THE PRESBYTERIAN HOME APRIL

Mrs. Garrison Marks 99th Year

Over 25 centuries of living were represented at a birth-day party held at the Presbyterian Home on Monday, Sept. 30.

Those honored included all members of the home having birthdays in August and September.

Sisters Honored

Especially honored were Mrs. Hallie Garrison, Mrs. Rosalie Summers and Mrs. Mayme Yeargan. Their combined ages total 273 years, with Mrs. Garrison completing her 99th year. The three women are sisters and all residents of the home.

For a number of years Mrs. Duncan McIntyre has brought great happiness to residents of the home by supplying a seasonal birthday cake, complete with candles, and other goodies for these older people. Mrs. McIntyre is a busy homemaker who has a one-year-old son.

The three sisters, (who were particularly honored), are

HISTORY OF HALLIE POPE BIBLE CLASS

When history is to be recorded, facts are necessary. Unfortunately, for this class, early records were not kept, and what is written here may not be accurate, but it is written in good faith, and is subject to correction.

In March 1894, Rev. L. B. Turnbull, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Durham, led the way in opening a Mission in North Central Durham, known as Pearl Cotton Mill Community.

A Chapel was built on the edge of Mill property and dedicated in 1895.

A Parochial school was maintained by this Mission; one of its teachers being Miss Hallie Pope. She also did work as the Pastors Aid. She personally taught many people the art of sewing, as well as the value of good housekeeping, proving herself the good genius of that community through many struggling, discouraging years.

This Chapel was re-organized December 13, 1902 as The Second Presbyterian Church.

In July 1905 Miss Hallie Pope was sent as a delegate from this church to the young Peoples' Missionary Conference in Asheville, North Carolina.

Through trying and disheartening years the church struggled and finally on May 16, 1921, it was organized as Trinity Avenue Presbyterian Church.

In the meantime Miss Hallie Pope had married W. L. Cadwalendar, and in 1916-17 she organized the church women. There were 15-20 members studying Missions; giving most generously and promoting a spirit of love and co-operation. It is most interesting that all of them would serve in any capacity, and would lead in prayer.

On October 16, 1921, Rev. George L. Cooper came to be Pastor of this Church. His salary was $1500.00 per year - $900 paid by First Church; the remainder by Home Missions. The Church then stood in about the middle of the block, now occupied by the present structure, on the South side.

There were forty members. Mrs. Cadwalendar assisted the Pastor in various Ministries, such as caring for the sick and needy. It has been said that she not only prepared food and washed dishes, but that many a wash was hung on a line for a person who was ill, and many hours of nursing care cheerfully given. She was a steady prop for the New Pastor, and also, served as the efficient Treasurer of the church.

In 1922 work was begun among the young children of the community. All denominations participating.

Mrs. Cadwalendar was advisor to the group and they met in the Lyceum building which stood where the present Y.M.C.A. now stands. They were known as the Christian Endeavor group and it functioned for two years. They often had suppers and box parties, and the fun was always interspersed with Missionary programs.

In 1923 there was a need for carpet strips to be placed on the misles of the church. Mrs. Cadwalendar made and sold brunswick stew to help buy the carpet.

History should include also that another dedicated member, Miss Lillie Hunt (now Mrs. A. J. Fargo) served as Secretary to the Women's group in that year, and was instrumental in securing the first Piano for the Church. This same Piano now being used in the Junior Chapel of the present Church.

In January, 1924 a small group from the First Presbyterian Church felt the call to come to the aid of Mr. Cooper in carrying on God's Work in this area. Mr. L. D. Kirkland Sr., Mr. P. A. Sloan Sr, Mr. E. A. Williamson, Mr. Dallas Pickard and Dr. Henry C. Carr were leaders of this forward moving group.

Mr. W. L. Cadwalendar died in July 1933. In that year and 1934, Mrs. Cadwalendar became chairman of The Auxiliary Home Circle Ministering constantly to the shut in and aged members.

Mrs. Cadwalendar later married one of her teenage sweethearts, Mr. Hal Garrison, in 1938. They lived for awhile in his home in Charlotte; later going to The Presbyterian Home in High Point, where he died in Jan. of this year (1961). At the present time she is re-q6 cuperating from a broken hip. She was 92 in August and continues to be an inspiration to all with whom she comes in contact.

* When our church celebrated its twenty second Anniversary May 16, 1946 Mrs. Hallie Pope Cadwalendar Garrison was present, and recognized and honored as a loyal, efficient leader of Trinity Avenue Presbyterian Church. The foregoing is a correct record of events, and justifies the existence of the Hallie Pope, Bible Class. Years back "Miss Hallie" taught a girls class which was called The Philathea Class, and was probably started as early as 1898. Certainly through out all those early years and on until probably 1935, she taught Sunday School in this particular church. The record is not clear as to Who named this class The Hallie Pope Class, but the unselfish record of her life is clear as to why it was so named. She set a marvelous example for any class member to live up to. It behooves us to do our utmost. The Past Presidents Club of the Hallie Pope Bible Class was organized October 21, 1961 at a luncheon meeting in the home of Mrs. Russell N. Barringer, 3620 Dover Road in Hope Valley. The following members were present:

Mrs. B. D. Baker Mrs. R. N. Barringer Mrs. B. C. Bennett Mrs. James Edgerton Mrs. Hugh Holman

Mrs. George Kirkland Mrs. L. J. Kirkland Mrs. C. C. White

Mrs. George White

Mrs. Bordman C. Bennett, mother of our minister, Dr. William Crompton Bennett, was invited to become an honorary member of the club.

In the year 1951-1952 I was given the privilege of being President of The Hallie Pope Bible Class, Swannie Lloyd, Secretary, Hommersell Harris, Treas. and Helen King and Lucille Barbour, Teachers.

This was the last year in the little room next to the Pulpit, although it was a very exciting year. Each member was very interested in the building project. They voted to co-operate with the Sunday School by increasing the contributions on Sunday mornings with excess amount to be used for the building fund. Also were planning and getting the furniture for the Ladies Parlor.

The Class voted to do a project each month for some outside cause. The most outstanding was the decision to clothe Mary Ann Byrd a little 10 year old blind girl who was entering the Blind School in Raleigh. The new clothing made Mary Ann very happy and her parents very grateful, but I am sure it meant more to each one of us, as Waldo Emerson wrote, Happiness is a perfume you cannot pour on others without getting a few drops on yourself.

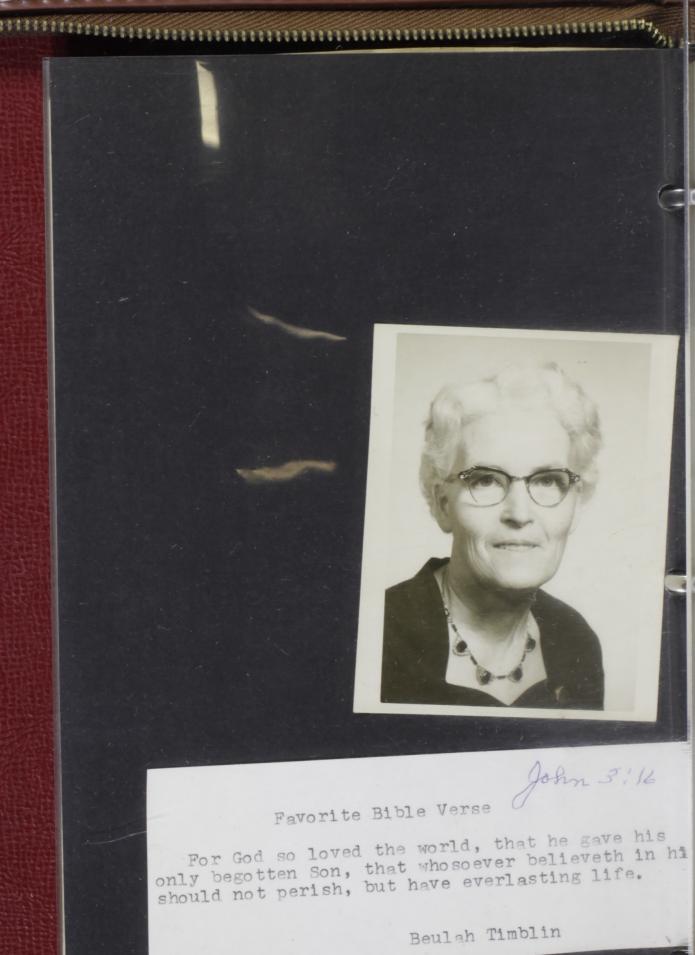

Respectfully submitted,

Manual Commission of the Commi

As President of the Hallie Pope Class in the late thirties, no records were kept; but after all these years, I still remember the wonderful cooperation I received from the members.

There were approximately twenty members, and each member did her part in whatever came up.

A Class meeting was held once a month, and at Christmas, a party was held and our husbands and friends were invited.

Mrs. J. B. Ramsay was the Teacher, and the Rev. George Matthis was Pastor.

Lola White (Mrs. C. C. J.)

"No for others just what you want them to do for you."

Once in a while nearly everyone gets an irresistible urge to write about something. This urge I have never had, but having been President of the Hallie Pope Bible Class, I am duly required to make a report on my year as President.

I remember making a talk on Mistakes, criticisms and Disappointments, stressing the fact that we all make mistakes and are criticized, but the thing to remember is "Life is too short to be Little." The same holds true today.

Looking back over the years I realize that though we fell short of many of the things we wished to do, we did make a few contributions to the Church and the community. In the year 1949-1950 the Class gave $40.00 to the Nelsons, $25.00 for a coffee urn, $5.00 to African Mission work, sent fruit and personal items to the County Home, held a Christmas party, sent flowers to many of our members and took part in various functions of the Church.

Approximately twenty members were present at each monthly class meeting - a fact I mention to show that the members cooperated in all phases of the work of the Class, making the presidency a privilege and a pleasure.

Respectfully submitted,

Lola W. White,

1949- 50 President.

1959 0701 Beulah W. Crabtree (Mrs. Lawrence)

My term as President of the Hallie Pope Bible Class began on January 4, 1959. With the united help of the Class members and with Mrs. (E. J.) Doris Massengill as Vice-President, Mrs. (C. C.) Lola White as Secretary and Mrs. (W.M.) Audry Tunstall as Treasurer, some interesting and rewarding work was experienced by me.

Our Class met each Sunday morning with the Adult Department for the opening devotional program. This was followed by the adjournment to the Church Parlor and here the lesson was taught by one of our able teachers. They were Miss Elizabeth Morris, Mr. Luther Barbour, and Mr. R. J. Massengill. Some of the topics discussed in 1959 were: Jesus Calls Forth Faith, Jesus on the Cross, the Rise of David, Vanity or Victory and God's concern for All People.

Very few Class meetings were held during this year, but a goal was set by the President to visit in every home and to remember the birthday of each member with a card.

A picnic was enjoyed at the Barfield Center in May and the annual Christmas Party, with husbands as guests helped add to the pleasure of these parties.

Our Class selected and purchased a picture of the Bruton Parish Church at Williamsburg, Virginia, in memory of Mrs. (L. H.) Lucille Barbour, a former member of the Class and a beloved teacher of the Class and of all who ever heard her. Mrs. Barbour died March 1, 1958.

My presidency of the Hallie Pope Class taught me many, many things. One of the greatest was "To know a person is to love him."

CLASS HISTORY OF 1964

Both humble and proud at being chosen leader for the Hallie Pope Class for the year 1964, I honestly did try to make it a happy and successful year for the class members. Only through the cooperation of each one and the excellent help of my officers did we accomplish the following report. To each go my thanks.

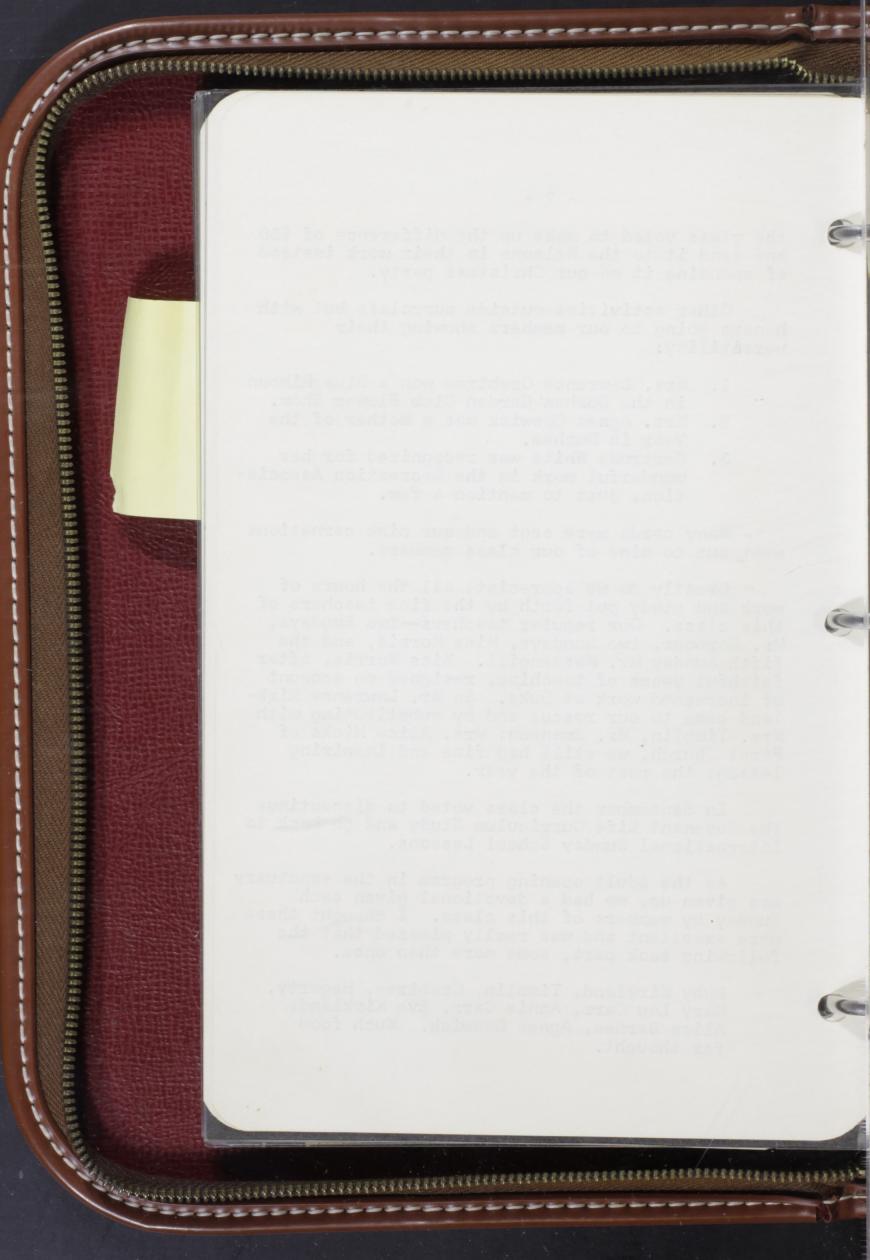

- 1. Eve Kirkland, Vice President, who presided for me many times graciously and efficiently.
- 2. Marion Edgerton, my invaluable secretary.
- 3. Ruby Claire Barnes, my good efficient treasurer.
- 4. Clara Belle Mack, experienced social worker who took over as our project chairman. She found Barry Pendergrast, a teenager, who was very ill, needed much nursing, medicine, and food. We gave $25 on two occasions, then $50 toward his funeral expenses and $5 for flowers. We had several appreciative notes from his mother. Mrs. Mack did a fine job in this work, and we owe her our gratitude for helping this boy.

Other gifts were $10 to Mrs. Wray, $25 to Mrs. Ida Dawson, an ill and elderly member of our church, for medicine. Mrs. Mary Lou Carr purchased and sent a lovely gown to Mrs. Hallie Pope Garrison for Christmas, and we sent her a check for $10 as usual on Mothers Day.

We sent $5 to Membership of St. Barnabas.
Mrs. Bennett bought and delivered books to our teachers for Christmas presents amounting to $15.

We presented Dr. Bennett with 5 film packs to take with him on his trip to The Holy Land.

Our total collection for the year was $554.06. Our Birthday Collection amounted to $42.50, and

The Hallie Pope Bible Class met in the Church Parlor the first two Sundays in January to continue its normal pattern of study of International Bible Lessons for christian teachings, then the tragic fire struck our educational building on Saturday, January 15, 1966. On Sunday, January 23, all the Sunday School Departments met in the Sanctuary for prayer and planning. Dr. William C. Bennett and Mr. Wade Johnson, Sunday School Superintendent, had charge. Dr. Bennett led the devotion and made announcements. Mrs. V. E. Bell had charge of music and Mr. Johnson assigned temporary meeting places for all departments.

The George Watts, George Matthis, and the Hallie Pope Classes were to meet together in the Sanctuary. Mrs. J. Frank Jarman, George Matthis Class President; Mr. Thomas Patrick, George Watts Class President and Mrs. Daniel T. Carr, Hallie Pope Class President the George Watts Class for coffee on December 18.

On December 15, 1966, thirty eight Hallie Pope Class Members enjoyed a beautiful holiday luncheon given by the President at Hope Valley Country Club. At this time officers for the year 1967 were announced.

It was my privilege to be President of the Hallie Pope Class for the year 1967.

Althought we were without a regular teacher, we were most fortunate in haveing many excellent one to teach through September. From October & through December, Dr. Daniel T. Cagle was the teacher for the Class.

We were very happy to add to our Class membership one new member, Mrs. Hazel Knott.

Cards and flowers were sent to our hospitalized members. Love gifets throughout the year were sent to Mrs. Wray, Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Martin.

On November 30, 1967, sixty-eight Class members, husbands and friends enjoyed a beautiful hoilday dinner in the Church dinig halls. This dinner was well planned by Mrs. Gertrude White, Mrs. Ruth Knott, and Mrs. Beulah Crabtree.

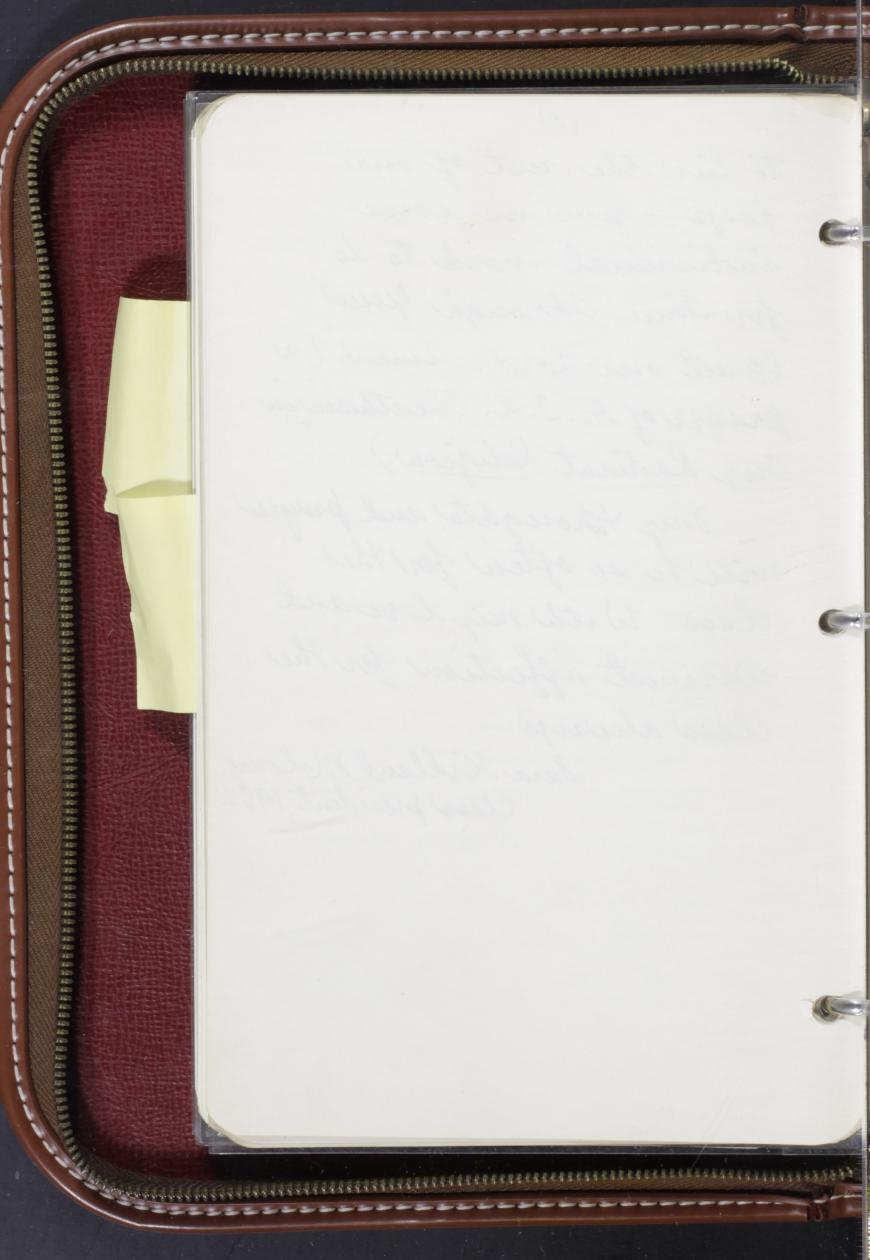

To each Officer and to every member I want to express my appreciation for your co-eperation and thoughtfulness during this year. I would like to close this year's work as I opened it with these words from the Nineteenth Psalm:

"The Lors is my light and my salvation, Whom shall I fear.
The Lord is the strength of my life of What shall I be afrain?

Class History 1968-The class had three lovely class parties - in the homes of Mrs. agnes goswick mrs. Eve Kirkland, and Mrs. Mary Black, The class was invited to a supper by the men's class at the Daw Carro farm. mrs. Oscar Bowden surited the class to her home for a Christmas coffee hour. The class remembered: I the sick members (also in ease of a sick person or a death in a member's family with visite, cardo, food, flowers, lettere; 21 mrs. Hallie Pope Garrison Hirough the year with gifts, cards, letters; 3) mrs. Wray with a love gift of money at Thanksgiving and at Christmas: 4) mrs. Wray and Mrs. Bell at Thanksgiving each with a lovely basket filled with gifts to be opened one each day as long as they lasted; 5) at Christmas, Mrs. D. J. Smith was given a love gift of money. The class decided to not have a class party or luncheon during Christmas. The class was blessed with. very fine Sunday School teachersmrs. Jemblin, Mr. Long, Mr. massengill, Mr. Jarman, Mr. Sevanson, Mrs. Brvins, Mr. Barbour. In loving memory of my mother, Mrs. Olis D. Our membership consisted of approximately fortyfive members with average attendance of twentytwo. We studied the Uniform Lessons Cooperative Series.

Our project this year was a gift to the High Point Home for $150.00 in the form of a memorial to Mrs. Hallie Pope Garrison. We contributed $5.00 to the Fellowship of Saint Barnabus, also.

Mr. Barbour was honored at a dinner in November by the Hallie Pope Class, the George Watts Class and the George Mathis Class. He was presented a love gift of $50.00 by our class.

We remembered in special ways with love gifts Mrs. Hallie Pope Garrison, Mrs. F. M. Wray, and Mrs. V. E. Bell. Cards and flowers were sent to class members who were ill.

We lost by death one of our members, Mrs. A. J. Fargo; also Mrs. Hallie Pope Garrison, for whom our class is named.

 The Women of Trinity Avenue Presbyterian Church awarded a life membership to Annie Carr (Mrs. Daniel T.) for being a faithful steward of her time, talents and possessions. She has served as President of the Women of the Church, and has been active in the religious, cultural and civic developments of Durham. Our class contributed $25.00 to Presbyterian Point for a vacation for an underprivileged child. We remembered Mrs. Wray with love gifts and sent flowers to hospitalized members. Our class enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel T. Carr at their farm where we were served a delicious meal of fish and chicken. We lost by death two of our members: Mrs. E. M. We continued our study of the book of Mark.

Mrs. Noell, our pianist, was ill this year. Mrs. Henry Carr, Mrs. Frank Winstead, Mrs. Robert Singdahlson, and Ms. Cindy Long graciously enhanced our hymns by their talents.

A motion was made and seconded that we dispense with collecting money for birthdays of class members.

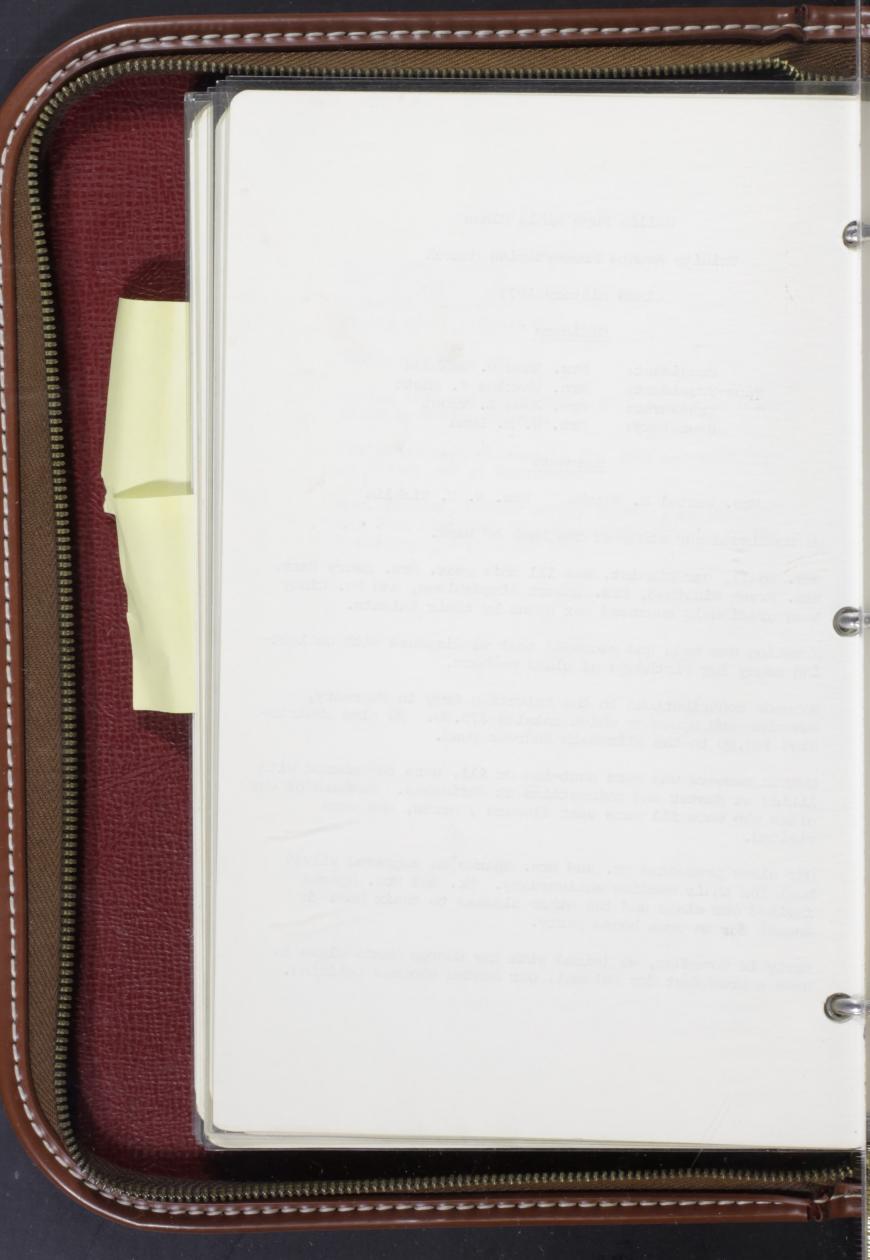

We made contributions to the Salvation Army in February, November and December which totaled $75.00. We also contributed $60.00 to the Elizabeth Andrews Fund.

Church members who were shut-ins or ill, were remembered with lilies at Easter and poinsettias at Christmas. Members of our class who were ill were sent flowers, cards, and were visited.

Our class presented Mr. and Mrs. Sparks an engraved silver bowl for their wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Sparks invited our class and two other classes to their home in August for an open house party.

Early in November, we joined with the George Watts Class to have a breakfast for Malachi, our sexton who was retiring.

Mrs. Charles Knott invited The Hallie Pope Class to her home November 30 for a Christmas luncheon. We thoroughly enjoyed Ruth's hospitality—the food was superb—but the fact that our class could be together and especially at this time of the year, eclipsed mundane matters. Then, too, we brough individual Christmas boxes for children at Butner that contained $1.00 in small change. Previously, our class had drawn names to exchange gifts during this Holiday Season. Our minister, Dr. William Crompton Bennett lwas also with us, and we presented him with a tie.
