Council on Ministries: In the absence of the Chairman, Mary Whanger, a brief report was given by Dr. Whanger. The council held a "mini-retreat" February 23, 6:00-9:00 p. m. with the theme-- Putting It Together For 1977. A Look Back and Ahead. Leaders were Maurice Ritchie, Bob Wallace and Mary Whanger. A pancake breakfast by the Junior High MYF was scheduled for March 6, money collected to go toward the Van Fund. The Lenten Luncheons are continuing each Wednesday at 12:10 p. m.

Education: Ella Glasson announced good response to the first Special Studies program in which there was something for everyone. Approximately 150 people attended. The other programs will be March 13th and 20th.

Finance: Dr. Fred Clark announced that the improvements allocated for the new parking area were almost completed.

Church Property Committee: Ken Howard, Chairman, reported that all the projects approved previously by the Board are moving along on schedule.

United Methodist Women: Pat Coman, President, reported that the Day of Prayer and Self-Denial was held Monday, March 7th, and the speaker was Dr. William Willimon of the Duke Divinity School. A special life membership pin was presented to Ella Glasson at this meeting. A motion that the YWCA be granted use of some of the Sunday School rooms in the basement of the Education Building for use in their summer Y Day Camp program was made by Pat Coman, seconded by Ed Hammond. Motion carried. Announcement of the Spring Fling, a Luncheon and Fashion Show, for March 24th was made. Fashions are by "Victoria's Closet" and a Bake Sale will also be held.

United Methodist Men: Herbert Chappell reported an attendance of fifty-six members at a very interesting meeting at which Mr. Harold Styers was the speaker.

Staff: Melba Bartholomew announced a hymn-book collection has been offered to the History and Archives Committee of the Church. Zelle Borland has arranged some of these in a new historical display cabinet outside the library door.

The Rev. Ed Smith announced that Dr. A. Purnell Bailey will preach at our church May 1-4, and during this time we will celebrate our church anniversary with a Homecoming and Dinner. With eight days on vacation, Mr. Smith made 11 home visits, 102 hospital visits, 20 conferences and 20 additional meetings.

Next Board Meeting is April 5th.

A motion for adjournment was made at 8:06 p. m., closing the shortest Board Meeting I have recorded. A request that the Minutes reflect that it was not only brief but happy-- could there be a connection?

The Meeting was dismissed with prayer by Rev. Ed Smith.
