Safe Sanctuaries

For the year 2009

Safe Sanctuaries are those steps taken to make our churches safe places; protecting children, youth and vulnerable persons from abuse in all its forms. A safe sanctuaries policy includes a statement of this intent as well as the procedures implemented to reduce the risk of abuse in the church including but not limited to education about abuse (reality, risk factors, prevention strategies), screening procedures for workers, safety practices, and adequate insurance.

Has the church adopted a safe sanctuaries policy and procedures?

Yes No

Where is your church in implementation of your safe sanctuaries policy and procedures?
[On a scale of 1 (just beginning) to 7 (fully implemented).]
