CALL TO WORSHIP

ADORATION

CONFESSION (Unison)

"Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God."
Almighty and most merciful Father; We have erred and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And their is no health in us. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare Thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore Thou those who are penitent; According to Thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life; To the glory of Thy holy name. Amen.

Thanksgiving (Unison)

Almighty God, Father of all mercies; We Thine unworthy servants; Do give Thee most humble and hearty thanks;
For all Thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all men. We bless Thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; But above all for Thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; For the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech Thee, give us that due sense of all Thy mercies; That our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; And that we show forth Thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; By giving up ourselves to Thy service; And by walking before Thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; Through Jesus Christ our Lord; To whom, with Thee and the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory; World without end. Amen.

SEMINARY SUNDAY

Due to the decline in enrollment in the nation's theological seminaries and the need to challenge congregations and their youth to consider seriously the need of the Church for ministers, our Union Theological Seminary is conducting a pilot program in this Presbytery, sending to each church on Sunday, October 8, either a professor or student or both, to present the cause of the Christian ministry. We are happy to have a professor who has preached for us previously, Dr. Donald G. Miller. Dr. Miller is widely known for his many books in the field of Biblical study. We look forward to hearing him next week.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR BOY SCOUT TROOP 412 and their leaders for winning first place honors at Fort Bragg last week. These 40-50 boys were in competition with some 5000 others! Their first place is no small accomplishment.

ON TUESDAY EVENING OF LAST WEEK, Mr. Campbell spoke to the First Presbyterian Church School Leaders. His topic was "A Theology for Christian Education." He will teach each night this week in the Raleigh Presbyterian Leadership School. His course title is "Contemporary Literature and The Christian Faith."

WE ARE HAPPY TO WELCOME INTO THE FELLOWSHIP OF TRINITY AVE.

HYMN FOR OCTOBER

"We Are Living, We Are Dwelling"

Of all the hymns in our Hymnal, this is one of the most appropriate in view of our times. It IS history driven to its outer limits. We are no longer asking "What are the events now taking place?" but "What is the meaning of these events?"

The greatest men of all times have been the spiritual leaders who believed in and visualized a new order emerging out of ruin and chaos by the GRACE OF GOD. These men were convinced that life, not death, had the final word because God transcends history; hence, "We are living, we are dwelling in a grand and awful time." The original meaning of awful is 'awe-ful' and unless we return to the spirit of awe and reverence before the true, the holy, the perfect, the divine, the human race can easily sink to a merely animalistic state. This is a truly great and fitting hymn for these moving days of world crisis and should be sung frequently.

Don't let the physical appearance of this hymn frighten you from trying to learn it. The first, second and fourth lines are identical in tune. The third line (phrase in musical terminology) is different. This old Welsh melody is dignified and flowing. The blending of melody and lyrics is a perfect union.

As the Choir sings this hymn for the Offertory, turn in your hymnals and become acquainted with its lines, as you will be singing "We are living, we are dwelling in a grand and awful time" next week.

AN ORGANIZATION MEETING OF OUR CUB SCOUT PACK was held this week. Cubmaster: Mr. Marion L. Long.

Den Mothers: Mrs. Charles E. Johnson, Mrs. W. O. Autry. Assistant: Mrs. S. K. Heminger.

Sharing Our Heritage

1961 RALLY DAY PROGRAM

Leader: O God, our Father, who art more ready to hear than we to ask, whose love for us is beyond our understandings:

Congregation: We worship and adore thee.

Leader: We have turned from thy ways, wasting thy gifts and forgetting The Commandments.

Congregation: Forgive us, O Lord.

Leader: We have neglected to do justly, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with our God:

Congregation: Forgive us, O Lord.

Leader: For thy great forgiving love, revealed to us in Christ Jesus, our Lord:

Congregation: We give thee thanks and praise.

Leader: For our ancestors in Christ who have handed down to us our heritage of faith:

Congregation: We give thee thanks and praise.

Leader: For the opportunity to serve thee in this time and in this place:

Congregation: We give thee thanks and praise.

Leader: For our faith and trust in thee:

Congregation: We pray, O Lord.

Leader: For the wisdom to know thy will, the desire to obey it, and the grace to fulfill it:

Congregation: We pray, O Lord.

Leader: For all who have special responsibilities in thy church, our officers, teachers, secretaries, pianists, and helpers:

Congregation: We pray, O Lord.

Leader: For all who have special responsibilities in our world for promoting peace and understanding and brotherhood.

Congregation: We pray, O Lord.

Leader: For all with special needs and heavy burdens:

Congregation: We pray, O Lord.

All: Our Father we dedicate ourselves anew to the task of sharing our heritage. Make us aware of the seriousness of our task. Strengthen us in our determination. Open our hearts, our minds, our lives to thy will, that our single purpose may be to bring all nations to thee. Amen.

Our offering this morning will be used by the Board of Christian Education for two very worthy causes in Christian education. One of these is the financial assistance given to candidates for the ministry and mission service and the other is the new Covenant Life Curriculum. As we give our money, we earnestly pray for God's guidance to those leaders who are working on this. Our church will be greatly helped through it, and our lives will be greatly enriched.

One hundred years ago the first General Assembly, recognizing the press as "one of the most powerful agencies . . . for influencing, either for good or evil, the minds of men," established an agency for "publishing and circulating religious books and literature . . ."

Through the years additional responsibilities were given the board: Higher Education, Christian Teaching, Men's Work, Christian Action.

The support and confidence of the church made each advance possible.

The future holds many challenges for greater service by your Board of Christian Education—the Covenant Life Curriculum, expansion in higher education, and the securing of more ministers and missionaries. As it faces the future the board covets your continued prayers and unfailing support.

SHARE YOUR HERITAGE

SHARE YOUR HERITAGE

What a wonderful inheritance I have! A family tree bearing noble fruit; an old, invaluable document; many inspired works of art; and a trustworthy message of transforming power. All these are mine for I am a Christian, a child of God.

My lineage includes the Hebrew patriarchs and prophets who received the revelation of God; the courageous Apostles and martyrs of the early church; the great reformers and preachers of the Christian era.

I have a Bible, God's living revelation of himself to mankind.

Handel's Messiah and da Vinci's "Last Supper" are mine. For they are towering expressions of the kind of devotion that pulses through my being.

And I know pardon and renewal because of the good news of Christ, who lived, died, and rose again that the world might have a Saviour.

Yes, this is my heritage—but dare I keep it? It has been given me, not to hoard, but to share with others. "Let your light so shine before men," Jesus said, that they will give glory to God. Unless my heritage becomes my mission, I fail a darkened world.

Many "sharing-ways" are open to me. Some Christians teach in the church school; some act as advisers for youth groups. Some serve as church officers, and some lead circle studies. Many take the spirit of our forefathers into their day-to-day situations, bringing much-needed love and justice to our offices, factories, schools and homes. All who give themselves and their substance to the mission of Christ share their Christian heritage.

And—undergirding their endeavors at every turn—the Board of Christian Education!

Through its literature and program, children, youth, and adults are nourished in the faith. Teachers are trained and equipped to better fulfill their responsibilities.

Youth are counseled as they seek the meaning of life and their place in it. Scholarships are going to 325 young people studying to become ministers, missionaries, and directors of Christian education.

The men of the church are rallied to the church's mission.

The plans of our colleges and seminaries are coordinated, and a Presbyterian ministry to students thrives on 250 campuses.

All of us who struggle against prejudice, hate, dishonesty, squalor, and the other evils that beset society receive stimulation and encouragement.

These are just some of the many ways the Board of Christian Education helps us share our heritage. Its Bible lessons, devotional aids, religious books and posters carry on a quiet ministry right in our midst day after day, week after week. Such unflinching service calls us to give the board our full support.

ADORATION

CONFESSION

"Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God"
Most holy and merciful Father; We acknowledge and confess before Thee; Our sinful nature prone to evil and slothful in good; And all our shortcomings and offenses. Thou alone knowest how often we have sinned; In wandering from Thy ways; In wasting Thy gifts; In forgetting Thy love. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us; Who are ashamed and sorry for all wherein we have displeased Thee. Teach us to hate our errors; Cleanse us from our secret faults;
And forgive our sins; For the sake of Thy dear Son.
And O most holy and loving Father; Help us, we beseech Thee; To live in Thy light and walk in Thy ways; According to the commandments of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
