

ADMINISTRATIVE BOARD MINUTES
Duke Memorial United Methodist Church
January 6, 1987

Presiding: Laney Funderburk, Chairman

Present: 58 Board members

Invocation: A prayer by John Wesley was read in unison by the Board members.

Minutes: The minutes of the Nov. 25 Board meeting were approved with the deletion of the words "with the senior minister's salary fully restored" from lines 2 and 3, paragraph 5.

Dr. Marcus Hobbs, Finance Committee Chairman, announced that the next Finance Committee meeting would be Tues., Jan. 13.

Dr. Ed Hammond, Staff-Parrish Relations Committee Chairman, reported that his committee would meet Tues., Jan. 13 to interview several candidates for the staff position of Director of Christian Education, which position would start in June.

Rev. Omar Fink, Council on Ministries Chairman, announced a meeting of his committee for Sat., January 10.

Ben Mixon, Bldg. and Grounds Committee Chairman, reported that Larry Cooper, formerly of the church custodial staff, had left to take another job.

Rev. Rod Mullen reported that the Terrific Tues. program on Epiphany was very good. Mr. Funderburk regreted that all Board members did not hear it.

Rev. Rick Commander announced that Wednesday noon devotional programs would begin Jan. 7 at the church.

Corrections were made to the official list of officers and committees for 1987.

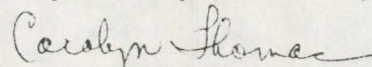

Norwood Thomas, Sr. presented two checks for $5,000 each to the church from the estates of the late Lloyd and Lillian Brown. The Finance Committee would decide how to use this money.

Dr. Ed Hammond reported that January Workshops for the Durham District would be held at Duke Memorial Monday, Jan. 12.

Laney Funderburk urged all Board members to attend the Administrative Board Dedication Service to be held Sunday, Jan. 11.

Rev. Rod Mullen dismissed the meeting with prayer.

Respectfully submitted,

Carolyn Thomas, Secretary
