Dear Albert:

I am going to be flying through Dallas on February 25th and returning on the 26th. If there is a chance that we might be able to get together for lunch on the 25th or supper on the 26th, I would be delighted to do so.

The work at the Institute of Religion is developing with great interest for me in several areas. I am finding the medical community much more responsive to my kind of probing than I had first thought possible. Also, I am beginning to be involved in some clinical relationships that are awakening some new insights for me. I would look forward to sharing these and other concerns with you if we might be able to get together.

At present, I am scheduled to be on the ground at Love Field from 11:45 a.m. to 1:10 p.m. on the 25th, and from 4:08 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. on the 26th. However, if either of those times would be a possibility for a visit with you, I could expand my ground time in Dallas either by coming earlier or leaving later.

Hoping this is a possibility, I remain,

Yours cordially and sincerely,

Thomas C. Oden
