"A Friendly Community Church"

God make the door of this House wide enough to receive all who need human love, friendship, and the Father's care; and narrow enough to shut out all pride, envy and hatred. Make its threshold smooth enough for the feet of little children and rugged enough to call forth our mature powers.

careful to assemble at the appointed time, that all heart in all the parts of public worship, and let none be absent. 316. Let the people upon entering the Church take part in silent prayer for a blessing upon themselves, and be not detained from the House of God. 317. All who attend with reverence and godly fear, forbearing to engage in any worldly conversation, but being chiefly important that children should be with their parents, in the House of God." —From The Book of Church Order.
