Dr. Frank Adelman
Bass Building
Enid, Okla.

Dear Frank,

Here is the resume you requested on my credentials and background (you may wish to omit some portions of the following).

Dr. Oden received his Ph.D. from Yale University. He is currently serving as Associate Professor in the Graduate Seminary of Phillips University in the fields of Pastoral Counseling and Moral Theology. He is an affiliate member of the American Association of Marriage Counselors, and teaches marriage counseling in the Seminary. Prior to coming to Enid he taught for two years at Southern Methodist University, Perkins School of Theology in the areas of theology and pastoral counseling. A native of this state, he attained Phi Beta Kappa honors at the University of Oklahoma, and has received three graduate degrees subsequent to his work there. These include a Bachelor of Divinity from S.M.U. and a Master of Arts from Yale University. He is a member of the National Conference on Clinical Pastoral Education, American Society of Christian Social Ethics, and the Association of Professors of Pastoral Care.

Take whatever you wish out of this if it is too long.

I have enjoyed greatly my association with you. I would like to continue our association, provided you feel my services are useful in your setting and for the community.

Sincerely,

Thomas C. Oden
