raleigh Districts as district superintendent.

Upon retirement the couple lived in Durham, NC where they were members of Calvary United Methodist Church. After her husband's death in 1960 she shared a duplex in Durham with her daughter, Marion, until the age of 89, when she moved to the Methodist Retirement Home. In 1980 she broke her hip and had to live in the Coble Health Care Center until her death in 1988. Her Christian spirit and her love, gentleness and faith remained with her until her death despite an almost total loss of memory during the last two years. To the end her subjects of conversation were of church and Christian matters. Her fondness of music, especially hymns, was exemplified in the fact that she died while singing.

Mrs. Porter was a devoted Christian mother to her three children who survive: Alline P. Garrison of Burlington, Marion P. Farthing of Durham and Edmund Waddill Porter of Belleville, MI. Also surviving are three grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Her pastor, the Reverend Sam Dixon, Jr., officiated at the graveside service in Maplewood Cemetery in Durham on April 8, 1988. She was laid to rest beside her husband.

Those who visited her during her declining years found her to be an inspiration to them. Her life was a living testimony of her love and faith in God. Her influence will live on in those whose lives she touched and all who loved her. A Carthage newspaper writer said of her:

"None know her but to love, none name her but to praise."

Her daughters,
Marion and Alline

NANCY RUTH HENDERSON GRANT

Ruth Henderson Grant, the daughter of Isaac I. and Elsie Holt Henderson, was born on December 21, 1910 in Alamance County. She grew up in Graham, NC, attended Graham public schools, Flora McDonald College, Scaritt College, and was graduated from Elon College. She served as a director of Christian education at Jarvis Memorial United Methodist Church in Greenville, NC and furthered her education at East Carolina University. For a number of years Ruth used her talents as a teacher at Allen Jay School in High Point, Bells School in Chatham County, and Scotland Neck Elementary School in Scotland Neck, NC before her marriage to Nicholas Warnum Grant on July 12, 1941 at Duke University Chapel.

Nick and Ruth served the Methodist Church loyally and faithfully in Warrenton, Warren Charge; Rich Square, Rich Square Charge; Bethel, Bethel Church; Washington, Washington; First; Raleigh, Fairmont; Goldsboro, St. Paul; the Raleigh District; the Conference Council on Ministries as executive director; and the Burlington District. Ruth's life as a minister's wife was an example of dignity, humility, and steadfast encouragement and support for Nick. She shared with him strong convictions and a sense of fairness. A devoted wife, she always accompanied Nick to his many meetings and, while offering support and encouragement to him and to others, she preferred to remain in the background. Throughout her life she was a doer, but often her work was behind the scenes.

For the past 30 years, during the month of July, Ruth could be found in the kitchen or on the front porch of their house at Lake Junaluska. She was always ready to provide good conversation and good food for those walking past the house.

Nick and Ruth retired to Rocky Mount in June, 1978. In July, 1985, they moved to Greensboro to be near their daughter, son-in-law, and grandchildren. Ruth's grandchildren, Elizabeth and Nicholas, provided her with a feeling of youth as she kept up with their many activities. From their birth, she was willing to change her plans to help them in any way she could and she loved doing it.

After Nick's death in 1985, Ruth made new friends and rekindled old friendships in Greensboro. They meant so much to her after Nick's death and during her own illness. Ruth died at the home of her daughter, Nancy, in Greensboro, on May 7, 1988. Graveside services were conducted on May 9, 1988 at Raleigh Memorial Park by the Reverend Kermit L. Braswell, the Reverend Henry B. Grant, the Reverend Dr. Wallace H. Kirby, and the Reverend Dr. F. Belton Joyner, Jr. She is survived by her daughter, Nancy Reynolds; son-in-law, Tom Reynolds; two grandchildren, Nancy Elizabeth and Thomas Nicholas of Greensboro; and a brother, I. Holt Henderson of Graham.

Taken from a prayer of thanksgiving given by Henry Grant, her nephew, at the graveside service are these words, "For her devoted attention to her family, for her shyness, for her cooking, for gentleness, for perseverance under suffering, sickness, and distress, for the teasing she took, for the teasing she gave back in equal measure, for housekeeping, for her sense of humor, for modesty and nobility of character, for friendship and grace, for patience, for the good she offered to others and to us, for her life as a Christian, O Lord, we thank you."

PHYLLIS LOUISE GANTZ SAVAGE

Phyllis was born in Columbus, Ohio on May 30, 1950 and received her early education in the area. After receiving a college degree, she attended the Methodist Theological School in Delaware, Ohio (Also known as METHESCO), where she received her Masters of Arts in Christian Education in June, 1975. She was consecrated as a Lay Worker (later to be grand-fathered into the Diaconal Ministry) of The United Methodist Church in the West Ohio Conference.

She began serving others while still in seminary. To work her way through school, she was a counselor at the correction school for girls in Ohio. From there, she became the Director of Christian Education at Broad Street UMC in Columbus, Ohio. She continued her ministry at Riverside UMC in Upper Arlington (a suburb of Columbus), Ohio as Diaconal Minister in Christian Education.

Phyllis moved to Raleigh in 1980 where she served as a Diaconal Minister in the role of Program Director at Benson UMC with the Reverends Brian Gentle and Clyde Tucker for many years.

Phyllis died July 24, 1987 and her memorial service was conducted at Benson UMC in Raleigh with the Reverend Penny Dollar Farmer, and Carol Dell Strange, diaconal minister, officiating.

She is survived by her younger sister, Patricia Gantz in Columbus, Ohio; her father, Mr. Gantz in Orient, Ohio; and her husband, James Savage of Raleigh, whom she married in April of 1986.

As part of her ministry, Phyllis was president of the NC Chapter of the Christian Educators Fellowship, and chairperson of the NC Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry.

Phyllis was talented, and the areas of Christian clowning and sacred dance were among her special gifts and graces. Her radiant smile and friendliness will not be forgotten by her co-workers and friends. Phyllis gave 100% in and for the ministry of the Church as she worked with all ages in her churches and in the Conference. She brought a strength of spirit to all who knew her and fought to deny the throes of the cancer she lived with for three years. Many of her theological and Christian education books have been donated to churches and their libraries so their own Christian ministry can continue to grow.

Her ashes were given to the ocean that she so loved, and where she played, worked, and found the Light and Life of all that is.

So be it,
Carol Dell Strange

Conference Reports, Legislation and Resolutions

SECTION V

ANNUAL CONFERENCE ADDRESS BY BISHOP C. P. MINNICK, JR.

A Vision for Ministry in the NC Conference - Vital Congregations and Faithful Disciples

Before we focus our attention on a vision, or possible directions, for future ministries in the NC Annual Conference, let me share with you a portion of a report which I have submitted to the SEJ Conference in which I have summarized some of the ministries in which the United Methodist people of this Annual Conference have been involved during the quadrennium that is concluding this year.

At the beginning of this quadrennium the General Commission on Religion and Race was invited to send representatives to the NC Annual Conference to assist us in evaluating the quality and degree of racial inclusiveness at the local church, district and annual conference levels. The process served to increase our sensitivity to continuing expressions of racism and to motivate us to a greater concern for racial inclusiveness. Four cross-racial pastoral appointments are in place at this time; but we are well aware of the fact that open itineracy is not yet a reality and remains a goal to be sought with greater commitment and energy.

A comprehensive plan for strengthening and developing the ethnic minority local church in ministry and mission has been put in place to prevent any decline in this area of ministry and concern when this is no longer a missional priority in our denomination. A staff person of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries has been assigned major responsibilities for ethnic minority local churches; and every Annual Conference board and agency has been asked to devote twenty percent of its budget and program to strengthening and developing the ethnic minority local churches.

In the area of evangelism a quadrennial emphasis on church growth and congregational development has resulted in a net increase in membership for each year in this quadrennium. Membership in the Annual Conference is now 217,933, a net increase of 2,768 members over the past four years. A conference-wide concern for church extension led to the addition to the Annual Conference staff of a full-time assistant to the Cabinet for church extension. The result of this church extension emphasis has been the beginning of fifteen new local churches - 8 white congregations, 3 black congregations, 2 Native American congregations, 1 Asian American congregation and 1 Hispanic American congregation. The ethnic designations indicate the nature of the communities in which these congregations are located and the majority constituency of the membership. But let it be noted here that each of these new congregations is open and inclusive in membership and outreach ministries.

Many residents of eastern NC have suffered greatly from two serious economic situations in recent years - the farm crisis, in which many persons experienced severe financial losses, and the "Red Tide", which brought heavy losses to fishing families on the coast. The local churches of the Annual Conference responded generously to appeals from the Bishop for special offerings for those who were victims of these situations. It is significant to note that this Annual Conference has given a total of $986,875 during this quadrennium to those persons suffering from hunger and human need, the farm crisis, and the "Red Tide". This amount does not include the significant amount of assistance received from UMCOR.

The agencies and institutions of the Annual Conference are strong and effective in their ministries. NC Wesleyan College, Methodist College, and Louisburg College, located in this Conference, are rendering outstanding service in Christian higher education. Our Children's Home, with eight centers for residential care and therapy located across the Annual Conference, and our three retirement homes are providing high quality care for persons with special needs. The life of the Annual Conference is greatly enriched by the presence within the Conference of the Duke Divinity School, whose staff, faculty and student body render many special ministries to us, in addition to preparing persons for effective ministry in churches here and around the world. Six campus ministers at state and private campuses within the bounds of our Annual Conference touch the lives of students with the caring love of Jesus Christ and involve many college and university students in worship, fellowship and outreach ministries. Our four camps provide excellent and varied programs of outdoor Christian education. Space simply does not permit me to describe the many other significant ministries being done by our agencies in the inner city, urban and rural areas of this Annual Conference.

During the next quadrennium, 1989 - 1992, the major focus of ministries in the NC Annual Conference will be "Vital Congregations and Faithful Disciples", the theme adopted by the Council of Bishops for the next episcopal leadership initiative. Will you focus your thoughts with me on this theme and reflect with me on the possibilities for increased faithfulness in our discipleship to Jesus Christ and for growing effectiveness in ministries in his name.

Dynamic discipleship and vital congregational life are rooted and grounded in the spiritual disciplines of prayer, Bible study, the private and corporate worship of God, and sharing in the life of Christian community - the community of faith, hope and love.

A biblical example of vital congregational life and faithful discipleship is the infant church described in the book of the Acts of the Apostles following the day of Pentecost. The Holy Spirit had come upon them after ten days of prayer, and the continuing life of that spirit-filled church is described in Acts 2 as life which continued "in the apostles' teaching, fellowship, the breaking of bread, and their prayers". Methodism at its best has always been characterized by the inward experience of faith. That experience was described by John Wesley in these words: "I felt my heart strangely warmed..." That experience came to a person committed to the discipline of private personal prayer; and that experience, which we designate as his "Aldersgate experience" happened to Wesley in a setting of Bible study.

Our biblical heritage and our Wesleyan heritage call us as pastors and laity in every congregation to commit ourselves anew to the practice of those disciplines that bring spiritual renewal and enhance spiritual growth. Let us make covenant with each other to be faithful in our private lives of study, prayer and reflection and in our corporate life of worship, study and mutual nurturing of each other in faith.

Out of such prayer covenants and devotional disciplines, and the inward experience of the Holy Spirit which results from them, we, who are set apart for pastoral ministry and diaconal ministry, receive the power and motivation to renew our commitment daily to servant ministry. Without such daily renewal and commitment other career values become dominant over servanthood. Laity, too, are renewed and empowered in these disciplines for faithful discipleship and vital congregational life.

Vital congregations of faithful disciples are involved in creative ministries of caring love. The book of the Acts of the Apostles is the story of a spirit-filled church in mission to the world. The risen Christ had given them their mandate with the promise of power for their mission, "You shall receive power...and you shall be my witnesses...to the ends of the earth". This is the mandate of our Lord to the church gathered here today. Other New Testament passages amplify this mandate for mission. "Go, make disciples...baptizing...teaching". "You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people that you may declare the wonderful deeds of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light."

It is significant to note that the mission of the church does not originate with those who are members of the church. It is the plan and will of God for the church. Our task is to determine ways to implement God's mission through the churches of the NC Annual Conference.

The immediate response called for by the biblical mandate to be witnesses and to make disciples is evangelism. Evangelism is sharing the good news in word and deeds so that others might hear, see, and respond to the word of God's grace which was incarnated in Jesus Christ. Resources, training and inspiration must be provided to equip pastors and laity to be effective evangelists. Let us avail ourselves of the resources and leadership which are available to local congregations from Annual Conference agencies and from general church boards that we might be more effective in leading people into discipleship to Jesus Christ.

Ministries of love are costly in terms of financial resources needed to do them. Our per capita giving of $279 in the NC Conference indicates a need for individual and congregational reflection in prayer, worship and Bible study on the Christian doctrine and practice of the stewardship of financial resources together with an increased awareness and understanding of the ministries needed and being done by the local church in the local community and through the "Fair Share" giving to the ends of the earth. An emphasis in our Conference on stewardship education and cultivation is crucial at this time. Our denomination has chosen across the past two hundred years to be connectional in organization and in many aspects of ministry. That we are connectional means that each local congregation of United Methodism is in a covenant relationship of mutual ministry with every other United Methodist congregation. Denominational structures such as the General Conference, the Jurisdictional Conference, the Annual Conference and the Charge Conference have been put in place and maintained for the sake of ministry and mission to the world. Let it be clearly noted that maintaining the connectional structures is not the mission of our church; but rather, we maintain the structures and organization only for the purpose of facilitating the ministry and outreach of the local congregations of our denomination. There are ministries which we can do in our connectedness with each other which no individual local congregation could do by itself.

We are a denomination of mostly small membership churches. In the NC Annual Conference 61% of our congregations have fewer than 200 members, 70% fewer than 300. In our connectional structure small membership congregations are united with each other and larger membership congregations in a common ministry to the ends of the earth, with each congregation giving a "fair share" of the cost of this ministry.

In this same way each congregation gives according to its ability to provide resource centers of materials and persons which every congregation may draw upon to equip itself for more effective ministry for Jesus Christ in the world.

In the NC Annual Conference there is a need to find ways to help our people see and understand the beauty and power of our denomination's connectional organization. And we must continue to use our connectional structure to enable small membership churches to be more effective on congregational life and mission.

Stewardship concerns and responsibilities call for a careful evaluation of the Annual Conference structure and staffing needs. Are there changes possible which will make the Annual Conference ministries and programs more economical and, at the same time, maintain their present effectiveness and efficiency in serving local churches and districts? Such an evaluation will be done during the new quadrennium.

A major concern of this Annual Conference, which will be addressed during this session, is the immediate need for a minimum of $8 million in capital funds for church extension and for the improvement of facilities for our ministries in camping and outdoor Christian education. These are not peripheral or adjunct ministries of the church. These are ministries, the purposes of which are evangelistic outreach and growth in discipleship to Jesus. I am convinced that our choice in this matter is not will we or will we not do these ministries and pay the financial cost of them. Our decision concerns the best way to receive the $8 million that is so desperately needed for these ministries now.

The Capital Funds Plans Council was instructed by the 1987 Annual Conference to come to the 1988 Annual Conference session with a recommendation concerning this capital funds need; and the Council will present a recommendation that there be in the Annual Conference a capital funds campaign with a goal of $8 million to help meet our needs in church extension and camping ministries.

The theme, "Vital Congregations and Faithful Disciples", affirms the essential importance of local congregations in disciple making through evangelistic outreach, disciple nurturing in growth toward Christian perfection, and disciple sending for witness and ministry. As a result of our covenant of unity, the connectedness of local churches to each other in our denomination, there are resources of money and leadership which we provide together for ministry and mission. The essential importance of the local congregation calls for us to direct some of these resources to programs and ministries that will assist local congregations as they seek to grow in all areas of discipleship to Jesus Christ and in ministry to the world in his name.

Dr. Ken Callahan, author of Twelve Keys to an Effective Church, and a consultant in the area of increasing the effectiveness of local congregations, met last fall in a retreat setting for three days with our Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration, the Cabinet, the Conference Council on Ministries staff, and certain other persons in leadership positions in this Annual Conference. Those of us who shared in that retreat departed with the conviction that the directions and insights shared with us by Dr. Callahan can vitalize and energize local congregations in eastern NC.

The Council on Finance and Administration has agreed to allocate some of our financial resources for this purpose. Leadership will be recruited by the Cabinet during the next twelve months. And local congregations, both ethnic minority and ethnic majority congregations of all sizes, will be informed about and invited to share in this exciting program designed to enable congregations to become vital centers of Christian nurture, ministry and mission.

Related to this emphasis and to be implemented in conjunction with all programs related to "Vital Congregations and Faithful Disciples" is the comprehensive plan adopted by our Annual Conference for strengthening and developing the ethnic minority local church for ministry and mission.

Let it be noted, too, that vital congregations and faithful disciples will be committed to justice ministries, to an inclusive church, and to an open itineracy. To follow the life and teachings of Jesus and to be faithful to our Methodist heritage will not permit us to be otherwise.

I would conclude this statement of dreams for the future with a call for laity and clergy in our congregations to be alert to those persons in our midst who give evidence of gifts and graces for ordained and diaconal ministry. God's call to them for vocational commitment to ministry needs the validation that comes from the community of faith; and there are times and situations when God initiates the call to ministry through the congregation of God's people. The church is always in need of servant leaders who express in their lives the mind and spirit of Jesus Christ.

Vital Congregations and Faithful Disciples - This theme and these concepts capture the vision for ministry which I hope will guide this Annual Conference as we move into a new quadrennium and toward the 21st century.

CAPITAL FUNDS CAMPAIGN, PLANS COUNCIL RECOMMENDATIONS ON

The Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign Resolution

WHEREAS, the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church is committed to winning persons to Christ and to nurturing them into faithful discipleship; and,

WHEREAS, the camping ministry of our conference provides a significant resource for such evangelistic and nurturing ministries with children, youth, and adults; and,

WHEREAS, new congregations and redeveloped congregations offer an abundant environment for such ministries; and,

WHEREAS, major facility improvements are needed at each of the four Conference camps; and,

WHEREAS, systematic research and planning reveal a present need for at least thirty-seven new churches; a number of relocations; and, many redevelopment projects; and,

WHEREAS, a feasibility study conducted in the spring of 1986 discovered that United Methodists in eastern North Carolina, if they feel the causes are justified, would be willing to give eight to ten million dollars for church extension and camps; and,

WHEREAS, the 1986 session of the Annual Conference, after hearing the results of the Capital Funds Feasibility Study, called for a Capital Funds Plans Process to inform United Methodists of the needs and to identify a possible way of meeting the needs; and,

WHEREAS, the 1987 session of the Annual Conference extended the work of the Capital Funds Plans Process; and,

WHEREAS, the Capital Funds Plans Council has discharged its mandate and shared its findings with Charge Conferences throughout the Conference;

THEREFORE, be it resolved that the North Carolina Annual Conference approve a campaign for the summer and fall of 1988 for camps and church extension.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the United Methodist Church's Office of Finance and Field Service be engaged to manage the campaign seeking to raise at least eight million dollars to be divided equally between these two causes;

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED members of the Plans Council, joined by the members of the Conference Cabinet, do hereby offer our personal, individual, full, active, and prayerful support for this campaign and agree to serve the achievement of the campaign goal in any appropriate manner requested to insure its fullest and complete success.

- (4) African Church Growth and Development Program, (No.008233-0 H-T). To help provide leadership training and church construction in this area of rapid Christian growth.

B. Lane Two: National

- (1) St. Andrew's Potato Project (No. 801600-0). This project helps alleviate hunger by distributing surplus potatoes.
 - (2) Hinton Rural Life Center. A Leadership Training Center in western North Carolina used by United Methodists in the Southeastern Jurisdiction for program (No. 731372-2). For construction of units for small groups and to repair existing buildings (No. 731374-4).
 - (3) Robeson Co. Church & Community Center, (No. 79174-0). A unique ministry, involving a tri-racial population of 91,000 in Robeson County, N.C.
 - (4) United Methodist Volunteers-In-Mission, (No. 982875-6). To provide guidance, training and placement for persons/groups wishing to serve on missions on a short-term basis.
 - (5) SEJ Association for Native American Ministries
- C. Lane Three: United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR)
- (1) Emergency Relief Efforts, World Wide (No. 982450-8). Year after year, the greatest need of UMCOR is for undesignated funds for quick response to emergencies overseas.
 - (2) Special Program (No. 982362-8). Locating and treating children with leprosy.
 - (3) Child Support Ministries in Asia/Pacific (No. 201225-8). UMCOR is assisting needy children with food, clothing, medical and nutritional assistance and vocational training.
 - (4) Heifer Project International (code 982532-1; code 982530-8)
- D. Lane Four: Hunger
- (1) Church World Service Community Hunger Appeal (No. 982380-1). To help alleviate hunger in overseas situations.
 - (2) Give Ye Them to Eat (No. 007629-3D-T). A program to combat hunger in Mexico.
 - (3) Thailand Child Nutrition, Thailand, (No. 275050-1) Malnutrition is being decreased through fish ponds, duck raising, innovative sanitation efforts in 56 villages.
 - (4) Wells, Water and Irrigation--India (No. 212908-5). Development of wells and irrigation ponds is the aim of this program which gives technical and financial assistance.
 - (5) Cemudri Food, Land and Farmers (No. 156250-7). To setup a "Butcher-shop in the backyard." An agriculture program and design appropriate technology such as grain dryers.
- E. Lane Five: Ethnic Minority Local Church & Projects
- (1) Larger Native American Parish
 - (2) Black Church Development
 - (3) Asian Church Development
 - (4) Walnut Terrace, Raleigh District
 - (5) Hickory Grove, Rockingham District
 - (6) Fairview, Rockingham District
- F. Lane Six: Conference
- (1) All churches 5 years old or less
 - (2) Yokefellow Prison Ministry of North Carolina
 - (3) Food Bank of North Carolina. An ecumenical hunger project. Receives and distributes food that is surplus or cannot be sold.
 - (4) Fayetteville Urban Ministry. An ecumenical ministry providing food, clothing, fuel, literacy classes, relational skills.

- (5) Coastal Area Ministries. These four outreach ministries reach thousands of people each summer: Circus Tent, Agape Inn and 2 Seaman's Centers.
- (6) United Methodist Camps. These funds help with scholarships and meeting other needs of the camping program at Camps Don-Lee, Rockfish, Chestnut Ridge and Kerr Lake.
- (7) District Mission Societies. These may be organized within a district to meet needs in the areas of church extension and missionary needs within the district.
- (8) Wesley Foundations. Funds given to assist United Methodist ministries at Duke, UNC-CH, ECU, NCSU, PSU.
- (9) District Christmas Offering. This fund is supervised by the District Superintendent.
- (10) Isa Grant Scholarship Fund. To provide volunteer work team scholarship for persons who could not otherwise participate in a work team experience.
- (11) General Scholarship Fund for Louisburg, Methodist, N.C. Wesleyan Colleges and Duke Divinity School.
- (12) Goldsboro District Ministry to Migrants.
- (13) Conference Mission Work Teams. These funds help short-term volunteers go in US and overseas to assist with construction or meeting physical or spiritual needs of people.
- (14) Albermarle Food Bank/Food Pantry, Inc.
- (15) Benevolent support for Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. residents.
- (16) Benevolent support for Methodist Home for Children residents.
- (17) Urban Ministry of Raleigh, an ecumenical ministry providing food, shelter, clothing and other services.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES, REPORTS OF

ARCHIVES AND HISTORY, COMMISSION ON

Mrs. Vivian Mitchell has worked diligently on our Historical Records for all ministers who have served the North Carolina Annual Conference. We commend her for this service. She has not been able to complete this task because several hundred of our ministers have not sent in the requested information. Please - we need the information.

We had anticipated having the Native American History published by now, but because of the enormous task of collecting information, the publication will not be ready for several months.

We are now in the process of microfilming many of our historical records. Some of the first to be done will be District Conference Records.

We were disappointed the General Commission on Archives and History didn't make Louisburg College a National Historic Landmark of The United Methodist Church. We were pleased though that they made Louisburg College an Annual Conference Historic Landmark. Louisburg is now listed as such with the General Commission. A plaque has been erected at Louisburg College designating it as a Conference Historic Landmark.

The 1987 Annual Conference celebration of our 150th Annual Conference was a highlight for us. We are indebted to the Reverend G. Franklin Grill, Conference Historian, for coordinating the celebration. We appreciate the many favorable comments.

The Commission has established an Archival Policy for the use of our Archives Room in the Methodist Building. We ask for your cooperation.

A framed picture of the 1887 Annual Conference, which met in Fayetteville, has been hung in the Archives Room at the Methodist Building. Each face in the picture has been given a name and number. This makes it easier to find a certain minister, and to copy his picture with a proper camera.

Our Methodist Heritage Tour to England, scheduled for July 26th, will be ready to depart on time.

The Commission has been represented at the Southeastern Jurisdiction Historical Society and the meeting of the General Commission on Archives and History in 1987. Cliff Shoaf and Lawrence Lugar, Commission chair, were at the General Commission meeting at Drew University in Madison, New Jersey.

Our 1987 meetings were held at the Concord Church: Norman Charge, Rockingham District, and the Mt. Pleasant Church, Sanford District.

CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns celebrates the Christian unity that is a gift of the Holy Spirit. We also work to make that unity visible in the world so that the world might believe. Over the past year two important events have focused our attention on the work before us for Christian unity.

First, the mission study of our church on "Peoples and Churches of the USSR," which coincides with the anniversary of the Russian Orthodox Church, has helped many of our people become more aware of the Russian nation and the life of the church there. Increased awareness of each other can help Christians in both countries embrace each other and work for peace.

Second, the CONSENSUS of the Consultation on Christian Unity goes before the General Conference for action on the following three points:

- a) The United Methodist Church recognizes in CONSENSUS an expression in the matters with which it deals of the Apostolic faith, order, worship, and witness of the Church.

- b) The United Methodist Church recognizes in CONSENSUS an anticipating of the Church uniting which the participating bodies, by the power of the Holy Spirit, wish to become.
- c) The United Methodist Church recognizes in CONSENSUS a sufficient theological basis for the covenanting acts to be proposed by the Consultation that we expect to be recommended to the General Conference of 1992.

The Consultation on Church Union and the member churches are focusing preparations for the December, 1988 plenary which will review and vote on the new text for a Covenant Communion of Churches."

Finally, the Commission supports the fine work of the North Carolina Council of Churches in its efforts to bring Christians together in mission and in dialogue. We also commend the many churches in our Annual Conference involved in Crop Walks, choir exchanges, cooperative Thanksgiving and Easter services, joint mission projects, and other programs that bring us all face to face with fellow Christians.

CHURCH AND SOCIETY, BOARD OF

As this Board seeks to be faithful to the Word of Life and responsible to the Annual Conference, we find ourselves dealing with a broad variety of issues, sometimes separate and sometimes related.

We continue to support ecumenical efforts of prison ministry to the general population of prison inmates as well as helping minister to first-offender women in their transition of prison release. We have surveyed and are studying the large number of other ministries being conducted by local church groups. We will be seeking means of encouraging more local church groups to engage in this significant ministry. We note that in doing so, we are revitalizing a type of caring and concern that has been practiced by Methodists from the earliest days by John and Charles Wesley, themselves.

While we Methodists minister more intentionally to those in prison, we expect to come to understand better the problems of prison systems themselves. So we would expect to be in a better position to advocate for appropriate prison reforms such as that which is needed to deal with the current prison overpopulation.

The Conference Council of Ministries has approved a proposal from this Board to conduct an extensive study on the causes and factors related to the concern of poverty and particularly as it is manifested systemically in society in general and also in the structures of our Church itself. We expect this study to point the way for altering structures and policies that reinforce poverty while we continue to do the many fine things that several of our boards and agencies currently are engaged in as they seek to minister to the hurts of our society.

In this connection, this Board has recently been charged with the responsibilities that have been handled for the past few years by the Farm Crisis Task Force. Thus we will be developing a particular and additional "focus on the continuing crisis of farming families and individuals." One means recommended for this is to continue a "United Methodist presence at the State Fair."

Also connected to the concern for those in poverty is question of affordable housing. Housing has already emerged as one of the key issues of poverty. One promising response to this issue has been provided by "Habitat for Humanity," and ecumenical organization. A presentation on this process will be made during this session of Annual Conference. Other approaches will no doubt need to be discovered.

In response to our concern for Peace and World Order, we helped sponsor a successful study tour to Central America. This was attended by several lay and clergy people from our Conference area. Many of these people are available to tell the story of their experiences in Central America to local church groups and others. Contact us.

In order to begin to prepare to deal with the health problem AIDS, we helped sponsor training for persons in our Conference. This is a first step toward responding to what could well be the major health crisis of our time.

This Board has also petitioned General Conference to maintain the current language of our Discipline on all questions relating to homosexual persons.

CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND CHURCH GROWTH, THE QUADRENNIAL TASK FORCE ON

This will be the final report to Annual Conference of this Task Force. Organized for only one quadrennium, the Task Force on Congregational Development and Church Growth has had as its primary task to facilitate this Conference's involvement in the process of revitalizing existing congregations and planting new ones. Much of the most meaningful work accomplished to this end in the last four years has been done by the twelve District Teams on Congregational Development and Church Growth.

This past year has been a time for the Conference Task Force to bring closure to our work. To accomplish this, we called all twelve District Teams together to encourage them to spend several months studying the revitalization and growth needs within each district. Also, we gave each team an instrument by which to evaluate our quadrennial effort and, most important, on which to make recommendations for future emphasis on revitalization and growth ministries.

Recently, the Conference Task Force held its final meeting. It was a time to celebrate what had been accomplished in congregational revitalization and new church planting. It was a time to consider what had happened to membership and attendance trends in Sunday School and worship over the last four years and to postulate what that might bode for our future. It was a time to chart the way forward for the precious concerns of church growth and congregational vitality.

We are grateful for the opportunity afforded us to be a catalyst in the process of revitalization and growth. I personally want to express by appreciation to all those persons, clergy and lay, who have served on the Conference Task Force and on the District Teams across the last four years. Finally, our sincere appreciation is extended to the Associate Director of the Council on Ministries for Evangelism and Church Growth, Dr. Charles V. Bryant, for his invaluable assistance.

When we began four years ago, we found that we were ahead of most conferences in Methodism in our vision for planting new churches and revitalizing existing ones. Today, this is a denominational priority. The future looks more promising than the past because United Methodists are relearning two very important principles: (1) to remain obedient to the Lord's demand for the growth of His church and to be faithful to the expectations of the Great Commission, we must be annually about the business of planting new congregations in the most fertile fields, and (2) to fulfill our role as an "encourager of the brethren" in nurturing all congregations, we must be at all times ready to provide an "infusion of new life" through congregational redevelopment and revitalization where it is warranted.

The Lord indeed will best be served by vital and alive congregations. May that priority and commitment never come to an end.

DISASTER PREPAREDNESS, COMMITTEE ON

The single disaster we faced this Conference year was the Red Tide which infested our coast lands and ruined shell fishing. The overall impact of this natural event did not become fully known until well into the crisis. While other denominations were better prepared to provide initial, one time help at the point of public concern, the real story is in the United Methodist response. No other denomination has come close to the volume or scope of your church in meeting the needs of the people along our coasts. Here are but few examples of what we were doing at the time this report was published in mid March:

1. A food distribution network was established in Morehead City with a central warehouse and nine food distribution points. This network fed 3,000 people a day at the height of the crisis.
2. Emergency assistance was provided for families in crisis. Grants of up to $500.00 per household were distributed through local churches, United Methodist Red Tide Relief, and qualified interfaith councils. These grants helped with mortgages, utility bills, and other emergency assistance. Each grant was accounted for and delivered by a United Methodist minister.
3. The New Bern District raised over $11,000.00 for the Red Tide Relief effort in Morehead City and surrounding areas. This effort was crucial to sustaining the efforts of local churches while the Conference and the General Board of Global Missions raised additional funds for the long haul.
4. The Council on Finance and Administration allocated $50,000.00 for a disaster reserve fund to support this and other disasters in the future. When the Conference began to get involved in the red tide disaster, there was only $2,300.00 available in the Committee's account. The CFA appropriation eliminated the shortage of funds we always face in the beginning of a disaster. These funds must be replaced through a Bishop's appeal each time a disaster hits.
5. The response to the Bishop's appeal for red tide relief far exceeded our expectations. Close to $36,000.00 had come in by the time of this report, and more was on the way. No other denomination has responded to the needs of the people on the coast lands to such a degree.
6. The United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) provided a $18,000.00 grant in response to the Bishop's appeal for $25,000.00. This was provided at the same time that UMCOR was heavily committed to the relief of tornados and floods in the Midwest.

Because this event was fully developed by the time we began to marshal our resources, the coastal districts and the Disaster Preparedness Committee have had to rethink our normal methods of disaster response. We are beginning to see that a disaster is best defined by a sudden increase in emergency requests, rather than by a spectacular event. This is especially important as the Disaster Preparedness Committee begins to assume responsibilities that the Farm Crisis Committee has addressed.

In the coming year, your Disaster Preparedness Committee will develop a comprehensive manual for disaster relief. Each pastor, district superintendent, district coordinator, and committee member will have a copy on file. The lessons learned from the red tide disaster are of great value and will be put to use whenever a disaster strikes.

In closing, I wish to commend the pastors and lay people on our coast who have contributed so much to the needs of the people in their area. Their time, energy, and resources gives hope to thousands of people who have nowhere else to turn. At the time of this report, there is no other single agency, church or government, that comes close to matching their efforts. The strength of our connection is evidenced by the support which this Conference provides to the churches which are willing to address the need.

Dennis Levin, Chairperson

EDUCATION, BOARD OF

Again this year the Board of Education focused its programming primarily on strengthening the educational ministry of the local church. As it met, the Board was conscious of, and included in its agenda, the particular needs of the EMLC.

The Board is excited about its support in the revival of the Confirmation Day with the Bishop. This year about 700 youth and their leaders gathered for a special service at Edenton Street United Methodist Church. We look forward to expanding this program and to the excitement it brings to the confirmation experience in the local church.

The Fellowship of Musicians continues to be a strong support group for the professional musicians serving our local churches. Meeting on a regular basis for day-long seminars and workshops, the Fellowship continues to offer updating experiences for its members. The Fellowship provides leadership for the Handbell Festival, the Children's Choir Camp, Youth Music Workshop and service music for Annual Conference.

The Christian Educators Fellowship meets monthly in cluster groups across the Conference. Quarterly, they have met for day-long training events and this past spring met Bradford Motta of the Curriculum Resource Center of the Board of Discipleship to learn about new curriculum for this fall. They also spent time learning techniques of "Invitational Teaching" around which the material is based.

Children's Ministry continues to be strong within the Conference as the TLC (Teaching/Learning/Caring) teams go into local churches to aid in the development and revitalization of children's ministry. Our Youth Ministry also continues to offer strong Conference youth programs which train youth for leadership and enable deeper commitments to Christ as youth stretch and grow spiritually. Another very successful conference-wide Scout Camporee was held and was well attended by units sponsored by United Methodist Churches in the Conference.

As we close our work for the quadrennium, we, as a Board, are grateful for the privilege of having served in many different ways in the Christian Education processes of our local churches and the Conference.

J. Edward Morrison, Chairperson

EVANGELISM, BOARD OF

1987 has proven to be an effective and productive year in terms of evangelism in the North Carolina Annual Conference. We applaud the efforts of the local churches and districts who have committed themselves to set growth goals and sought to achieve them. Many of the districts have held district evangelism workshops not only to lift up the need for effective evangelism in the local church, but to emphasize a particular area of evangelism.

On the day of Pentecost after Simon Peter had preached the first sermon and 3,000 people received his word and were baptized, the account ends with these words, "And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved." Following is the report of our evangelism statistics as it relates to district and churches.

The North Carolina Annual Conference received 1,269 adult members by profession of faith and 1,489 new members through the profession of faith of youth. There were 3,070 United Methodist persons who joined churches in the North Carolina Conference and 2,002 persons joined from other denominations. The North Carolina Conference received a total of 7,830 persons in 1987.

The Raleigh District again led the Conference with 1,449 persons received followed by the Wilmington District, 839; New Bern, 786; Durham, 684; Burlington, 676; Fayetteville, 631; Greenville, 608; Rocky Mount, 513; Sanford, 502; Rockingham, 402; Goldsboro, 374; Elizabeth City, 342.

Some of the top membership gains were reported by churches with 300 members or less. Philadelphia United Methodist Church in Rockingham District recorded 30 professions of faith followed by New Hope in Elizabeth City District, 16; St. Francis in Raleigh District, 16; Victory in Fayetteville, 16; Union Grove in the Sanford District whose membership is 64 received 15; Lemon Springs in Sanford District, 13; Wesley's Chapel in Wilmington District, 13; Hampstead in Wilmington District, 13; and the Korean Church in Fayetteville with 25 members received 8 on profession of faith. The Conference Evangelism Report indicates the United Methodist churches in our Conference with 300 members or less are growing at a more rapid pace than the larger churches of our Conference.

The top five churches with 300 members or more with additions of profession of faith are: White Plains in Raleigh District, 60; Wesley Memorial in Wilmington, 41; Epworth in Durham, 41; Haymount in Fayetteville, 36; Camp Ground in Fayetteville, 34. Our evangelism reports indicate our larger churches are growing mostly through transfer of members from other United Methodist churches as their largest source of growth while our smaller churches are growing through professions of faith.

We are very proud and privileged to recommend to the North Carolina Annual Conference the approval of Bobby Tyson and Tommy Tyson as Conference-approved evangelists for the Conference year 1988-89. These two evangelists are busy preaching revivals, leading seminars, prayer groups, and evangelistic rallies throughout the year. We are very proud of these two men who serve in this faith venture and calling to preach the gospel throughout the United Methodist Church. We encourage churches of the North Carolina Conference to call upon them for ministries within their own local churches.

We are very proud of the on-going work of our ethnic minority committee on the Board of Evangelism as it has led workshops for youth evangelism in the ethnic minority local church during this quadrennium. In 1987 under the leadership of Reverend Bill Cummings, a worship on youth evangelism in the ethnic minority was held with great response.

This quadrennium has been an exciting one for evangelism and church growth as it relates to the North Carolina Annual Conference. We have worked with the task force on congregational development and church growth during this quadrennium and are encouraged by signs of growth and emphasis on evangelism within our denomination.

These continue to be exciting times in the area of evangelism particularly the North Carolina Conference. As we conclude this quadrennium, we look forward to new leadership and exciting ministries for the North Carolina Annual Conference in the years to come.

M. Eugene Tyson, Chairperson

HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES, BOARD OF

The Board of Health and Welfare Ministries is pleased to report a very successful year in the work of health and healing ministries. The need is great and the opportunities are many and varied in the field of health care.

The Health Fair at Annual Conference in 1987 was an eye opener for many of our lay and ministerial members. The Insurance Committee, in conjunction with the Board of Health and Welfare, will host another Health Fair in 1988 at this Annual Conference. We were excited with the opening of Cypress Glen in Greenville in 1987. This retirement center will provide care and service to our people for many years into the future. We commend it to one and all as a place of retirement, security and peace of mind.

The Rev. Dale Owens has succeeded the Rev. Wes Aiken as United Methodist Chaplain at the Duke Medical Center, Durham, N.C. We welcome her into this vital position and look forward to many years of service in this important ministry. We continue our support to the Day By Day Treatment Center of Selma, N.C. for recovering alcoholics. The Task Force on Handicapping Conditions is exploring the many avenues of service our church needs to be involved in. This is an area which has not been receiving the attention and support it should have and we trust that this is being corrected.

The Golden Cross is one of the ministries of which we are justly proud and we encourage our United Methodist lay people to share the story of Golden Cross across our great Conference. The AIDS fear has begun to be felt within our area of concern and we are moving to meet this issue with openness and understanding as we strive to learn and cope with this devastating medical need. Our Board is working with The Task Force on AIDS to provide seminars and special training.

Relationship statements have been established with The United Methodist Home for Children and the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. You will find these statements incorporated in the Book of Reports to the Annual Conference. Our Board of Health and Welfare Ministries encourages a greater awareness of the needs of our older adults. Their years of experience and skill is a vital resource we must not lose or fail to use in the years ahead. Their future contributions and resources of time, knowledge, skill and faith will be of tremendous importance as our church continues to grow. We thank God for these ministries and services and we pray that our church will be on the cutting edge of growth and ministry.

J.C. Parker, Chairperson

Golden Cross

Golden Cross is a ministry of love, sharing and caring for United Methodists within the bounds of our Conference who are confronted with financial hardship due to medical expenses. It is 217,000 United Methodists across our Conference reaching out to touch the lives of our people who are hurting. This is a beautiful part of our connectional system.

In 1987 Golden Cross assistance was given to 46 individuals representing eleven districts within the Conference. The total amount of money available for medical expenses was $26,028.00 which includes $1,681.00 carried over from 1986, a special appropriation of $6,700.00 from the Council on Finance and Administration, and $842.80 contributed during the year from local churches. We paid $18,479.19 for medical expenses and closed the year with a balance on hand of $7,461.61 of which $1,239.00 was carried over to 198.

If you know someone who needs help with medical expenses, ask your pastor to fill out an application and send it to the District Health and Welfare Ministries chairperson. Thank you for making this ministry of caring and sharing possible through payment of your local church outreach ministries asking.

G. Lloyd Edge, Director

The Methodist Home for Children

1987 was the first full year of direct services since we began the transition to community-based care. We now have eight youth homes and four family life centers offering a full continuum of care to troubled children, youth, and families. I am pleased to report the record of our direct services.

CERTIFIED SPONSOR SITE

In November our Residential Program received certification from the National Teaching-Family Association as a Sponsor Site. This means that the Methodist Home for Children has been recognized as delivering the highest quality of comprehensive services to its youth home programs. This certification also designates Methodist Home for Children as a training and certification center which can offer developmental and affiliation services to other agencies who wish to implement this model of care. Consultation is already under way with sister agencies interested in utilizing Teaching-Family in their residential facilities.

CRISIS COUNSELOR PROGRAM

1987 was the first year of the Crisis Counselor Program. This is a model program of in-home family therapy, designed to assist families in jeopardy to stay intact, avoiding disruption. The program is done under contract with the North Carolina Division of Social Services with an initial grant from The Duke Endowment. Results of the first year of the program are quite encouraging with an 80% success rate. We have served 43 families. 35 of the cases were completed and 29 of these families were intact at time of completion of care. In those instances where placement was necessary, the Crisis Counselors assisted the families in the placement process.

The in-home family therapy we provide is a very pro-active service to families. Most services to troubled families from both public and private providers are reactive services which begin after disruption occurs. Services are corrective in nature and their application to the family in need carries a strong message that the family has failed. Most direct services to families through conventional social delivery systems tend to break down the family's self-confidence and self-esteem. Solutions usually involve placing one or more children in residential care or the parents in prison or residential treatment. In either case, the family unity is disrupted.

This in-home Crisis Counselor Program is pro-active in that the counselor seeks to help recover and build the family's self-confidence. The most proactive public institution in our society is the public school. Teachers and guidance counselors in the school system are among the first to know of family dysfunction. A dysfunctional family produces a troubled child in school. Yet teachers and counselors have little time to provide family therapy. We have discussions under way with the NC Department of Public Instruction looking toward making Crisis Counselors available to school guidance counselors and school social workers. Assistance to dysfunctional families when problems first appear in school holds much promise for avoiding disastrous family dissolution in later years.

FAMILY LIFE SPECIALISTS

Our four Family Life Specialists are working a full capacity from centers in Raleigh, Fayetteville, Jacksonville, and Greenville. They are doing family counseling, family life education workshops, and interpretation events. Rather than expanding our staff, we are developing a Family Life Specialist job description which can be utilized by Staff-Parish Relations Committees for including the family life function as a part of the multi-staff church or larger parish staff team. Methodist Home for Children will provide training and networking for such staff positions in local churches.

CELEBRATION AND DEDICATION

On May 15, 1988 folk from across the Conference gathered at the site of the new Memorial Administration Building to celebrate the completion of Methodist Home for Children's transition from campus-based to community-based services and to witness the dedication of the Memorial Administration Building by Bishop Carlton P. Minnick, Jr. The transition and the establishment of our continuum of care, together with requisite capital expenditure, has been done at no additional cost to the Annual Conference. In fact, in the five years since 1983, the Annual Conference has contributed $700,000 less to Methodist Home for Children than in five years prior to and including 1983. If the Methodist Home for Children were still campus-based, we would be requesting several millions of dollars from the current capital campaign for campus renovation.

It is time to give thanks to God for the success of this transition. It is a tribute to the wise strategic planning done by the entire Annual Conference.

Rufus H. Stark II, Executive Director

The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

Rapid changes in retirement living and health care fields are causing retirement home directors, administrators, and managers, to take time to plan for the future in order to ensure their continuance as providers of quality care for the older citizen. Awareness of change and the need to plan is evident. There are three major areas which will impact retirement and health care in the future: health care certificate of need, third party reimbursement, and competition. The certificate of need law, which is the franchise for operation of health care units, has not been very successful in avoiding duplication and reducing escalating costs. The issue of reimbursement has to do with how much health care providers are going to be paid and who is going to pay them. Competition is exploding in retirement home construction. There will be more older citizens with greater affluence demanding and expecting more modern and roomy accommodations than what has been provided in the past. Part of this is due to the increase in two wage earner families reaching retirement years and retirement funding being increased. Unless not-for-profit retirement communities will become the primary provider attracting the more financially abled citizen to fill the current void.

The Methodist Retirement Homes, with the strong support of the Board of Trustees, is securing outside specialty assistance in marketing and planning to assure successful and timely direction for the future. We strongly believe in the not-for-profit church related retirement system because the basic motivation and philosophy in providing care and services for the older citizen is different. We must continue to do what we do best which is to look at the needs of the whole person and offer quality services to meet those needs. There is no way to measure success other than by degree of resident security and well-being. We are open to all and welcome those of any religious faith. Total residents and health care patients in our system numbers 430.

Wesley Pines is a Continuing Care Retirement Community providing four levels of care: Independent Living, Assisted Living, Intermediate and Skilled Nursing Care. The number of persons residing in these four levels of care is 105. Independent living units consist of three villas, twelve apartments, thirty-four private units with baths and fifteen assisted living units. There are forty-one skilled beds, and twenty-three intermediate care beds.

Residents and patients come from eleven of our twelve districts, as well as from the Western North Carolina Conference and five additional states.

Wesley Pines is an Affirmative Action Employer, employing persons from the three ethnic groups in Robeson County.

At this time, architectural preliminary plans for renovation and expansion are in process to meet current and future needs. This includes conversion of Assisted Living units to long term care and retirement units to Assisted Living. Additional Independent Living units are planned along with a chapel-activity area, additional storage, expanded laundry services, maintenance and office areas. The project cost is estimated to be approximately $1,100,000.

We invite you to visit Wesley Pines to discover what an excellent retirement/health care community it is...located in a beautiful wooded area within walking distance to a shopping center, banks, a hospital-based fitness center, and more.

Cypress Glen in Greenville opened as our newest facility on July 20, 1987. It is located on a large tract of land only ten blocks from downtown Greenville. The main center serves as a focal point for residents' religious, social and recreational activities. There is a gift shop, post office, game room, multi-purpose room which serves as a chapel, dining room, beauty shop, craft room, personal storage and more. Future plans include villas and a health care support center.

In February, the Board of Trustees authorized securing the services of a professional planning and marketing firm with extensive experience in retirement housing and health care support systems. They have a strong commitment to improve and strengthen the quality and dignity of life for older adults. At the writing of this report, they have been engaged to assist us in planned strategy to market the remaining units working with local staff.

Individuals, churches, civic organizations, etc. can assist us in providing names and referrals of prospective persons that might have an interest in this newly developed retirement community.

The Methodist Retirement Home in Durham is our oldest campus having received its first residents in September 1955. Major efforts are underway to make our already beautiful campus more competitive in today's market. Our Continuing Care Community offers complete independent living in our villas, apartments and single units in the main building. In addition, Assisted Living units are also available. Our Joseph F. Coble Health Care Center provides the health care support of skilled and intermediate care.

The villas offer the most independent of retirement living. You can choose the monthly services you desire. This allows one the maximum in flexibility. These homes provide independent living and security without the worry of property taxes, yard and household maintenance, and other day-to-day tasks that take time away from those things one dreams of doing but never has the time. The apartments also allow independence and flexibility with support services.

The Corporate Office houses the offices of the Corporate Director, Fund Development, Public Relations and Financial Accounting. A new automated accounting system has been brought on line. An experienced controller has recently joined the staff to coordinate the corporate accounting responsibilities.

With the leadership of Mrs. Margaret Harper as Chairperson of the Board of Trustees and the growing participation and interest on the part of our Board members, we are looking forward to not only maintaining our place in the retirement and health care market, but to providing steady progress and improvement.

We wish to thank the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church for the support we receive. In a time when government funds are diminishing and cost of care is growing, we need and depend on our friends to assist in our tremendous financial needs for facility capital and benevolent support. One hundred and thirty seven of our residents and patients received over $1.3 million alone in financial support last year. Benevolent support must coincide with the ability to raise appropriate funds.

Thank you for your support and understanding during these important and crucial times in this fast moving period in retirement living. Many hard decisions are being made to improve our operations so that we can continue to provide quality care services in retirement and health care support for our older citizens now and in the future.

HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY, BOARD OF

The Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry is pleased to report that the efforts of the various institutions under the Board's aegis (Methodist, N.C. Wesleyan, Louisburg, Bennett, Greensboro, High Point and Duke Divinity) and the several campus ministries, including Wesley Foundations, Methodist Student Centers, Ecumenical groups - all continue to reap outstanding dividends. The colleges have each experienced banner years with record enrollments (as evidenced by the numerical reports to be found elsewhere in this report). Financially speaking, the economic base of operation of each continues to build upon a strong foundation of conference support and prudent financial management of each institution. Endowments are growing, faculty salaries are rising, and each college continues to broaden their services to their respective communities of service and to the church in general. The Board assures this Conference that the monies provided the colleges for their general support, and on the cases of three, for debt retirement, that these funds are expended in the most efficient and effective manner possible. These monies, when combined with State Commission of Campus Ministry financial support, comprise the largest single thrust of the Conference Budget, and its accountability and excellent stewardship is vital to us all.

At a recent meeting of the Board, our Conference Colleges were asked to present their long-range plans, and the reports by the respective presidents were inspiring, realistic, and reachable. A detailed listing of these plans may be secured from the presidents.

At the same time, the various and numerous campus ministries on the public institutional campuses continue to thrive. With more students than ever attending the many functions supported and/or sponsored by these groups, the work of the church moves ahead with strength. New buildings, new locations, and new support for new ministries (such as Winston-Salem State University) are part of the increased service of our campus ministries. However, as with the Conference-related colleges, the needs of campus ministries remain great. The Reverend Joseph Mann, Chair of the State Commission (North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences) is an effective and articulate spokesperson for this organization.

The health of our colleges and our campus ministries is pronounced to be "excellent," and the prognosis indicates a long and productive life - with continuing strong support (financial, spiritual, moral, and otherwise) from this Conference. The Board expresses its deepest gratitude to the Conference as the work of the Lord is carried forth in Christian Higher Education in North Carolina.

Campus Ministry, State Commission on

The most successful statewide student conference in twenty years was held in February, and North Carolina had more students attending the recent national student conference than any other state. These two accomplishments are ample proof of effective work by our campus ministry units. Campus ministers are working to challenge a new generation of students with the demands of the Gospel and the Christian life. And students are responding. Our campus ministers report varied programs that are involving students and faculty in Bible study, mission projects, fellowship groups, and worship. We are fortunate to have a hard-working, mature group of campus ministers who are dedicated to relating the life of the academy to the Christian faith.

The State Commission dealt this year with important internal matters. Much time was devoted to the writing, editing, and acceptance of a Campus Ministry Handbook. The Handbook will help orient new campus ministry board members and serves as an effective interpretative tool for our work in campus ministry.

The Commission also continues to respond to requests for new ministries. An exciting new venture has begun on the campus of Winston-Salem State University under the leadership of Cheryl Edley. Talks are continuing at Fayetteville State and Central Piedmont Community College. The great challenge facing the Commission over the next few years will be how it manages to support existing ministries while at the same time responding to new initiatives.

Finally, anyone with children in college knows how expensive college education can be. The State Commission urges local churches to observe Student Sunday and to give generously to the United Methodist Student Loan Program. Our campus ministers report that this program has made the difference for many of our students. Your financial support for the Student Loan Program can insure that our United Methodist students have an opportunity to achieve a higher education that might otherwise not be available to them.

As the quadrennium ends, I thank the able Commission officers and members for their good work on behalf of campus ministry. We all salute the excellent work of our campus ministers:

The Candler School of Theology

The academic year just completed at the Candler School of Theology has been a very successful one. Enrollment in the Fall semester was 660 students, with 464 in the Master of Divinity degree which leads to ordination and pastoral ministry. Candler continues to educate more ministers for The United Methodist Church than any other seminary in the denomination.

An interesting statistic is that 47% of our students are over the age of 30. With many students pursuing ministry as a second career, we find the need for financial support and housing more critical than ever. I am pleased to report that we have made progress in providing both. We will be breaking ground for the Turner Village, which will provide housing for 200 students and their families as well as a community center and four classrooms. The Sherman Scholarship Program continues to offer 150 scholarships which provide 85% of a student's tuition cost. Similar programs are not in place for students in the North Alabama, Mississippi, South Georgia and Louisville Conferences.

Additional statistics show that 18% of our current enrollment are ethnic minority students, up from 10% the previous year, and 32% of our students are women.

Candler has appointed three new faculty members this year: Dr. Tom Frank in Congregational Life, Dr. Gail O'Day in Preaching, and Dr. John Snarey in Ethics and Human Development.

Candler continues to develop significant partnerships with several conferences in offering continuing education in preaching. Our faculty are making a significant contribution to the work of ministry through their writings. Several of their recent books in preaching, theology, and Christian education are receiving wide acclaim.

Candler's budget will approach $5.5 million this coming year. We are dependent on the Ministerial Education Fund for $1.2 million or 22% of that budget. The support you and your Conference offer for the MEF has a significant impact on Candler and the lives of our ministerial students.

I am deeply appreciative of your help and our partnership in the work of ministry.

The Divinity School of Duke University

The Divinity School was the first of Duke University's graduate professional schools to open its doors after the University was founded. As such it has continued to maintain a 62 year tradition of intellectual rigor in the service of the church, and its ministry continues to grow as evidenced by our student body, the quality of which has never been better. We enroll 365 students in the professional degree programs. (M.Div., M.T.S., M.R.E., and Th.M.) and an additional 80 students in the M.A./Ph.D. program. Our students are women and men from more than 200 undergraduate schools, 29 denominations, 30 states and 6 foreign countries. Women constitute approximately 35 percent of the total enrollment, and black students almost 10 percent. Most of our students receive substantial financial support in the form of scholarships and grants-in-aid--this year a total of $1.1 million. Duke's program of financial aid is rightfully renowned.

While the accomplishments of its distinguished faculty and aggressive international programs earn it increasing prominence in theological education and the ecumenical world, the Divinity School enjoys exceptionally strong regional, denominational and alumni support as well. The School is most fortunate to be able to depend on the generous support of United Methodists nationwide through the Ministerial Education Fund, which along with other resources, enables Duke Divinity School to provide a margin of excellence in an enduring theological program.

Highlights of the 1987-1988 academic year have included the appointments of Dr. Teresa M. Berger, Professor of Ecumenical Theology; Dr. James L. Crenshaw, Professor of Old Testament; and Dr. James L. Travis, Clinical Professor of Pastor Care. Visiting professors Dr. Morna Hooker in New Testament, Dr. Keith G. Meador in Psychiatry and Pastoral Care, and Dr. Jon Michael Spencer in Black Church Studies have contributed greatly to the learning community. The programs of Continuing Education and Field Education continue to address the specific needs of students and pastors with varied opportunities for study and growth. This year's seminars have focussed on spiritual formation, contemporary preaching, the rural church and pastoral care of families. The Divinity School Alumni Association is active across the nation and is developing a network of persons who can provide counseling in ministry vocation and educational concerns. Numerous individuals and foundations have continued to make major, permanent investments in theological education at Duke through the establishment of endowed funds this past year.

The Divinity School is also pleased to announce the addition of Dr. Susan Keefe as Assistant Professor of Church History. Dr. Keefe has been working as an Andrew W. Mellon Faculty Member in the Humanities at Harvard. Prior to that she taught at Davidson College. She received her doctorate in Medieval Studies from the Centre for Medieval Studies, University of Toronto, in 1981. Her dissertation and publications examine the teaching and celebration of the sacraments of Christian initiation across Carolingian Europe. Her appointment will allow the School to continue to provide the leadership in historical studies for which that department is known.

There is evidence that the coming decades may see a striking decline in the number of ordained ministers available for appointment to congregations. The retirement of clergy ordained in the 1950's, an increase in early retirements, and the departure of clergy for other vocations in middle age account for this shift. Conscious of its responsibility to refresh long-standing commitments to the church and the academy, Duke Divinity School has responded to this challenge by institution changes in the curriculum which will foster seminarian's sense of calling to the ministry. A new course, "The Church's Ministry" aids students in examining the relevance of their course work to vocational understanding. In addition, a two-year Master of Theological Studies degree has been implemented to provide persons with the theological education necessary for Ph.D. programs, diaconal ministry and other fields (e.g. social work, music).

These are exciting times at Duke Divinity School as we seek to give our best in the service of the church and its ministries. As part of the Divinity School's extended family of friends and supporters, United Methodist churches are our chief partners in that enterprise and our greatest strength. Your loyal support through the Ministerial Education Fund and your continuing involvement in the life of the Divinity School are the envy of the other professional schools in the university and a source of great pride for us. Together we are committed to advancing the life and work of the church through a well-prepared ministry. For more information about these or any of our programs, please contact the Divinity School, Duke University, Durham, NC 27706; or call us at 919-684-3234.

HUNGER/HUMAN NEED, TASK FORCE ON

The Task Force has promoted the use of fish banks by every local church for the World Hunger Advance Appeal during this quadrennium. Information from the Board of Global Ministries indicates the following from our Conference for 1987:

World Hunger/Poverty	$47,096.49
Church World Service Hunger	$1,926.25
CROP	$24,183.02
Fish Banks/World Hunger	$881.92
TOTAL	$74,087.68

We celebrate the commitment of this Annual Conference to ministering to the hungry and deprived. We have a ministry to our neighbors next door that may be unrivaled in Methodism, our Hunger/Human Need Fund.

Economic conditions are still generally depressed in eastern North Carolina. The farming situation is critical with its ripple effect on the total economy. The plight of textile and garment unemployment is of great concern and Red Tide has caused coastal economic concerns.

However, the Hunger/Human Need Task Force was able to fund 91 of the 92 applications from projects across our Conference in 1987 because of the generous grant of $95,000.00 by CFA from Central Funds (a total of $289,850.00 was requested by projects). Persons and families in dire need throughout eastern North Carolina know that God cares because we have helped make ministries possible that provide food, clothing, shelter, fuel, electricity, medicine, transportation, supplies, services and ministries that meet other needs.

The investment of this Conference in human need has multiplied into new projects, hundreds of volunteer hours, inter-agency cooperation and sharing of human and financial resources, and in generating thousands of dollars of expenditures by churches, communities and helping organizations.

Thank God for this demonstration of love in action by our North Carolina Conference.
Robert L. Mangum, Chairperson

LAITY, BOARD OF

The primary effort of the Board of Laity in our Conference continues to be directed toward increased lay participation in program events and outreach, as well as in various leadership roles. Attendance statistics and general observation indicate that our laity increasingly are becoming more involved in the life of the Church.

January Workshops were again well-attended, even with inclement weather, with evaluations indicating general excellence in the various classes provided to train local church leaders. District Lay Rallies reflected increased lay leadership in both planning and implementation, with emphasis on spiritual enrichment and Christian fellowship.

The Lay Speaker Program, basic and advanced, has shown further development in most of the districts. More and more of our laity are receiving special training and certification in speaking and teaching in our churches.

The Board continues to encourage local churches to nominate Lay Persons of the Year to recognize special lay leadership, with district and Conference selection procedures to follow. The Church at large is better able to recognize by example special Christian leadership and witness and how it is essential to local church strength.

Our Conference laity groups are active and influential in the life of the Church, and the Board of Laity seeks their enhancement as vital program thrusts.

MISSIONAL PRIORITY, COMMITTEE ON

It has been the responsibility of the North Carolina Conference Missional Priority Committee to keep before our Conference the Quadrennial emphasis, Strengthening and Developing the Ethnic Minority Local Church for Witness and Mission.

This has been a very exciting and eventful year for the committee, beginning with the approval of a Comprehensive Plan during the 1987 Session of Annual Conference. Also, as a part of this plan a job description is included for a Conference Council on Ministries Staff person, whose portfolio will be primarily the Ethnic Minority Local Church. The Conference Personnel Committee has recommended an individual to be in place by June, 1988 contingent upon the approval of the Bishop and Cabinet.

We have continued to provide scholarship assistance for leadership training for lay and clergy in events on all levels of the church (local, jurisdictional and general). Scholarships have also been provided for various work teams nationally and internationally.

Approximately forty (40) persons from our Conference were in attendance at the SEJ EMLC Convocation, July, 1988 at Lake Junaluska for a very meaningful look at where we were in our jurisdiction relative to the Priority.

In conclusion, may we always keep before us the theological statement contained in our Comprehensive Plan, "The North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church seeks to live in the time between what is and what is to be. We are struggling to become the community of wholeness; the Missional Priority is a part of the struggle."

Thus, Developing and Strengthening the Ethnic Minority Local Church for Witness and Mission "is a priority in God's plan and purpose for God's people, the church."

Albert Shuler, Chairperson

MISSIONS, BOARD OF

We give thanks to God for people, dollars, talent, skills of people, time donated beginning with those who have served on the Board of Missions in 1987 and right on down to everyone in our North Carolina Conference who hears God's call to go and serve. As the Board of Missions we are involved from training and teaching, right on down to hands on work. We are very pleased to share this report with all of you.

Ethnic Minority Local Church

In 1987, Ethnic Minority Local Church grants helped to accomplish many things.

Grants were made to three new ethnic minority congregations: St. Mark in Kinston, Harry Hosier United Methodist Church and the Korean Church in Fayetteville.

Another grant helped to purchase a parsonage for the St. John-Smith Chapel Charge in the Wilmington District.

Scholarships were provided to send ethnic minority youth and adults to National and Conference leadership training events.

In March, there was a Seminar on Ethnic Minority Women in Leadership and in the fall an Ethnic Minority Leadership Training Workshop was held.

With the help of grants in 1987, we saw: Students Against Drunk Driving group sponsored by Rhyne Memorial in Red Springs; membership care and evangelistic outreach at Mt. Olive; SCAN (Serving the Concern of the Needy) program started at Galilee in Laurinburg; growth and increased membership through the work of the Native American Larger Parish in the Rockingham District; music ministry and drama group at Ashpole Center; Christian Social Ministry and Care-Line Ministry to Senior Citizens at Robeson County Church and Community Center; food, clothing and casework as well as referencing of people to existing services happen at the Clio Self-Help Center in Clio, South Carolina; the attendance at worship grew from 6 to 66 because of a van bringing unchurched people to church at Hickory Grove UMC in Maxton.

In 1987 Ethnic Minority Local Church has moved even further beyond building need into programs and ministries that "Reach out for Witness and Mission."

The Advance Special

The Advance is second-mile giving and reflects our concern for the deepest needs in our world. A vast number of possibilities exist for support of the Advance (over 2,000) however, we are again limiting to four, the emphasized Advance Specials in any category other than the Conference Advance.

The year 1987 marked increase in our Advance Special giving to World and National causes but a disappointing and remarkable decrease in giving to UMCOR, Hunger and Conference Advance Specials. Many of our churches are entering into a Covenant Relationship in Missionary Salary Support, and for this we are thankful. However, still only about 50% of our churches are giving to the Advance.

In 1987 our giving to Advance Specials was:

World	$251,705.51
National	$45,532.49
UMCOR	$199,033.55
Total General Advance	$416,271.55
Conference Advance	$93,411.39
Undesignated	$3,320.41

We encourage each church to give to at least one cause in each of the Six Lanes of the Advance.

1988 is "The Year of the Advance"--the year in which we will be celebrating the Fortieth Anniversary of The Advance. This fact was lifted up at the Interpretation Rally on March 19, 1988 at Saint Paul Church in Goldsboro.

Church Extension

There are pockets of tremendous population growth in our Conference. The Board of Missions continues to help in the establishing of new congregations. The Ten Dollar Club is still a basic means of funding new churches. This past year the decision was made to eliminate the category "churches with special needs." It was felt Ten Dollar Club calls should be used to build new congregations in the rapidly growing areas of the Conference.

Participation in the TEN DOLLAR CLUB continues to increase. This is shown by the increase in receipts to the Club. The experience over the past three years is as follows:

Volunteers In Mission

There were 13 overseas work teams and two work projects within North Carolina. The two areas involved 254 people. The areas served were Kingston, Jamaica; Hidalgo, Mexico; Ciudad Sahagun, Mexico; Dominican Republic; Camp Sierra Linda, Mexico; and Monterrey, Mexico. Work ranged from repairing drainage site, to church repairs, to construction of a parsonage, to a dental clinic, to an ophthalmology clinic, to investigation and planning.

In August, Bishop C. P. Minnick and the President of our Board attended the dedication of the Multi-purpose building "Operation Peace." Over 600 people from the Jamaican area attended the service.

In another area of service each Conference has been asked to help renovate a building at Chaffin College in Orangeburg, S. C. In December we sent project funds for a work team to be sent in 1988.

Beginning in 1987 our main focus shifted to Mexico. For the first time a week-end Team Leader Training Reunion Event was held. There were 22 new team leaders trained.

By action of the North Carolina Board of Missions, Volunteers in Mission was made a committee of the Board of Missions.

Church and Community

In the area of Church and Community work we still have three Church and Community Workers who are connected with our Conference. This area of work still ministers to a number of churches in rural and urban settings by awarding grants to the Robeson County Church and Community Center and to ethnic minority churches.

Wouldn't you like to see a group picture of all the people in all the churches that have been touched by the Board of Missions? At times we may feel so little is being done but all efforts combined can change the course of events in a church and a life.

OUTDOOR AND CAMPING MINISTRIES, COMMISSION ON

Camping is a Life-Changing Experience. In 1987 Outdoor and Camping Ministries had the opportunity to change the lives of 18,700 persons who took advantage of one of the four camps within the North Carolina Conference.

The logo for the 1,861 summer resident campers was "Catch the Spirit...Share the Story." As an example of how this theme was interpreted, the stated goal at one of the camps was "to live in Christ in such a way that we intentionally spread God's listening and active love in whatever circumstances and relationships we find ourselves."

Highly successful programs at the camps included the week for mentally handicapped adults at Chestnut Ridge, which had a waiting list. The camp received excellent response from the campers, and parents were provided with a respite.

The Leader-in-Training program for high school youth was very popular at all camps.

The Adult Sailing School at Don-Lee represents a new area of adult programming. Participants developed a great sense of community and much learning and personal growth occurred.

Music Camp for younger elementary children had the highest registration in its ten-year history. The program included choral, Orff instruments, handbells, hand chimes, dance and art. Almost 100% of these campers were from United Methodist churches.

The White Water Canoe Camp at Rockfish was among its most effective programs. Very intentional Christian growth, in depth instruction in safety and techniques of white water canoeing and major challenges on the Nantahala River came together to produce a highly rewarding camp.

The Younger Elementary Camp (ages 7 and 8) is our fastest growing camp experience over the last two years.

Treehouse Camps were highly successful in promoting the growth of Christian community, a sense of trust, a willingness to open one's soul and a dependence on each other. They seemed to be able to deal openly and honestly with each others weaknesses, aches and needs.

The Annual Scout Retreat at Rockfish was the largest ever held. Three Eagle Scouts did their work at Rockfish.

In the summer of 1987 the four conference camps had an 89% occupancy of bed space available or 3% higher than in 1986. This high rate of occupancy and the successful programs at the camps were due in large part to the dedication and commitment of the three manager/directors, Jan Thomas, Bob Pryor and John Farmer; and the Associate Director for Outdoor and Camping Ministries, the Reverend G. Paul Phillips III.

Although successful work camps were held at all four camps maintenance continues to be a problem. It is the hope and prayer of the Commission that the 1988 Annual Conference will pass the plan for a capital funds drive so that this vital ministry may continue and expand.

One teenage camper expressed her experience at camp this way:

Dear Mike,

I'd really like to thank you for our prayer we had at camp. The way you did it, I mean. You really showed me God and I will always be grateful.

I'm not finding it hard to tell my friends how much closer I am to God now. If anything I'm proud of it. You were right when you said it wouldn't be easy. I just take one thing at a time and work on it.

I don't want to babble on, but you have really helped change my life. And I hope you never quit teaching about God to campers, because you do it so well!

PUBLICATION, METHODIST BOARD OF

To begin this report I want to highlight the importance of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, first for our ministers: the Advocate is an associate minister, making a "house call" each week in the homes of member families, and, second, for our lay people: the Advocate is the only source of local church news among the churches in our state; it is an excellent source of district, conference and general church news, and the Advocate carries many inspirational features. The Advocate is an excellent source of ideas about outreach ministries for both ministers and lay persons.

Pastors are encouraged to be enthusiastic supporters of the Advocate as an invaluable tool to strengthen and broaden the concept of ministry at the local church level. In so far as an organized subscription campaign for Advocate subscriptions and renewals is concerned, I want to talk briefly about plowing and planting. Plowing is getting the "word" out about the Advocate through bulletin inserts, pulpit announcements, and newsletter promotion. Plowing is essential, but it doesn't sell subscriptions; that's the job of planting. Planting is personal contact by telephone, or face-to-face, asking member families to subscribe or renew. I emphasize this because many times a pastor, or a local church Advocate representative, will think they've put on an excellent Advocate subscription campaign when, actually, all they've done is plow the ground and get it ready for planting - actually "selling" subscriptions. The churches that telephone their members, year after year, asking for subscriptions and/or renewals consistently send us an excellent list of subscribers.

All of us need to keep in mind that the Advocate readership represents at least three times the number of our subscribers. Therefore, conservatively speaking, the Advocate is read each week by approximately 60,000 persons. While we are constantly striving to increase this number, we can take comfort in the fact that this represents more than 10% of our United Methodists in the state, and regardless of whether or not these readers hold an office in their local church, they represent some of the most enthusiastic United Methodists in our midst as measured by the fact that they are willing to pay $10 a year for their church newspaper.

A word of commendation for the on-going work of the Advocate's endowment committee is in order because this is an excellent way to provide for long-term financial security for the Advocate. Since the Advocate began its low-key effort to increase its endowment several years ago, a total of $33,801.83 has been contributed. During 1987 this represented 91 families, individuals, and/or churches who contributed $11,956.83. The endowment fund is more than one-third of the way toward reaching its goal of $1 million. Both Foundation offices in our two conferences have provided invaluable consultation for us in this endeavor.

By the time this report reaches the printed page the Advocate will have completed a reader survey with the help of the KPC Research organization in Charlotte. The Advocate is constantly in the process of improving the quality and appearance of its content.

The Advocate is truly a "family" publication. The success it enjoys is due to the support it receives from our two bishops, their cabinets, ministers, leaders among the laity, members of the Methodist Board of Publication, Inc., Advocate representatives at the local church and district level, subscribers, advertisers, staff persons, guest writers and regular columnists. These are the folk who make the Advocate "tick." All who write the Advocate do it as a labor of love and, therefore, our regular columnists, as well as our guest writers, deserve a special word of appreciation from all of us. Again, I want to commend our small staff for their invaluable service to this ministry. Mrs. Ruth Laughlin, our news editor, and myself put out the Advocate. Mrs. Marie Fulton handles our circulation, and Mrs. Margaret Finshaw is our parttime bookkeeper. These three women serve with excellence well beyond the call of duty and put in many hours of overtime without added compensation beyond that which comes from the knowledge of a job well done.

Finally, I just want to say what a privilege it is for me to serve as the Advocate's editor/manager. I am even more enthusiastic about this ministry than the day I first assumed responsibility to "head up" this ministry because I have seen first-hand what it means in the lives of so many people. The Advocate has a bright future because it has the support of so many enthusiastic, exemplary United Methodists across the state. I am excited about this future and look forward to being part of it with keen anticipation.

RELIGION AND RACE, COMMISSION ON

As we come to the close of another conference year in the life of our church, we can look back with confidence and forward with the assurance that The United Methodist Church is moving toward becoming that which God will have it be.

The involvement of the Conference Commission on Religion and Race has been varied. Members have attended the following events:

EMLC	Lake Junaluska
Convocation for Church Leaders	Lake Junaluska
National Convocation on Racism	Louisville, Ky.

As the end of the quadrennium comes close to being a reality, the Commission has had a good four years. Members have had the opportunity to be involved from many perspectives in the life of our church as well as have sought to encourage and assist our Annual Conference toward becoming a more inclusive one.

In fulfillment of the responsibilities of the Commission according to ¶ 739.3.b) of the Book of Discipline, we have monitored the Missional Priority Committee, Personnel Committee, the Conference Nominating Process, specifically and have had the opportunity to look at other facets of our Annual Conference relative to their working toward becoming a more inclusive body of believers.

As a result of the objectives and the thrust of the National Convocation on Racism; that of changing the hearts and minds of persons who find themselves still wrapped up in the sin of racism, Bishop C. P. Minnick has called together a Task Force on Inclusiveness. It is the hope of those persons who were in attendance at the Convocation and of the National Convocation Planning Committee that this Task Force will provide the leadership and specific programming/processes to aid our Annual Conference in moving toward the goal of eliminating racism, sexism and classism.

The Commission in its role as monitors, advocators and sensitizers has worked to show that inclusiveness is a reachable goal and must be included in all phases of planning in our Annual Conference.

During the past quadrennium, the Commission has continued its monitoring of the various agencies, boards and institutions related to the North Carolina Annual Conference. We are pleased to report that there has been improvement in virtually all of the agencies, boards and institutions that we monitor.

As a part of our responsibilities, we have encouraged each agency, board and institution to be more intentional in its own responsibility to hire or recruit more minorities. As we have monitored the agencies, boards and institutions, we are very pleased to note that each of them seem to be far more sensitive to the issues and as a result, have hired or recruited more ethnics to their staff or student bodies. And even in the cases where there have been nominal improvements, we have been assured of their concerted efforts to recruit more ethnic minority students and staff when they possibly can.

Throughout the various agencies, boards and institutions, this past year has seen an increase in Asian, Black, Hispanic and Native American representation. These increases have come across all staffing positions, as well as student populations.

The Commission has been sensitive to the need to give assistance to persons for their attendance at various leadership training events and has provided support during the year for the following programs/projects:

- North Carolina Chapter Black Methodists for Church Renewal
- Children's Defense Fund Workshop on Human Sexuality: Teenage Pregnancy
- NC Council of Churches Forum on the Resurgence of Racism
- Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday Observance

While we are very pleased with the progress being made by all of our Conference agencies, we would encourage everyone to continue their efforts. Now that we have put our hands to the plow in this issue, let's not be guilty of looking back and missing the Kingdom which lies ahead. Rather, let us continue to move forward in the name of Jesus Christ.

As I draw upon the last days of my tenure as a member of this Commission, my thanks to the lay and clergy persons of the Annual Conference, who have worked to make inclusiveness a reality and my prayers shall continue for those who do not acknowledge all people as brothers and sisters in the sight of Almighty God.

STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN, COMMISSION ON

The North Carolina Conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women reflected, in its February 1988 meeting, upon its responsibilities as advocate, catalyst, and monitor in our Conference. We have examined our own life as a Commission as well as how well we have addressed our duties within the church. Our commitment is to continue our own growth and leadership in the tasks assigned to us by the Discipline of The United Methodist Church (§ 2202). It is in this spirit that we have evaluated the quadrennium past and look ahead to the 1989-1992 quadrennium.

The Commission lifts up as its major work of this present quadrennial period the two leadership development workshops for ethnic minority local church women. Both events took place in 1987 and culminated a great deal of work that began as early as 1984. Sixty-five women participated in the September 1987 workshop. Out of that gathering has come a list of women who are available to serve the Conference, not only on the local church level, but as members of district and Conference agencies. This information is being provided to the North Carolina Conference Committee on Nominations, as it prepares its work for Annual Conference 1988. COSROW has been faithful to the missional priority of our United Methodist Church; we are pleased with the program outlined above and pledge continued support of ethnic minority women who seek to serve Jesus Christ.

COSROW is also pleased to see our Conference become more sensitive to the need for child care across the church. This ministry was offered for the first time at the annual conference session in 1984, and the Commission took responsibility for its planning and implementation. Since that time, the bodies responsible for planning various gatherings of the Annual Conference have assumed that duty. COSROW is gratified that awareness of the need for this ministry is growing on all levels of the church as we seek to be a truly inclusive church.

The Commission continues to be an advocate for clergywomen in our Conference, supporting the "Women-in-the-Pulpit Sunday" recommendation, and urging local churches to employ our growing number of ordained women for this task. In such a way, our Conference may be moved closer to that day when open itineracy for men and women, of all racial groups, will truly be a reality. The Commission is committed to the building of trust among us so that we may indeed be partners in ministry.

Our concern for inclusiveness is likewise reflected in our efforts to provide help for persons on the issue of inclusive language. We recommended that local churches study the document Words that Hurt/Words that Heal. We are monitoring that effort through forms included in the 1987 charge conference reports. The Commission is also trying to put together a packet of inclusive language worship resources for use in the local church. This project will carry over into the new quadrennium, as will a thorough effort to provide documented monitoring of programs, etc. of our Conference since the beginnings of COSROW.

The Commission notes the selection by clergywomen of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the Reverend Helen G. Crowell as a candidate for the episcopacy in the jurisdiction. We applaud her selection and that of Dr. Joseph Bethea by our Conference. We recognize the courage, the gifts and graces of both of these servants of Christ, and wish them well in this process.

It has been my pleasure to serve for two quadrenniums on the Commission and to chair the body for the past five of those eight years. I am deeply indebted to Peggy Hickie for a truly outstanding job as secretary. Catharine Vick is among the most able lay persons in the North Carolina Conference and has served so efficiently, especially in the enormous task of developing the workshops for ethnic minority women. Bill Norton has provided immeasurable assistance in relating our Commission to the Conference Council on Ministries and has made my task easier at times than he could possibly know! Belton Joyner just continues to do his job with grace and expertise and has helped us greatly. We thank Bishop Minnick for his affirmations and support.

May God bless the work that lies ahead for the Commission.

STEWARDSHIP, BOARD OF

The forty-one persons who are members of the Board of Stewardship provide leadership for the Conference, district and local church in cultivating a stewardship attitude toward the conservation and use of our resources. Stewardship is a grateful recognition of God's creation and sovereignty whereby His people express themselves by a dedicated and creative use of all these gifts toward the fulfillment of Christ's mission in the world.

The District Director of Stewardship is usually clergy and is a member of the District Council on Ministries. As a resource person, that director is ready to help develop district programs with financial assistance from the Board ultimately to enable the local church to define better the meaning and purpose of stewardship for that local church. District directors and selected local lay persons receive training for their work through the resources of the Board.

Local Church Consultations

The Board has trained six local church consultants who are prepared to meet with local church leaders on invitation to deal specifically with any local church's needs to share resources, ideas or suggestions on how to develop a viable stewardship program. There is no cost to the initial meeting. Should an additional meeting be required, the local church may be asked to provide travel costs on a mileage basis. The Reverend Clyde Dunn, Associate Director of the CCOM, is the contact person to provide this service. His address is P. O. Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605. (Phone 1-800-621-5467)

Any officer of the Board, especially the chairperson, the Reverend C. Franklin Grill, will also consult with a district COM or local church about expressed needs to develop a program or provide needed resources.

Resources

Your Board provides some program resources at no cost to the local church.

CHILDREN COUNT FOR CHRIST: For church school teachers and leaders, pastors for children's messages, children's programs.

GUIDE TO EFFECTIVE DISCIPLESHIP/STEWARDSHIP: For pastors, stewardship and finance leaders. Deals with a year-round program in stewardship for the local church including membership, gift discovery, opportunities for service and proportionate giving.

ONE EVENING BIBLE STUDY ON STEWARDSHIP: Stewardship leaders and Council on Ministries program planner.

DISCIPLESHIP RESOURCES CATALOG: A broad range of program material for stewardship in the local church. (P. O. Box 840, Nashville, TN 37202)

Expense materials are catalogued and are available from Cokesbury or Discipleship Resources. One program recommended for the church with small membership to use to underwrite the local church budget is:

HOW TO INCREASE GIVING TO YOUR CHURCH: $3.25 for packet and guide.

Training Local Church Leaders

The Board provides resources, meeting ideas, program suggestions, samples of EMV materials, job descriptions and calendaring tasks for local persons to consider in developing their specific program.

Training is also offered local church pastors regarding motivation in being leaders and developing leadership in a stewardship consciousness in working with their local church. One such seminar will be offered conferencewide in 1988 with minimal cost to the participants.

Per Capita Giving

Our Conference system has a built-in way to promote increased giving which is one of the dimensions of a devoted stewardship response. As a result of the concerted effort of all persons the per capita giving of United Methodists in our Conference increased from $204.42 in 1985 to over $224 in 1986.

He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man (person) according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver.

(II Corinthians 9:6-7)

C. Franklin Grill, Chairperson

WORSHIP, BOARD OF

Enrichment of the worship experience for churches and individuals continues to be the goal of the North Carolina Conference Board of Worship.

For several years the Board of Worship has been privileged to participate in the planning and presentation of the worship services for Annual Conference. We are grateful for this opportunity of service and express sincere appreciation for the excellence of these services.

The Lectionary booklet has for many years been a tool provided by the Board of Worship for the use of the ministers of our Conference. This year a questionnaire was included in the Lectionary to assist us in future planning for this or a similar help. We need to know the extent of the use of the Lectionary booklet in order to make future plans.

The first meeting of the Cape Fear Emmaus Community became a reality in the fall as the first "Emmaus Walk" was held in the North Carolina Conference. The Board of Worship provided partial scholarships for five people to attend. One of the highlights of this excellent conference was the time spent looking at the proposed new hymnal. Many plans are being made by the General Board of Discipleship and the Board of Worship for the introduction of this hymnal to the local church once it has been adopted.

The National meeting of the Fellowship of United Methodists in Worship, Music and Other Arts was held this year in Knoxville. There were 19 in attendance from the North Carolina Conference. The Board of Worship provided partial scholarships for five people to attend. One of the highlights of this excellent conference was the time spent looking at the proposed new hymnal. Many plans are being made by the General Board of Discipleship and the Board of Worship for the introduction of this hymnal to the local church once it has been adopted.

We again provided seed money for the Children's Choir Workshops being offered in each district. These workshops assist with the enrichment of the children's choir programs in the local church.

Work and plans continue for the Christian Arts Festival planned this fall for October 29 in Goldsboro. We have worked this year on selecting subjects and securing good teachers. We feel that this training opportunity will benefit the total worship program of the North Carolina Conference.

We are continuing our work assisting pastors in the using of lay people in worship. A booklet offering suggestions for the accomplishment of this is in the making and will soon be in the hands of pastors.

There is a representative of the Board of Worship in every district and they will be willing and eager to assist the local church in any way toward the enhancement of worship. If you have needs, please call on these people for help.

The Board of Worship continues in its efforts to serve the North Carolina Conference that through effective worship Christ may be made more real in the lives of our members.

INCLUSIVENESS, AGENCY PLANS FOR

The 1987 Annual Conference passed the following resolution:

"To insure racial and gender inclusiveness among chairpersons... we ask each Conference agency to devise a plan so that its leadership may have racial and gender inclusiveness and to report its plan to the 1988 Annual Conference."

Copies of these plans will be distributed at the Annual Conference.

F. Belton Joyner, Jr., CCOM Director

(The "Report to NC Annual Conference, The United Methodist Church, 1988 Agency Plans for Racial and Gender Inclusiveness Among Chairpersons" is on file in the office of the Conference Secretary.)

CHURCH EXTENSION, REPORT ON

A short resume of Church Extension in the NC Annual Conference acknowledges more than 100 new Methodist congregations since 1950, a number which leads conference of our US.

During the decade 1950 - 1960, we established 79 new Methodist Churches, of which 72 are still actively at work and worship. This represents more than 91% which would be respected by business developers.

From 1961 - 1984 we began only 11 new congregations, yet this slower progress still compared favorably with the national Church as we had all grown weary in well doing and fewer new churches were being established in growth areas of our nation.

As this quadrennium began, Bishop Minnick appointed a Task Force to study the Conference needs in Church Growth and Congregational Development. From this study, we returned to our needs in Church Extension and Development. We began to plan for and establish new United Methodist congregations, even as we planned for a Capital Campaign to enable these new ministries.

In 1985 we began Faith UMC in New Bern. In 1986, we began the Korean UMC in Fayetteville, Topsail UMC, Harry Hosier UMC in Fayetteville to serve a predominantly black community, Resurrection UMC in Durham, Morningstar UMC in Raleigh, and re-commissioned two old congregations as renewed and renewing congregations: Wesleyan Chapel in Scotts Hill and Soapstone UMC in Raleigh.

In 1987 we began Genesis UMC in Cary, Evergreen UMC in North Chatham County and an Hispanic-American Ministry at Mt. Zion UMC in Pittsboro. Early in 1988 we established West Robeson UMC near Pembroke.

At this Conference, as we enter a new quadrennium, we have commissioned three new ministries to begin: South Raleigh ministry, with the assistance of a three year enabling grant from the GBGM in the amount of $45,000, one of only six made nationally to establish new ethnic congregations with indigenous leadership; the new Native American Ministry for Fayetteville, enabled by a grant from the GBGM with a grant in the amount of $60,000, one of only ten nationally to establish ministry for Native Americans in urban settings; and a third, a new congregation to be established along Highway 98 east of Durham.

It is noteworthy that many think new congregations are only needed in the Research Triangle sector of our state. These fifteen congregations represent eight of our twelve districts, six are in low income or modest neighborhoods, and seven are seeking to minister among predominantly ethnic minority communities.

We are a concerned, an inclusive, and an evangelically concerned denomination.

All of this has been made possible through massive cooperation from all levels of the Conference, beginning with Bishop Minnick and the Cabinet, a cooperative Council on Finance and Administration, the Conference Commission on Equitable Salaries, and others.

The Duke Endowment Fund helped greatly as they made a generous grant to enable the Cabinet to establish the office of Assistant to the Bishop and the Cabinet for Church Extension.

Because of the Conference outstanding record in Church Extension for the past forty years, the GBGM has been unusually generous with our plans. The Conference Board of Church Extension has cooperated fully as has the Task Force on Congregational Development.

We are confident that we shall move forward boldly into our new quadrennium excited about continuing our enabling of our Lord Great Commission and Great Commandment combined, as we "Go to make Disciples" and "teach them to love one another."

Thomas A. Collins, Assistant to the Bishop and Cabinet for Church Extension

CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT, COMMITTEE ON

Our Conference Rules of Order and Procedure stipulate that there "shall be an Entertainment Committee...to receive invitations and recommend to the Annual Conference the place and method of Entertaining the Annual Conference." Accordingly having received one invitation, the committee is ready with a recommendation for 1988:

We recommend that the 1989 Annual Conference be held at Methodist College in Fayetteville, based on this institution's standing invitation and excellence in hospitality. Dates will be set by the Presiding Bishop.

We recommend to the 1989 - 1992 quadrennial committee on Entertainment that appropriate study be made of seating accommodations for members of Annual Conference, with resulting possible consideration of alternative meeting sites for 1990 and beyond.

CONFERENCE LAY LEADER, REPORT OF

Earlier today at the session for lay members we talked about how the 1988 General Conference discussed and approved legislation fostering a greater awareness of the role of the laity at all levels of our denomination, especially in the local churches. Laity are now considered to be ministers within the congregation and in the home, workplace, community, and world. Our task as laity is to accept this enhanced role and to rededicate ourselves as ministers of our faith. If the laity assume fully the newly defined role, our Church will have no problem in realizing the lofty goals that have been set.

It has been a genuine honor and a distinct privilege for me to be the Conference Lay Leader for the past six years and to be a team member of strong lay leadership within the Conference. As I have said previously, this Conference is a sustaining influence in my life as I interact with laity and clergy in the vital ministry that we share collectively. I look forward to the continuation of this interaction and to our work together in the years ahead.

Our Conference lay life and work remains healthy, with strong programs in place. We need to continue and strengthen the excellent quality of planning, the effectiveness of programming, and the fine participation of laity in the events scheduled. Other conferences seem to look to us as a pace setter in the enhancement of lay ministry, and as we show them what we do, we need, of course, to concentrate on how we can do it better and on how we can incorporate new approaches for conference, district, and local church attention.

In the past several years we have experienced or have been hearing about numerous negatives or intensely-debated issues relative to The United Methodist Church. My primary message to us at this time and in this place is that we - all of us in the Church - must turn our attention more toward the positive outlook on what we are all about. Not that we should deny the negatives and refuse to consider and work to overcome them - this should be an ever-present part of our on-going task in ministry - but in many instances we appear to have overdone it, to have allowed ourselves to perpetuate the job syndrome.

Recently a modern parable was called to my attention, and to read it will better illustrate the major point I am seeking to make: 'The Man Who Sold Hot Dogs' - There was a man who lived by the side of the road and sold hot dogs. He was hard of hearing so he had no radio. He had trouble with his eyes so he read no newspapers and watched no TV. But he sold good hot dogs. He put up signs on the highway telling how good they were. He stood on the side of the road and cried: "Buy a hot dog, Mister?" And people bought. He increased his meat and bun orders. He bought a bigger stove to take care of his trade. He finally got his son home from college to help him out. But then something happened. His son said, "Father, haven't you been listening to the radio and watching TV?" He said, "There is a big recession. Some people even call it a depression. The domestic situation is critical." Whereupon his father thought: "My son's been to college. He reads the papers and magazines. He watches TV and listens to the radio. He should know." So the father cut down on his meat and bun orders, took down his advertising signs, and no longer bothered to stand out on the highway to sell his hot dogs. And his hot dog sales fell almost overnight. "You're right, son," the father said to the boy, "We certainly are in the middle of a great depression."

Prophets of doom and gloom can lead us down the proverbial path to oblivion as a leading Protestant denomination, and we all know that this destiny is not what we want for The United Methodist Church.

In the recent General Conference, as you no doubt have heard or read, we grappled with many issues that have held our denominational attention in recent years. You know what they were and are - among them, a new formulation of doctrine and theology, a new hymnal, various decisions regarding the Church and homosexuality, a new university in Africa, a quadrennial theme of "celebrate and witness", a limitation on apportioned funds, and of course, many more important considerations. I, for one, came from General Conference with renewed enthusiasm for our Church, comfortable with where I see us heading as a denomination, as we seem to be steering a more "middle-of-the-road" course. It is gratifying, also, to see real evidence of genuine caring and concern for persons with differing views within our fellowship, as delegates to this General Conference were attentive to compassion and inclusiveness, one for another. It is the mark of a Christian to extend one's self to others in love, if not necessarily in complete understanding.

Now, what can we do, as Laity - and Clergy - to help in continuing and promoting a changing attitude and outlook on our United Methodist Church - in taking the initiative to become more positive on what we are all about? For I am convinced that it is a strategic key to our resurgence as a denomination. Several approaches come to mind, but three in particular seem critical:

1. We can concentrate on the enrichment of ourselves spiritually, leading to a better understanding of Biblical teachings and to a more caring, giving attitude toward God and others, both within the Church Fellowship and beyond it.

A friend expressed clearly this same thought in a Christmas letter received this past holiday season, in describing a summer trip to Alaska: "The mountains, wildlife, icebergs, and glaciers were spectacular. But in reading the book Klondike while traveling and reliving the experiences of man in search of gold, it occurs to me that if we spent one tenth of this effort in search of God, we'd all be together in the life of the Church." How much time do we spend in search of God as the center of our lives in the ever-present competition for what we do? Self-discipline in this regard is essential, and our local churches need to concentrate on it as well.

2. We can emphasize and achieve an enlivened local church program in all the component program areas of the Council on Ministries or Administrative Council. In his book, And Are We Yet Alive, which many of us have read, Bishop Richard Wilke's primary thesis is that program evokes involvement and commitment, and parenthetically he strongly suggests increased membership. I find myself in firm agreement with him. If people recognize in the Church something that really commands attention and thereby participation - in worship, in the all-important Sunday School; in organized groups, such as United Methodist Women, Men, and Youth; in Bible Study and other centers for involvement; in mission; and in fellowship, then the Church is going to be a priority in their lives. Here is where "The Connection" of The United Methodist Church provides a support system that can enrich all local churches, no matter what the size.

Listen carefully to the following statements, to see what the score of your own local church might be: "Dead or Alive?" - Live churches have lots of noisy youth and children; dead churches are relatively quiet. Live churches are planning for the future; dead churches are reliving the past. Live churches present an unchanging Christ in forms of ministry that are changing; dead churches do things the way they have always been done. Live churches are filled with tithers; dead churches are filled with tippers. Live churches focus on what's right with the church; dead churches look at what's wrong with the church.

Live churches support missions heavily; dead churches keep money at home. Live churches focus on people and their involvement in programs; dead churches focus on problems.

We need to go home and look at the on-going nature and strengths of our local church programs. It can change our entire outlook on how we see The United Methodist Church.

3. We can make or renew a commitment to service, both within our churches and outside the doors in our community, state, nation, and world. As Wesley expressed it so clearly, "The world is my parish." How many of us, in looking at the Church, think instead of the parish as our world?

Often, I have wished that local churches might have signs placed on the inside of the sanctuary door exits - signs that read "Servants Entrance". What a reminder it would be of the requirement we have as United Methodists - as Christians - to be in ministry, real discipleship, not only within, but beyond the church doors on a daily basis. We can liken it to what happens when a stone is thrown into a pond and the ripples expand in ever-widening circles. That's what can happen by our influence in service. I like to think of my local church, if you will pardon the allusion, as both a filling station, wherein my spiritual development is nurtured, and as a diving board, to propel me into action for service to others. That's the excitement I am urging us to gain in all churches today.

Thus, what can we do to help bring about and secure a more positive attitude and outlook on The United Methodist Church? Yes, we can concentrate more on spiritual self-enrichment, we can determine that we will have an enlivened church program with something meaningful for all members, and we can have an expanded commitment to service. In short, we need to "come down out of the grandstand and onto the playing field"!

When my children were of junior high and high school age, one played on the football teams and the other was a cheerleader. One evening we were enroute to a game, with a station wagon filled with young people, and all the way there to the place where the game would be played, my wife's and my ears were filled with sounds of enthusiasm and expectations of victory. You can imagine the confidence reigning supreme and the cheers that rang forth during the 90-mile journey. Suddenly, in common purpose and in chorus, we heard, "Our team is-a-red-a-hotta!" "Our team is-a-red-a-hotta!" When I figured out exactly what was being said and how convinced these young people were of it, I smiled in realization that they were committed to the task at hand, support of and optimism for something important to them.

We need to become cheerleaders for The United Methodist Church, in a new wave of enthusiasm for our Faith. It will make a difference - a big difference - and I challenge us to try out for the squad. "Our team is-a-red-a-hotta!"

CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND CHURCH GROWTH, TASK FORCE ON

I am happy to report today for the Task Force on Congregational Development and Church Growth and, in so doing, to bring to partial conclusion this effective enterprise of the NC Conference.

Four years ago, in June of 1984, the Conference approved "A Quadrennial Conference-wide Congregational Development and Church Growth Plan." The purpose of this plan was to establish new churches, to revitalize existing congregations, to win new disciples, to reclaim inactive members, and to nurture all members. The method to be used in accomplishing this purpose was a study process conducted by district teams and coordinated by a Conference Task Force. The goal to be achieved was that by the end of the quadrennium there would be developed a "Conference-wide comprehensive plan including priorities, cost factors, resources (leadership and financial) and timelines for ethnic minority and anglo congregations in some or all of the following categories: new church development, revitalization, relocation, mergers, cooperative parishes, church and church school growth, and others as they emerge."

Landmarks: Obviously, I cannot rehearse all of the work accomplished in this enterprise over the last four years; however, I do wish to point to some significant landmarks along the way.

1. "A Wide Area Long Term Trends Analysis" - The Association for the Christian Training and Service (ACTS), under the direction of Mr. Ted McEachern, conducted a thorough thirteen year study of each local church of our Conference. Major trends in population and membership were noted and explained. This is still an invaluable resource to be used by our churches. The study was updated on a Conference basis recently by Dr. Charles Bryant, presenting statistics through the end of 1987. Research and hard data like this is crucial to any effort to understand our present and shape our future.

2. Pastors and Pastor/Laity Seminars - A two-day seminar for pastors (September 5-6, 1985) led by Dr. Robert Orr, American Institute of Church Growth, entitled "How to Get Ready to Grow in the NC Conference" was a tremendously encouraging event for all of us. Focusing on church growth principles, goal setting and strategies for growth, the pastors' seminar proved to be fertile ground for the 359 pastors who attended the event. In February of 1986, one-day seminars for pastors and laity were held in four different locations around the Conference. It was a follow-up to the pastors' seminar. Under the leadership of Dr. Robert Orr and Dr. Win Arn, several hundred additional persons participated in these events. The importance of those two experiences cannot be over-emphasized for creating a climate for growth in our churches. As a Conference, we were sensitized in a quick and dramatic fashion to both the needs and opportunities we had for significant growth.

3. District Teams - The most effective component of the plan adopted by the 1984 Annual Conference was that of the District team. In each district, a team of 8-16 people was organized to study congregational development and church growth needs on the local scene. The district teams reported to the Conference Task Force. It was through the District Teams that most of the impetus toward congregational revitalization was achieved. Also, the District Teams, working in conjunction with the District Superintendents, were primarily responsible for targeting the major areas where study for possible new church planting was warranted. As these District Teams studied, researched, and perceived the needs in their local areas, they worked with their respective District Councils on Ministries to fashion programs, workshops, seminars, and other events to meet congregational development needs. The Conference Task Force provided $1000 per district for one such event per district for the quadrennium.

4. Training New Church Pastors - The Conference Task Force has provided funding so that our new church planting pastors may be trained in workshops provided jointly by the GBD and GBGM. Nothing could be more important to the enterprise of starting a new church than having a fully qualified and fully trained pastor to be the leader in the new field. The Task Force, through its four years of work, discovered that the quality and preparation of pastoral leadership is the single most important element in congregational vitality.

The Conference Task Force has accomplished many more important goals to fulfill its mandate. However, I believe the strength of the Task Force is in how it has provided a format for many of our Conference leaders, clergy and lay, to think together about the needs of congregational development and church growth across eastern NC. The Task Force, therefore, has been an important catalyst and has offered affirmative support to other initiatives, whose aim was to enhance congregational vitality. Among those initiatives are the planting of new churches, the capital funds crusade for church extension, the provision of monies for congregational revitalization, and the appointment of an Assistant to the Bishop and the Cabinet for Church Extension. The Task Force itself has been responsible for none of these initiatives; yet, I believe the Task Force has been instrumental in helping to create the kind of climate in which these seeds could germinate and grow to maturity.

Partial Conclusion: In my opening sentence, I mentioned that with this report the Task Force comes to a partial conclusion. I chose to phrase "partial conclusion" intentionally and for two important reasons.

First, this is a partial conclusion because the object of the original plan has not been, as of yet, fully accomplished. The object of the Task Force, you will remember, was to develop a "comprehensive Conference-wide plan." Steps have been taken this year to accomplish this goal. In September of 1987, the District Teams were given an evaluative and prophetic instrument by which to report fully what has been done in their districts according to the purpose for which they were created, what is left to do, and how best to do it. The responses from the District Teams were collated and distributed for all to see and hear. From the collated results, a first-draft of a comprehensive plan was produced. Meeting here at Methodist College one month ago, the District Teams then worked on that draft, revising and perfecting. The final results of these efforts is a proposal entitled "Vision 2000" which will go to the CCOM in the fall of this year for their action. "Vision 2000" will be the comprehensive Conference-wide plan which the Annual Conference of 1984 mandated the Conference Task Force on Congregational Development and Church Growth to develop.

Secondly, this is a partial conclusion to the work of this Task Force because that work must of necessity go on even though this Task Force will end at this session of Annual Conference. The Spirit of God has awakened within the people of God a deep desire and an unflinching commitment to produce and reproduce vital congregations. Whether our churches, our congregations, are 100 years old or one month old, we want them to be vital and alive in their worship and in their ministry. We desire to see men, women, boys, and girls concerted in our churches. We want our worship to be exciting and filled with the joy of the Lord. We want the hurts and wounds, the scars and the tragedies of our people to be healed. We indeed want vital congregations and faithful disciples; therefore, the end of a quadrennium can in no way terminate the clarion call of God to revitalize ourselves and our churches in the glow of God's power and love, and it cannot dampen our enthusiasm to extend the Body of Christ into every community overflowing with un-disciplined souls. The life of this Task Force has ended, but the real work of achieving congregational vitality continues. So, my brothers and sisters, let's get on with the task, knowing that "the Church Triumphant is alive and well!"

W. Edward Privette, Chairperson

COURTESIES AND RESOLUTIONS, COMMITTEE ON

The words heard most often at the 163rd Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church were "Vital Congregations and Faithful Disciples".

This theme will be the challenge for our Conference for the next quadrennium. If a single word could describe this session it would be "Celebration".

An evening of Celebration was a long evening, but only because there were so many joys to celebrate of witness and ministry. First, 18 clergy were honored at retirement. Their grateful, poignant, and humorous remarks celebrated 538 years of combined ministry.

Six new congregations were recognized; three with Charter Recognition (Genesis UMC of Cary, Evergreen UMC of North Chatham, and West Robeson UMC) and three were commissioned for ministry, in South Raleigh, a Native American Ministry in Fayetteville, and a new ministry along Highway 98 east of Durham. This brings to fifteen the number of congregations commissioned since 1986.

William Foster Jacobs was honored as Lay Person of the Year. Dr. Allen Norris was honored for distinguished service as Conference Lay Leader the past two quadrennia and Dr. Robert Frazier was elected to succeed him as Conference Lay Leader.

The ministry of thirty-four chaplains from the membership of our Conference was acknowledged and celebrated. Scholarships were awarded, including the Robert M. Blackburn and the William R. Cannon Scholarships, to five outstanding youth of our church.

Appreciation was expressed to the chairpersons of Boards and Agencies who had enabled the accomplishments of the past quadrennium.

"Celebrate" is an appropriate word to describe the approval of an Eight Million Dollar Capital Campaign for Camping Ministry and Church Extension. After a two-year period of education and cultivation, it was debated with feeling before the largest gathering of Conference Members in history approved the Campaign by a massive majority vote.

The same afternoon, the Conference approved the Trustee recommendation to retain the Methodist Headquarters Building in Raleigh.

"Celebrate" is a modest word to describe our joy in welcoming 25 clergy into full connection and elders orders, 29 clergy into probationary membership and deacons orders.

There were excellent challenges to these and all in attendance by the sermons of Bishop Roy C. Clark of South Carolina. He addressed a capacity audience at Sunday morning ordination service. This was the first Sunday conclusion of Conference in more than fifty years. Bishop Clark had begun his Conference worship sermons challenging the vital congregations of our Conference to become faithful disciples as they choose to serve the sacred Lord of history in true discipleship. We are deeply indebted to Bishop Clark for his scholarly but spiritual challenges.

The morning Bible Studies, featuring a study of "The Revelation" were led by Bishop Minnick and these were among the best attended and most appreciated sessions of Conference.

For the first time in over fifty years, Conference sessions began on Thursday morning and concluded with the Ordination Service, with all ministerial members in attendance. This has enabled more laity and youth members to attend. It has also enabled each local church to benefit from committed lay witness and ministry on Conference Sunday.

We were blessed with the fine sermon of Dr. H. Langill Watson at the Memorial Service as we remembered the lives and ministry of 9 Clergy members, 14 spouses, and 1 Diaconal Minister who have gone before us to receive a merited reward. Several impromptu testimonies during the presentation of "Habitat for Humanity", the clergy retirement celebration, and the Capital Campaign presentation blessed us all.

We express appreciation on behalf of the Conference to the Reverend Randall Baker, District Superintendent, and lay and clergy members of the Elizabeth City District, who have served as our hosts. They have shared many hours of preparation so that the finest arrangements could be made for our comfort and convenience. We thank you for thorough preparation in anticipation of such a large and splendid gathering.

We are compelled, by the quality of their preparation and accomplishments to express appreciation to: Dr. Elton Hendricks and all his associates at Methodist College for their hospitality; to all who enriched our music ministry-organists, pianists, choirs, and music directors; to the Conference Council Staff, beginning with Dr. Belton Joyner, and to the staff of our efficient Conference Secretary, Ted Wilson, for their efficiency which enabled us to proceed smoothly and easily with business proceedings because of their thorough preparation; to members of the press and communications staff who have reported our activities faithfully to those "back home".

We express particular appreciation to Bishop and Mrs. C. P. Minnick for their leadership among us, and their friendship firmly established during this first quadrennium. Our thanks to Bishop Minnick was well expressed by a lay member who publicly thanked him for: "...your gentleness, your patience, and your understanding of our strengths and weaknesses". Thank you and may we enjoy many years of continued fellowship.

We are pleased to report the richness of spirit and the sense of love and fellowship which marked this time together. These Conference Sessions have brought to mind on numerous occasions the words of the chorus: "There's a sweet, sweet spirit in this place, And I know that it's the spirit of the Lord."

We are not just alive, but we are alive and well as United Methodists in the service of the same Lord acknowledged by John Wesley at the first Methodist Conference. We are determined to "grow in wisdom, in stature, and in favor with God and man." God be with you, until we meet again.

Thomas A. Collins, Chairperson

DIACONAL MINISTRY, BOARD OF

We were saddened this year by the death of our Chairperson, Phyllis Gantz Savage. She served as a diaconal minister for 12 years; and was chairperson of this Board for three years. We appreciated her friendship and leadership; and she is missed by us all. Her death brought many transitions on the Board, beginning with the officers: For the remaining Quadrennium, Carol Dell was elected chairperson; Dennis Goodwin remains vice-chairperson; Brigitte Freeman remains secretary; Ray Wittman is treasurer; Margaret Anne Biddle is new registrar; and Rob Huckaby is the new candidate for secretary.

Even with the many transitions, I appreciate the Board's work and support as we work together to effect policies and programs for the future:

- (1) A salary guide/recommendation table is now available and is submitted as a part of this report. We know it will be of help to churches as well as persons seeking ministry employment.
- (2) Our Board now works in conjunction with the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Career and Personal Counseling Center for psychological testing for our diaconal minister candidates.
- (3) A special continuing education event sponsored by this Board; the national Board of Diaconal Ministry; Board of Higher Education; and Duke Seminary was a first, not only for this Conference but as a model for other Conferences as well. This was held May 2-4 at Duke Divinity School with the theme: "Staying Alive Spiritually" and led by Sarah Workman from the Intentional Growth Center.
- (4) An inclusiveness statement was submitted to the Bishop that reads: "Being sensitive to the issue of inclusiveness before us and wishing to aid in the process of inclusiveness, the Board will elect its leadership according to the desire, commitment, and qualification of persons, regardless of race, gender, or handicapping conditions."

Major issues continue to be brought up at General Conference which our Board discusses and researches so that we might help interpret them to the lay professional ministries in the Conference.

We continue to work with church educators and musicians across our Conference as we annually certify, recertify, and renew directors, associate directors, and diaconal ministers. We have 15 active diaconal ministers, six retired, none on Leave of Absence, one voluntary termination, one deceased, and nine candidates.

The Board of Diaconal Ministry continues to work with the status of lay ministry as we respond to the Church's recognition of God's call, and as we respond as individuals to that call.

Carol Renee Dell, Chairperson; Margaret Anne Biddle, Registrar

DISABILITY, JOINT COMMITTEE ON

The Joint Committee on Disability acts as the advocate of those pastors in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or emotional disability to seek temporary or permanent relief from their appointment. The committee is given the responsibility to study the problems of disability within the Conference, to provide a continuing personal ministry to those who are disabled, and to make recommendations to the appropriate agencies of the Conference for each pastor seeking Disability Leave, including the source of their disability income.

The following recommendations are presented to the 1988 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference:

1. The Joint Committee on Disability will make available upon request the necessary forms for any pastor to make application for Disability Leave. In all cases the applications must be completed by the pastor, the physician, and the district superintendent before the request for Disability Leave can be acted upon. It is the recommendation of the Joint Committee on Disability that such requests be presented before May 15 for inclusion in the committee's report to the Annual Conference.
2. The Joint Committee on Disability may require psychological examinations of those seeking disability when deemed necessary by the Committee. These will be done by a physician approved by the Committee, and in such a case the Committee may share the expense of the examination in an amount not to exceed $100.00.
3. The Joint Committee on Disability will study each new application for Disability Leave submitted by pastors of the Conference to determine the recommendation of the pastor's physician and district superintendent, particularly as it reflects the anticipated length of the pastor's disability. The medical reports will be sent to the medical consultant of the Joint Committee on Disability for an interpretation of the pastor's disabling conditions, who in turn will submit a medical report on the required form to the Joint Committee on Disability for action. All materials will then be sent to the medical consultant of the General Board of Pensions, who will determine if the pastor is eligible for benefits paid through the Comprehensive Protection Plan. From July, 1981 to December, 1981, disability benefits were paid through coverage as adopted by the 1981 Session of the Annual Conference. Beginning on January 1, 1982, disability benefits from the General Board of Pensions were transferred to coverage under the new Comprehensive Protection Plan.
4. We recommend that pastors who may not be eligible for benefits paid by the Comprehensive Protection Plan may be placed on Disability Leave with benefits paid through the Emergency Relief Fund. The Ministerial Pensions Plan, Comprehensive Protection Plan, Hospital Insurance and Life Insurance may be paid also by the Emergency Relief Fund.
5. Ministers on Disability Leave, whose benefits are paid by the Comprehensive Protection Plan or by the Annual Conference, shall elect Medicare coverage when it is offered, and the Medicare supplement will be paid by the Joint Committee on Disability.
6. Disability requests are to be submitted ninety (90) days prior to Annual Conference except in life-threatening situations after that date, or when the disabling condition occurs after that date.
7. We recommend that a monthly grant of $300.00 will be made for the first six months a pastor is granted Disability Leave. At the end of six months this grant will terminate.
8. The Joint Committee on Disability will review the progress of each pastor on Disability Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the pastor's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the pastor to develop further possibilities of assistance in

- his/her disabled circumstances. Those receiving aid from the Emergency Relief Fund will be reviewed at the end of their first six months of Disability Leave.
9. We recommend that the expenses of travel, telephone, postage, and other materials for the committee be paid from the Emergency Relief Fund.
 10. We recommend the following pastors to be continued on Disability Leave.

A. Clingman Carter Capps	G. Arnold Kimsey King, Jr.
B. Frederick F. Dillon (AM)	H. William Robert King (FLP)
C. Paul Wesley Evans (AM)	I. Robert Norman Knight
D. William H. Farmer (AM)	J. Robert Fulton McKee
E. Clifton Riddick Hollowell	K. James Earl McLendon
F. Herbert Franklin Horne (FLP)	L. Evander Parnell (AM)
 11. We recommend the following pastors to be placed on Disability Leave for the first time: NONE
 12. Who have been placed on Disability Leave since the last Annual Conference?
William Thomas Clarke 12/01/87 - 06/30/88
 13. We recommend that pastors and congregations in the communities in which our disabled pastors reside seek to establish a supportive relationship with those on Disability Leave to maintain good fellowship and provide for pastoral opportunities. It is further recommended that housing needs and other special problems of our disabled pastors be considered by these congregations and communities in the light of the contribution made to our United Methodist Church by those on disability during their years of service. We can all become better stewards of the gift of life and skill as we share in this ministry of caring and concern.

Jack L. Hunter, Chairperson

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

The District Conference Records have been examined satisfactorily and in addition to this examination, we the committee would like to present the following report for Conference approval:

"Since the District Conferences are no longer required by the Annual Conference but may be convened at the "call" of the district superintendent according to Par. 744 and by this same paragraph the secretary of the District Conference is required to submit the records of the District Conference to the Annual Conference for examination, we the members of the Committee on District Conference Records move that the committee membership be reduced from its present 12 members to 3 and that this committee shall be nominated by the cabinet and elected by the Annual Conference.

We further move that the records be contained in a hardback cover and provide a copy of the following items: 1) A copy of the notice of 'call' from the district superintendent. 2) The record/roll of attendance. 3) A copy of the minutes of the proceedings.

It shall also be a policy that all records six years old or older be forwarded to the Conference Archives for storage and security."

Bruce D. Taylor, Chairperson

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS, COMPOSITE REPORT OF

Bishop Minnick, members of the Conference, guests: the cabinet has honored me by giving me the privilege of making our report this year, and I am pleased to do so.

First, we wish to express our thanks to those four colleagues who are with us in Cabinet meetings when we are considering program matters of the Conference. They are: Executive Director of the Conference Council on Ministries F. Belton Joyner, Jr.; Assistant to the Bishop and Director of Ministerial Relations Kermit L. Braswell; Assistant to the Cabinet for Native American Concerns Simeon F. Cummings; and Assistant to the Bishop and Cabinet for Church Extension and Development Thomas A. Collins. Sometimes we chide these brothers for the many handouts they bring to us, but without their valuable assistance we would be "down the creek without a paddle."

Then we are grateful to the many pastors and laity who make it possible for us to make the appointments. Time and again the introductory visit of the newly appointed pastor goes better than we might have expected. The pastor-parish relations committee resolves to receive the new pastor with love and the pastor consents to go where he or she is sent. There is at appointment time a remarkable resiliency in pastors and laity which enables them to cope with surprises, or now and again, with a disappointment. We believe this is a sign of God's grace in them. Without such grace the appointive system could not work.

Finally and especially, we want to thank Bishop Minnick for challenging and inspiring us, indeed for loving us as he works with us. No one can work closely with him without sensing the closeness he has with Christ. His plan for the Cabinet of daily scripture readings and intercessory prayer continues to bless us and enrich our fellowship. His modeling of greatness reflects his own resolve to follow after Christ, who came not to be served but to serve others. Even when Bishop Minnick is carrying out the high authority responsibilities of the episcopal office, he does so as our friend. Each of us in the cabinet considers it a privilege to be an extension of his work. His wife, Mary Ann, also is an inspiration both to him and to us. They cherish each other and we cherish their friendship. We have enjoyed them these four years and hope that they may be with us again for the new quadrennium. At this time I would like to ask Esther Sherman, chairperson of the cabinet spouses, to escort Mrs. Minnick to the platform so that we may recognize her and express our love.

At a time when many annual conferences continue to show a net loss in membership, the NC Conference continues to show a slight gain. The statistician's report indicates that we are up 674 members over last year. Through the Congregational Development and Church Growth program of the quadrennium now closing, and through other initiatives, we are keeping the claims of evangelism ever before us. Training events for pastors and laity have been held in all districts. The following are a few examples of local churches experiencing remarkable growth in membership this past year: Pine Valley, Wilmington, with a net gain of 66; Wesley Memorial, Wilmington, receiving 42 persons on profession of faith; and Philadelphia, a black church near Rockingham, receiving 30 persons on profession of faith. Meanwhile, Faith UMC, a young church in the New Bern District, shows exciting growth with a membership now of 315 and an average attendance at worship of 430. I hasten to repeat, these are but a few of many churches that might be mentioned.

Three more new churches have been planted this year: Genesis UMC, Cary, in the Raleigh District; West Roberson in the Rockingham District; and Evergreen in northern Chatham County, Sanford District. New sites have been obtained for Morningstar and Soapstone in the Raleigh District and for Resurrection UMC in the Durham District. A new district mission society has been established in the Burlington District. Church leaders in the Raleigh, Durham, Chapel Hill areas and along the coast, where population growth is greatest, are determined to start new congregations and to revitalize existing ones as needed to serve the people.

Efforts continue for church extension among ethnic peoples in eastern NC. The project for a new black church in Kinston was not successful, but Harry Hosier Church in Fayetteville is expected to grow. A new Native American congregation is planned for Hope Mills in the Fayetteville District. The Korean Church, meeting at Camp Ground UMC, is gaining support. Mt. Zion Church in the Sanford District makes available its buildings for a Hispanic congregation each Sunday afternoon. The people are served by a Spanish-speaking student pastor from Duke Divinity School.

Remembering our Savior's care for persons in need, the churches of the NC Conference are reaching out to others. The Goldsboro District has a vital ministry to migrants.

The Habitat for Humanity program to provide better housing has caught on in Raleigh, Fayetteville, and Rockingham districts. Every district responded to the appeal for aid for those families whose livelihood was interrupted by the notorious red tide algae, November 1987 through March 1988. New Bern District, especially hard hit by the disaster, nevertheless led the way in providing funds for food, mortgages, rent, fuel, and other major needs. Many of the districts now have mission work teams to places such as Clio, SC, Cherokee in western NC, the Red Bird Mission in KY, Mexico, and Jamaica.

Giving for all causes is up 6.6% over last year. Let us be thankful for the faith and loyalty of thousands of laity and pastors who years after year enable the local churches and the Annual Conference to meet their budgets. Most of the districts paid at least 95% of the Outreach Ministries apportionment for 1987. The New Bern District paid 100%. On special day offerings Littleton Church in the Rocky Mount District was a pacemaker with $2100 for One Great Hour of Sharing.

Where would we be without the work of our laity? The lay rallies keep on giving visible signs of the lively interest of the laity. The largest rally attendance this year was seen in Durham, Greenville, and Rockingham districts. We are proud to note that Ernie Wendell of Durham District has been elected president of the SEJUMM. The lay speaker program is very much alive in our Conference. For example, in the Sanford District lay speakers filled 212 assignments last year; the Elizabeth City District has a pool of 45 lay speakers; and in the Rockingham District 77 persons were involved in basic or advanced training. Lay persons come forward in each district offering themselves for candidacy for ordained ministry. Often they report that they first began to sense God's calling through their serving as lay speakers.

If there were time and space to do so, we could report a spate of building programs, both of church buildings and parsonages. Every district has a list of them. The Sanford District list includes a lovely new district parsonage now being built at a new location. These programs are a tribute to the stewardship of our people, for they want to provide adequate and attractive facilities for the work of God at church and to have a comfortable and convenient home for their parsonage family.

Many of us will remember that years ago there was a strong emphasis on Christian nurture and the Sunday School in our Conference. We are glad to note that the Christian Workers' School, widely used to train leaders then, is still useful. The January Workshop is well attended in all districts and considered a vital training event. Several districts go a step beyond and have a Christian Workers' School as well. Whatever we can do to strengthen the Sunday School is worth doing. New Bern District now reports an ongoing Sunday School in all 66 of its local churches. With help from the Conference Board of Education, all districts will be holding Sunday School rallies this fall.

Now may I say a word about attitude. The spirit of our people toward God's work is positive often even in situations where there is little prospect of numerical growth. In the Rocky Mount District, for example, where several counties are losing population and many small rural churches are declining in membership, pastors and people do not lose heart. Year after year they support their local churches and come up with their part of whatever the Conference undertakes. The faithfulness of our people is cause for praise. There is evident among many of our local churches what the Rockingham district superintendent has called "an air of expectancy, a sense of spiritual excitement that something is about to happen, that we are about to be called to greater things." Such an attitude bodes well for church growth and for larger financial support for our camping facilities and for new churches. The Conference Plans Council's meetings in each district setting forth the need for a capital funds campaign for these vital ministries have been well received and we believe that by and large our people are ready to get on with it.

Let us turn now to our needs. Where are our weaknesses? Where do we come short? We are short of people coming to church and to Sunday School! Last year in this Conference the average attendance at the principal worship service of the local church fell by 1.1%, while Sunday School attendance dropped 2%. Thus while we are gaining in church membership we find ourselves ministering to fewer and fewer people. Somehow we must provide better shepherding care, offer more exciting experiences in worship and in teaching, find new urgency in preaching, develop better singing and music, and generate a warmer welcome to all comers, each time the church doors are open. Let there be joy in the house of the Lord!

The Second Letter of John in the New Testament is believed to have been written to one specific church in Asia Minor. John the Elder refers to that church as "The Elect Lady." John's message to her is that she remember the doctrine of Christ in the face of all deceivers and that she keep the commandment which has been from the beginning, namely to follow love.

That is a good word for us today. This summary report from the district superintendents really comes from the local churches of eastern NC Methodism who know themselves to be called to be God's people where they are. In this report we have noted some of the signs of their election. Let us rejoice in these signs and move on to address the further tasks where Christ's love will take us.

THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

Mr. James B. Duke signed the Indenture creating The Duke Endowment on December 11, 1924. The creation of The Duke Endowment was the culmination of many years of giving to charitable causes in the two Carolinas by the Duke family.

In his book The Dukes of Durham, Robert F. Durden said, "The Duke Endowment was destined to become one of the largest permanent foundations of its kind in the nation and to exert a major influence on the quality of life for millions of people in the two Carolinas."

Nowhere was the joyful excitement better expressed than in the words of William Preston Few, President of Trinity College, which with the signing of the Indenture became Duke University, spoke to Benjamin Duke, "Then, after all, my dream and your dream is to be realized in full. Isn't it glorious?"

Indeed, the past sixty-four years have been glorious times for beneficiaries of The Duke Endowment. Mr. Duke specified the beneficiaries as not-for-profit hospitals and child care institutions in the two Carolinas, rural United Methodist churches in the two annual conferences of The United Methodist Church in North Carolina together with retired ministers and widows and children of deceased ministers of those conferences, and four educational institutions - Duke University, Davidson College, Furman University and Johnson C. Smith University. In talking about the Indenture, Mr. Duke concluded that he might have extended aid to other causes and to other sections of the country but asserted his belief that, "so doing probably would be productive of less good by reason of attempting too much." History has sustained Mr. Duke's wisdom in defining very specifically the beneficiaries of the trust.

Rural United Methodist churches in North Carolina are eligible to receive grants in two areas from The Duke Endowment. Churches involved in new church construction and renovations to existing church buildings are eligible to request grants. Over the years Trustees of The Duke Endowment have established certain guidelines that must be met before churches can apply for the grants. These guidelines assure the churches of quality buildings.

Not only did Mr. Duke want churches to have excellent facilities, he also was interested in churches being maintained. A second category of giving to churches is in the area of maintaining and operating rural churches. Many programs have been established by The Duke Endowment in this area.

One area of great concern has been to assure that rural United Methodist churches would have adequate pastoral leadership. A number of programs have been developed through various field placements to help students in Duke Divinity School to afford an education, thereby increasing the number of trained pastors available to rural churches. Students are assigned to churches for 10 - 12 weeks in the summer and on weekends during the school year. These programs have an advantage in that they not only provide scholarship money, but also give the student an opportunity to gain experience by being in ministry.

Pastors who are serving in rural churches need the opportunity to refresh themselves for better ministry. Scholarships are provided for them to attend continuing education events planned through Duke Divinity School.

Another broad area under the Maintaining and Operating Rural Churches Program is parish development. Through parish development, churches are able to request money to help start new and innovative programs within the local churches or parishes. A variety of projects have been funded in part through this program.

A final major facet in which grants are made through the Rural Church Division of The Duke Endowment is for superannuate pastors and widows of deceased pastors and dependent children of deceased pastors. At the present time a pastor receives $26 for each year served in one of the two NC Annual Conferences. Widows of deceased pastors received 75% of the Service Year amount and children receive 25%.

A financial report indicating the amounts that these various programs received during the past year is listed below:

EPISCOPACY, COMMITTEE ON

During the 1987-88 year the Committee on Episcopacy has continued to meet with Bishop and Mrs. Minnick for appropriate discussion of matters related to the episcopal appointment to the Raleigh Area. We can report again that to the best of our knowledge the NC Conference is pleased with the caring leadership of its bishop and that our bishop is pleased with our Conference and his ministry here!

To Bishop Minnick, we reiterate our gratitude for his presence among us in shepherding, preaching, and teaching; and for his availability and willingness to listen to cares and concerns of our people in local churches. His leadership roles also at the jurisdictional and general church levels continue to show the esteem in which he is held by his colleagues on both the College of Bishops and the Council of Bishops, and we take pride in this recognition. That he is viewed increasingly as a church statesman is apparent from conversations with is colleagues.

The Committee affirms Bishop Minnick's ministry in the NC Conference, and in completing and filing the Episcopal Area Profile we have expressed the desire to see him remain here for subsequent appointment. Dr. Bethea and I, as members of the Jurisdictional Episcopacy Committee, will continue to work for Bishop Minnick's reappointment to us.

Further, we express our love as a Conference also for Mrs. Minnick - Mary Ann - who has become so much a part of us. We salute here for the genuine Christian witness that she shows so readily. Thank you, Mary Ann, for the asset you are to the Bishop and continue to be to us!

As we reflect on the 1984-88 quadrennium and Bishop Minnick's leadership, we celebrate the positive direction he has shown us and express appreciation for him as a person and as our episcopal leader. We look forward to his continuing ministry among us!

EQUITABLE SALARIES, COMMISSION ON

By disciplinary provision and moral obligation, the Commission on Equitable Salaries is instructed to "support ministry in the charges of the Annual Conference by (1) recommending Conference standards for ministerial compensation; (2) administering funds to be used in salary supplementation, and (3) providing counsel and advisory material on ministerial compensation to district superintendents and pastor-parish relations committees." (Discipline, ¶ 722.2)

That provision often places the Commission in a contradictory spot. "Assumption of the obligations of the itinerant ministry required upon admission to the traveling connection places upon the church a counterobligation to provide adequate support for the entire ministry of the church." (Discipline, ¶ 717) "The Commission shall carefully study the needs for...ministerial support within the Conference and the sources of income, and shall recommend annually to the Conference a schedule for minimum salaries for all...pastors." (Discipline, ¶ 722.3) In other words, ministers are required to spend considerable expense, time, and energy in preparing for and executing ministry. Common sense recognizes the increased pressure upon a local church to provide an ever increasing salary for its minister. Churches with dwindling resources find themselves spending more and more on pastoral compensation and less and less on property, program, and expansion. Clergy and laity are caught in the proverbial place between a rock and a hard spot.

The Commission has spent considerable time in examining the situation. Solutions are not included in this report. However, we do have recommendations whose implementation will help us move towards "fair and equitable salaries" for all those who "assume the obligations of the itinerancy," and simultaneous "fair and equitable management" of the resources of the local church in ministry and mission.

Recommended Schedule of Minimum Salaries for 1989

A. Salary Schedule

1. With respect to the ever increasing cost of living for all, we recommend that the minimum full-time salary level be raised by a percentage equal to the percentage of raise enjoyed by all ministers of the Conference year 1988.

MINISTERS UNDER FULL-TIME APPOINTMENT	1988	1989
(Full Connection, Associate, Probationary, Local Pastor)
Salary and Utilities.	$17,660	$18,704
(Utilities to be specified by Charge Conference)

STUDENTS (Local Pastors or Conference Members)	1988	1989
Salary and Utilities.	$11,479	$12,158
(Utilities to be specified by Charge Conference)

2. We recommend that the full-time minimum salary levels be adjusted annually by the percentage figure of average raises in the Conference for the current Conference year.

3. Guidelines affecting student pastors as adopted by previous Annual Conference sessions will continue to govern the use of equitable salary funds for student pastors. (For reference, the Discipline, ¶ 442, 717, and 722, and the Journal of 1983, provide the basis for our work.)

B. Travel Allowance

Although travel is reimbursed by the charge as an item of ministerial expense, it is expected that the charge would provide at least $1,800 for travel expense. A charge receiving equitable salary support may provide this $1,800 travel allowance, but any travel allowance in excess of $1,800 will result in a reduction of equitable salary support.

C. Pension Program

Charges receiving Equitable Salary Fund support are responsible for paying the total amount required for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan based on their pastor's total income for salary and utilities (including funds from the Equitable Salary Fund, Duke Endowment, and any other sources).

D. Principles Governing the Use of Equitable Salary Funds:

The Pastor's salary is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, the charges of the North Carolina Conference should be so arranged as to be able to assume full salary support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Salary Funds, its pastor, and the district superintendent responsible for that charge to administer the affairs of that charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward total self-support. To enable the Conference, the Commission, and the district superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, in harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

- A. In considering the salary for the charge, all income, including salary, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as salary in determining appropriations from the Equitable Salary Fund. Salary support for retired

- supply, interim supply or associate pastors in other than larger parish arrangement of churches will not be available.
- B. Charges must be so arranged that no more than one-third of the total salary will come from the Equitable Salary Fund on the first application from the charge. Charges seeking more than one-third supplement must provide specific information with their application, indicating the reasons for their inability to meet these guidelines. Information shall be made available to the Commission on Equitable Salaries and the district superintendents regarding the term of Equitable Salary support, giving the date of its inception and the present amount of support being received by the respective charges.
 - C. When the division of a charge is desired, Equitable Salary Funds will be used only upon the recommendation of the Bishop, of the "Bishop's Task Force on the Division of Circuits," and the approval of the cabinet.
 - D. In the division of a charge in which one church seeks to become a station it is recommended that such a church shall assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of all apportionments.
 1. The remainder of the charge in such a division assumes full pastoral support and its proportionate share of all apportionments. In no case will the Commission on Equitable Salaries provide more than one-third of the salary required for such a division.
 2. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, each newly created charge must pay initially two-thirds of the pastoral support established by the division.
 - E. The Commission on Equitable Salaries further recommends that each charge which is receiving, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Salary Fund assistance, shall reduce this aid by at least ten (10) percent each year until the charge has achieved full self-support in ten years. The Commission wants to be clear at this point that its intent in this recommendation is that the charge will accept in full whatever increases are made in the minimum salary for their pastor each year and receive ten (10) percent less each year in aid from Equitable Salary Funds than granted the previous year.
 - F. Any Equitable Salary Fund supplement will be terminated immediately upon information that the pastor has taken full-time secular employment. Such a charge may be reinstated at such time as its pastor returns to full-time or student status. Exceptions to this provision may be permitted only by the approval of the executive committee of the Commission on Equitable Salaries upon the recommendation of the district superintendent of the pastor seeking for emergency reasons to be employed outside of his/her ministerial responsibilities.
 - G. Equitable Salary Funds are sent to charges who have applied for their use to provide their pastor with the minimum salary established by the Annual Conference. The monthly salary supplement checks sent by the Conference treasurer are to be deposited by the charge treasurer in the salary. The checks are not to be endorsed and cashed by the pastor.
 - H. Ethnic Minority Ministers: Each ethnic minority clergy person, who is an associate member or a member in full connection of the North Carolina Annual Conference, serving full-time, and who, in the opinion of the cabinet is rendering unusually effective service, will receive an incremental increase of $100 per service year, not to exceed $1,000 per year, for ten (10) years of full-time service, when such clergy person's salary and utilities is equal to the Conference minimum salary, but less than the Conference minimum salary plus $100 per year up to ten (10) years of full-time service as an associate member or a member in full connection.

Said incremental increase is to be administered by the Commission on Equitable Salaries upon approval by the charge conference and the district superintendent. Further, the local church shall be responsible for MPP and CPP payments on any incremental increase. The incremental increases shall become effective January 1, 1989.

This policy does not restrict the Equitable Salaries Commission, upon the recommendation of the cabinet, from making additional grants in extraordinary circumstances.

- I. Churches receiving Equitable Salary Funds will conduct an annual financial campaign to accurately gauge the level of financial support the local church can reasonably expect from its members.
- J. We remind the Conference of provisions in the Discipline, ¶ 717, which state: (1)"Primary responsibility for the payment of pastoral salaries remains with individual pastoral charges." (2)"This schedule of minimum salaries shall be observed by the bishops and district superintendents in arranging charges and making appointments."
- K. Churches or charges applying for Equitable Salary Funds shall submit a request on the appropriate form supplied by the district superintendent. The request shall be carefully analyzed by the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent. The form must have the signatures of the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent affixed to it, and the request must have been approved by the Charge Conference.

The Commission plans further consultation and study with other Conference agencies and resources to seek ways to more adequately provide for the temporal needs of our pastors and churches.

FARM CRISIS, TASK FORCE ON

The Farm Crisis Task Force was created to respond to certain critical needs of farming families and individuals with financial and other helps.

This is a summary of our report.

50,000.00 was distributed.

100 families received $500.00 each.

The balance of funds has been assigned to the Board of Church and Society to distribute for future farm crisis needs. We also staffed a booth to establish a United Methodist presence at the State Fair.

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION, COUNCIL ON

II. Financial Policies

1. The Outreach Ministries Fair Share Apportionments for the first year of the quadrennium (1989) shall be based on the average of the total monies disbursed by each church in the four years immediately previous to the apportionment year less the approved exclusions each year. The change in apportionment from the previous year for the first year of the quadrennium shall not increase in excess of 25%. The exclusions are: Payments on Outreach Ministries; principal and interest on indebtedness; buildings and improvements; local benevolences paid directly by the local church; General and Conference Advance Specials; Ten Dollar Club; up to the Conference average for travel paid by a charge for each pastor ($2,720 for 1989 apportionments); United Methodist Student Day; Human Relations Day; Peace and Justice Sunday; Native American Awareness; One Great Hour of Sharing; World Communion Sunday; Pension Funding Crusade; UMW Funds sent to district or conference treasurer; housing allowance paid in lieu of furnished parsonage to a minister serving under Episcopal appointment in a charge of the Conference; offerings taken for disasters as designated by the Disaster Preparedness Committee and the Resident Bishop. The Outreach Ministries Fair Share Apportionments for the subsequent 3 years of the quadrennium shall be the previous year's apportionment plus a percentage increase/decrease equal to the percentage increase/decrease in the Annual Conference budget.
2. Apportionments to the churches shall be made by the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) based on the current formula for the Outreach Ministries Apportionments. Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from acceptance up to the amount fixed by the Annual Conference upon the recommendations of the council. In the event collections shall fall short, all items shall be paid pro-rata or proportionate excepting prior claim items: (Fixed obligations on conference owned property; salaries paid directly from the Conference treasurer's office; Pensions; Equitable Salary Fund; Emerging Church Salary Support; General World Service; General Administration Fund, Episcopal Fund, Jurisdictional Conference Fund). In the light of possible unforeseen and emergency need within the Annual Conference, the Council on Finance and Administration is authorized to make supplementary appropriations between sessions of the Annual Conference. Such supplementary appropriations shall be made only from available undesignated funds and shall be reported in the Conference Journal for purposes of information.
3. The Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference Missional Fund shall continue based on a minimum goal of 50 cents per member per year ($2.00) over the four-year period 1989-1992 inclusive. This is based upon the membership at the close of the calendar year 1987 as reported in the 1988 Journal.
4. The following special offerings shall be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Fair Share Apportionments: United Methodist Student Day, Human Relations Day, Peace and Justice Sunday, Native American Awareness Sunday, One Great Hour of Sharing, World Communion Sunday.
5. Outreach Ministries Apportionments will be delivered from the treasurer's office to the district superintendents by mid-July. The district superintendents will then, as soon as possible, distribute the apportionments, without adjustments, to the churches. The district superintendent may adjust the apportionments of the churches under a charge provided that the total apportionment for the charge is not changed.

6. No Conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of the Council on Ministries for program budget items or the Council on Finance and Administration for all non-program budget items. All funds granted to a non-conference agency must be spent consistent with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.
7. No transfer of funds shall be made from one line item in the Conference Budget to another without approval of the Council on Finance and Administration.
8. The Episcopal Fund, General Administration Fund, Jurisdictional Conference, Temporary General Aid, World Service, College Sustaining Fund, Ministerial Education Fund, and College Debt Retirement will be raised and paid out in the same year. All other funds will be raised and paid out in the subsequent year on a schedule determined by the Council on Finance and Administration.
9. The Council shall consider an appropriation to the Conference Fund for Human Need at the close of the fiscal year. The supplemental appropriation in 1987 to the Fund for Human Need was $103,584.
10. Investment Policy: (a) The investment of the funds of the conference shall be such that funds available for mission are maximized in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church. (b) South African Policy: The council will not do business with or invest in banks making loans to the government of South Africa or its agencies, or who have operations within South Africa. The council has no investments in South Africa and has adopted a policy of making no investments in South Africa.
11. Monies paid by the churches shall be reported to the statistician by the pastors at the end of the year on the Table II, Financial Report. The Table I and Table II reports for 1988 shall be due to the statistician no later than January 31, 1989.
12. Before apportionments are computed, the conference treasurer will adjust the budget approved by Annual Conference to reflect the actual amount apportioned by the Jurisdictional Conference.

III. Approval to Solicit Funds

Approval is given to the requests of the following agencies for the privilege of soliciting funds throughout the District or Conference.

1. Christmas Offering for district superintendents' programs and/or projects.
2. The Board of Missions for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club.
3. The Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the four camps of the North Carolina Conference.
4. The State Commission on Campus Ministry for the privilege of private solicitation for special gifts for the benefit of special works in the state-supported institutions of higher education.
5. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated; Methodist Home for Children; Louisburg College; Methodist College; and North Carolina Wesleyan College for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed thereto with the understanding that such solicitation or private campaign may not be taken into the local churches of the Conference through solicitation in classes or other groups or by the use of membership lists of entire churches which might be provided, and that solicitation not be made through the North Carolina Christian Advocate.
6. The United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.

7. The Disaster Preparedness Committee upon joint decision of the committee and the resident bishop to respond to disasters within the bounds of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

IV. Organization and Procedure (presented for information only)

1. The Council on Finance and Administration uses McGladrey Hendrickson & Pullen, Raleigh, NC, as auditors.
2. The president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer of the Council on Finance and Administration shall serve as the executive committee of the council. The council shall elect an additional member from its voting membership.
3. The Conference treasurer will include in his monthly financial reports, for any given month, all monies received in his office by 8:30 a.m. on the 5th day of the following month, except when the 5th day falls on a weekend or holiday the report will include the funds received by 8:30 a.m. on the following workday.
4. Requests for supplemental appropriations for the operating budget for 1989 shall be delivered to the treasurer's office no later than January 25, 1989.
5. Requests for the budget to be raised in 1990 shall be delivered to the treasurer's office no later than February 18, 1989.
6. Requests for special supplemental appropriations shall be in writing stating the need for funding and received in the treasurer's office at least 10 working days prior to a scheduled CFA meeting. If a request for supplemental funding is received between scheduled meetings, the executive committee may consider the request and direct the Conference treasurer to forward it to the membership via mail with a recommendation for action as it deems appropriate.
7. The treasurer, at his discretion, may approve minor overexpenditures of a budget line item up to $1,000 or 5% of the line item, whichever is less. A request for such overexpenditure shall be submitted in writing in advance and shall state the reason for the request. The overexpenditure will be reported to CFA and will be listed in the Conference Journal.
8. Requests for the purchase/lease of specific data processing equipment or services must be approved by CFA. The request must address the problem of compatibility of the project with the current Annual Conference data processing service. The approval of funds to begin a project does not constitute approval for the purchase/lease of specific equipment or services.
9. All remittances for General Church items must be received in the treasurer's office by 8:30 a.m. on December 31, 1988 in order to receive credit for 1988.
10. All remittances for Annual Conference items must be received in the treasurer's office by 8:30 a.m. on January 12, 1989, in order to receive credit for 1988.
11. Any request from the churches for adjustments to apportionments must be made to the Council on Finance and Administration on or before Wednesday prior to Thanksgiving. (November 23, 1988). Requests for adjustments must be submitted in writing to the district superintendent who will attach a recommendation and forward the request to the Conference treasurer's office.
12. Any Conference or non-conference agency which receives Conference funds in excess of $1,000 shall submit, with any budget request, an annual detailed audited budget report of all receipts, disbursements and assets. A statement in effect that "All funds granted have been spent consistent with the social principles of the United Methodist Church" will be furnished to CFA upon submission of the audit. Such reports received may be reported in whole or in summary form in the Conference Journal and shall remain on file in the treasurer's office. An agency may be exempted (for just cause) from this reporting requirement by CFA for non-program agencies, or in the case of program agencies, by CFA upon recommendation of the Council on Ministries.

13. A carry over of budgeted funds remaining (not including any supplemental appropriations) of up to 10% of the amount raised for the subsequent year will be allowed for non-salary Conference budget line items.
14. Funds appropriated to a board or agency must be spent in the calendar year of the appropriation unless otherwise allowed by CFA.
15. MEETING SCHEDULE: The council will meet on the first Wednesday of February, March, and the second Wednesday in December. There may be a meeting at Annual Conference or on the first Wednesday in September at the discretion of the president. There will also be a joint CFA/COM budget hearing in November on a mutually agreed date. The executive committee meets at the call of the president.

The principle business at the meetings is as follows:

FEBRUARY: to consider the operating budget for the current year. All payments on apportionments are due to the treasurer by mid January. A report of receipts, amounts allocated to the budgeted boards and agencies, and supplemental appropriations are decided at the meeting.

MARCH: to consider the budget to be recommended to Annual Conference which will be raised in the subsequent year and spent in the year following that. Additionally, the CFA policy recommendations to the Annual Conference are adopted.

JUNE: to elect officers if required.

There may be a called meeting in conjunction with Annual Conference if necessary to elect officers or conduct other business.

SEPTEMBER: an optional meeting to be held if necessary at the call of the president.

NOVEMBER: a joint CFA/COM budget hearing. The purpose of this hearing is to receive a report from boards and agencies on funds spent and requested funds for future programs and activities. (November 22, 1988)

DECEMBER: to consider the apportionment appeals from churches. The requests for appeals are due in the treasurer's office on or before the Wednesday prior to Thanksgiving. The supplemental appropriations for salaries are also considered at this meeting.

16. Statement of Racial/Gender Inclusiveness: Membership on the council as determined by the Discipline is to be as follows: "Insofar as possible, there shall be 1/3 lay men, 1/3 lay women, and 1/3 clergy." Appropriate representation of youth and minority persons, and churches of small membership is suggested. Total voting membership is to be no greater than 21 persons and "in every case there shall be at least one lay person more than ministerial included on the Council." (§ 708.2) The current voting membership of the council is 7 clergy and 9 lay persons. This includes 4 lay women and 5 lay men, one clergy woman, and 6 clergy men. Two council members are Black and one is Native American. The executive committee of the council includes the president, vice president, secretary, and the Conference treasurer. It is the policy of the council that the position of the president will alternate between lay and clergy persons on the council. The current leadership of the council includes a clergy male president, lay male vice president, and a lay female secretary. The disciplinary racial/gender requirements of council membership, the council's policy of alternating the presidency between lay and clergy members, and the sensitivity of council members has opened the council's formal leadership to an acceptance of racial/gender inclusiveness. To further enable such inclusiveness, the executive committee recommends that an at-large-member be elected to the executive committee. If approved by the council, this would become effective at the organizational meeting of the council at the close of the 1988 Annual Conference.

V. District Superintendents' Salary

The percentage change in district superintendents' salary for 1986 and subsequent years shall be the same as the average percentage change in salary (salary, travel, utilities) for that year for all full-time pastors serving local charges in the North Carolina Annual Conference. (Adopted in 1985)

VI. Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund, and Basic Protection Plan (for full time lay employees on the Conference Staff - Presented for information only):

A. GENERAL

1. The lay employee's supervisor is responsible for making layemployees aware of these rules and procedures. Detailed information on the CPBF and the BPP is available from the treasurer's office. Supervisors will have lay employees who are eligible for these benefits contact the treasurer's office 60 days before they are eligible for participation, or sign a waiver form if they decline to participate in the CPBF and the BPP. The form will be kept on file in the treasurer's office for future reference.
2. The Conference treasurer's office will administer the CPBF and the BPP.
3. Contributions will be withheld from the employee's pay and remitted to the General Board of Pensions by the treasurer's office.

B. CUMULATIVE PENSION AND BENEFIT FUND (CPBF)

1. The lay employee must be full time (at least 25 hours per week).
2. The lay employee must be an employee for one continuous year before becoming eligible for lay pension program participation.
3. The Conference contribution will be the same percent as it is for clergy (currently 11%).
4. The lay employee's contribution will be the same as it is for clergy (currently 3%). The penalty for not making the contribution will be the same as it is for clergy.

C. BASIC PROTECTION PLAN (BPP)

1. Participants in the CPBF must be participants in the BPP.
2. The Conference contribution will be the plan document required amount less the lay employee's contribution.
3. The lay employee's contribution will be the same as it is for clergy (currently 1%).

VII. Conference Treasurer

The Council on Finance and Administration nominates Herb Stout for the office of Conference treasurer for the quadrennium.

VIII. Summary of Proposed Changes in Annual Conference Policy/Budget

1. Section I, ¶ 1: Change the Outreach Ministries Fair Share (OMFS) apportionment formula.
2. Section I, ¶ 1: Include offerings taken in response to disasters as a deductible item in the OMFS formula.
3. Section I, ¶ 2: Add Emerging Church Salary Support, Episcopal Fund, and Jurisdictional Conference Fund as prior claim items.
4. Section II, ¶ 7: Add provisions for the Disaster Preparedness Committee.
5. Conference Budget: Include the Ministerial Education Fund in the Conference budget instead of a separate apportionment.

6. Conference Budget: Add an additional full time secretarial position in the ministerial relations office to replace part-time assistance.
7. Conference Budget: Add Basic Protection Plan benefits for lay employees as is currently provided for clergy under the Comprehensive Protection Plan.

GENERAL CONFERENCE

The familiar saying, "Meet me in St. Louis!", was heeded by United Methodists in late April and early May as we traveled there from all parts of the US and indeed the world. Our NC Conference was well represented, not only by the Bishop and our elected delegates and alternates, but also by other persons from within the Conference to total approximately fifty individuals. Our presence there was felt in leadership as well as in attendance, and we can be proud of the influence we had on what happened in debate and eventual General Conference action. We had more people in key leadership positions than ever before.

At this time I want to express grateful appreciation to our delegation, clergy and lay, who worked long hours in committee and plenary deliberation and who were in unity as a team in trying to advance The United Methodist Church. Not that we were all in complete agreement on every issue - no one could expect everyone to see matters in exactly the same light - but each of our delegates conscientiously prepared for and carried out responsibilities in dedicated commitment to the tasks at hand. As the delegation head, I applaud them for representing the NC Conference in an outstanding manner.

Although the Judicial Council ruled that an annual conference cannot require its delegation to report its votes on legislative matters, our delegation decided before the ruling that no matter what the decision we would report in keeping with the motion passed by our 1987 Annual Conference on "matters of ordination and other critical matters affecting the life of The United Methodist Church". This report was made, as the motion requested, in the first coordinated mailing following the General Conference.

We have had the ushers distribute copies of the "General Conference Final Wrapup" article, and if you have not yet read it, let me urge you to read it when you have a chance. It will provide a succinct summary of the major decisions made. You have already heard of many of them via the news media, among them:

- approval of a new hymnal (which by the way has had the leadership of a number from our Conference).
- approval of a new United Methodist University in Africa.
- retention of the Church's present stand on homosexuality, but with the call for a four-year study to be carried out by the General Council on Ministries.
- a budget of $410 million in apportioned funds for 1989-92, representing an increase of approximately 17 per cent for the entire quadrennium.
- a new statement of doctrine and theology asserting the primacy of Scripture but relating it closely to the other three historic Wesleyan themes of tradition, experience, and reason.
- enabling legislation for the possible creation of four new episcopal areas, two of them within the SEJ.

It was a full two weeks, but we have survived as a strengthened church that has now been described as following a more middle-of-the-road course. While all may not agree fully with every legislative decision, the 996 voting delegates achieved results that had many United Methodists calling this General Conference one of the most significant. Our NC Conference delegation as a group - with individuals expressing positions derived by prayerful consideration - contributed to this significance.

We would be remiss if we failed to mention our pride in Bishop Minnick's selection to preside at one of the plenary sessions. He did an excellent job, and as we saluted him then, so do we now for a superb example of leadership in the Church. We want to present to him now, from all of us, a framed picture (with photography by Margaret Saunders) of him in his presiding role.

J. Allen Norris, Jr.

GENERAL COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

Those who have represented the NC Conference on General Church boards and agencies during the 1984-88 quadrennium have done so with a real sense of serving both the Church at large and our own Conference. We are pleased to have had the opportunity to relate our Conference to the General Church and, in turn, to emphasize the important linkage role in interpreting General Church programming to the Conference and our local churches. "The Connection" of the UMC is a decided strength of our denomination.

The General Council on Ministries is our church program coordinating agency, and it has been an exciting experience to be an active part of its work. With myself as basic member and Robby Lowry as an additional member, we have been actively involved in the General Council and its direction. My own recent role as Chair of the GCOM Coordinating Committee for the Africa Initiative (establishing a UM University in Africa) has been especially rewarding to me and an opportunity for our Conference to have some vital influence on a major programmatic thrust of the Church.

The General Council on Ministries, in coordinating and evaluating the work of our other general boards and agencies, helps to provide on-going assistance to annual conferences and local churches in many areas of program, from research to actual presentation. We can and should be proud of how the General Church serves us in all that we do.

INSURANCE, COMMITTEE ON

Group Term Life Insurance

The Insurance Committee, on the recommendation of our insurance consultant, has continued our group term life insurance with State Farm Insurance Company. Our coverage is $15,000 for active participants, $7,500 for retired pastors up to age 72; $1,000 for pastors over age 72. Benefits for any pastor retiring prior to 1978 remain at $5,000. The spouse's insurance terminates at age 65 or upon retirement of the subscriber; whichever comes first. The rates effective January 1, 1989 will be: individual, $10.00; family $10.50. This represents an increase of $1.00 per month for individual and family coverage.

The following claims were paid in 1987:

Edgar B. Fisher	$ 1,000.00
Bonnie I. Allen	1,000.00
Buell E. Bingham	1,000.00
Wilford D. Wise	7,500.00
William F. Elliott	1,000.00
James McNeill	15,000.00
John T. Maides	7,500.00
Sally Kirby	1,000.00
Kathleen D. Reed	1,000.00
TOTAL BENEFITS PAID	$36,000.00

Blue Cross/Blue Shield Insurance

The Insurance Committee has been able to hold the current premium rates at the same level since 1984 and add dental benefits to our program. Medical costs are increasing at the rate of 15% per year. This means our premiums have not kept pace with the costs of the benefits our policy provides. Consequently, we find it imperative to increase our rates for current coverage effective January 1, 1989.

The Committee has reviewed our current coverage and thinks the following improvements will enhance our medical protection:

Life Time Maximum-Change from $250,000 to $500,000.

Home Care Nursing-Add benefits payable at 100% following Blue Cross standard guidelines for this type care.

Chemical Dependency-Change lifetime maximum from $12,000 to $20,000 and remove 30 day and 24 month limit.

Chiropractic-Change from $500 to $1,000 per calendar year, (each claim payable at 50% until maximum is reached).

Mental and Nervous Disorders-Increase outpatient benefits from 50% to 80% with a maximum of $3,000 per year, lifetime maximum of $10,000.

The monthly rates for 1989 with these proposed changes in benefits will be:

	1988	1989	$ change	% change
Individual - church portion	$47.02	$65.93	$ 18.91	40.22%
Individual - personal portion	$15.68	$21.98	$ 6.30	40.16%
Parent/Child - church portion	$93.16	$129.47	$36.31	38.98%
Parent/Child - personal portion	$31.05	$43.16	$12.11	38.99%
Family - church portion	$133.36	$186.89	$53.53	40.14%
Family - personal portion	$44.46	$62.29	$17.84	40.11%
Medicare supplement	$49.06	$52.17	$ 3.11	6.34%

Any change in benefits would become effective January 1, 1989. Our insurance consultant has recommended that we continue with the Modified Minimum Premium plan or the contract year June 1, 1988 to May 31, 1989. This will make possible a savings of approximately $22,000 or 1.05% less in premium increases.

REMINDERS! These policies continue to be in effect:

Pre-Admission certification is a requirement that will be continued. Emergency and maternity care are excluded from this requirement.

The dental insurance continues as part of our regular program. The benefits are outlined in the benefit booklet. A summary of the benefits is also on page 308 of the 1987 Journal.

When an active subscriber reaches age 65 (pastor or lay) he/she should sign up for the Medicare program. As long as he/she is actively employed there is no change in benefits. Medicare is the secondary carrier until retirement.

The Insurance Committee provides an appeal process for any participant who feels claims have not been adequately satisfied. A written report of all pertinent information should be made to the Insurance Committee chairperson.

The policy of adding a service fee of 1.5% per month for delinquent accounts helps defray the cost of collections and paying premiums for churches making late payments.

We recommend continuation of the policy of the church paying 75% of the premium and the subscriber paying 25% of the premium. Payment for the church's portion of the insurance programs must be made by the church/charge treasurer. Minister's personal checks cannot be accepted as payment for the church's portion.

In case of termination of a lay employee, the church is responsible for the premium until the treasurer's office is notified in writing of such termination.

Premiums for health and life insurance may be paid in ADVANCE on a quarterly, semi-annual or annual basis.

When there is a change of address, or a change in family status it is the insured's responsibility to notify the treasurer's office within 30 days. The toll free number to the Methodist Building in Raleigh is 1-800-621-5467 where a staff person continues to provide personal attention to insurance matters.

The Insurance Committee is made up of representatives from the following boards and agencies: 2, Board of Pensions; 2, Division of Health and Welfare; 2, Joint Committee on Disability; 2, Ordained Ministry; 1, Diaconal Ministry; 1, District Lay Leader; 1, Cabinet; Conference Treasurer and Director of Ministerial Relations. At the organizational meetings for these boards and agencies, the representatives should be elected.

The Insurance Committee is grateful to the members of the Annual Conference for the support it receives as the Committee strives to provide the best possible health and life insurance benefits for a reasonable cost.

Norwood Jones, Chairperson

LAY PERSON OF THE YEAR PRESENTATION

In my role as Conference Lay Leader for the past six years, I have recognized consistently that the NC Conference is well-known for laity who are outstanding in leadership for the Church at all levels. We have many dedicated and committed lay people, and we can be grateful for and applaud the acceptance of the call to discipleship.

Each year, following a program recommendation of the Board of Laity, our Conference implements the Lay Person of the Year recognition. Local churches are encouraged to name someone who through exemplary service represents well all the laity of the church. Each district is then asked to name its lay person of the years from among those selected by the local churches, and subsequently the conference lay person of the year is chosen from the district nominees. The entire sequential process recognizes lay leadership and service; but it also enables us to lift forward and emphasize what it means to be in christian discipleship, and it provides examples for others to follow. It is a significant program because it focuses our attention on what we can yet do, and at the same time it causes us to reflect on the dedication and commitment of those named.

We are proud to provide essential information about this year's district lay persons of the year and to call their names here this evening: (please stand)

Burlington - Elma L. Hawkins of Walnut Grove UMC, Durham - Fred Rivers of Allensville UMC in Person County, Elizabeth City - Juanita D. Staples of Trinity UMC in South Mills, Fayetteville - Kathryn G. (Kay) Bundy of Haymount UMC of Fayetteville, Goldsboro - Floyd R. Evans of Jefferson UMC in Goldsboro, Greenville - Sara Matlock Stocks of Hookerton UMC, New Bern - Georgia B. Wertman of Broad Creek UMC in Newport, Raleigh - Mildred P. Fry of Hayes Barton UMC in Raleigh, Rockingham - William Foster Jacobs of Sandy Plains UMC in Pembroke, Rocky Mount - Thelma B. Cooke of Nashville UMC, Sanford - Frances and Jimmy Roberts of Lemon Springs UMC, and Wilmington - Jeanne Rouse of Trinity UMC in Wilmington.

It is obvious that selecting the Conference Lay Person of the Year, especially from among these outstanding representatives, is not an easy task. During the years the selection has gone to lay men and lay women within the ethnic spectrum of our denomination, and last year we recognized Dr. Robert Frazier of Wilson in the Rocky Mount District. What an inspiration these lay persons are to all of us as they continue to be leaders for Christ and His Church!

We are proud now to name and recognize the 1988 NC Conference Lay Person of the Year, and in doing so, I want to take time to read from the district nomination form:

"The person selected as this District's Lay Person of the Year has never possessed great material wealth but he is rich in a deep and abiding faith and has truly lived as our Lord desires each of us to live - sacrificially.

At an early age, he became active in the life of the church and began to develop his leadership skills which he used effectively in later years as he served or chaired many committees in his local church. Whether serving as one of the custodians as he now does or chairing the Committee on Finance, he considers each equally important to the well-being of the church - no task seems too menial or too great for him.

Although coming face to face with personal tragedy, his faith never wavered. It only became stronger as he lived through the death of his wife, an older son and his oldest granddaughter in a tragic automobile accident which also critically injured two other sons. His trials and tribulations did not end there. One year later, he developed a serious heart problem which forced him into early retirement from his life's occupation - farming. But through it all and the later death of another son in an automobile accident, his Christian commitment and witness were evidence of his faith in the Lord.

The father of eight children, he raised them in a godly atmosphere, in a Christ-centered home. He led family devotions, Bible reading, prayer time and singing in the home. His children were taught to love God and were given a great appreciation of music. He and his entire family were at the church every time the doors opened.

A Certified Lay Speaker, he has helped with the ministry of several other small struggling Methodist Churches where leadership was sorely needed. He has, on several occasions, taught the Sunday School lesson, presided at the worship service and brought the morning message at his church - all three in one morning! On one occasion, his pastor was away and a visiting minister was to fill the pulpit. At the last minute, the visitor was unable to come and the congregation looked to him. Always ready to serve in a minute's notice, he opened his Bible and delivered an inspiring message. His commitment to the Lord reveals itself daily as he visits, evangelizes and comforts.

Over the past 37 years, this gentleman has served on many committees and the Administrative Board of Sandy Plains. He has served as Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, the Committee on Finance, Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, the Committee on Nominations and Personnel and the Cooperative Parish as well as being a member of the Education, Evangelism, Worship and Beautification Committees. In addition, he was the church lay leader for over a decade. He has done an outstanding job working with the youth and many he taught in Sunday School are now teaching themselves.

How many persons do we know who continually deny themselves to give to those less fortunate. Many give out of their abundance but this person gives sacrificially - not just occasionally but as a regular practice. Just one example - once when he was wearing a new pair of shoes, something he seldom had, he came in contact with a man who had no shoes and without a minute's delay he took off the shoes and gave them to the man less fortunate.

Often he stepped out on faith to give his children opportunities. When his youngest son asked for a piano, he replied, "Son, I will get you one if you will play in the church." More or less without funds, this disabled farmer stepped out on faith and made a down payment on a piano without knowing if he would have enough to finish paying for it. With very little money to provide for his family's needs, he trusted the Lord and when the time came for the final piano payment, he found in the mailbox his first disability check. He did not know until then that his disability had been approved. Still acting on faith, he used the money to pay for the piano. The buying of medicine for himself and other family necessities were pushed aside. This sacrifice impacted the mind of this son so much that he developed his musical talent and other related skills. Today, this son is a Diaconal Minister in the United Methodist Church and he serves as Director of Music at Prospect UMC, the largest Native American Church.

It is a blessing for the Sandy Plains Church and the Rockingham District to have the opportunity to place in nomination this servant of the Lord, Mr. William Foster Jacobs, for the 1988 Conference Lay Person of the Year."

Mr. Jacobs, we are pleased to name you our Conference Lay Person of the Year and invite you to come forward to receive a recognition plaque and a special lapel pin. Also, your name will be affixed to a permanent record in the lobby of the Methodist Building in Raleigh. Thank you for the example you set for all of us to follow!

ORDAINED MINISTRY, BOARD OF

Introduction: It is a pleasure to present to the NC Annual Conference the 1988 Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Following are recommendations of 29 persons to be elected probationary members and 23 to be ordained deacons; of 25 persons to be elected into full connection and ordained elders; and recommendations for many other persons covering a wide range of ministerial relationships. All those being recommended for membership and ordination have been examined by the Board, 1) on their call to ministry and the disciplines in their lives, 2) in preaching, 3) in worship, 4) in theology and doctrine. In so doing, we have endeavored to be earnest and exacting in expectation, to be fair and charitable in judgment, to be gracious in examination, to express joyful appreciation and commendation for work well done.

In preparing these recommendations the Board of Ordained Ministry has spent 12 days in meetings as a Full Board, and as many more days in meetings of various committees of the Board.

The duties of the Board of Ordained Ministry include:

- 1) to assume the primary responsibility for the enlistment of ordained clergy, with due regard for the inclusive nature of the Church. It shall guide those persons in the process of education, training, and ordination.
- 2) to examine all applicants as to their fitness for the ministry and election as a) local pastor; b) associate member; c) probationary member; d) full Conference member.
- 3) to interview and report recommendations concerning a) students to be appointed to attend school; b) candidates for ordination as deacon; c) candidates for ordination as elder.
- 4) to interview applicants and make recommendations concerning changes in ministerial relation: leaves of absence, retirement, sabbatical leave, disability leave, termination, less than full-time ministry, or readmission to the effective or full-time relation.
- 5) to provide support services for the ordained minister's career development, including personal and career counseling, continuing education, assistance in preparation for retirement, and matters pertaining to ministerial morals.

6) to provide a means of evaluating the effectiveness of ministers in the Annual Conference.

7) to interpret the high ethical standards of ministry set forth in the Discipline and to study matters pertaining to character.

8) to recommend to the full members of the Annual Conference for validation in special ministries for which members seek appointment.

9) to administer the portion of the Ministerial Education Fund for use by the Annual Conference.

The reports of the various committees of the Board of Ordained Ministry deserve the readers' perusal. The information provided reflects the diligent efforts of members of the Board and the cooperation of the Office of Ministerial Relations, the Reverend Kermit Braswell and Mrs. Troy Barrett, secretary.

Ordination: Ordination represents a moment of sacred trust, a confirmation of the call of an individual to ministry in the name of Jesus Christ. For the community of faith it is a sobering moment when we are aware of standing in a continuing tradition spanning two thousand years of Christian history, a tradition that takes us back to the River Jordan, and to the calling of the Master's Disciples. We, too, are witnesses to the resurrection faith and join the efforts of the early believers to share the inestimable blessing of Christian love through the proclamation of God's Word and the administration of the Sacraments. With reverence and a solemn sense of responsibility, we commend our report to the NC Annual Conference.

Nominations to the Joint Review Committee. (To be elected annually - ¶. 455.c, Book of Discipline.)

1) Superintendents - appointed by the Bishop: Samuel D. McMillan, Jr., Helen Crowell, Alternate - Randall Baker

2) To be nominated and elected by the Board of Ordained Ministry: Jack L. Hunter, Charles K. Moseley, Alternate - Mark W. Wethington.

3) To be nominated by the Bishop and Board of Ordained Ministry and elected by the Members in Full Connection: J. Edward Morrison, Bill Cottingham, Alternate - Ruth Harper.

Miscellaneous Requirements. The Board of Ordained Ministry would remind the Annual Conference and the ministerial candidates preparing for membership relationships to the NC Conference that several actions of past Annual Conference sessions have established requirements that go beyond the basic step found in The Book of Discipline.

FULL-TIME LOCAL PASTORS not holding the M. Div. degree must complete one of the following:

1) Local Pastors in progress or serving prior to 1988 must at least complete the five-year Course of Study.

2) For full-time local pastors, the Board recommended that ministers having completed the basic five-year Course of Study continue to attend the Course of Study School in the summer, enrolling in at least four years of Advanced Studies during any six-year period. These courses, offered on a seminary level, would increase the competency of our full-time local pastors (1980).

3) Complete the five-year Ministerial Course of Study and a minimum of sixty (60) semester hours toward the Bachelor of Arts or an equivalent degree in a college or university listed by the University Senate, or competency equivalence through an external degree program at a college or university listed by the University Senate (1988).

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP. The Board recommended that the academic requirement be raised to four-year baccalaureate degree (1974).

PROBATIONARY MEMBERSHIP. Each candidate must complete the following seminary level courses to be eligible for interview, effective June 1988:

- 1) A course in preaching that includes a practicum, laboratory, or field experience in the preparation, delivery, and evaluation of sermons.
- 2) A course in public worship that includes the theory and practice of planning and leading public worship.

FULL CONNECTION. The Board recommended that only those persons who had completed the M. Div. degree (or its equivalent) in seminary be elected to full membership (1975). Attention is called to the course requirements contained in ¶ 423.3c of the 1984 Book of Discipline. Candidates must complete these 3 separate and distinct courses prior to the interview: 1) United Methodist Polity, 2) United Methodist Theology and Doctrine, and 3) A History of Methodism.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

Process for Transfer Applicants: Although the Bishop has episcopal authority to complete the transfer of an applicant from another United Methodist Conference without Board or Cabinet approval, Bishop C. P. Minnick has requested that all transfer applicants meet with the Board for the Board's assessment and recommendation.

For applicants who are Probationary or Full Members of another Conference, the Bishop may request the applicant's Bishop to appoint her/him to the work of our Conference, as provided for in ¶ 425.1. In a subsequent year the transfer may be effected.

Persons applying for transfer must submit to several entry requirements: Service record, Full Board interviews, educational records, certificate of health, psychological testing, and authorization to request information from persons who know the applicant.

Transferees from other denominations will serve at least two years as full time local pastors and two years as probationary members before they are eligible for full membership. In the interim transferees will be required to complete courses in Methodist theology, history, and polity.

Pre-retirement Seminar: A joint Pre-retirement Seminar between the NC Conference and the Western NC Conference was held September 28 - 30 at Brown's Summit, NC. Several retirement issues such as pension, insurance, leisure, spirituality, goal-setting, physical health, service, and creativity were addressed.

The participants in the seminar unanimously endorsed the concept and recommended that subsequent Pre-retirement Seminars be held. Plans are currently underway to provide the Pre-retirement Seminar on a yearly or other regular basis.

Retirement Luncheon: Formerly, retiring ministers from our Conference were interviewed by the Board of Ordained Ministry just prior to their retirement at Annual Conference. In 1987, however, the format was changed to a luncheon followed by a session which dealt with retirement matters. Both retiring ministers and their spouses were invited to the luncheon. This format was strongly endorsed by the retirees, and those retiring at the 1988 Session of the Annual Conference were invited to a similar event, May 10, 1988.

CONTINUING EDUCATION, COMMITTEE ON

The Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry has the responsibility of developing continuing education programs that will enable ministers to fulfill the Disciplinary requirements. According to the 1984 Book of Discipline, ¶ 446.1, "Ministers shall be expected to continue their education throughout their careers, including carefully-developed personal programs of study augmented periodically by involvement in organized educational activities." The Discipline, ¶ 447, further states that, "in most cases a minister's continuing education program should allow for leaves of absences for study at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered as part of the minister's vacation and shall be planned in consultation with the charges or other agencies to which they are appointed, as well as the bishop, district superintendent, and Annual Conference Continuing Education Committee."

In providing the resources to enable pastors to meet the minimum requirement of the Discipline, the Committee on Continuing Education has edited a brochure that applies to all ministers of the NC Annual Conference. The brochure contains information defining continuing education, the role of the local church and how the pastor's continuing education can be financed. The brochure is printed as part of this report.

Continuing Education for Ministry in the NC Annual Conference:

Rationale: A prime expectation of every minister of the NC Annual Conference is professional growth. In recent years one of the major avenues through which such growth occurred has been continuing education. The General Conference of The United Methodist Church has recognized this by requiring annual participation in a continuing education program by each ordained minister seeking appointment. (1984 Discipline, ¶ 422.1c)

Definition: Continuing education is defined as an organized structured program of formal study under competent leadership with clearly defined goals and objectives. Here the key words are "organized," "competent leadership," and "clearly-defined goals and objectives." By this definition certain activities, though worthwhile, are not considered "continuing education," e.g. recreational programs, promotional meetings, worship services, entertainments, undirected reading and study travel (except for limited lecture, seminar or workshop time), and the like.

The Conference Program: The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, through the Committee on Continuing Education, performs three functions: 1) It sets minimum continuing education standards for ministry; 2) it establishes guidelines for continuing education; and 3) it seeks to insure their availability.

(1) Minimum Standards. The NC Conference has established as a minimum standard one Continuing Education Unit (CEU) to be earned by each minister from an approved continuing education program each year. One CEU is defined as ten contact hours of participation in an approved continuing education program.

(2) Guidelines for Continuing Education Programs. CEU's will be approved for those persons sponsored by organizations which are accredited by (a) a regional educational agency (such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools), (b) a professional accrediting agency (such as the American Medical Association) or (c) the Council on the Continuing Education Unit. It should also be noted that only those programs which relate directly to ministerial growth and development will be approved.

(3) Insuring Their Availability. Efforts by the Board of Ordained Ministry to insure the availability of continuing programs include encouraging conference-related and other colleges within the Conference bounds to offer courses for ministers, providing supplementary financial aid for ministers, publicizing approved programs, and identifying specific subject areas for needed programs.

Role of the Local Church: In addition to the minister, the local church has a significant stake in the success of continuing education programs. The local church, therefore, has an important role to play in continuing education. The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the local church:

(1) Confers with the pastor and the district superintendent in the development of a continuing education program which will enhance the total ministry of the church.

(2) Provides "leaves of absence for study at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium." Such leaves of absence are not to be considered vacation time. (1984 Discipline, ¶ 447)

(3) Recommends to the church's Finance Committee budgetary funds to be applied toward the minister's continuing education program.

In providing funds for continuing education programs the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee should insure that only those programs which meet both the definitions and specific guidelines above are funded.

Financial Aid to Ministers: Funding for continuing education is the combined responsibility of the participant, the congregation, the sponsoring institution and the Annual Conference. Conference funds for continuing education are derived as a portion of conference acceptances of the Ministerial Education Fund. Thus, it is not possible (nor is it desirable) for the Conference to assume a major responsibility.

All persons under episcopal appointment to charges, Conference staff positions, district superintendencies, and Conference-related agencies and institutions are eligible for grants from Conference funds provided:

(1) The program does not lead to advancement from one level of Conference relationship to another.

(2) The program meets the definitions and Conference guidelines described above.

(3) The applicant for a grant is filed on the appropriate form which furnishes complete information about the event and bears the signatures of the applicant, the Pastor-Parish chairperson, and the district superintendent.

In providing grants, the Conference will place limits as follows:

(1) The maximum grant to an individual applicant over one conference year is $300.00.

(2) For a one-week event $150.00 will be the maximum grant; for a two-week event, $300.00.

(3) The event must involve some definite measure of intensive study by the participant and offer at least one Continuing Education Unit.

(4) The Conference may fund no more than 75 percent of the cost of any continuing education event.

Monitoring Continuing Education Units:

(1) The district superintendent, in annual consultation, may suggest to the minister the area of continuing education he or she should take to facilitate his or her professional growth. The pastor's annual Continuing Education Report will be given to the district superintendent at the annual consultation.

(2) Ministers shall have the responsibility for securing from the institution granting continuing education credit a record of earned credit and providing a copy of this record to his or her district superintendent.

(3) The district superintendent will send the pastor's continuing education report to the Director of Ministerial Relations on an annual basis so that this report can be placed in the pastor's permanent file (and possibly on computer). This information will include course title and continuing education credits.

(4) It is the responsibility of each minister to determine, in consultation with the Committee on Continuing Education, if a proposed program meets the criteria prior to participation and funding.

EVALUATION AND MORALE, JOINT COMMITTEE ON

Residency in Ordained Ministry Program. This year saw the completion of the first class of probationers to participate in both phases of the now two-years-old Residency in Ordained Ministry Program implemented by our committee in 1986. Informal evaluation and comments of those completing the full program have indicated that we have a good program that is accomplishing the necessary counsel to Probationary Members required by ¶ 417.3 of the Discipline. The persons who have served as counseling elders in the Program are to be commended for their dedication and uniformly excellent work: The Reverends Tom Holtsclaw, Gray Southern, Hope Morgan Ward, Simeon F. Cummings, Bill Presnell, Steve Compton, Bob Wallace, Albert Shuler, and Larry Johnson.

Evaluation Process. Last year the Annual Conference repealed previous policy which limited the evaluation questionnaire to only three questions. Our committee met twice in August 1987 to develop a new and more objective tool for use by the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee. However, the Board at its September meeting voted not to have an evaluation instrument at all. The Cabinet elected then to use an instrument of their own devising in 1988. In an ever conscientious effort to provide the local church with adequate means to accomplish their Disciplinary responsibilities, the following time-line is recommended:

June - Pastor in a new appointment or reappointed at Annual Conference

August - Pastor-Parish Relations Committee meets to recommend pastoral/diaconal salaries for the coming year; to be set at the Charge Conference.

February - Pastor-Parish Relations Committee meets to make recommendations for pastoral leadership in the coming year. Possible recommendations are: 1) A vote to retain the present pastor; or 2) A vote to change pastors at Annual Conference; or 3) A vote to leave the decision to the discretion of the Bishop and the Cabinet.

April - Pastor-Parish Relations Committee meets to review and evaluate the charge's ministry.

May - Pastor-Parish Relations Committee meets in an introductory session with the proposed new pastor.

Morale Issues. The Board of Ordained Ministry recommends the following minimal standard regarding annual leave/reasonable vacation which is completely distinct from any other occasions in which the pastor is out of the parish, such as Continuing Education events, the Bishop's Seminar, Duke Convocation and Pastor's School, Annual Conference, etc.

We recommend a full month of annual leave as a way of recognizing that pastors are usually required to work on weekends and holidays, whereas most of their members have these days off in addition to their vacations. Additional vacation time should be commensurate with a pastor's experience and years of service in the Annual Conference, and negotiated by the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee.

Further, it should be a policy statement of each local church that full-time pastors to local churches take a minimum of one day off per week, as a day of rest, a personal day in which no ministerial functions are required or expected from the local church congregation, with the exception of an extreme crisis or emergency (for instance, the death of a member of the church). This time should be very carefully respected and guarded by the district superintendent and the congregation, for the benefit of the pastor. Our experience at an Annual Conference with clergy burnout shows that rest and recreation are an indispensable element of a whole and complete ministry.

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND, COMMITTEE ON

Ministerial Education Fund Assistance: The Ministerial Education Fund remains the major source of support for theological education in The United Methodist Church. When the local church remits the Ministerial Education Fund to the Conference treasurer, it is divided two ways. The larger portion (75%) is sent to the Division of Higher Education and Ministry in Nashville to be divided among the United Methodist seminaries for their operating expenses and for scholarship help to minority and special students. The remaining 25% portion is retained by the Board of Ordained Ministry in the NC Conference.

The Board of Ordained Ministry may use its funds to provide scholarship assistance or ministerial education, for continuing education, and for recruitment. However, the amounts of funds available during the past few years and the number of students seeking to prepare for ordained ministry have made necessary the use of almost all of the fund for scholarships for ministerial candidates.

Grants to students eligible for full scholarships were based on 40% of the actual educational cost (tuition and fees and an annual $500 book allowance). For students at Duke Divinity School this was $1,813 for full-time students (four courses) and $1,386 for student pastors (three courses) annually.

The need to continue our support of the Ministerial Education Fund at the present level, and to increase where possible, is borne out by these statistics of our present group of students preparing for ministry and the need to move further into continuing education opportunities for the ministers already in the field.

NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL

The Duke Convocation and North Carolina Pastors' School will be held October 31 through November 2 in 1988. We are most pleased to have James A. Sanders of Claremont as the Gray Lecturer and Douglas Adams of Pacific as the Hickman Lecturer. James David Barber of Duke will give the Keynote Address on "Religion and Presidential Politics." Two preaching professors from Duke, Carol Noren and Richard Lischer, will serve as Convocation Preachers. A full complement of seminars will be available to those who pre-register offering one CEU.

This event continues to grow in attendance each year and makes it necessary for those who wish to participate in seminars to send in their registration early. We are particularly delighted to see an increasing number of members of our Annual Conference present for this special annual gathering of pastors and encourage local churches to support their ministers' attendance.

The following nominations are presented for membership on the Board of Managers from the North Carolina Conference:

Class of 1990 - James E. Creech, Edith Lee Gleaves

Class of 1991 - Ernest R. Porter, H. Langill Watson

Class of 1992 - Carol W. Goehring, E. Powell Osteen, Jr.

PASTORAL CARE, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Pastoral Care administers a financial assistance program for Conference clergy and their families for confidential counseling and therapy. The annual allowance is $300 per family unit. Additional financial assistance is available through the Conference Blue Cross/Blue Shield insurance policy, which includes partial coverage for outpatient psychiatric care. Clients should check with the therapist and the Health Care Benefits for details.

Family includes dependents of the minister living in the minister's home, such as spouse, children, parents and grandparents. Children are eligible whether or not attending college or living at home through the age of twenty-two.

The qualifications for this financial assistance are:

1. The receiver of services must be a member of the North Carolina Conference, active or retired, or serving as a minister in a local church of the North Carolina Conference, or a dependent of such a person.
2. The counseling or therapy must be provided by someone who has one or more of the credentials listed below in this report, or by someone on the staff of one of the pastoral care centers, also listed below.

The financial assistance will be provided to cover up to one-half of the cost of each counseling session for which application is made until the full $300 annual allowance has been granted. Application for financial assistance must be made within one year from the date therapy was received.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

At the client's request, the counselor or therapist is to make application to the chairperson of the Committee on Pastoral Care for financial assistance to the client in the following manner:

1. The therapist requests application forms, a Conference Directory, and instructions from the chairperson of Pastoral Care.
2. The application is submitted by the therapist to the chairperson of Pastoral Care as directed on the application form. Clients will be identified by a case number only and never by name! The minister and/or dependents are assigned the same case number.
3. The therapist will receive financial assistance on behalf of the client to apply to the client's account or to refund the client as appropriate. Clients should request from the therapist a record or statement showing financial assistance received on their behalf. Should this procedure not be acceptable with the therapist because of her/his payment contract, the client should request the therapist to contact the chairperson of Pastoral Care to negotiate an acceptable procedure. It is the policy of the Pastoral Care Committee to not recommend particular agencies for clients. The following credentials are necessary for financial assistance, and the following agencies are approved and are some of the resources available:

CREDENTIALS

Providers of counseling and therapy who have one or more of the following credentials are eligible to apply for and receive financial assistance on behalf of clergy clients.

- Psychiatrists: American Medical Association (AMA) Board Certification, North Carolina license.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY ENRICHMENT

The committee on Pastoral Care encourages participation in marriage and family enrichment events. Grants of $50 per couple or family are available for up to two events per year. A schedule and/or outline of the events, leaders' names and credentials and verification of participation should accompany the application. Contact the chairperson of Pastoral Care for complete information and application form.

SUMMARY OF 1987

This past conference year the Pastoral Care committee has continued to search for new ways to offer counseling and therapy to clergy families. The committee has examined the process of application and payment to insure the confidentiality of each person for whom financial assistance is sought. Policy changes have broadened the possibilities for ministry and we hope enabled more comprehensive care.

Changes are as follows:

1. In the event of a separation of a clergyperson and spouse, $300 of financial assistance for counseling will be made available to each the husband and wife for a maximum to two years beginning at the time of separation. Children of separated or divorced clergy persons will continue to receive financial assistance even though they may not be residing in the parsonage.
2. Children will be considered a part of a clergy family through the age of twenty-two whether or not they are in college or living in the parsonage.
3. When clergypersons leave the conference affiliation, except in cases of transfer to other United Methodist Conferences or to other denominations, $300 of financial assistance for counseling will be made available to the family unit to aid their adjustment for a period of one conference year following the change in status.
4. Financial assistance will be made available to a surviving spouse as long as pension or insurance coverage continues or in other cases for a period of one additional conference year.

In 1987 the Pastoral Care Committee was billed $12,326.97. There were 445 sessions by counselors and therapists during that calendar year. The average number of sessions per client was eight. Financial application forms were processed for thirty-six clergypersons, eighteen spouses, five families, and five children. Sixty-four different client units made application for financial assistance through forty-four different counselors. Of those sixty-four units, sixteen (27%) received the maximum of $300 in financial assistance. The counselors' fees in 1987 averaged $56. The average amount of financial assistance paid per session was $21.

PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING AND EVALUATION, COMMITTEE ON

Psychological Testing and Evaluation is a psychological assessment program of the Board of Ordained Ministry. All persons seeking membership in the NC Conference are required to undergo Psychological Testing and Evaluation. It serves two basic purposes: Nurture and Selection. The nurture aspect is for the benefit of the candidate seeking Conference membership. The selection aspect is for the benefit of the Conference. Nurture is accomplished when the psychological assessment provides the candidate information pertinent to the achievement and maintenance of maximum psychological adjustment in professional ministry by identifying specific areas of potential problems and offering concrete suggestions to remedy them. Selection is accomplished when the assessment program provides early detection of unacceptable behavior patterns which could jeopardize effective ministry. For persons who transfer into our Conference from other denominations and for all probationers, the required tests are: Strong/Campbell (Interests), Theological School Inventory (Religious Interest), Personal Research Form (Values), Myers/Briggs Type Indicator (Personality), Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (Pathology), Clinical Analysis Questionnaire (Back-up to M.M.P.I.).

The tests required by those coming by transfer from other Methodist Conferences are: Personal Research Form (Values), Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (Pathology), Clinical Analysis Questionnaire (Back-up to M.M.P.I.).

The testing program uses personality, interest, religious interest, and values inventories to measure fitness and competency for ministry. Twenty-seven candidates have been tested this year under this program.

Currently our program for Psychological Testing and Evaluation has been designed for entry into our Conference either by transferees or those seeking probationary membership. The program has been highly successful and has gained credibility as it has been adapted each year to our particular Conference needs. Beginning with the 1988-89 Conference year, an added dimension of our testing and evaluation program will include those persons referred by the Cabinet in the course of the year. This will provide assistance to the Cabinet with persons whom they deem needful of updated psychological evaluations.

IX. Recommendations for additional service credit: NONE

Report B - Recommendations for the Pension Program

I. Past Service Liability

- A. Past service will continue to be paid on the defined benefit concept (per service year rate) for all service rendered to the North Carolina Conference through December 31, 1981. This plan will continue until all pastors with past service benefits and their surviving spouses are deceased.
- B. Goal of defined benefits (per service year rate) has been defined in the Book of Discipline for many years as 1% of the Conference Average Salary. The 1988 CAS for the North Carolina Conference is $23,123.00.
- C. The current rate is $240.00 per service year. Participation in the new Ministerial Pension Plan requires that an Annual Conference increase its past service rate as the Conference Average Salary increases, to at least 0.9% of the CAS to continue to participate fully in the new pension program. We propose that the past service rate beginning January 1, 1989 be increased to $254.00 per service year, and that further increases will be presented to the Annual Conferences of the future as the Conference Average Salary increases. This increase creates an unfunded liability of $22,464,269.
- D. To increase any past service rate will always involve accepting an unfunded liability that must be satisfied by either a single cash payment, a series of planned payments, or a combination of both.

I. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

Guidelines for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan are contained in the 1983 and 1984 Journals of the North Carolina Conference. Thus we call to your attention only those guidelines that are relevant to these programs.

- A. Service on and after January 1, 1982 will be funded on a new concept, called a defined contribution plan. This plan is basically deferred salary, and creates no unfunded liability because it builds an account of funds for a specific minister as his/her salary is paid.

B. Funding is based on a percentage of Plan Compensation. Plan Compensation is calculated as follows:

Take Cash Income (salary plus utilities) e.g.	$20,000.00
less 10% for utilities	2,000.00
	$18,000.00
Add Housing Allowance (20% of cash income)	3,600.00
Plan Compensation will be	$21,600.00

1. No travel funding is ever used in Plan Compensation calculations as this is considered by the General Board of Pensions to be an item of local expense.
 2. The utility allowance of the pastor is not considered by the General Board of Pensions to be more than 10% of the total Cash Income, regardless of the amount set at the Charge Conference.
 3. Clergy couples housing - Effective January 1, 1988:
 - a. When only one of the spouses is furnished a parsonage, the one furnished the parsonage includes the housing allowance.
 - b. When one spouse is furnished the parsonage and the other a cash allowance, the one furnished the parsonage will use the housing allowance, and the other will report the actual cash housing paid.
 - c. When two parsonages are furnished and both are used, each spouse claims a housing allowance.
 - d. When neither is furnished a parsonage, the actual cash housing allowance may be counted by the person/or persons receiving the allowance.
 4. The housing allowance for those furnished housing is 20% until January 1, 1990, when it increases to 25% in accordance with the Plan Document.
 5. Effective January 1, 1988, those furnished a cash housing allowance will report the actual amount in accordance with the Plan Document.
- C. The Ministerial Pension Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the Conference Treasurer for transmission to the General Board of Pensions.
- D. These contributions are placed in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship.
- E. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.
- F. We recommend that the following schedule of participation in the Ministerial Pension Plan be adopted and implemented to bring the North Carolina Conference participants into the intended structure of the Ministerial Pension Plan:

Year	Salaries and Utilities	MPP Percentage
1989	90%	11%
1990	90%	12%*

* Steps indicated/required in the Pension Plan Document

III. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

- A. This part of the program contains provisions for a death benefit, disability income, and funding for the peerage portion of the Ministerial Pension Plan. In addition to the provisions of a death benefit for the pastor, there is a death benefit on the life of the spouse. The Comprehensive Protection Plan also includes educational benefits for the children of a deceased minister. This part of the new plan is only available to those ministers covered under the CPP.

1. Death benefits provide 150% of the Denominational Average Compensation as the benefit paid on the death of an active minister through age 46, dropping on a graduated basis to 20% upon retirement at any age.
 2. Disability payments are based on 40% of the Denominational Average Compensation in effect at the time the minister is placed on disability.
 3. The peagee program provides for a contribution from the Comprehensive Protection Plan to the minister's Church Account of a sufficient amount to provide the minister with a total contribution for the year based on the Denominational Average Compensation at 11% of Plan Compensation based on the Denominational Average Compensation for those eligible.
 4. The Comprehensive Protection Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the Conference Treasurer for transmission to the General Board of Pensions.
- B. The cost of the Comprehensive Protection Plan is a 4.1% contribution of actual Plan Compensation. The pastor will be required to pay 1.0% of the 4.1% as provided in the Comprehensive Protection Plan, and the church or charge will pay the additional 3.1%. (Beginning on January 1, 1990, the CPP will be changed to 4.4% up to the Denominational Average Compensation to comply with the Plan Document. Churches will pay 3.4% and pastors 1%).

IV. Implementation of the Program

The benefit Program adopted by your Conference Board of Pensions seeks to provide a wider range of support for the minister's family through death benefits for every member of the family, disability income for the minister in time of great stress, educational benefits for children of deceased ministers, minimum annuity benefits for surviving spouses, and the build-up of contributions to the Church Account of these ministers whose compensation is below the Denominational Average Compensation.

- A. Costs of the Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan will be borne by the local charge as an item of ministerial support according to the Plan Compensation of the minister and the category of the charge.
- FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 14.1% of Plan Compensation
 STUDENT (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 11.0% of Plan Compensation
 LESS THAN FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 11.0% of Plan Compensation
- INTERIM OR RETIRED SUPPLY - no pension responsibility
- B. The pastor will make regular monthly payments to the Conference Treasurer for his/her portion (1%) of the Comprehensive Protection Plan.
- C. The pastor will make regular monthly payments to the General Board of Pensions for his/her Personal (3%).

V. MPP and CPP Payments Policy:

The churches and participants who send the MPP and CPP remittances promptly are to be commended. This is necessary for the program to function efficiently. There are some who are consistently delinquent in their payments. This delinquency could jeopardize the Ministerial Pension Plan and Comprehensive Protection Plan Programs. Rather than depriving any minister of these benefits, inexhaustible efforts are made with the minister and/or the Church or Charge Treasurer to collect the MPP and CPP Funds. These efforts consume an inordinate amount of staff time required by correspondence and telephone conversations. To help defray the cost of these additional efforts to collect these funds it is necessary to charge one and one-half per cent per month for any MPP or CPP funds that are as much as 30 days in arrears effective July 1, 1987.

VI. Policies Related to Life and Hospital Insurance

- A. Surviving spouses who are not covered under the minister's hospital insurance must request coverage within thirty (30) days after the death of the pastor to avoid the one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions.
1. When surviving spouses are employed and provided hospital insurance, the policy of the Board of Pensions will be the secondary carrier.
 2. If the surviving spouse remarries, the hospital insurance will terminate until the said surviving spouse attains age 65 or the dissolution of the marriage.
- B. Pastors Insurance (to become effective at the conclusion of the 1988 Session of the Annual Conference.)
1. Pastors who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with twenty or more years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will have their hospital and life insurance paid by the Conference Board of Pensions when the minister attains age 62, OR retires with thirty-seven (37) years of service, provided at least twenty of the thirty-seven (37) years of pension credit is in the North Carolina Annual Conference.
 2. Pastors who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with less than twenty years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will pay, when he/she attains age 62, or earns 37 years of pension credit, a portion of the premium by the following formula:

Years of Service Earned in NC Conference at Retirement Time	Payment by the Conference Board of Pensions	Payment by the Retired Ministers
18	90%	10%
17	85%	15%
16	80%	20%
15	75%	25%
14	70%	30%
13	65%	35%
12	60%	40%
11	55%	45%
10	50%	50%
9	45%	55%
8	40%	60%
7	35%	65%
6	30%	70%
5	25%	75%
4	20%	80%
2	10%	90%
1	5%	95%

3. Ministers not covered under medicare shall receive an amount equal to the premium of the medicare supplement paid to those covered under medicare. Payments will be prorated according to the schedule in VI B2.
4. When one member of a clergy couple retires, the insurance, medical and life, will be paid for the retired minister and dependent children according to the schedule in VI B2. The spouse who continues to serve will have his/her premium paid by the church at the individual rate.

VII. Dental Insurance

The Board of Pensions recommends that retired ministers covered under our Blue Cross supplement plan have dental insurance added. It is to be paid by the North Carolina Board of Pensions and to become effective July 1, 1987.

III. Special Provisions

The North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pensions for active participation in the MPP and/or CPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as active participants. (MPP Section 3.2 and CPP Section 3.2)

X. Conclusion

Our constant aim is to provide our retired families with their needs for an adequate income to purchase essentials for living as well as to insure adequate care in case of illness. To these ends our recommendations are directed, and their satisfaction is found in the acceptance of the North Carolina Conference and its membership.

Report C - Housing Exclusion Allowance

RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THIS CONFERENCE

Whereas, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and unctions through ministers of the gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

Whereas, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

Whereas, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

Whereas, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the North Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to desisgnate a housing/rental allowance for etired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

Whereas, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

Now therefore be it resolved:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister (including amounts received in this respect from the Duke Endowment), or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1988-1989 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of the United Methodist Church, who is or was a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability.
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

Report D - Ministers' Retirement Fund Constitution

THE PRINCIPLE OF THE FUND

The Ministers' Retirement Fund is established to assist the minister to more easily make the transition from the active relationship in which a furnished parsonage has been provided, to the retired relationship in which the minister provides his/her housing, by paying two lump sum benefits at the time of retirement. The fund is established by apportionments to each local church in the Outreach Ministries - Fair Share Apportionments and by assessments to each minister who has membership in the Fund. Since all churches contribute to this Fund, it is the desire of the Annual Conference that all ministers participate in the Fund. We do not interpret the churches' support of the Ministers' Retirement Fund as an additional benefit for their minister, but a benefit for all ministers of the Conference. Therefore, the only funds to which a minister can make personal claim are those which he/she contributed to the Fund. We vigorously emphasize that this Fund is for the minister's retirement, and not any kind of emergency fund to be made available for any other purpose.

The treasurer of the North Carolina Conference shall serve as treasurer of this Fund. He shall promote this work, receive reports from the district superintendents, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of collections and benefits paid. The treasurer shall obtain the names of all ministers retiring at each Annual Conference, who are eligible to receive the lump sum payment, and pay them promptly any benefits to which they are entitled. Retirement benefits are to be paid to each participating minister at the time of his/her retirement (either at the regular time or at the earlier optional time) or when that minister is placed on disability leave. Retirement or disability will terminate any further participation in the Fund by any minister.

ELIGIBILITY FOR MEMBERSHIP

Each ministerial member of the North Carolina Conference (associate, full, probationary or full time local pastor) who is serving full time in a charge or other work by episcopal appointment, and such work is contributing to the minister's United Methodist pension credit shall be eligible to join. In order to remain an active, participating member, the ministerial member or lay pastor must continue to serve full time in a charge or other work under episcopal appointment that contributes to the minister's United Methodist pension credit. Membership in this Fund is certainly in the minister's best interest, but it is not mandatory. The period of enrollment for all ministers is January 1-31 of each year, when full payment for previous year's service is made.

Ministerial members who transfer into the Conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the Fund in January of the year following the Annual Conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total remuneration for the seven months between June 1 and December 31 computed to a twelve months amount.

A full time local pastor may continue as a member of the Ministers' Retirement Fund only during the time he/she is serving under episcopal appointment and earning pension credit.

Each new member of the Fund shall file an application form. Upon filing of application for membership and paying the recommended assessment for one year, his/her membership becomes effective.

ASSESSMENTS

Funds shall be placed in the Conference budget annually equal to an amount of one percent (1%) of the total salaries and utilities paid to all pastors and associates of the Conference based upon the Conference Journal figures for the year preceding the year in which the budget request is made to the Annual Conference. This amount will be apportioned to charges on the same basis as all other Conference budget items. Each minister in a pastoral appointment shall pay into the Fund one percent (1%) of all money excluding travel he/she receives each year from the charge or charges he/she is serving and/or Conference sources (this includes salary, utility allowances, Equitable Salary Fund payments, Duke Endowment Funds, and missionary sources).

The Council on Finance and Administration shall make provision for payment equal to one percent (1%) of salary usually paid by the charge for district superintendents and ministers employed by the Council on Ministries. District superintendents and Council on Ministries ministerial employees shall pay one percent (1%) of their income designated as salary and utilities.

All other ministers who participate in the Fund shall pay a sum equivalent to two percent (2%) of their annual salary and utility allowances.

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF PAYMENTS

The fiscal year of the Ministers' Retirement Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. Each member of the Fund shall submit the required payment no later than January 31 of each year. No later than December 1 of each year, the Conference treasurer shall notify all members that this payment is due. Payments made after January 31 will be credited to the minister's account for the following year. If he/she has been a member less than ten (10) years this delayed payment extends the period prior to dividend payments for one year. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he/she will collect no dividends for the year of delayed payment.

BASE BENEFITS

Base benefits shall be paid to retired members of the Retirement Fund as follows:

If retired at the end of one year of membership	$200.00
If retired at the end of two years of membership	300.00
If retired at the end of three years of membership	400.00
If retired at the end of four years of membership	500.00
If retired at the end of five years of membership	600.00
If retired at the end of six years of membership	700.00
If retired at the end of seven years of membership	800.00
If retired at the end of eight years of membership	900.00
If retired at the end of nine years of membership	1,000.00
If retired at the end of ten years of membership	1,100.00
If retired at the end of eleven years of membership	1,200.00
If retired at the end of twelve years of membership	1,300.00
If retired at the end of thirteen years of membership	1,400.00

If retired at the end of fourteen years of membership	1,500.00
If retired at the end of fifteen years of membership	1,600.00
If retired at the end of sixteen years of membership	1,700.00
If retired at the end of seventeen years of membership	1,800.00
If retired at the end of eighteen years of membership	1,900.00
If retired at the end of nineteen years of membership	2,000.00
If retired at the end of twenty years of membership	2,100.00
If retired at the end of twenty-one years of membership	2,200.00
If retired at the end of twenty-two years of membership	2,300.00
If retired at the end of twenty-three years of membership	2,400.00
If retired at the end of twenty-four years of membership	2,500.00
If retired at the end of twenty-five years of membership	2,600.00

After ten years of membership, a member is eligible to receive dividends credited to his/her account and payable in addition to the base benefit upon retirement.

DIVIDENDS

Any funds remaining after retirement benefits have been paid to eligible members retiring at the Annual Conference shall be divided into equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for ten years or longer and are not in arrears for the previous year(s).

DEATH BENEFITS

When a participating member of the Fund dies, the treasurer shall pay to his/her named beneficiary or beneficiaries designated, otherwise pay to his/her estate, the full amount of the basic benefit payments plus the dividends added to his/her account. In the event that a minister dies prior to the time that dividends are earned, the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated, or otherwise the estate, shall receive the full amount of the basic benefit payments plus the principal amount contributed by the participating member. In no case would the beneficiary/beneficiaries or estate receive less at the time of the minister's death than the member's contributions plus passbook interest.

Each member shall provide the Conference treasurer and the Board of Pensions a statement, naming the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom these funds are to be paid in the event of death before retirement.

PAYMENT OF RETIREMENT BENEFITS

At retirement, members who have accrued the same years credit in the Fund (during the same years) will receive exactly the same benefit regardless of their total individual contributions.

A minister who retires with less than ten (10) years credit in the Fund will be paid immediately following the session of the Annual Conference at which time he/she retires, the total amount as prescribed by the formula for retired members. A minister with ten (10) or more years credit in the Fund shall be paid in two payments, an amount equal to the total dividend accrued plus the base payment for the years of membership. The first payment shall be the amount on which the member has paid taxes and the second payment shall be for the balance in the member's account. The remainder of the amount accrued to the minister's credit shall be paid to him/her in a lump sum between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister retires. This amount will draw simple interest from June 1 to December 31 computed at the current bank passbook interest rate paid by a bank located in the city of Raleigh (the "passbook rate") in effect on December 15 prior to the January payment. The total January payment should be reported as ordinary income for income tax purposes. In no case would the member receive less at retirement than the member's contributions plus passbook interest.

DISABILITY LEAVE

A minister who is approved for and placed on disability leave may elect to receive payment of benefits under one of the following options:

- I. The same as a retiring minister.
- II. The same as a transferring member.
- III. Remain as an active member and pay two percent (2%) of the disability pay received from all sources.
- IV. Receive all benefits within ten (10) days following the determination of disability status by the Conference Joint Committee on Disability.

The minister shall notify the Conference treasurer in writing of his/her choice of option within ten (10) days following the adjournment of Annual Conference or declaration of disability leave. In no case would the member receive less than the member's contributions plus passbook interest.

MEMBERSHIP TRANSFERRING

Any ministerial member who leaves the North Carolina Conference by transfer to another annual conference of The United Methodist Church will not make any further payment to the Fund. He/she may leave his/her holdings (including dividends, if any) in the Fund until retirement. If this is done, the retirement benefit will be computed as of the date of transfer from the North Carolina Conference with passbook interest added from that date to the date of retirement. If the funds are held, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he/she may reinstate his/her payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of transfer back into this Conference.

PENALTIES

If any member of the Fund fails to contribute his/her required contribution for three consecutive years, he/she shall be required to withdraw from membership in the Fund.

WITHDRAWING FROM THE FUND

If a member desires to withdraw from the Fund prior to retirement, upon a written request to the Conference treasurer and the Board of Pensions, he/she shall receive an amount equal to the amount he/she has paid into the Fund, plus the simple interest computed at the "passbook rate" which was in effect each year he/she was participating in the Fund, and terminate his/her membership in the Fund.

Each member whose membership is terminated in the Fund in any way will provide the Conference treasurer with a statement indicating that he/she has received funds for which he/she is eligible, and that he/she is no longer a member of the Fund. Any minister leaving the North Carolina Conference to join another denomination will be required to withdraw from the Fund and payment will be made to the minister according to the above formula.

REINSTATEMENT

A member who has withdrawn from the Fund may not be reinstated, but is required to begin anew as though he/she were a new member. A minister shall not be permitted to join the Ministers' Retirement Fund more than two (2) times during his/her ministerial career.

NEW RULES AND CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

At the time these rules and guidelines are adopted, all previous legislation regulating this Fund shall be null and void.

POLICY PROCEDURES FOR PASTORAL SUPPORT FOR PROPOSED NEW CONGREGATIONS IN THE NC ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Organizing a new congregation involves a number of agencies, such as the Bishop and the Cabinet, the Council on Finance and Administration, District Missionary Societies where organized, and the Conference Board of Missions. Since there is need to coordinate between all these agencies, the Board of Missions of the NC Conference has developed the following procedure for providing funding support for proposed new congregations:

The Board of Missions has responsibility for two budgets. One is the Board of Missions' line item budget. The money in this budget goes to a variety of causes which have traditionally been supported by the Annual Conference through the Board of Missions. Appropriations from this budget are not available, therefore, for salary support because they are committed to these other worthy programs.

The second budget item is the money appropriated for new congregations for salary support. Any increase in this fund must come from the CFA as a normal request annually, or as a supplemental request. If the supplemental request is not made or it is denied, then there will be no funds available for new projects except as it becomes available when present recipients reduce their needs and free funds for those newer congregations. Each established congregation is expected to reduce their grant request by 20% of the initial grant each subsequent year until they are self-supporting at the end of the fifth year.

The Board of Missions will ask the Bishop and the Cabinet to identify and prioritize proposed new congregations by January of each year. Funding for these projects cannot be funded because there is not money available, those situations receiving salary support will be dependent on the prioritized list from the Cabinet.

Only in extraordinary circumstances will funding be available after the Church Extension Committee and the Board of Missions determine what projects can be funded in a particular year based on the funds available. It is possible in extraordinary circumstances to go before the Council on Finance and Administration for a special appropriation.

It needs to be understood that in those situations where a supplementary request is necessary, the district superintendent will be expected to go with the president of the Board of Missions and the chairman of the Church Extension Committee and such other persons as are deemed advisable to make a presentation to the Council on Finance and Administration. If in their wisdom, the Council on Finance and Administration does not grant the special appropriation, then the project will have to be delayed until funds are available through the normal Church Extension Salary Fund.

By the first Wednesday in February of each year the treasurer of the NC Conference will be expected to inform the Church Extension Committee of the Board of Missions of the amount of money available for the ensuing Conference year for new salary support. On or before the 15th of February, the Board of Missions, receiving the report from the Church Extension Committee, will make salary grant requests according to the priority list of the Cabinet and inform the Cabinet of which projects can be funded from funds available.

New congregations organized will be expected to reduce their Board of Missions salary supplements by 20% of the initial grant each year until they have assumed full salary support. As new churches reduce the supplement, monies then are available to organize other new congregations.

RESOLUTIONS

RESOLUTION CONCERNING ROBESON COUNTY

WHEREAS Timothy Jacobs and Eddie Hatcher took over the Robesonian newspaper on February 1, 1988, in order to draw national attention to possible corruption in the judicial system and county government of Robeson County;

WHEREAS Timothy Jacobs and Eddie Hatcher have been moved several times since their incarceration and are now in the Craven County jail without bail;

WHEREAS Julian Pearce was killed just a few days after the filing date when another ethnic minority person could have filed to run for the judgeship for which Pearce was running and in which he received more votes than anyone else, even though he had been killed by the time of the election;

WHEREAS there have been fifteen deaths in Robeson County since the overtaking of the Robesonian newspaper by Timothy Jacobs and Eddie Hatcher and that at least some of those persons who have died had information concerning the possible corruption in Robeson County;

WHEREAS Billy McKellar died in the Robeson County jail from an asthma attack because he was not given the proper medication;

BE IT RESOLVED that the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, representing approximately 217,000 United Methodists, declare our support of the intentions of Timothy Jacobs and Eddie Hatcher, although we must disapprove of their methods of achieving their goal, and request that they have the opportunity to be released on bail;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church request that a special prosecutor be appointed and that a Congressional investigation be conducted in the judicial system and the county government of Robeson County.

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTIONAL COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

It is a distinct privilege for me to be able to report to you on the ministry of the SEJ Conference Council on Ministries. In 1987, the Council and its related Commissions, Agencies, and Associations planned and implemented 89 conferences, seminars, and workshops involving more than 13,000 persons. Most of these persons represent the lay and clergy leadership of the seventeen annual conferences of the jurisdiction. Through these events we are truly "Equipping the Whole People of God for Ministry," and that is our theme for 1989.

But before we get to 1989, let me tell you about our exciting plans for 1988 under the theme "Mission for God." (You can read about these plans in detail in the May issue of the SEJ United Methodist). We have nine (9) youth events planned, one of which is to be held at Gulfside Assembly. This is the first such event we have planned for Gulfside and the people in the southwestern sector of the jurisdiction.

- There is an exciting Music Week program, - a United Methodist Men's Retreat/Boy Scout Encampment, - a Lay Witness Celebration, - a Challenging Mission Conference with special foci on Youth-In-Missions, Volunteers-In-Missions, and Town and Country Ministry, - Vacation Retreats for Retarded Persons, - a great Conference of Ministry is planned in conjunction with the Leader Development Center, - the Higher Education focus is on Wesley Foundations, the SEJ Historical Society is meeting, - then, there is the popular Prayer and Bible Conference, the spirit-filled SEJ Laity Conference, - followed by the Great Smoky Mountain Camp Meeting and Week of Evangelism, - then, there is the Church and Society Conference, the Stewardship Workshop, the Conference on Older Adult Ministries, and - the SEJ United Methodist Association of Church Business Administrators.

This is just a part, a large part, of our summer ministry of leader development and personal and communal inspiration and growth at Lake Junaluska Assembly. I hope you catch the spirit of excitement that I feel about this ministry. I want you to be a part of it, too.

In addition to the excitement of the job there is hard work - planning, organizing, searching for money, seeking dynamic leadership, and traveling. I want to focus my final few minutes on several issues that are critical to our ministry.

First, I want to encourage you and this Annual Conference to support in full the Jurisdictional Administration Fund. This is a small item in your budget, but it is our lifeblood for ministry in your behalf.

Second, I want to encourage you to support the proposed Missional Growth Fund which is being presented by the Commission on Finance and Administration to the 1988 Jurisdictional Conference. This fund dramatically broadens the program, providing funding in the jurisdiction to include crucial mission agencies and programs such as Hintor, Rural Life Center, Gulfside Assembly, SEMAR, Communications, Ethnic Minority Scholarships, Native American Ministries, Asian American programs, the Intentional Growth Center, as well as our beloved Lake Junaluska Assembly. This fund truly represents ministry for every United Methodist in the SEJ - all for the same low price as the present Junaluska Advancement Fund!

Finally, I want to say a word in support of the proposed structure for the SEJ Administrative Council. I am not a member of the committee proposing this change, but I have been invited to consult with them. Their proposal affords the best avenue to consolidate the administrative functions in the jurisdiction. The proposal unifies the organization and administration of all entities of the jurisdiction in a balanced, efficient, and functional manner. I appeal to the delegates to the 1988 Jurisdictional Conference to support this proposal.

On behalf of my gifted and dedicated staff colleagues - Dr. Israel Rucker, Dr. Robert Pitzer, Dr. David Abernathy, Dr. Mark Rouch, Mrs. Frances Hart, Mr. Barry Rogers, the Reverend Millsaps Dye, Mrs. Jeanne Page, Ms. Alice Weldon Perry, and the staff of Lake Junaluska Assembly, I want to thank you for your support and prayers.

Again, it is a joy to be with you. May God bless you in your ministry of love and grace in the Name of Jesus, our Risen Christ and Savior. Amen.

Reginald W. Ponder, Executive Secretary

(Ponder distributed a "Statement to the Annual Conferences of the SEJ Pertaining to Proposed Jurisdictional Structure" and also presented a brief report about physical improvements of facilities at the Lake Junaluska Assembly.)

STATEMENT OF COVENANT RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH AND TRUSTEES OF HEALTH AND WELFARE INSTITUTIONS

The 1984 General Conference required each Annual Conference and health and welfare institutions related to it to develop statements describing those relationships (§ 730.4(23) of the Book of Discipline.) These statements are to be reviewed annually. The Board of Health and Welfare Ministries offers these statements as the beginning of that process.

The Methodist Home for Children, Inc.

Two central values have driven this ministry through the years.

1. God in Jesus Christ proclaims that every human being is of infinite value in His sight; and therefore, those who know God respect the value of every person.
2. It is the plan of God's creation that human life come forth and receive nurture in families.

Out of these values our mission as set forth by the Board of Trustees.

MISSION

The Methodist Home for Children, Inc., a not for profit corporation, chartered by the State of North Carolina and related by faith to the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, provides Christian nurture to families through community-based residential services for children and youth, family life education and counseling, and child and family advocacy programs, to the end that the worth of the individual shall be affirmed, families shall be assured, and God shall be served in our time.

The North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church agrees to:

1. nominate and elect the trustees of The Methodist Home for Children, Inc. in keeping with the by-laws and charters of the institution;
2. continue to provide benevolent support to the institution through channels, such as Thanksgiving season emphasis, and Outreach Ministries/Fair Share;
3. permit the institution to use elements of the name and logo of The United Methodist Church and/or the Conference, including a reference to the affiliation relationship;
4. cooperate with the institution in furthering the promotion and interpretation of the institution's mission and program;
5. communicate with the institute any changes in the rules and actions of the Annual Conference and of the General Conference which may affect the institution;
6. make available resources to assist the institution in the fair consideration of requests for Conference-wide funding in keeping with the policies of the Council on Finance and Administration and in offering United Methodist Foundation assistance with gifts, wills, and trusts;
7. review the covenant relationship with the institution each year;
8. receive an annual audited financial report from the institution;
9. maintain for its own benefit liability insurance against direct human service liability.

The Methodist Home for Children, Inc. agrees to:

1. continue its tradition of offering quality services to children, youth, and families, to develop innovative concepts to help with their changing needs with guidance from the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church;
2. submit an annual audited financial report to the Annual Conference;
3. advise the Annual Conference of any major changes in program or direction;
4. follow guidelines of the Council on Finance and Administration of the North Carolina Annual Conference in matters of funding;
5. maintain membership in the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries;
6. furnish copies to the Annual Conference of the institution's certificate of incorporation, articles, and by-laws, including any amendments to the same;
7. secure the approval of the North Carolina Annual Conference for any changes in the dissolution clauses contained in the certificate of incorporation;
8. review annually the covenant relationship statement;
9. furnish annual report of the operations of the institution to the Annual Conference;
10. relate to the Annual Conference through the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries;
11. maintain for its own benefit liability insurance against direct human service liability.

The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

The ministry of healing, caring, and compassionate concern for all persons has been and continues to be a vital function of the Church. The history of the Church is marked by a vision of the "whole person," including the spiritual, mental, and physical well-being of the individual. The healing and helping ministry was an important part of Jesus' mission on earth. As the Church, the Body of Christ, we can do no less today.

Matthew 4:23 records, "And he went about all Galilee...healing every disease and every infirmity among the people." The North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church holds in common with The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. a desire to be in such a ministry. Together we strive to assure that older persons may lead wholesome and satisfying lives within a setting that provides a measure of security, fellowship, and companionship. To these ends, we commit ourselves.

MISSION

The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. is a not for profit corporation chartered by the State of North Carolina on January 24, 1946, and related in faith to the North Carolina Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church. We affirm the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.

It is our mission to serve United Methodists in the North Carolina Conference and others who desire to live within a Christian retirement community and to extend support services beyond our campuses to ensure to the aging the respect and dignity that is their right as senior members of the human community.

It is our intent to provide benevolent assistance to those United Methodists who have need, with special reference to those who have rendered exemplary service to the church and community, provided that such can be granted without impairing the ability of the Corporation to operate on a sound financial basis.

The North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church agrees to:

1. nominate and elect the trustees of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. (hereafter called "the institution") in keeping with the by-laws and charters of the institution;
2. continue to provide benevolent support to the institutions through channels, such as Mother's Day observance, Thanksgiving season emphasis, and Outreach Ministries/Fair Share;
3. permit the institutions to use elements of the name and logo of The United Methodist Church and/or the Conference, including a reference to the affiliation relationship;
4. cooperate with the institutions in furthering the promotion and interpretation of the institutions' mission and program;
5. communicate with the institution any changes in the rules and actions of the Annual Conference and of the General Conference which may affect the institution.
6. make available resources to assist the institution in the fair consideration of requests for Conference-wide funding in keeping with the policies of the Council on Finance and Administration and in offering United Methodist Foundation assistance with gifts, wills, and trusts;
7. review the covenant relationship with the institutions each year;
8. receive an annual audited financial report from the institutions.

The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. agree to:

1. continue their traditions of offering quality service to their clientele, to develop innovative concepts to help with the changing needs, and to be consistent with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church;
2. submit an annual audited financial report to the Annual Conference;

3. advise the Annual Conference of any major changes in program or direction;
4. follow guidelines of the Council on Finance and Administration of the North Carolina Annual Conference in matters of funding;
5. maintain membership in the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries;
6. furnish copies to the Annual Conference of the institution's certificate of incorporation, articles, and by-laws, including any amendments to the same;
7. secure the approval of the North Carolina Annual Conference for any changes in the dissolution clauses contained in the certificates contained in the certificates of incorporation.
8. review annually the covenant relationship statement;
9. furnish annual report of the operations of the institutions to the Annual Conference;
10. relate to the Annual Conference through the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries.

TRUSTEES, CONFERENCE BOARD OF

The Conference Board of Trustees was directed by the 1987 session of the Annual Conference to study the feasibility of relocating the Administrative Headquarters of the Conference. After careful study, the Board has unanimously adopted the following recommendations to the Annual Conference:

1. That the administrative offices remain in Raleigh.
2. That the administrative offices be renovated over a 10 year period with income generated from rental or other receipts.

Following Annual Conference in 1987, the Board appointed an Advisory Committee to study this issue and formulate recommendations. The report of the Committee is included for your review.

Myron C. Banks, Chairperson

Report from the Board of Trustee Advisory Committee (March 9, 1988)

SUMMARY OF ACTIVITIES

At the 1987 session of the Annual Conference, the Board of Trustees was directed to "study the possibility/feasibility of selling the Methodist Building and relocating and constructing a new Conference Headquarters on one of the campuses of our four-year colleges or other appropriate location(s). Report back to the 1988 Annual Conference. To be funded by CFA." Following Annual Conference, the Board in consultation with Bishop Minnick, appointed an Advisory Committee to study the issue and make recommendations to the Board. The Board was invited to attend all meetings of the Advisory Committee and many Board members were able to participate.

The committee has met with community leaders in Fayetteville, Rocky Mount, and Raleigh at the invitation of the leadership in these communities. The committee also heard presentations from Methodist and Wesleyan Colleges. Letters were received and considered, and other interested persons were heard.

After hearing from all who had expressed an interest, the Committee in consultation with the Board directed that an MAI appraisal of the property and a "Study of the Administrative Facility" be prepared. At an earlier meeting, the Committee had requested that a study of the demographics of United Methodists in our Conference be conducted. These studies were completed and were considered in formulating our recommendations.

OPTIONS CONSIDERED

After consideration of the many options available to the Conference, the Committee decided to study in detail the program and fiscal consequences of the following options:

- A. Remain in the existing facility with no renovations (results in an annual estimated excess of $25,800 revenues over expenditures.)
- B. Lease the entire existing building and build a new facility on the adjacent property (results in an annual estimated deficit of $157,400 for 30 years.)
- C. Sell the existing property and build a new facility on the adjacent property (results in an annual estimated deficit of $29,700.)
- D. Sell the existing property and construct a new facility in Fayetteville or Rocky Mount (results in an annual estimated deficit of $21,700).
- E. Remain in the existing facility and renovate over some period of time with financing from the rental receipts (rental and other receipts not used for repair and maintenance are used for renovations with no increase in funds requested from the Annual Conference.)

Note: The same need for space for the administrative offices of the Annual Conference was used for options B through D above. The fiscal results can be changed by reducing the stated need for space.

FINDINGS

It was the opinion of the committee that the factors listed below are important to the formulation of a recommendation. These factors are not listed in priority order.

Options A and E above could be accomplished without an increase in Outreach Ministries Fair Share apportionment.

The value of the current property is expected to appreciate during the next 10 years. The need for additional space for Conference administrative and program operations is important but not more important than the need for church extension and camping ministries. Since these two funding requests are before the Annual Conference at this time, the committee felt the need to remain within existing space limitations, while still recognizing the long-range need for expansion.

Location factors:

- (1) The population center in the 56 counties of the North Carolina Annual Conference is near the Wake County/Johnston County line.
- (2) The population center of United Methodists in the North Carolina Annual Conference is in Wake County.
- (3) The geographic center of United Methodist Churches in the North Carolina Annual Conference is in Johnston County.
- (4) The geographic center in the 56 counties of the North Carolina Annual Conference is in Wayne County.
- (5) The headquarters of the North Carolina Council of Churches and several other denominations is in Raleigh. Raleigh is the capital of the state and since many government leaders are not aware of the two United Methodist Conferences in the state, they call on the North Carolina Conference Bishop and staff for comment on state matters that relate to the church.
- (6) The communities of Fayetteville, Raleigh, and Rocky Mount made impressive presentations concerning the quality of life in their respective communities.
- (7) The Raleigh presentation emphasized progress made in human services, education, and opportunities for women and minorities.
- (8) Access to air travel was considered superior in Raleigh.

Telephone communications for computers through the Southern Bell central office were also considered superior.

All of the Conference Treasurer's staff and most (possibly all) of the Conference Council on Ministries support staff would not be able to relocate to Fayetteville or Rocky Mount. This represents several decades worth of experience in the administrative and programming aspects of the Annual Conference operations.

Bishop Minnick has reported that a move of the Episcopal Office would not be possible during the next quadrennium. The authority to move the Raleigh Area office of the Bishop rests with the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

The rental market in Raleigh is currently overbuilt but is expected to improve. Even though our building is older than others, the desirable location makes it possible to lease the space but at a reduced rate.

There is asbestos in the ceiling tiles of the Methodist Building that must be removed under any option considered at a cost of approximately $365,000. If the building is sold it will be reduced in value by the cost of asbestos removal.

Members of the committee expressed concern about locating the Administrative offices on the campus of one of the colleges that the Conference supports. It was noted that such a move might have inequitable effects on the colleges.

If the administrative offices should be relocated from Raleigh, the 1.5 acres recently donated to the Conference by the Methodist Home for Children should be deeded back to the Home for Children. No appraisal of the value of this property was conducted. It was also thought that the 1.5 acres might not be sufficient to build a new administrative headquarters if all of the current property were sold.

- K. Currently, the rental income pays for the utilities and maintenance in the Methodist Building.

RECOMMENDATIONS

After due consideration of the factors listed above, the committee has adopted two recommendations for the Board of Trustees. They are:

1. That the administrative offices remain in Raleigh.
2. That the administrative offices be renovated over a 10 year period with income generated from rental or other receipts.

Our vote was unanimous on both recommendations.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

The United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was chartered in 1955 to serve as an investment pool and trustee for any agency of The Conference when requested. The foundation also, from time to time receives gifts and bequests on behalf of individuals or organizations, and acts as trustee according to the wishes of the donor. As of December 31, 1987 the Methodist Foundation, Inc. completed its 33rd year of service to the NC Conference.

This past year's operation again reflects a most favorable performance. Net dividends paid to unit holders was $1,376,450.00 an increase of $88,329.00 over the previous year. This was a 6.8% increase over 1986. Total net assets at year's end had a market value of $23,677,519.00; an increase of $6,528,967.00. This increase was from two sources;

The large decline in the Stock Market on October 19, 1987 had its effect on some of the investments of the Methodist Foundation, Inc. We had a decline of $912,618.00 in unrealized appreciation of our Portfolio. It is worth noting that there was no negative impact in terms of current income levels, and for the year our total return was 4.8% on our Fixed Income and Equity Segments of our investments. This is within the guidelines established by the Investment Committee.

The Board of Pensions and the Ministers' Retirement Fund held 79.5% of the units of the Methodist Foundation, Inc. with a year end value of $14,581,715.00. First Union National Bank continues to manage the investment portfolio excluding Mortgage Loans. First Citizens Mortgage Company (formerly Stockton, White and Co.) advises the Investment Committee on Mortgage Loans.

The unqualified audit by McGladrey, Hendrickson & Pullen for the year ending December 31, 1987 is on file in the Conference Treasurer's office for review by any member of this Conference.

The Reverend Douglas Byrd was appointed to the office of Planned Giving of the Foundation in October 1985. Since that time we have seen remarkable growth in our Foundation.

We have seen the investment portfolio grow from $15.7 million to $24.6 million, an increase of 57%. We have seen the number of accounts nearly double from 43 on January 1, 1986 to 79 on April 1, 1988.

We are deeply grateful for the contribution Douglas is making to the stewardship program of this Conference through the United Methodist Foundation. I would like to recognize Douglas at this time for a brief statement.

As you have heard from Douglas, and from this report the United Methodist Foundation is providing outstanding stewardship services to individuals, churches and agencies of this Conference. The Methodist Foundation has grown to a strong position as an investment pool and trustee for agencies of this Conference. I am confident that the Foundation will continue to provide the Conference with a sound investment policy, because of the strong foundation and the dedication to sound business investment decisions that are being made by the Investment Committee and the members of the Methodist Foundation.

Thomas E. Chandler, President

PLANNED GIVING, OFFICE OF

Since June 1987 over two million dollars ($2,000,000) in gifts, gift plans, and investments have been received through the Office of Planned Giving of the United Methodist Foundation to benefit United Methodist churches and causes of the Church. Fifteen permanent endowment funds have been created benefitting special local church ministries, institutions of the Church, church cemetery maintenance, college scholarships, camping scholarships, and scholarships to benefit children of low income families attending day care programs. Additional contributions were received by ten existing endowments.

Eight donors established significant gifts through Life Plan, a new gift plan of the Foundation using the media of life insurance. Other gifts received consisted of two charitable remainder unitrusts, a gift fund, and several direct gifts.

Eight new investment accounts were established by local churches and institutions of the Church, and seven investors made additional investments in existing accounts.

Twenty-five current Foundation files contain information provided by persons who have included United Methodist churches, institutions, and causes in their will. (None of these bequests were included in the $2,000,000 figure above.)

Fifty-three events were held in local churches and charges throughout the Conference. These consisted of gifts and wills workshops, stewardship sermons preached, special presentations on planned giving, and planning events with local church leadership. Leadership was provided for five district events.

Each year finds this special stewardship ministry of the Foundation moving toward the goal of self-funding. Through 1986 100% funding for the Office of Planned Giving came from the Conference. By request of the Foundation this was reduced to 91% in 1987 and to 85% in 1988. Projections call for continued reductions each year in funding from the Conference as self-funding sources are developed.

The Foundation continues to offer to local churches, Conference institutions, and other ministries of the Church its professional investment services at very modest cost. Professional assistance, such as provided the donors of gifts earlier indicated, is available without cost through the Foundation office.

The United Methodist Foundation is pleased to provide these stewardship services and invites individuals, churches, and institutions to call or write for information, consultation and assistance.

Douglas L. Byrd, Executive Director

UNITED METHODIST MEN

The focus of North Carolina's United Methodist Men remains fixed upon Jesus Christ. Our continued and dramatic growth is directly proportional to our desire to serve Him as the spiritual arm of The United Methodist Church. Our purpose, as a Conference organization, is to strengthen and to unite the men of faith in active mission - hands on mission - while providing a platform for evangelistic zeal and an opportunity to contribute time, talent and money to those who are less fortunate.

What a joy and privilege it is to be the president of North Carolina's United Methodist Men. I am so pleased that God called me into this particular service. It has meant so much to me. I am pleased with - and proud of - the men of this Conference and what they have accomplished as individual units and what has been collectively accomplished as United Methodist Men of the NC Conference.

Last June, shortly after our last Annual Conference, we joined the men and the Boy Scouts of the SEJ's seventeen Annual Conferences at Lake Junaluska for United Methodist Men's Convo 87. an attendance award was given to the conference with the largest number of men attending. The 1987 award was presented to the NC Conference. We won! There were over seventy of us present at that glorious gathering in those magnificent surroundings. We couldn't even fit into the room they assigned us.

This past April, North Carolina's United Methodist Men shared a "mountain top" experience during our weekend retreat. Our theme was, "Uniting Men in Christ". Tommy Tyson preached, Reggie Ponder led us in three separate teaching sessions, Belton Joyner offered us "brisk" Bible studies, Allen Norris guided us through a moving "afterglow" service, a sermon on discipleship, by the conference president, challenged the men to higher levels of Christian service. We prayed, we shared a warm fellowship, we worshipped together, and we sang and sang and sang. Only a few of our pastors shared with us in this meaningful experience and we will pray for a better representation next time around; we pray for the support of all the district superintendents. All those who attended were blessed with a spirit filled fellowship; we parted with tear filled eyes. I eagerly await our next coming together. In April 1989 we will do it again! One more time! You'll come.

Next weekend the men of the SEJ will meet at Lake Junaluska for Convo 88 and the Second Annual Asbury Scouting Fellowship. There is still time to register and participate. (I have room for three in my car - leaving Durham Friday morning June 24th.) Next July 1989 at Purdue University we will convene the First (ever) International Congress of United Methodist Men. 7,000 men from across the nation and around the world will celebrate our common faith in the saving grace of Jesus Christ. Our Conference promotional chairman, Riley Hamilton, is already at work on registrations - and the men are responding.

The 1988 General Conference implemented significant changes in the Discipline that effect United Methodist Men. I am pleased to announce that the former Section on United Methodist Men is now The Division of United Methodist Men of the General Board of Discipleship. We now have equal status, at least in name, with United Methodist Women. The 1988 Discipline will mandate a unit of United Methodist Men in every local church; it will read there shall be in place of there may be. The jurisdictional presidents, elected to lead the United Methodist Men in our five geographic jurisdictions will be automatically seated on the General Board of Discipleship.

On the conference level we are helping to build a dream. We are, as an organization, raising money to build a chapel for the mentally retarded at the O'Berry Center in Goldsboro. We will soon ask our men to financially support a conference-wide "Bishop's Award of Excellence Dinner" for our Boy Scouts. We have pledged, as an organization, to support the scouting ministry of The United Methodist Church. The Conference Board of Laity has endorsed Arvell Heafner as our first Conference Prayer Advocate. Cliff Shoaf, our staff support, continues to provide yeoman service as we try to expand the ministries of men. I thank Rudy Hillman (vice-president), Russell Taylor (secretary), and James Toney (treasurer) for their unfailing support as Conference officers. They have gone where I asked them to go; they have done what I asked them to do. I thank those district presidents who have willingly sponsored district events and who have shared in the success of Conference activities; I chastise those who have done neither. And, above all, I personally thank God and the NC Conference for this opportunity to be in His service. Pray for us.

Ernest J. Wendell, President

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The organized unit of United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ: to develop a creative, supportive fellowship: and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

In seeking to implement the purpose of United Methodist Women, the women of the NC Conference have had as our quadrennial theme - Visions of Shalom. For the past three years the emphasis has been on Wholeness, Community, Peace and Justice and this year which is the last year in the quadrennium, the emphasis is on Shalom is Joy and Hope.

Cognizant of who we are, who we have been, and who we can become through the grace of God, we join together in unity as we continuously seek to fulfill the purpose of United Methodist Women by ministering to human needs, advocating for the rights of women, children and minorities, defending the poor and the powerless and building community in which people are free to discover themselves, free to discover others and free to discover God.

To this end, we have participated in various programs and activities which affirms our continuity as women organized for mission, and affirms our continuous growth and renewal. Our heritage has been one of being in the forefront of movements for change, at times supporting projects initiated by others, but always being aware of the times and striving to move with them rather than to be overwhelmed by them.

There are 683 units of United Methodist Women in the NC Conference with 25,289 members as of December 31, 1987. Hopefully there are more than this. We are always seeking creative and innovative ways of increasing membership in the organization and to give opportunities to women to be involved in mission through United Methodist Women. The goal is to have 1.5 million women involved in mission through our organization by 1990. Our concern is that we approach the future joyfully, as new beings with enlivened spirits and cheerful hearts. We hope to experience that Shalom feeling of Joy and Hope. Last year, 157 units had a 10% increase in membership. We lost 5 units, but started 5 new ones and we now have 25 district members. The Fayetteville District was awarded the membership banner at our Annual Meeting in October. We are emphasizing growth in membership this year by having the following goals:

- asking each local unit to hold a specific event to increase membership,
- asking each district committee to offer a scholarship to one person from a church that does not have an organized unit in order for that person to attend the events sponsored by United Methodist Women,
- and by recruiting district members from churches without organized units.

During the year 787 mission studies were held. These studies included Suffering and the Christian Community, Crossroads in Southern Asia, Technology in Tension with Human Values, Acts of The Apostles, Peoples and Churches of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, and Toward Health and Wholeness. The Elizabeth City District won the Study Jewel again this year. They had 129 studies. The Sanford District was in second place with 95 studies and the Goldsboro District was third with 94 studies. Our women are involved in mission and interested in learning about all facets of mission. I am continuously amazed and impressed with the studies that they plan and present. We look forward to Conference Summer School when the new studies for 1989 will be introduced and taught. The new studies are: Ruth and Esther, Faces of Poverty in our Midst, and South Africa.

There were 258 of the 683 units that participated in the 1987 Reading Program. The Goldsboro District won the Reading Program Banner. They had 252 persons completing Reading Program Plans.

The local units have participated in special services of events during the year such as: Call to Prayer and Self-Denial, World Thank Offering, Pledge Services, Spiritual Enrichment Retreats, Days Apart, Prayer Breakfasts, Bible Study Groups, World Day of Prayer, May Fellowship Day, World Community Day, World Federation Day, Ecumenical Study Groups, District Annual Meetings, Conference Annual Meeting, District & Conference Spiritual Enrichment Retreats, Conference Summer School and a District Officer Training Event.

We adopted a budget for the year of $420,237.00 with the Pledge to Missions being approximately 75% of that figure or $305,513.00. There is a concerted effort being made to increase the undesignated giving of United Methodist Women. Undesignated giving for a world-wide program of mission supports the needs of women and of children. These resources can help energize our programs and financial interpretation.

One of the big emphases which began January 1, 1988 is the "Campaign for Children in the US". It is a mission involvement opportunity which we hope that every local unit in our Conference will be involved in. It is an out-growth of our century-long commitment to the needs of children. The program is being undertaken in cooperation with the Children's Defense Fund which will help provide resources for study. Areas which the "campaign" will address include: Children and Poverty, Health Care, Child Care, Education, Troubled Children, and Families and Family Support. I hope that you will be hearing from the Local Units in your churches about their involvement in this "campaign".

Our Annual Meeting was held here at Methodist College in October of 1987. There were 672 in attendance. The Elizabeth City District was recognized as having the largest delegation in attendance even though they had the longest distance to travel to the meeting. New officers were elected and that is the reason that I am giving this report rather than Margaret Saunders whom you have heard report for the past four years. I would like to take this opportunity to express my thanks and appreciation to Margaret for the four years of dedicated service and devotion that she gave to United Methodist Women and I want you to know that she is still with us on the team, she is just wearing another "hat". She now serves the organization as Christian personhood mission coordinator and has ust completed a very successful and spiritually enriching retreat at Louisburg College led by Mrs. Jean Ivey from the Georgia Conference. It is a privilege and pleasure for me to serve as the new president of the NC Conference United Methodist Women. It is a challenge and an honor that I look forward to.

At our annual meeting, we burned a candle for a total of 8 hours, 39 minutes, and 58 seconds for a total of $18,012.53 to carry on world mission work.

$4,700.00 in scholarships was presented to 11 applicants, 7 graduate students and 4 undergraduate students.

The women had the opportunity to participate in workshops in Parliamentary Procedure, Growing in the Christian Faith, Local Unit Programming, Peace with Justice, How to Discover Your Spiritual Gifts, Getting Acquainted with the United Methodist Book of Discipline, "Tough Love Commitment with Youth", Public Education, Facing our Future, Volunteers in Mission, Nuclear Waste, and Alternatives to Incarceration.

Carolyn Marshall, our National President, was the key-note speaker for the meeting and we entertained in her honor with a reception in the Student Union after the session on Friday evening.

The Under 39 Event in March here at the College brought together a large group of enthusiastic young women who are seeking to be involved in the purpose of United Methodist Women and also seeking to know themselves as young, committed Christian women. Mary Ann Minnick, our own Bishop's wife, was the speaker for the event.

Plans are now underway for our Annual Meeting to be held here in October. Our own Tibbie Roberts who is a member of Women's Division will be the speaker. We look forward to having one of our own to share with us. Tibbie has had many and varied experiences during her term of office on the Women's Division.

Three of our women attended the National Seminar which was held at Ohio State University late last summer. The theme for the international meeting was "Faithful action - Joyful Living".

Two of our women have attended the Convocation on Racism held recently on the campus of Bennett College in Greensboro.

The executive committee plus the dean and assistant dean of Conference Summer School will be attending the South Atlantic Regional School of Mission at Rust College in Holly Springs, MS next week. There are those too who will be going from this Conference to be certified as teachers for the mission studies.

There were 125 women from the NC Conference who attended the SEJUMW Quadrennial Meeting in Biloxi, MS April 7-10 where we considered the theme: Sojourners - New Visions. The NC Conference was well represented in the program planning and participation. I must not forget to tell you that Bishop Minnick was in attendance and participated in the program. We are proud to have him there with us and to be a part of that event. We traveled to Biloxi by bus, car, and plane to be there in that beautiful place beside the Gulf of Mexico. Some of the participants took advantage of being there to continue the trip to New Orleans to tour and enjoy the historic city.

This has been a year filled with all kinds of opportunities for implementing the purpose of United Methodist Women in the NC Conference. As women organized for mission, our purpose is unique and distinctive within the Church. The impact of our outreach cannot be measured. These are exciting times for the Church in our country and around the world. Let us give thanks for the leadership of United Methodist Women and the combined efforts of all the members in the NC Conference.

Jane H. Johnson, President

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH

From the Acts of the Apostles, Chapter 1: You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and to the end of the earth.

Last March I gained the opportunity to speak in my local church on the previous passage; I was instructed in the task with the familiar words, "react to that". So I did, of course I meditated on it and presented our Youth Sunday congregation with what I felt to be a very fair account of the relevance of this charge to my life and to the direction of our youth program.

I believed that our youth were doing it as well, responding to God's call and reacting to His mission; but as president of the NC Conference United Methodist Youth Fellowship, I have seen extensive evidence of the growing response of youth to the Lord in the continual broadening of our ministry. When I first became involved with the Conference Youth a year and a half ago, I was astounded to notice how essential it could be to the shaping of a teenager's lifestyle and personality; but the NC Conference, which ranks among the highest in annual youth events, makes an unbelievable difference for hundreds of young men and women each year.

The 1987-88 year has in no sense been an exception. The Conference staff are unfailingly supportive; we acknowledge especially the Reverend Cliff Shoaf, Dr. Belton Joyner, and Bishop C. P. Minnick for noticing us as a very active and important body of the Church...and there was one new staff person, too, without whom youth ministries at this point would certainly not have ever survived. Since taking the position of director of youth ministries last spring, Pam Lineberger has proven an effective guide in business meetings and group building by making herself - her knowledge and her resources - completely available to youth.

Pam first worked with the 1987 youth committee to carry through last year's summer youth events, which continued to spiritually soothe hearts and challenge minds of United Methodist Youth of this Conference. Annual Conference session saw many new and seasoned delegates as well to speak, observe, and be wary of legislation in debate - resolutions were passed on such topics as our State's nuclear waste disposal issue, the US Supreme Court nominations, and the world-wide organization Amnesty International. So interested were we that US District Attorney Sam Cumin arranged a question and answer session which gave added light for our examinations.

I have been delighted to see social concern permeate all our events. A prison inmate spoke to Senior High Workshop participants regarding the unpleasant truths of our prison system and crime in this State. We were fortunate also to have Dr. Don Chaplan, an AIDS specialist from Burlington, speak to 95 senior high weekenders last November on the disease which is rapidly approaching epidemic proportions. And with mounting concern for the Central American conflict, the 1988 youth committee was eager to choose as the New York - United Nations Study topic this year the question of US interventionism in the affairs of independent countries. Seminars designed by Deborah Hunington of the UN Church Center made the week politically informative, and mentally stimulating as well as culturally enlightening. We anticipate following through with our study of impoverished people at the 1988 ACS when we will witness a discussion on incidents of racial and religious violence in the world.

United Methodist Youth are so fortunate to be provided with knowledge of events controversial to today's society. President Theodore Roosevelt once stated that although we cannot prepare the future for our youth, we can prepare our youth for the future. Conference youth ministry is doing just that, but it goes farther and causes teenagers to deal with these problems now.

Clearly, evidence of this is our Youth Service Fund record. Ten years ago when our youth struggled for $3,000.00, there was almost no way but up for the NC Conference; and over the past decade we have progressed only in that direction. We exceeded our 1987 $22,000.00 goal by over $1,000.00. While 30% of those funds went to the National youth ministry organization to keep us one of the top five donors in the nation, 70% benefitted projects designated by the YSF Task Force in January. This year our youth's money went to aid - among many other indispensable programs - Agape Corner, a Durham shelter for the homeless; chapels for the mentally retarded in our State; Boys' Harbor in New York City; and as always our international youth workteams.

For the last several years, the youth of this Conference have surpassed their YSF goals each time by at least $1,000.00 and even one by more than $4,500.00. Youth Service Fund is proof of a very giving Conference youth program. The YSF Task Force has chosen as 1988's goal $23,000.00, a conservative goal. I have no doubt that the youth can meet it - they have inadvertently exceeded this amount in each of the last three years. I feel that this is one truly amazing fact about our youth, and this is a point which I would like to impress above all upon every lay and clergy member here. With over fifteen events each year and a strong top five ranking in the nation's YSF giving, NC's youth and adult leaders such as Pam Lineberger are certainly to be commended for such achievements. But are these achievements significant only in the clothing of comparison to efforts of others? Is there not so much more that we can do to minister to our youth and the young people of the world? Is there not the possibility that we can multiply by many times OUR efforts to prepare youth for the present and future?

Last Friday I graduated from high school; that was a relief...not so much for the fact that it signified the end of twelve years of primary and secondary school, but for the simple reason that I saw a discrepancy in my high school. I observed that most students seemed to be concerned only with doing as well as their peers. The very top students distinguished themselves by concentrating on excelling as highly as possible, not merely being better than the others. Taking this concept to an extreme could make it somewhat an ideal. That is all right - man has always been very good at setting up ideals for himself. God, taking that many steps further, is very proficient at realizing ideals. He embodied an ideal in His son Jesus Christ, our example.

Therefore, if this report can mean any one thing, let it not be words or appreciation, but allow it instead to be action, that you would all concentrate efforts on making your UMYF program as effective in witnessing to young people as it can possibly be. Youth throughout this NC Conference are responding and reacting to Christ's call to be His witnesses. A strong UMYF creates faithful disciples who can only enhance your congregations vitality.

As Paul tells us through his letter to the Philippians: If our life in Christ means anything to you, Love can persuade at all, or the Spirit that we have in common, or any tenderness and sympathy, then be united in your convictions and united in your love, with a common purpose and a common mind.

Certified Public Accountants and Consultants

To the Council on Finance and Administration
North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of The United Methodist Church
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have examined the fund balance sheet of Herb Stout, Treasurer, North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of The United Methodist Church, as of December 31, 1987, and the related statement of revenue, expense or distribution and fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of Herb Stout, Treasurer, North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of The United Methodist Church, at December 31, 1987, and the revenue, expense or distribution and fund balances for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of business:

The Conference was established to handle transactions for the operations and programs sponsored by 843 churches in Eastern North Carolina. The Conference also administers the Annual Conference and collects funds from the general and jurisdictional conferences and forwards these funds to the designated recipients. Fund transactions included within this report represent all funds administered by the treasurer, except for the Methodist Foundation, Inc.

A summary of the Conference's significant accounting policies follows:

Fund accounting:

To ensure observance of limitations placed on the use of resources available to the Conference, the accounts of the Conference are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purposes.

The assets, liabilities and fund balances of the Conference are reported in two Board-designated self-balancing fund groups:

- . Annual Budget Funds, which are represented by various annual funds, are determined by the Annual Conference, and all funds are raised by member churches.
- . Special Funds, are funds created by the Conference for special purposes.

Other accounting policies:

Real estate, major additions to real estate, and major purchases of furniture and equipment are stated at cost. The Conference does not record depreciation.

Investments are represented in the financial statements in the aggregate at the lower of cost or fair market value. Gains are recognized when securities are sold and losses are recognized either when securities are sold or the aggregate cost exceeds aggregate fair market value.

Funds for investment are combined into one investment pool for marketable securities and cash equivalents. Earnings are allocated to pension and insurance funds based on average ownership interest in the pooled funds. Earnings for all other investments are recorded in the fund owning the assets.

The expenditures for each year are financed principally by funds received from revenue from outreach ministries of the previous year. Accordingly, the revenue from outreach ministries shown in the accompanying Statement of Revenue, Expense or Distribution and Fund Balances will be available for operations budgeted for the ensuing year.

Note 2. Investments

Investment cost and market values are summarized as follows:

	Cost	Market
Annual Budget Funds, Central Fund	$ 6,217,933	$ 5,938,008

	$22,955,547	$25,470,296

Investments were sold during the year resulting in gains of $108,332. These gains are included in Supplemental Appropriations and Other Revenue in the accompanying Statement of Revenue, Expense or Distribution and Fund Balances.

Note 3. Other Assets

Other assets are represented in the financial statements at cost and consist of the following:

Annual Budget Funds, Central Funds	$ 269,092
Special Funds:
Contingency Fund	$ 100
Missions, Inc. Fund	100,949
Central Supplies Fund	11,465
Episcopal Residence Fund	77,691
Staff Parsonages Fund	751,759
Methodist Building Capital Fund	682,852
	$1,624,816
	$1,893,908

Other assets are composed of the following:

Loans to Churches	$ 269,092
Land and buildings	1,613,251
Inventory	11,465
Other	100

Note 4. Supplemental Appropriations and Other Revenue

Supplemental Appropriations and Other Revenue includes appropriations received by each fund, revenue received by each fund and gain on sale of investments.

Note 5. Pensions

In 1981 the Conference began participating in multiemployer pension plans provided by the General Board of Pensions. Two defined contribution plans provide pension benefits as follows for all service after December 31, 1981.

The Ministers Pension Plan provides monthly retirement benefits for bishops of The United Methodist Church elected by a jurisdictional conference, ministerial members of an annual conference and local pastors of The United Methodist Church under episcopal appointment or those eligible for appointment to a charge. Funding in 1987 is based on 11% of plan compensation.

The Comprehensive Protection Plan provides death, disability and educational benefits for all individuals eligible to participate in the Ministers Pension Plan and who receive plan compensation equal to the lesser of 60 percent of Conference Average Salary or 60 percent of the Denominational Average Compensation. Funding is based on 4.1% of actual plan compensation.

The Conference collects the required contributions for defined contribution plans described above from the employers of plan participants and remits all collections to the General Board of Pensions.

The plans also provide defined benefits in accordance with their predecessor plan, The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund. All plan participants as of December 31, 1981 entitled to receive benefits from The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund will receive upon retirement a monthly retirement benefit, disability, surviving spouse and surviving children benefits. Benefits are based on years of service and an approved pension rate. The pension rate is based on a percent of the Conference Average Salary. Benefits are subject to certain reductions if the participant retires before reaching age 65.

The Conference agreed to fund the prior service liability for service years prior to 1981. On January 1, 1988 the net unfunded liability based on a pension rate of $240 was approximately $14,262,005. Current expense for prior service liability was $1,529,917. The amount paid to fund the unfunded prior service liability is determined annually by the General Board of Pensions. The Conference amortizes prior service cost over a 30-year period.

Note 6. Fund Balance

Certain funds represent amounts raised and expended during the current year. As a result, these funds have no assets, liabilities or fund balance.

Note 7. Commitments

The Conference provides group health, life and dental plans for Conference employees and local church pastors and lay employees. The Conference has elected to self-insure the health and dental plans with a modified minimum premium contract. Under this program the Conference paid claims of $1,285,758 in 1987.

The Conference has entered into a standby letter of credit of $205,160 which guarantees commitments for group insurance plans. The letter of credit is secured by investments. No amounts have been advanced under this letter of credit at December 31, 1987.

To the Unitholders of United
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have examined the statements of net assets of the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. as of December 31, 1987 and 1986, and the related statements of operations and changes in net assets for the years then ended. Our examinations were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances, including confirmation of securities and real estate mortgages owned at December 31, 1987 and 1986, directly with the respective custodians.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the net assets of the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. as of December 31, 1987 and 1986, and the results of its operations and changes in its net assets for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations:

United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was established primarily as an investment pool available for organizations, churches and agencies related to the North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of the United Methodist Church. The Foundation also receives gifts and bequests on behalf of the member organizations.

A summary of the Foundation's significant accounting policies follows:

Valuation of securities:

Investments are stated at market value, based on closing prices reported on National Securities Exchanges on December 31, or at the last bid price, for over-the-counter securities.

General:

The Foundation follows the accounting practice of "equalization" whereby undistributed investment income per unit is unaffected by sales or redemptions of units.

Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Realized gains and losses from security transactions are reported on the first-in, first-out basis.

The Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Note 2. Securities Transactions

Purchases and sales of investment securities for 1987 and 1986 were as follows:

	1987	1986
Cost of purchases:
U. S. Government securities	$ 3,173,298	$ 1,407,000
Short-term investments	4,434,400	5,333,891
Other securities	3,600,762	1,040,158
	$11,208,460	$ 7,781,049
Proceeds from sales:
U. S. Government securities	$ 1,522,641	$ 126,092
Short-term investments	5,125,600	5,187,600
Other securities	3,683,340	2,367,612

Note 3. Commitments

The Foundation has entered into a standby letter of credit of $205,160 which guarantees commitments of the North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of the United Methodist Church. The letter of credit is secured by investments of the Foundation. No amounts have been advanced under this letter of credit at December 31, 1987.
