Dear David,

The Medieval Association of the Pacific, of which I am a member, is holding its annual meeting this year in conjunction with the Medieval Academy, of which I am also a member, at UC Berkeley, April 7-9. I would like to know if I could ask Caltech to pay my expenses to attend this joint meeting. It is important to me because one of the sessions is on the liturgical background to the medieval office and will bring in people currently active in my same field of specialty.

I realize that this is the second meeting for which I have asked funds, but this conference should be considerably less expensive, and will probably be my last before leaving Caltech. ($111.00 round trip flight plus $60.00 for two nights lodging plus airport transportation and parking, it should be approx. $200.00 total). If this is possible, I would appreciate it very much.

Sincerely,

Susan Keefe
