

ALTAR GUILD MINUTES

November 17, 1987

Chairman, Minnie Mae Franklin, called the meeting to order at 10:00.

Doris Bridges gave a Thanksgiving devotional and closed with a prayer.

The minutes were read. Minnie Mae noted that 9 children, excluding the Wrights, took acolyte training. The minutes were accepted.

Minnie Mae spoke a word of thanks. Polly Farned has joined the Altar Guild.

Gloria Johnson will place a cornucopia in the northex for this month. Sarah McCracken shared plans for the "Hanging of the Greens" Dec. 5th. The Altar Guild will put up the garlands and candle bar. Poinsettias will be arranged by Dec. 13th.

Devotionals will begin on 4th Wednesday. Because we have no hostess people will bring their lunches.

Thanksgiving Eve services will be held at Duke Memorial this year.

On Dec. 5th the Joy and Bethany classes will decorate the Christmas trees. The acolytes will put out the crèche. Pat Coman will be in charge of Whitford Hall decorations. Grace Cooke will decorate the library.

- 2:00 - 3:00 decorate
- 3:00 - 3:30 sing in Sanctuary
- 3:30 - 4:00 reception with cookies and punch

Communion services at 5:00 on Christmas Eve.

Minnie Mae asked members to bring tissue paper to pack away decorations.

Anne Yarley said that she would ^{supervise} ~~surprise~~ the acolytes in setting up the crèche. The crèche will be on the northex table each Sunday in December.

Laura Cleaves will be chairman of the Altar Guild for the next two years. She passed out the new worker list.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:30.

Respectfully submitted,

Para Drake, Substitute sec.

Minnie Mae Franklin, Chairman
Minnie Mae Franklin