Dear Schubert:

Gene and Loren will be coming soon for a visit. I regret that I can not join them. I would, indeed, look forward to a conversation with you about the growing edges of your thinking, a portion of which I am keeping in touch with through your book reviews and writings. It appears that the earliest Edrita and I will be in Dallas will be in mid June for a meeting of the Southwest Christian Faculty Conference. We will look forward to seeing you then if you are there.

By the way, I still have two or three books which I have been delinquent in sending in reviews to the Perkins Journal. Would you still like to have these?

Yours cordially and sincerely,

Thomas C. Oden
