Rev. Wm. Summerscales
United Presbyterian Board of Chr. Education
Witherspoon Building
Philadelphia 7, Pa.

Dear Mr. Summerscales,

I regret that a prior engagement on Friday November 16 would prevent me from being able to be at the Consultation on the Lay Apostolate on time, and the regular somewhat uncancelable Monday morning responsibilities would probably involve my missing the closing Monday session.

Under these circumstances you may wish to issue an invitation to someone else.

However, upon checking plane schedules, I find that I could be in Dallas from 8:31 AM Saturday to 10:20 PM Sunday, and if you would wish for me to attend to that extent, I would be most pleased to accept your invitation.

Enclosed, along with the form you sent, is a copy of one of several study papers on the laity in renewal which I edited for The Methodist Student Movement this summer, which I thought perhaps might interest you.

Cordially,

Thomas C. Ogen

MEMBERSHIP MEETINGS

These set-up meetings are to further introduce the plans to the membership. Much more, these meetings will help by getting the program "off the ground". By their nature the sessions should be attended by at least 10 % of the resident membership of the participating congregations. To facilitate this attendance, 22 meetings have been spread throughout the state across a 13-day period.

Participation Costs

Each church will share the cost by contributing 60¢ per resident member. However, there is a maximum of $600.00. This pro rate participation will make the program equitable.
