

Trinity Avenue Presbyterian Church

Trinity Avenue at Gregson Street
Durham, North Carolina

"A Friendly Community Church"

God make the door of this House wide enough to receive all who need human love, friendship, and the Father's care; and narrow enough to shut out all pride, envy and hatred. Make its threshold smooth enough for the feet of little children and rugged enough to call forth our mature powers.

Romans 1:16a

WELCOME TO MR. BENNETT: It is with very glad hearts that members of the Trinity Avenue congregation welcome the Rev. William C. Bennett to our pulpit today, for his first service with us since he was called to be our minister. Mr. Bennett will preach for us on every other Sunday until April, when his academic term at Union Seminary will be completed and he will move to Durham.

MEETING AT THE CHURCH this evening:

Pioneer and Senior young people	6:15
The Board of Deacons	7:30

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH will meet at the Church Monday afternoon, 3:30. However, all women are invited to come at 3:15 to participate in the prayer group. Mrs. Hazen Smith, Secretary of Foreign Missions, will lead the program on the subject of "Bringing the World Into the Home." Mrs. W. F. McIlwain and Mrs. F. R. Close will also take part on the program.

JANUARY MONTH OF SPECIAL EMPHASIS ON FOREIGN MISSIONS
A School of Missions, planned and directed by Mrs. Hazen Smith, will feature mission study in the various departmental programs held regularly on Sunday, and special Mid-Week Services to which your most careful attention is called. The area selected to study this year is China, which because of its timeliness and our personal interest in friends who are missionaries there, should challenge our deepest interest.

WED. JAN. 12th following the regular mid-week supper,
Dr. Paul H. Clyde will speak at 7:45 on the topic,
"Trying to Understand China."

SUN. EVENING, JAN. 16th, a sound film "My Name is Han."

WED. JAN. 19th, Dr. Clyde will speak again on the topic,
"The United States and China."

WED. JAN. 26th, Mr. and Mrs. Yien Pei Wang, students at Duke, will speak on "What Christianity Means to China."

Dr. Clyde is professor of Far Eastern History at Duke and recently has written a book, "The Far East: A History of the Impact of the West on Eastern Asia," which is available from East Campus library for any who may like to read it. Two mission-study books are available: "China, Twilight or Dawn," and "Look Again at China."
