Dear Price,

This is simply to acknowledge your letter and to thank you once again for your strong and sympathetic letter of recommendation in my behalf.

I would very much appreciate it if you kept the letter on file, which you or your successor could send out. Also, I would be very grateful to have a copy myself addressed "to whom it may concern," even though I will probably just lock it away in my files. I will encourage prospective employers to write directly to you (or your office) for a reference, because, I agree, a personal letter from you is far more effective.

Again, my sincere thanks.

Warm regards,

Susan
