Dear Professor Pokorny,

Thank you so much for your letter -- of some months ago! I am sorry I have not responded sooner. You were very kind to mention the Elliott Prize.

I have just returned from Italy, France, and Spain. I was able to see a number of our manuscripts containing Carolingian baptismal expositions, and some I had not included in my inventory in my article. I hope to publish a revised list in my forthcoming book on baptismal instruction under the Carolingians.

I must thank you again for the help you have been to me regarding the manuscripts. If I can be of any assistance to you, please let me know. I enclose a brief list of some of the most interesting manuscripts I have just seen, for which I now have my own notes or microfilm, in case you have any questions concerning them I could perhaps answer, or any comments of your own to make.
